| circa 1916 | Silverton Northern Railroad operates a rail bus between Silverton and Animas Forks until 1936 and to Eureka until 1942 using a custom-made contraption | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 562 |
| January 1, 1916 | The prohibition amendment to the Colorado Constitution, ratified in the 1914 election, takes effect | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 537 |
| January 1, 1916 | Prohibition begins in Colorado; Coors survives by selling malted milk, near-beer, pottery and porcelain | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 51 |
| January 4, 1916 | Eads incorporated in Kiowa County, 302 acres | 1926 Gazeteer of Cities and Towns of Colorado, 1926 Colorado Yearbook, Colorado State Board of Immigration |
| January 7, 1916 | Westland begins publishing in Brandon | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 83 |
| January 20, 1916 | Cuchara Camps post office established in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 41 |
| January 22, 1916 | Seton post office discontinued in Baca County, name changed to Setonsburg | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 131 |
| January 22, 1916 | Setonsburg post office established in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 131 |
| January 27, 1916 | Lascar post office established in Huerfano County, formerly named Concord. | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 86 |
| January 31, 1916 | Carrizo post office discontinued in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 30 |
| February 15, 1916 | Beaver Creek post office discontinued in Arapahoe County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 18 |
| February 16, 1916 | Tuck post office established in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 143 |
| February 16, 1916 | Daily Herald ceases publishing, continues as Boulder News-Herald in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 11 |
| February 16, 1916 | Edler post office established in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 49 |
| February 17, 1916 | Boulder Morning News ceases publishing, merged with Daily Herald in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 11 |
| February 18, 1916 | Boulder News Herald begins publishing in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 11 |
| February 29, 1916 | Cherrelyn post office discontinued in Arapahoe County, located within Englewood, replaced by Station 41 of Denver | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 33 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|--|
| February 29, 1916 | New Wattenburg post office discontinued in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 105 |
| March 1916 | Rifle Reveille ceases publishing in Rifle | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 68 |
| March 15, 1916 | Wachtel post office discontinued in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 147 |
| March 20, 1916 | De Nova post office established in Washington County, formerly named Dillingham | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 43 |
| March 20, 1916 | Dillingham post office discontinued in Washington County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 45 |
| March 25, 1916 | Duer post office established in Prowers County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 47 |
| March 31, 1916 | Bryant post office discontinued in Yuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 25 |
| April 3, 1916 | Colorado City Daily Independent begins publishing in Colorado City | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 57 |
| April 6, 1916 | Mead Messenger begins publishing in Mead | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 146 |
| April 7, 1916 | Rifle Telegram ceases publishing in Rifle, continues as Rifle Telegram-Reveille | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 68 |
| April 7, 1916 | Rifle Telegram-Reveille begins publishing in Rifle | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 68 |
| April 15, 1916 | Cloudcrest post office established in Jefferson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 35 |
| April 15, 1916 | Yellowstone Creek post office established in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 155 |
| April 15, 1916 | Cochetopa post office discontinued in Saguache County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 35 |
| April 29, 1916 | Dillingham post office established in Washington County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 45 |
| May 1916 | The Lyric Opera House in Cripple Creek burns | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| May 1, 1916 | Sterling Consolidated Electric Company purchased by Central Colorado Power Company | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 21 |
| May 6, 1916 | Alkali post office established in Dolores County, establishment rescinded | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 11 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|---------------|---|---|
| May 12, 1916 | Oklarado post office established in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 107 |
| May 17, 1916 | Mayor-manager form of city government in Denver with large mayoral powers created by City Charter, Speer amendment | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| May 21, 1916 | Cahone post office established in Dolores County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 27 |
| May 25, 1916 | Wortman post office established in Lake County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 154 |
| May 27, 1916 | Ferberite post office established in Boulder County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 53 |
| May 29, 1916 | Association Camp post office established in Larimer County, converted April 30, 1966 to a rural branch of Fort Collins, now a community post office of Estes Park | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 14 |
| May 29, 1916 | Northway post office established in Prowers County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 106 |
| May 29, 1916 | Nowlinsville post office established in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 106 |
| June 1, 1916 | Farmers Exchange Bulletin begins publishing in Moffat | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 130 |
| June 13, 1916 | Waremont post office established in Pueblo County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 148 |
| June 19, 1916 | Peckham post office established in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 111 |
| June 21, 1916 | Daleroose post office established in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 42 |
| June 27, 1916 | Courier Farmer ceases publishing in Fort Collins | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 91 |
| June 30, 1916 | Laura post office discontinued in Logan County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 86 |
| June 30, 1916 | New Haven post office discontinued in Logan County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 105 |
| June 30, 1916 | Wellons post office discontinued in Lincoln County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 150 |
| July 1916 | Pikes Peak highway opens; during its first year more than 18,000 people made the trip to the summit | Municipal Facts , Vol. 14, No 3&4, March-April 1931, p. 24 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|----------------|---|--|
| July 1, 1916 | United Hydro Electric Company obtained by Central Colorado Power Company | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 21 |
| July 1, 1916 | Denver Examiner ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 37 |
| July 10, 1916 | Tungsten post office established in Boulder County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 143 |
| July 15, 1916 | Altona post office discontinued in Boulder County, moved to Niwot | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 11 |
| July 18, 1916 | Oleson post office established in Adams County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 107 |
| July 18, 1916 | Anton post office established in Washington County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 12 |
| July 18, 1916 | Dublin Bay post office established in Morgan County, no other entries, probably rescinded | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 47 |
| July 28, 1916 | Buster post office established in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 27 |
| July 28, 1916 | Alcreek post office established in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 10 |
| July 29, 1916 | Frawley post office established in Summit County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 58 |
| July 31, 1916 | Gleneath post office discontinued in El Paso County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 62 |
| July 31, 1916 | Squirrel Creek post office discontinued in El Paso County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 135 |
| July 31, 1916 | Amo post office discontinued in El Paso County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 12 |
| July 31, 1916 | Crows Roost post office discontinued in El Paso County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 41 |
| July 31, 1916 | Ellicott post office discontinued in El Paso County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 51 |
| August 3, 1916 | Dryer post office established in Jackson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 47 |
| August 5, 1916 | Yetta post office established in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 155 |
| August 8, 1916 | Grover incorporated in Weld County, 200 acres | 1926 Gazeteer of Cities and Towns of Colorado, 1926 Colorado Yearbook, Colorado State Board of Immigration |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|--|--|
| August 12, 1916 | Graft post office established in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 65 |
| August 15, 1916 | Burt post office discontinued in El Paso County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 26 |
| August 15, 1916 | Kelly post office discontinued in Logan County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 82 |
| August 15, 1916 | Larand post office discontinued in Jackson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 85 |
| August 15, 1916 | Dragoo post office discontinued in El Paso County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 47 |
| August 17, 1916 | Gotera post office established in Las Animas County, formerly named Duncan | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 64 |
| August 17, 1916 | Duncan post office discontinued in Las Animas County, name changed to Gotera | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 47 |
| August 31, 1916 | Druce post office established in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 47 |
| September 1, 1916 | The shops, construction and appliance stocks are moved to the warehouse at 2145 Blake Street | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 14 |
| September 9, 1916 | Emily Griffith Opportunity School opens in Denver | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 181 |
| September 9, 1916 | Buick post office established in Elbert County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 26 |
| September 21, 1916 | Vega Ranch post office established in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 146 |
| September 26, 1916 | Gavin post office established in Mesa County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 60 |
| September 30, 1916 | Brewster post office discontinued in Fremont County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 24 |
| September 30, 1916 | South Canon post office discontinued in Garfield County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 133 |
| October 6, 1916 | Yachita post office established in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 154 |
| October 16, 1916 | Escalante Forks post office established in Mesa County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 52 |
| October 17, 1916 | Flagler incorporated in Kit Carson County, 320 acres | 1926 Gazeteer of Cities and Towns of Colorado, 1926 Colorado Yearbook, Colorado State Board of Immigration |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|---|
| October 30, 1916 | Arlene post office established in Yuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 13 |
| October 31, 1916 | Gault post office discontinued in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 60 |
| October 31, 1916 | Williamsburgh post office discontinued in Fremont County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 153 |
| November 1916 | Fort Collins Review ceases publishing in Fort Collins | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 91 |
| November 8, 1916 | Medford Springs post office established in Bent County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 97 |
| November 14, 1916 | Edwest post office established in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 49 |
| November 30, 1916 | Fort Collins Express ceases publishing in Fort Collins, continues as Fort Collins Express-Review | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 91 |
| December 7, 1916 | Spurgin post office established in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 135 |
| December 7, 1916 | Fort Collins Express-Review begins publishing in Fort Collins | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 92 |
| December 8, 1916 | Evans Courier ceases publishing in Evans, continues as Evans Courier-Messenger | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 143 |
| December 8, 1916 | Elphis post office established in Kit Carson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 51 |
| December 12, 1916 | Junction City post office discontinued in Routt County, moved to Coalview, site later named Haybro | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 81 |
| December 12, 1916 | Coalview post office established in Routt County, moved from Junction City | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 35 |
| December 15, 1916 | Gulch post office discontinued in Pitkin County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 67 |
| December 15, 1916 | Laub post office established in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 86 |
| December 20, 1916 | Jack Rabbit post office established in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 79 |
| December 22, 1916 | Evans Courier-Messenger begins publishing in Evans | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 143 |
| December 30, 1916 | Carey post office discontinued in Kit Carson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 30 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|--|
| December 30, 1916 | Vallecito post office discontinued in La Plata County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 146 |
| February 29, 1916 | Some 4,000 attend the opening of the Flouring Mills in Holyoke in Phillips County - first annual Biscuit Day | Centennial History of Phillips County, Colorado - Those Were The Days , Phillips County Historical Society, p. 23 |
| 1917 | Iliff Independent-Press ceases publishing in Iliff, continues as Iliff Independent | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 99 |
| 1917 | Stonington News begins publishing in Stonington | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 8 |
| 1917 | Lafayette Enterprise ceases publishing in Lafayette | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 13 |
| 1917 | La Jara Enterprise ceases publishing in La Jara | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 22 |
| 1917 | Manassa Free Press ceases publishing in Manassa | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 22 |
| 1917 | Shimpo ceases publishing in Japanese in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 45 |
| 1917 | Western Graphic ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 46 |
| 1917 | Great Western begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 46 |
| 1917 | Italian Daily News begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 46 |
| 1917 | Market Review begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| 1917 | Mining American begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| 1917 | Rural Tribune begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| 1917 | Santo Times begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| 1917 | Douglas County Times ceases publishing in Castle Rock | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 53 |
| 1917 | Elbert County Democrat begins publishing in Kiowa | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 56 |
| 1917 | Elbert County Democrat ceases publishing in Matheson | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 56 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|--|
| 1917 | Colorado City Daily Independent ceases publishing in Colorado City | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 57 |
| 1917 | Colorado Advance ceases publishing in Colorado Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 61 |
| 1917 | Colorado Springs Argus begins publishing in Colorado Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 61 |
| 1917 | Marble Booster ceases publishing in Marble | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 76 |
| 1917 | Trinidad Advertiser ceases publishing in Trinidad | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 97 |
| 1917 | Iliff Independent begins publishing in Iliff | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 100 |
| 1917 | Critic ceases publishing in Grand Junction | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 104 |
| 1917 | Investigator begins publishing in Grand Junction | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 104 |
| 1917 | Grand Junction Record (w) begins publishing in Grand Junction | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 104 |
| 1917 | Great Divide Sentinel begins publishing in Craig | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 106 |
| 1917 | Naturita Valley Record ceases publishing in Redvale | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 108 |
| 1917 | Pueblo Spectator ceases publishing in Pueblo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 125 |
| 1917 | Industrial Sentinel ceases publishing in Pueblo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 125 |
| 1917 | Pueblske Novice ceases publishing in Slovenian in Pueblo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 125 |
| 1917 | Farmers Exchange Bulletin ceases publishing in Moffat | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 130 |
| 1917 | Cripple Creek Republican ceases publishing in Cripple Creek | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 138 |
| 1917 | Carbon Star ceases publishing in Frederick | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 143 |
| 1917 | Greeley Spokesman ceases publishing in Greeley | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 144 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|--|
| 1917 | Greeley Standard ceases publishing in Greeley | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 144 |
| 1917 | Vernon Bugle begins publishing in Vernon | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 148 |
| 1917 | The town of Merino is incorporated | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 430 |
| 1917 | The town of Fleming is incorporated | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 430 |
| 1917 | Per Axel Rydberg publishes his book, Flora of the Rocky Mountains and Adjacent Plains | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 25 |
| 1917 | A sugar factory is built at Brighton | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 141 |
| 1917 | Hooper and Center school districts consolidate into one | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 184 |
| 1917 | Minimum wages for children and women are established by the Colorado legislature | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 328 |
| 1917 | The Kuner Pickle Company moves from Denver to Brighton in order to be closer to the vegetable supply | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 573 |
| 1917 | An additional tax levy is made and the Colorado Insane Asylum becomes the Colorado State Hospital | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 622 |
| 1917 | The Sullivan Memorial Gateway to Denver's City Park is completed with Leo Lentelli the sculptor | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 91 |
| 1917 | Cranmer House at 200 Cherry Street is completed; designed by Jacques Benedict with additions by Burnham F. Hoyt; George Cranmer was the manager of Denver Parks; his front yard became Denver's Cranmer Park | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 94 |
| 1917 | The Washington Park Community Church is built by Marean and Norton on the northwest corner of Arizona Avenue and Race Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 113 |
| 1917 | Buchtel Memorial Chapel is built on the University of Denver campus; designed by Thomas Barber | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 114 |
| 1917 | Littleton Carnegie Library is built at 2707 W. Main Street; designed by Jacques Benedict | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 126 |
| 1917 | Strasburg Depot opens replacing the boxcar that had been used since about 1911 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 141 |
| 1917 | Montgomery School is built in Lyons from local sandstone at 5291 Ute Road | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 188 |
| 1917 | Bank is constructed at 401 Main Street in Lyons; later a garage and still later called the Turner-Stevens building | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 188 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|---|
| 1917 | St. Aloysius School in Central City closes after being operated since 1873 by the Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth; in 1940 the site of the school becomes an overlook on the mining community | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 195 |
| 1917 | The Opera House Block is renovated by Ansel Pierce at 117-131 in Fort Collins | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 224 |
| 1917 | Baldpate Inn is built 7 miles south of Estes Park at 4900 South Colorado 7 on the north slope of Twin Sisters Peak | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 236 |
| 1917 | Wagon House, built as a transition between the prairie schooner and a mobile home, is now on display in Greeley's Centennial Village Museum | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 241 |
| 1917 | Post Office opens in Fort Morgan at 300 State Street; design of the Post Office Department's James A. Wetmore | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 252 |
| 1917 | First National Bank of Haxtun opens at 145 S. Colorado Avenue | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 263 |
| 1917 | A large barn is erected on the Carnahan Ranch southwest of Kiowa | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 274 |
| 1917 | Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Depot opens at 555 E. Pikes Peak Avenue in Colorado Springs | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 299 |
| 1917 | A wing is added to the Union Printers Home in Colorado Springs at 101 S. Union Boulevard | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 299 |
| 1917 | Colorado City is annexed by Colorado Springs | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 303 |
| 1917 | Pueblo City Hall is completed; designed by W.E. Stickney at Union Avenue and City Hall Place | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 326 |
| 1917 | Ohio-Colorado Smelting and Refining Company Smokestack is completed 2 miles north of Salida on Chaffee County 150 via Colorado 291; designed by structural engineer Emil Bruderlin it was 365 feet tall with a concrete foundation going 32 feet into the ground | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 352 |
| 1917 | Hope Lutheran Church opens in Westcliffe at 312 S. 3rd Street; designed by John Reninga | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 368 |
| 1917 | Kim is established on the site of an 1893 farming village in Las Animas County by Olin D. Simpson | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 381 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------|--|---|
| 1917 | A wildfire levels all the building in Wild Horse - citizens join together to build a Community Association Building following the fire with donated labors and selling shares in the association | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 399 |
| 1917 | Jordan House completed at River Street and 4th Avenue in Antonito | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 421 |
| 1917 | John Holzwarth, Sr. homesteads 8 miles north of Grand Lake on Trail Ridge Road after prohibition in Colorado put his Denver saloon out of business | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 456 |
| 1917 | Moffat County Courthouse opens at 221 W. Victory Way; designed by William N. Bowman; renovated in 1963 by Nixon and Jones | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 518 |
| 1917 | Stonemason Carl Howelsen builds the Solandt Memorial Hospital in Hayden | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 522 |
| 1917 | United Methodist Church of Montrose opens at 19 S. Park Avenue | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 580 |
| 1917 | The J.K. Mullen Home for the Aged is established near W. 30th Avenue and Lowell Boulevard | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 52 |
| 1917 | When coal prices soar Mayor Robert Speer establishes a city coal company to provide low-grade lignite coal at a reasonable price | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 77 |
| 1917 | William Frederick Cody "Buffalo Bill" is buried on Lookout Mountain above Golden in Jefferson County | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 173 |
| 1917 | Colfax-Larimer viaduct in Denver is completed extending the road 8,480 feet at a cost of $950,913 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| 1917 | Presbyterians organize in Eckley, in Yuma County | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 198 |
| 1917 | The Nazarene church is established at Kirk, in Yuma County | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 198 |
| 1917 | Farmers' Equity Union Elevators organized in Yuma County at Wray and laird | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 201 |
| circa 1917 | Grand Lake Cottage Camp opens at 820 Grand Avenue operated by Georgia Estlick | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 454 |
| June 1, 1917 | Colorado City Independent ceases publishing in Colorado City, continues as Colorado Springs Independent | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 57 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|---|
| January 9, 1917 | Plum Valley post office established in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 115 |
| January 9, 1917 | Julius Caldeen Gunter takes the oath as Colorado's 21st governor | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-6-2017 |
| January 10, 1917 | William Frederick Cody "Buffalo Bill" dies in Denver at age 70 | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-6-2017 |
| January 11, 1917 | Chapelton post office established in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 32 |
| January 15, 1917 | Tipperary post office discontinued in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 141 |
| January 15, 1917 | Tosh post office discontinued in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 142 |
| January 10, 1917 | "Buffalo Bill" - William Frederick Cody dies at the home of his sister at 2932 Lafayette | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 174 |
| January 19, 1917 | Gunnison Empire begins publishing in Gunnison | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 75 |
| January 25, 1917 | Morrison Monitor ceases publishing in Morrison | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 82 |
| January 30, 1917 | Great Divide post office established in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 66 |
| January 30, 1917 | Kim post office established in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 82 |
| January 31, 1917 | Brunker post office discontinued in Washington County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 24 |
| February 5, 1917 | Denver Art Association incorporates | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 431 |
| February 10, 1917 | Breckenridge Herald begins publishing in Breckenridge | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 135 |
| February 11, 1907 | Grand Junction Electric, Gas & Manufacturing Company incorporated to operate the gas, electric, ice manufacturing and railroad properties it acquired in and around Grand Junction | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 24 |
| February 15, 1917 | Damascus post office discontinued in Lincoln County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 42 |
| February 16, 1917 | Peetz Gazette begins publishing in Peetz | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 100 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|--|
| February 23, 1917 | Colorado Farm and Ranch ceases publishing in Eads | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 83 |
| February 24, 1917 | Cheneycenter post office established in Prowers County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 32 |
| February 24, 1917 | Officer post office established in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 106 |
| February 28, 1917 | Holtwold post office discontinued in El Paso County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 74 |
| March 12, 1917 | Cheraw incorporated in Otero County, 60 acres | 1926 Gazeteer of Cities and Towns of Colorado, 1926 Colorado Yearbook, Colorado State Board of Immigration |
| March 16, 1917 | Seibert incorporated in Kit Carson County, 40 acres | 1926 Gazeteer of Cities and Towns of Colorado, 1926 Colorado Yearbook, Colorado State Board of Immigration |
| March 7, 1917 | Cedar Creek post office established in Montrose County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 31 |
| March 17, 1917 | Copperton post office established in Eagle County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 37 |
| March 17, 1917 | Dyke post office established in Archuleta County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 48 |
| March 23, 1917 | Progressive Citizen begins publishing in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 11 |
| March 24, 1917 | Krain post office established in Chaffee County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 83 |
| March 31, 1917 | Benko post office discontinued in Elbert County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 19 |
| March 31, 1917 | Caribou post office discontinued in Boulder County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 30 |
| March 31, 1917 | Ford post office discontinued in Yuma County, moved to Wages | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 56 |
| March 31, 1917 | Green Knoll post office established in Lincoln County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 66 |
| March 31, 1917 | Prairie post office discontinued in Washington County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 116 |
| March 31, 1917 | Wages post office established in Yuma County, moved from Ford | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 148 |
| April 3, 1917 | Estes Park incorporated in Larimer County, 225 acres | 1926 Gazeteer of Cities and Towns of Colorado, 1926 Colorado Yearbook, Colorado State Board of Immigration |

| Date | Event | Source |
|----------------|--|---|
| April 4, 1917 | Stoner post office established in Montezuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 136 |
| April 6, 1917 | The U.S. enters World War I | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 537 |
| April 6, 1917 | U.S. enters World War I | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| April 9, 1917 | Peetz incorporated in Logan County, 30 acres | 1926 Gazeteer of Cities and Towns of Colorado, 1926 Colorado Yearbook, Colorado State Board of Immigration |
| April 14, 1917 | Kanza post office discontinued in Elbert County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 81 |
| April 14, 1917 | Rockwood post office discontinued in La Plata County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 123 |
| April 16, 1917 | Fleming incorporated in Logan County, 240 acres | 1926 Gazeteer of Cities and Towns of Colorado, 1926 Colorado Yearbook, Colorado State Board of Immigration |
| April 17, 1917 | Progressive Citizen ceases publishing in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 11 |
| April 21, 1917 | Villegreen post office established in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 147 |
| April 30, 1917 | Omar post office discontinued in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 107 |
| April 30, 1917 | Sunset post office discontinued in Boulder County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 137 |
| May 1917 | Colorado City Argus ceases publishing in Colorado City | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 57 |
| May 1917 | Incorporation papers are filed in Denver for the Kansas Blackleg Serum Company | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 580 |
| May 12, 1917 | Chedsey post office established in Jackson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 32 |
| May 19, 1917 | Bassick post office established in Custer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 17 |
| May 19, 1917 | Draft law enacted for the U.S. | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 539 |
| May 28, 1917 | Glen Haven post office established in Larimer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 63 |
| May 28, 1917 | Egnar post office established in Dolores and later San Miguel County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 50 |
| May 31, 1917 | Halfway post office discontinued in El Paso County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 67 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|---------------|---|---|
| May 31, 1917 | Highpark post office discontinued in Teller County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 73 |
| May 31, 1917 | Westola post office discontinued in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 151 |
| June 1, 1917 | Kirkwell post office established in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 83 |
| June 5, 1917 | First draft registration is held across the U.S., enrolling 83,038 men in Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 539 |
| June 9, 1917 | Mindeman post office established in Otero County, formerly named Symons | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 98 |
| June 9, 1917 | Tuck post office discontinued in Baca County, moved to Utleyville | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 143 |
| June 9, 1917 | Utleyville post office established in Baca County, moved from Tuck | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 145 |
| June 11, 1917 | Squaretop post office established in Archuleta County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 135 |
| June 12, 1917 | Vallecito post office established in La Plata Countyestablishment rescinded when postmaster declined appointment | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 146 |
| June 14, 1917 | Colorado Springs Independent begins publishing in Colorado Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 61 |
| June 15, 1917 | Armstrong post office discontinued in Logan County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 14 |
| June 2, 1917 | Peaceful Valley post office established in Boulder County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 111 |
| June 21, 1917 | Lake City Times ceases publishing in Lake City | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 78 |
| June 26, 1917 | Patches post office established in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 111 |
| June 28, 1917 | Silver World begins publishing in Lake City | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 78 |
| June 30, 1917 | Colorado City post office discontinued in El Paso County, replaced by West End Station of Colorado Springs | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 36 |
| July 1917 | Governor Julius C. Gunter calls a special session of the Colorado legislature to consider measures to enact due to the start of the war | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 537 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|--|--|
| July 7, 1917 | Governor Julius C. Gunter mobilizes the National Guard | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 538 |
| July 10, 1917 | Massadona post office established in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 96 |
| July 17, 1917 | Thedalund post office established in Adams County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 140 |
| July 31, 1917 | Gavin post office discontinued in Mesa County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 60 |
| July 31, 1917 | Rapson post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 119 |
| July 31, 1917 | Segreganset post office discontinued in Kiowa County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 130 |
| August 1, 1917 | Colorado Tourist ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 44 |
| August 11, 1917 | Copperton post office discontinued in Eagle County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 37 |
| August 15, 1917 | Hamilton post office discontinued in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 68 |
| August 15, 1917 | Antelope Springs post office discontinued in Morgan County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 12 |
| August 5, 1917 | The Colorado National Guard is federalized | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 538 |
| August 17, 1917 | North Avondale post office established in Pueblo County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 106 |
| August 30, 1917 | Bronquist post office established in Pueblo County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 24 |
| August 31, 1917 | Sitton post office discontinued in Pueblo County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 132 |
| August 31, 1917 | Evans Courier-Messenger ceases publishing in Evans | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 143 |
| September 1917 | Most of the Colorado National Guard members that were federalized went to Camp Kearney, near San Diego, and were assigned to the 40th and 41st Divisions | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 539 |
| September 15, 1917 | Big Elk post office discontinued in Boulder County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 19 |
| September 20, 1917 | Phillips County Agriculture and Livestock Show begins | Centennial History of Phillips County, Colorado - Those Were The Days , Phillips County Historical Society, p. 23 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|---|---|
| September 24, 1917 | Marnel post office established in Pueblo County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 95 |
| September 29, 1917 | Gilpin post office discontinued in Gilpin County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 61 |
| October 6, 1917 | The Pentecostal Union changes its name to Pillar of Fire Church | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 218 |
| October 15, 1917 | Barton post office discontinued in Prowers County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 17 |
| October 16, 1917 | Westminster University of Colorado is abandoned and the property sold to the Pillar of Fire Church to house their Belleview College | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 209 |
| October 31, 1917 | Dryer post office discontinued in Jackson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 47 |
| October 31, 1917 | Edith post office discontinued in Archuleta County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 49 |
| October 31, 1917 | Elkhorn post office discontinued in Larimer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 50 |
| November 5, 1917 | Ackmen post office established in Montezuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 9 |
| November 15, 1916 | Whitehorn post office discontinued in Fremont County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 151 |
| November 15, 1917 | Boncarbo post office established in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 22 |
| November 15, 1917 | Carsonhart post office established in Las Animas County, establishment rescinded | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 31 |
| November 15, 1917 | Henry post office discontinued in Washington County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 70 |
| November 15, 1917 | Kilroy post office established in Las Animas County, establishment rescinded | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 82 |
| November 15, 1917 | Anaconda post office discontinued in Teller County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 12 |
| November 15, 1917 | Elkhead post office discontinued in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 50 |
| November 17, 1917 | Monte Vista Light Heat and Power Company purchased by Central Colorado Power Company | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 21 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|---|
| November 23, 1917 | Western Slope ceases publishing in Cedaredge | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 26 |
| November 27, 1917 | Dawson post office established in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 42 |
| November 30, 1917 | Cahone post office discontinued in Dolores County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 27 |
| November 30, 1917 | Girard post office discontinued in Lincoln County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 61 |
| November 30, 1917 | Illium post office discontinued in San Miguel County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 77 |
| November 30, 1917 | Madrid post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 92 |
| November 30, 1917 | McCollin post office discontinued in Lincoln County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 96 |
| December 5, 1917 | Buffer post office established in Summit County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 25 |
| December 5, 1917 | Climax post office established in Lake County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 34 |
| December 14, 1918 | Pine post office discontinued in Jefferson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 113 |
| December 15, 1917 | Graylin post office discontinued in Logan County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 65 |
| December 15, 1917 | Insmont post office discontinued in Park County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 77 |
| December 15, 1917 | Coventry post office discontinued in Montrose County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 39 |
| December 31, 1917 | Oriska post office discontinued in Kit Carson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 108 |
| December 31, 1917 | San Arroyo post office discontinued in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 128 |
| December 31, 1917 | Watervale post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 149 |
| 1918 | Fleming News begins publishing in Fleming | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 99 |
| 1918 | Deer Trail News ceases publishing in Deer Trail | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 4 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|---|
| 1918 | Englewood Advertiser begins publishing in Englewood | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 5 |
| 1918 | Coloradoan ceases publishing in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 11 |
| 1918 | Pro-Federacion ceases publishing in Spanish in Antonito | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 22 |
| 1918 | Italian Daily News ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 46 |
| 1918 | Rural Tribune ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| 1918 | Santo Times ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| 1918 | Colorado State Republican begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| 1918 | Elbert County Democrat ceases publishing in Kiowa | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 56 |
| 1918 | Pikes Peak Press ceases publishing in Colorado Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 61 |
| 1918 | Colorado Springs Argus ceases publishing in Colorado Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 61 |
| 1918 | Daily Avalanche ceases publishing in Glenwood Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 67 |
| 1918 | Flagler Progress ceases publishing in Flagler | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 85 |
| 1918 | Las Animas County News begins publishing in Branson | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 94 |
| 1918 | Las Animas County News ceases publishing in Coloflats, continues as Las Animas County News (Branson) | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 94 |
| 1918 | Dry Land Record begins publishing in Kim | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 94 |
| 1918 | Plum Valley Leader begins publishing in Plum Valley | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 95 |
| 1918 | Advertiser-Monitor ceases publishing in Trinidad | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 97 |
| 1918 | Trinidad Democrat begins publishing in Trinidad | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 97 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|--|
| 1918 | Sterling Morning Enterprise ceases publishing in Sterling | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 101 |
| 1918 | Investigator ceases publishing in Grand Junction | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 104 |
| 1918 | Grand Junction Record (w) ceases publishing in Grand Junction | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 104 |
| 1918 | Great Divide Sentinel ceases publishing in Craig | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 106 |
| 1918 | Weldon Valley News ceases publishing in Weldona | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 110 |
| 1918 | Bristol Record ceases publishing in Bristol | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 118 |
| 1918 | Milner Star ceases publishing in Milner | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 128 |
| 1918 | Farm and Stock Livestock Reporter begins publishing in Center | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 129 |
| 1918 | Breckenridge Herald ceases publishing in Breckenridge | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 135 |
| 1918 | Summit County Star begins publishing in Breckenridge | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 135 |
| 1918 | Teller County Star ceases publishing in Victor | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 140 |
| 1918 | Fort Lupton Booster begins publishing in Fort Lupton | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 143 |
| 1918 | Farm Herald begins publishing in Fort Lupton | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 143 |
| 1918 | Central Farm News begins publishing in Greeley | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 144 |
| 1918 | La Salle Optimist ceases publishing in La Salle | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 146 |
| 1918 | Pierce Leader begins publishing in Pierce | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 147 |
| 1918 | The town of Crook is incorporated, taking its name from General George Crook | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 430 |
| 1918 | During this war year coal production in Colorado reached its all-time peak with 12,658,055 tons produced | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 450 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|--|
| 1918 | Western Light and Power Company is taken over by Cities Service Company | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 580 |
| 1918 | First unit of Fitzsimons General Hospital is built, named for Lt. William T. Fitzsimons, first U.S. officer killed in action in World War I | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 598 |
| 1918 | Fort Lyons Veterans Administration Hospital comes into being at the end of World War I | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 598 |
| 1918 | Kanred wheat is introduced in Colorado, a drought resistant variety | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 135 |
| 1918 | The beginning of the lettuce industry in Colorado takes place near Buena Vista when G.D. Isabel rents 10 acres on which to plant lettuce | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 147 |
| 1918 | Del Norte and Monte Vista school districts consolidate into one | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 184 |
| 1918 | An organ is added to the Municipal Auditorium | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 469 |
| 1918 | Loretta Heights College is incorporated by the Loretto Literary Benevolent Institution of Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 484 |
| 1918 | Production of molybdenum begins at Climax, formerly Fremont Pass | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 523 |
| 1918 | F.E. Stokes moved his chili-con-carne factory from 20th and Blake Streets in Denver to 194 West Dakota Avenue | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 574 |
| 1918 | The Olathe Opera House burns | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| 1918 | Byers Branch Library is opened at 675 Santa Fe Drive; designed by Varian & Varian in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 72 |
| 1918 | The Thatcher Memorial Fountain at the north end of the Esplanade entrance to Denver's City Park is completed with the sculpture by Lorado Taft | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 91 |
| 1918 | Bear Mountain is built at the Denver Zoo to resemble the hog backs west of town; created by zoo director Victor H. Borchardt | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 91 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|---|
| 1918 | Fitzsimons Army Hospital opens at East Colfax Avenue and Peoria Street after opening as a Denver Chamber of Commerce facility; dedicated in 1918 as Army Hospital 21 and named for the first U.S. officer killed in World War I, William T. Fitzsimons; Denver architect T. Robert Wegner helped supervise the construction | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 138 |
| 1918 | Chief Hosa Lodge is built in Genesee Mountain Park; designed by Jacquez Benedict | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 163 |
| 1918 | Fillius Park Picnic Shelter is built on Colorado 74; designed by Jacques Benedict | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 164 |
| 1918 | Charles Z. Klauder of Philadelphia creates a master plan for the University of Colorado Boulder campus adopting, with his partner Frank Miles Day, a Colorado Style that borrows from the Tuscany area of Italy with red tile roofs | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 177 |
| 1918 | Guggenheim Hall is built on the campus of the Colorado Normal School in Greeley; designed by James Murdoch it is nearly identical to one built a decade earlier on the University of Colorado Boulder campus | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 179 |
| 1918 | Congregational Church in Lafayette at 300 E. Simpson is used as an emergency hospital during the flu epidemic | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 185 |
| 1918 | Longmont High School (originally Longmont College) at 546 Atwood is converted to the Landmark Apartments | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 186 |
| 1918 | Shawnee Trading Post is rebuilt after a fire six miles west of Bailey just off US 285 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 217 |
| 1918 | All Saints Lutheran Church of Eben-Ezer is completed at 122 Hospital Road in Fort Morgan; designed by the Baerreson Brothers | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 254 |
| 1918 | Will E. Heginbotham, president of the Holyoke National Bank, begins construction of a mansion at 539 South Baxter Street, built by Michael McEachern | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 262 |
| 1918 | Mennonite Brethren Church is completed at Joes in Yuma County | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 265 |
| 1918 | Otis Water Tower is completed by the Chicago Bridge and Iron Works Company at 302 E. 1st Avenue | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 272 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|---|
| 1918 | The Broadmoor Hotel opens in Colorado Springs at 1 Lake Avenue; designed by Whitney Warren and Charles D. Wetmore for Spenser "Spec" Penrose on the site of what had once been a dairy farm | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 300 |
| 1918 | Casino opens at what becomes the Broadmoor Hotel designed by Thomas MacLaren in Colorado Springs | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 301 |
| 1918 | Pauline Chapel is built on the west side of the Broadmoor Hotel complex in Colorado Springs; designed by Thomas MacLaren | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 302 |
| 1918 | Crowley School at 300 Main Street in Crowley is used as a hospital during the flu epidemic | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 396 |
| 1918 | White River National Forest Headquarters opens on Grand Avenue in Glenwood Springs | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 482 |
| 1918 | First National Bank in Craig is built by Stonemason Carl Howelsen | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 522 |
| 1918 | Denver & Salt Lake Depot built in Hayden by Joseph W. Roeschlaub; now the Hayden Heritage Center at 300 W. Pearl Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 528 |
| 1918 | Denver purchases the privately owned Denver Union Water Company creating the Denver Water Board to oversee the management of Denver's water projects | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 96 |
| 1918 | Fitzsimons Hospital opens as a haven for tuberculosis patients in Aurora | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 101 |
| 1918 | The Denver Art Association becomes the Denver Art Museum | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-6-2017 |
| 1918 | Construction begins on Army Hospital 21 in Aurora; this will become Fitzsimons Army Hospital | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-6-2017 |
| 1918 | Fitzsimons General Hospital built at a cost of $10,000,000 east of Denver | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| 1918 | Paved road from Denver to Golden completed | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| 1918 | The Denver Union Water Company is acquired by the City and County of Denver for $13,923,575.80 | Municipal Facts , Vol. 3, No. 1, January 1920, p. 19 |
| 1918 | Boy Scouts of America unit is organized at Wray, in Yuma County | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 200 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|---|
| 1918 | Tyo Theater opens at Wray, in Yuma County | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 200 |
| 1918-1919 | An influenza epidemic begins which kills more than 1400 in Denver | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xv |
| circa 1918 | The First National Bank is completed in Walden at 476 Main Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 220 |
| January 8, 1918 | Alamosa Leader ceases publishing merged with Alamosa Courier | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 3 |
| January 14, 1918 | Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City opens Denver Branch | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| January 15, 1918 | Sedgwick incorporated in Sedgwick County, 225 acres | 1926 Gazeteer of Cities and Towns of Colorado, 1926 Colorado Yearbook, Colorado State Board of Immigration |
| January 24, 1918 | Moffat Home and Farm ceases publishing in Moffat | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 130 |
| January 28, 1918 | Joylan post office established in Jefferson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 80 |
| January 28, 1918 | Jual post office established in Dolores County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 80 |
| January 28, 1918 | The town of Sedgwick is is incorporated | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 433 |
| January 31, 1918 | Stonewall post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 136 |
| January 31, 1918 | Tincup post office discontinued in Gunnison County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 141 |
| January 31, 1918 | Torres post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 142 |
| February 1918 | Colorado Shinbun ceases publishing in Japanese in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 46 |
| February 4, 1918 | Grousemont post office established in Park County, formerly named Kaiserheim | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 67 |
| February 4, 1918 | Kaiserheim post office discontinued in Park County, name changed to Grousemont | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 81 |
| February 14, 1918 | Sorrento post office discontinued in Cheyenne County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 133 |
| February 15, 1918 | Hicks post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 72 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|---|
| February 15, 1918 | Lakevista post office discontinued in Montezuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 84 |
| February 15, 1918 | Northgate post office discontinued in Jackson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 106 |
| February 15, 1918 | Crescent post office discontinued in Boulder County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 39 |
| February 18, 1918 | Jasper post office discontinued in Rio Grande County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 80 |
| February 28, 1918 | Clifford post office discontinued in Lincoln County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 34 |
| February 28, 1918 | Graham post office discontinued in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 65 |
| March 1918 | Municipal Facts resumes publication when Mayor Speer is reelected, now a monthly publication | Municipal Facts , Vol. 1, No. 1, March 1918, p. 2 |
| March 6, 1918 | Colorado Times begins publishing in Japanese and English in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| March 11, 1918 | Sunset post office established in Boulder County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 137 |
| March 15, 1918 | Campbird post office discontinued in Ouray County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 27 |
| March 15, 1918 | Haybro post office established in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 69 |
| March 15, 1918 | Saint Vrain post office discontinued in Weld County [not to be confused with St. Vrain] | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 127 |
| March 23, 1918 | Beuck post office established in Elbert County, formerly spelled Buick; change rescinded | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 19 |
| March 23, 1918 | Buick post office discontinued in Elbert County, name change to Beuck | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 26 |
| March 30, 1918 | Jacks Cabin post office discontinued in Gunnison County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 79 |
| March 30, 1918 | Mud Creek post office discontinued in Bent County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 103 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|----------------|--|---|
| April 1918 | Construction begins on 48 buildings on about 1,000 acres of land 10 miles east of Denver to care for an anticipated large number of soldiers returning with tuberculosis; this will be named Fitzsimons Hospital in honor of William Thomas Fitzsimons | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 402 |
| April 1918 | Map of Denver Mountain Park System | Municipal Facts , Vol. 1, No. 2, April 1918, p. 20 |
| April 15, 1918 | Monon post office discontinued in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 100 |
| April 15, 1918 | Newton post office discontinued in Yuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 105 |
| April 15, 1918 | Rattlesnake Buttes post office established in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 119 |
| May 1, 1918 | Beuck post office discontinued in County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 19 |
| May 1, 1918 | Buick post office established in Elbert County, name change rescinded | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 26 |
| May 10, 1918 | Pierce incorporated in Weld County, 400 acres | 1926 Gazeteer of Cities and Towns of Colorado, 1926 Colorado Yearbook, Colorado State Board of Immigration |
| May 14, 1918 | Mayor Robert W. Speer dies; over 10,000 people jam the Municipal Auditorium for his funeral services [May 17] | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 81 |
| May 14, 1918 | Denver Mayor Robert W. Speer dies at his home at age 62 | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-6-2017 |
| May 14, 1918 | Mayor Robert Speer dies in Denver | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| May 14, 1918 | Obituary and extensive coverage of the death of Mayor Robert W. Speer | Municipal Facts , Vol. 1, No. 3, May 1918, p. 1 |
| May 15, 1918 | Dennis Sullivan Memorial Gate at the Esplanade entrance to City Park will be erected by May 15; donated by John Clarke Mitchell; consists of mining group (The Prospector) and an agriculture group (The Dairy Maid) on separate pedestals [now grounds of East High School] | Municipal Facts , Vol. 1, No. 2, April 1918, p. 15 |
| May 16, 1918 | Hosa Lodge opens at Genesee Mountain Park; open to the public | Municipal Facts , Vol. 1, No. 3, May 1918, p. 17 |
| May 17, 1918 | Mayor Speer's funeral at City Auditorium | Municipal Facts , Vol. 1, No. 4, June 1918, p. 10 |
| May 23, 1918 | Northdale post office established in Dolores County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 106 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|---------------|---|--|
| May 31, 1918 | Landsman post office discontinued in Yuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 85 |
| May 31, 1918 | Crisman post office discontinued in Boulder County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 40 |
| June 1, 1918 | The Broadmoor Hotel opens in Colorado Springs on 450 acres purchased from the Stratton Estate | Summit of Destiny: Taming the Pikes Peak Country 1858-1918 , 2008, Francis J. Pierson, p. 305 |
| June 1918 | Denver Zoo is focus of issue | Municipal Facts , Vol. 1, No. 4, June 1918, p. 1 |
| June 6, 1918 | Online post office established in Baca and later Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 107 |
| June 6, 1918 | Engleburg post office established in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 51 |
| June 14, 1918 | Gerbazdale post office established in Pitkin County, formerly named Watson | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 60 |
| June 14, 1918 | Watson post office discontinued in Pitkin County, name changed to Gerbazdale | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 149 |
| June 15, 1918 | Chedsey post office discontinued in Jackson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 32 |
| June 15, 1918 | Plum Bush post office discontinued in Washington County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 115 |
| June 17, 1918 | Pershing post office established in Routt County, formerly named Crater | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 112 |
| June 29, 1918 | Greenwood post office discontinued in Custer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 66 |
| June 29, 1918 | The Broadmoor resort opens in Colorado Springs at the site of the Broadmoor Casino and adjacent to the Broadmoor shooting grounds | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-6-2017 |
| June 30, 1918 | Leroy post office discontinued in Logan County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 88 |
| July 1918 | Cripple Creek Times (w) ceases publishing in Cripple Creek | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 138 |
| July 1918 | All telephone facilities were taken over by the federal government to serve the war effort; returned to private owners after a year | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 584 |
| July 1918 | Entrance to the Denver's new Union Station and newly completed Post Office | Municipal Facts , Vol. 1, No. 5, July 1918, p. 4 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|---------------|---|--|
| July 1918 | Wynken, Blynken & Nod statue to be purchased by Denver, Mayor Speer's last public work | Municipal Facts , Vol. 1, No. 5, July 1918, p. 10 |
| July-Nov 1918 | The 148th Field Artillery, a unit of the 41st Division from Colorado, fought in the Aisne-Marne, St. Mihiel, and Meuse-Argonne offenses | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 539 |
| July 5, 1918 | Standard Chataqua Company comes to Holyoke for a five day program | Centennial History of Phillips County, Colorado - Those Were The Days , Phillips County Historical Society, p. 24 |
| July 15, 1918 | Roubideau post office discontinued in Delta County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 124 |
| July 22, 1918 | Vroman post office established in Otero County, formerly named Weitzer | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 147 |
| July 22, 1918 | Weitzer post office discontinued in Otero County, name changed to Vroman | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 150 |
| July 24, 1918 | Arapahoe Herald ceases publishing in Littleton | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 5 |
| July 27, 1918 | Cripple Creek Times (d) ceases publishing in Cripple Creek, continues as Cripple Creek Time-Record | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 138 |
| July 28, 1918 | Cripple Creek Times-Record begins publishing in Cripple Creek | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 138 |
| July 30, 1918 | Branson post office established in Las Animas County, formerly named Coloflats | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 23 |
| July 30, 1918 | Coloflats post office discontinued in Las Animas County, name changed to Branson. | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 36 |
| July 31, 1918 | Bashor post office discontinued in Adams County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 17 |
| July 31, 1918 | Cardiff post office discontinued in Garfield County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 30 |
| July 31, 1918 | Frawley post office discontinued in Summit County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 58 |
| July 31, 1918 | Nyburg post office discontinued in Pueblo County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 106 |
| July 31, 1918 | Pearmont post office discontinued in Grand County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 111 |
| July 31, 1918 | Rowena post office discontinued in Boulder County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 124 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-----------------|---|---|
| July 31, 1918 | Tuttle post office discontinued in Kit Carson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 144 |
| July 31, 1918 | Yachita post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 154 |
| July 31, 1918 | Cumbres post office discontinued in Conejos County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 41 |
| August 1918 | First units of the 40th "Sunshine Division" go overseas and become part of the 6th Depot Division arriving in France to serve as replacements | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 539 |
| August 1918 | Map of proposed Denver National Park including Mount Evans and a dozen or so other peaks & creeks | Municipal Facts , Vol. 1, No. 6, August 1918, p. 20 |
| September 1918 | Facts and map of Denver's water system: total reservoir capacity, 33 billion gallons; daily filtration capacity, 91,500,000; daily pumping capacity 69,500,000 gallons; mains and conduits in city, 448 miles; mains and conduits outside city, 107 miles; service connections, 46,500, fire hydrants, 3,343; daily delivery capacity, 94 million gallons; average daily 1917 delivery, 52 million gallons; per capita consumption. 220 gallons | Municipal Facts , Vol. 1, No. 7, September 1918, p. 20 |
| August 4, 1918 | Colorado Midland Railroad Company ceases operation | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 684 |
| August 6, 1918 | Denver voters decide to purchase the water system currently serving the city, The Denver Union Water Company, for $13,970,000 | Municipal Facts , Vol. 1, No. 6, August 1918, p. 2 & 13 |
| August 10, 1918 | Gerbazdale post office discontinued in Pitkin County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 60 |
| August 10, 1918 | Hayman post office discontinued in Park County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 70 |
| August 10, 1918 | Ivanhoe post office discontinued in Pitkin County, closed when the Colorado Midland Railroad abandoned | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 79 |
| August 10, 1918 | Nast post office discontinued in Pitkin County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 103 |
| August 10, 1918 | Newett post office discontinued in Chaffee County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 105 |
| August 10, 1918 | Norrie post office discontinued in Pitkin County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 106 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|--|
| August 10, 1918 | Sellar post office discontinued in Pitkin County, closed when Colorado Midland Railroad abandoned line | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 130 |
| August 10, 1918 | Seven Castles post office discontinued in Eagle County, closed when Colorado Midland Railroad line was abandoned | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 131 |
| August 10, 1918 | Thomasville post office discontinued in Pitkin County when Colorado Midland Railroad abandoned the site | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 141 |
| August 10, 1918 | Arkansas Junction post office discontinued in Lake County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 13 |
| August 15, 1918 | Konantz post office discontinued in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 83 |
| August 15, 1918 | Lavalley post office discontinued in Costilla County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 86 |
| August 15, 1918 | Squaretop post office discontinued in Archuleta County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 135 |
| August 15, 1918 | Sweetwater post office discontinued in Kiowa County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 138 |
| August 29, 1918 | Arriba incorporated in Lincoln County, 291 acres | 1926 Gazeteer of Cities and Towns of Colorado, 1926 Colorado Yearbook, Colorado State Board of Immigration |
| August 31, 1918 | Laplata post office discontinued in La Plata County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 85 |
| August 31, 1918 | Plainview post office discontinued in Jefferson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 115 |
| August 31, 1918 | Westcreek post office discontinued in Douglas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 150 |
| August 31, 1918 | Witherbee post office discontinued in Yuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 153 |
| August 31, 1918 | Arlene post office discontinued in Yuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 13 |
| September 1918 | Colorado Leader begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| September 1918 | The first person in Denver dies of the Spanish Flu in what would be a two year influenza epidemic that took the lives of over fourteen hundred Denverites | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 82 |
| September 3, 1918 | Crook incorporated in Logan County | 1926 Gazeteer of Cities and Towns of Colorado, 1926 Colorado Yearbook, Colorado State Board of Immigration |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|--|---|
| September 7, 1918 | Thatcher Monument in Denver donated at a cost of $100,000 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| September 12, 1918 | All men between 18 and 21 along with those 32 to 45 were registered for the service, with a total number of registrants in Colorado of 215,635 | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 539 |
| September 14, 1918 | City Park Fountain "The State" by Lorado Taft, unveiled | PSCo Lines Magazine June 1939 p. 3 |
| September 14, 1918 | Jual post office discontinued in Dolores County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 80 |
| September 14, 1918 | Vallorso post office established in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 146 |
| September 30, 1915 | Saint Vrain post office established in Weld County [not to be confused with St. Vrain] | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 127 |
| September 30, 1918 | Redstone post office discontinued in Pitkin County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 120 |
| September 30, 1918 | Denver Mills post office discontinued in Denver County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 45 |
| October 1918 | Colorado Herold (daily) ceases publishing in German in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 44 |
| October 1, 1918 | Co-Operatore begins publishing in Italian in Pueblo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 125 |
| October 2, 1918 | Fort Collins Express-Review ceases publishing in Fort Collins, continues as Fort Collins Express | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 92 |
| October 9, 1918 | Fort Collins Express begins publishing in Fort Collins | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 92 |
| October 15, 1918 | Cloudcrest post office discontinued in Jefferson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 35 |
| October 15, 1918 | Ferberite post office discontinued in Boulder County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 53 |
| October 26, 1918 | Westcreek post office established in Douglas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 150 |
| October 31, 1918 | Grant post office discontinued in Park County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 65 |
| October 31, 1918 | Ophir (I) post office discontinued in San Miguel County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 108 |
| October 31, 1918 | Owl post office discontinued in Jackson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 109 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|---|
| November 1918 | Marisca Nuova begins publishing in Italian in Pueblo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 125 |
| November 1918 | Mortality schedule for major U.S. cities from Spanish Flue by weeks beginning in September | Municipal Facts , Vol. 1, No. 9, November 1918, p. 9 |
| November 1918 | Photos of exterior of Sarah Platt Decker, William H. Smiley and William N. Byers branch libraries | Municipal Facts , Vol. 1, No. 9, November 1918, p. 13 |
| November 1918 | Interiors of several branch libraries | Municipal Facts , Vol. 1, No. 9, November 1918, p. 14 |
| November 1918 | Photos of exteriors of Roger W. Woodbury, Henry White Warren & Charles E. Dickerson branch libraries | Municipal Facts , Vol. 1, No. 9, November 1918, p. 15 |
| November 1, 1918 | City of Denver purchases Denver Union Water Company for $13,923,576 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| November 11, 1918 | During the first World War Colorado provided about 43,000 men of which 1,009 were killed or died in service, and 1,759 were wounded | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 540 |
| November 11, 1918 | World War I ends | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| November 21, 1918 | Plainview post office established in Jefferson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 115 |
| November 30, 1918 | Meekton post office discontinued in Washington County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 97 |
| December 1918 | Army General Hospital No. 21 [Fitzsimons]; panoramic shot from high above with 55 of 78 buildings complete | Municipal Facts , Vol. 1, No. 10, December 1918, p. 8 |
| December 1918 | Women's Club Building on Glenarm converted to Soldiers and Sailors Club by War Camp Community Service | Municipal Facts , Vol. 1, No. 10, December 1918, p. 12 |
| December 5, 1918 | Camp Speer post office established in Adams County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 28 |
| December 9, 1918 | Laplata post office established in La Plata County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 85 |
| December 14, 1918 | Bearcreek post office discontinued in Montezuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 17 |
| December 27, 1918 | Fairplay Flume ceases publishing in Fairplay, merges with Park County Republican | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 115 |
| December 28, 1918 | Grand Junction News ceases publishing in Grand Junction | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 102 |
| December 31, 1918 | Winston post office discontinued in Logan County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 153 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|---|
| 1909 | Arapahoe Republican ceases publishing in Littleton | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 6 |
| 1919 | Bijou Valley Granger ceases publishing in Byers | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 4 |
| 1919 | Byers News begins publishing in Byers | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 4 |
| 1919 | Deer Trail News begins publishing in Deer Trail | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 4 |
| 1919 | Arapahoe Democrat ceases publishing in Englewood | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 5 |
| 1919 | Wild Horse Times ceases publishing in Wild Horse | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 19 |
| 1919 | North Denver News ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 46 |
| 1919 | Market Review ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| 1919 | Mining American ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| 1919 | Colorado State Republican ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| 1919 | Divide Tidings ceases publishing in Calhan | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 56 |
| 1919 | Ramah Record begins publishing in Ramah | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 63 |
| 1919 | Clarín Americano begins publishing in Spanish in Walsenburg | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 79 |
| 1919 | Fort Collins Review ceases publishing in Fort Collins, continues as Fort Collins Express-Review | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 91 |
| 1919 | Union Label Bulletin ceases publishing in Fort Collins | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 91 |
| 1919 | Crook Index begins publishing in Crook | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 99 |
| 1919 | Merino Breeze begins publishing in Merino | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 100 |
| 1919 | Montezuma Journal ceases publishing in Cortez | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 106 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|--|
| 1919 | Cortez Herald ceases publishing in Cortez, merged with Montezuma Journal | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 106 |
| 1919 | Cortez Journal-Herald begins publishing in Cortez | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 106 |
| 1919 | Orchard Organ begins publishing in Orchard | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 109 |
| 1919 | Bristol Herald begins publishing in Bristol | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 118 |
| 1919 | Coloradeno begins publishing in Spanish in Pueblo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 125 |
| 1919 | Rising Sun begins publishing in Pueblo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 125 |
| 1919 | San Luis Valley Graphic ceases publishing in Monte Vista, continues as Monte Vista Graphic-Reporter | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 127 |
| 1919 | Monte Vista Graphic-Reporter begins publishing in Monte Vista | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 127 |
| 1919 | Crow Creek News begins publishing in Hereford | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 145 |
| 1919 | Weld County Farm begins publishing in La Salle | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 146 |
| 1919 | Eckley Record ceases publishing in Eckley | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 148 |
| 1919 | Eckley Tribune begins publishing in Eckley | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 148 |
| 1919 | Vernon Bugle ceases publishing in Vernon | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 148 |
| 1919 | Colorado Patriot begins publishing in Wray | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 148 |
| 1919 | A tax of one cent per gallon of gasoline is levied to build a fund to improve Colorado's roads | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 567 |
| 1919 | Passenger cars in Colorado number 119,964 this year | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 567 |
| 1919 | Colorado creates the Child Welfare Bureau | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 171 |
| 1919 | An 8-hour work day is established for Colorado penal institutions | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 327 |
| 1919 | Colorado state librarian's salary increases from $1,000 to $1,500 | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 544 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|--|
| 1919 | Stone ruins of a proposed summer White House designed by Jacques Benedict are found at the top of Mount Falcon | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 160 |
| 1919 | Denver buys the 420-acre Dedisse Ranch on Bear Creek and turns it into a Denver Mountain Park | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 164 |
| 1919 | The Denver and Interurban Railway operation in Fort Collins is purchased by The Fort Collins Municipal Railway including the trolley barn at 330 North Howes | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 232 |
| 1919 | The house now known as the Reinholtz-Forney House is built in Fort Collins at 309 S. Grant Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 232 |
| 1919 | Loveland High School is built at 211 W. 6th Street; designed by Robert K. Fuller | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 237 |
| 1919 | Crabbe Hall is built to house the Home Economics Department on the Colorado State Teachers College campus in Greeley and named for the third president of the College John G. Crabbe | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 246 |
| 1919 | First Presbyterian Church opens in Sterling at 130 South 4th Street; designed by J.C. Fulton with Wilson and Wilson as the supervising architects | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 256 |
| 1919 | The Chaka Theater opens in Julesburg at 215 Cedar Street; built by A.E. Lanning | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 261 |
| 1919 | A Masonic temple is completed in Limon | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 269 |
| 1919 | An addition is made to the Pueblo City Hall; designed by Godey & Haskins | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 326 |
| 1919 | Del Norte High School opens at Oak and 9th streets; designed by Mountjoy and Frewen | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 426 |
| 1919 | Haskin Elementary School opens in Center at 550 S. Broadway Avenue as designed by Mountjoy, French & Frewen | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 440 |
| 1919 | CF&I Boarding House opens at 200 Gothin Avenue in Crested Butte; now the Elk Mountain Lodge | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 542 |
| 1919 | Ute Mountain Boarding School constructed in Towaoc; now houses the Bureau of Indian Affairs | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 603 |
| 1919 | Denver Tramway Company employees unionize and successfully strike to prevent wage cuts | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 82 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|---|
| 1919 | Saco R. DeBoer is hired by Arvada to design parks and plan future development | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 120 |
| 1919 | Colorado becomes one of the first four states to tax gasoline sales to help finance roads | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 180 |
| 1919 | Delphian Club is organized at Wray, in Yuma County | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 199 |
| 1919 | An American Legion Post is organized at Wray, in Yuma County | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 200 |
| 1919 | Shannon Grain Company's elevator built at Schramm, in Yuma County | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 200 |
| 1919 | George Blach Grain Company builds an elevator in Yuma, in Yuma County | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 201 |
| January 15, 1919 | Grousemont post office discontinued in Park County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 67 |
| January 15, 1919 | Salem post office discontinued in Arapahoe County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 127 |
| January 15, 1919 | Wortman post office discontinued in Lake County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 154 |
| January 30, 1909 | Wellington ceases publishing in Wellington, continues as Wellington Sun | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 93 |
| February 1919 | Denver purchases Overland Park, mostly for the gravel beds that will be available | Municipal Facts , Vol. 2, No. 1 & 2, January-February 1919, p. 14 |
| February 11, 1919 | Homelake post office established in Rio Grande County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 74 |
| February 11, 1919 | Stage Canyon post office established in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 135 |
| February 14, 1919 | Bunell post office established in Adams County, formerly named camp Speer, moved to Fitzsimons located outside the military reserve | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 26 |
| February 14, 1919 | Camp Speer post office discontinued in Adams County, name changed to Bunnell | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 28 |
| February 15, 1919 | Cherokee Park post office discontinued in Larimer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 33 |
| February 20, 1919 | Edenview post office established in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 49 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|--|
| February 26, 1919 | Hoopup post office established in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 74 |
| February 28, 1919 | Childs Park post office discontinued in Hinsdale County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 33 |
| March 1919 | Co-Operatore ceases publishing in Italian in Pueblo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 125 |
| March 1919 | The Colorado Farm Bureau grows out of an organization created by the extension service | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 155 |
| March 5, 1919 | Colorado passes a law governing dental hygienists | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 412 |
| March 6, 1919 | Marshall Pass post office established in Saguache County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 95 |
| March 11, 1919 | Patt post office established in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 111 |
| March 13, 1919 | Haxtun Harvest begins publishing in Haxtun | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 116 |
| March 14, 1919 | New Raymer incorporated in Weld County, 250 acres | 1926 Gazeteer of Cities and Towns of Colorado, 1926 Colorado Yearbook, Colorado State Board of Immigration |
| March 15, 1919 | Wolfcreek post office discontinued in Elbert County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 154 |
| March 18, 1919 | Stratton incorporated in Kit Carson County, 200 acres | 1926 Gazeteer of Cities and Towns of Colorado, 1926 Colorado Yearbook, Colorado State Board of Immigration |
| March 25, 1919 | Keota incorporated in Weld County, 140 acres | 1926 Gazeteer of Cities and Towns of Colorado, 1926 Colorado Yearbook, Colorado State Board of Immigration |
| March 31, 1919 | Arastra post office discontinued in San Juan County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 13 |
| March 31, 1919 | Coleman post office discontinued in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 35 |
| April 1919 | The Intermountain Press and Printer is first published by Ed Foster and George Haubrich; continues until April 1926 | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 277 |
| April 1919 | Denver's Civic Center Park begins to take shape with the Library and the Greek Theater and walkways criss-crossing the expanses of grass | Municipal Facts , Vol. 2, No. 4, April 1919, p. 3 |
| April 11, 1919 | Pine post office established in Jefferson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 113 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|----------------|---|---|
| April 11, 1919 | Ragged Mountain post office established in Gunnison County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 118 |
| April 15, 1919 | North Creede post office discontinued in Mineral County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 106 |
| April 18, 1919 | Fortification post office established in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 56 |
| April 19, 1919 | Wormington post office established in Las Animas County, called Simpson on Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe RR | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 154 |
| April 19, 1919 | Disappointment post office established in Dolores County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 45 |
| April 21, 1919 | Hillrose incorporated in Morgan County, 24 acres | 1926 Gazeteer of Cities and Towns of Colorado, 1926 Colorado Yearbook, Colorado State Board of Immigration |
| April 22, 1919 | Calhan incorporated in El Paso County, 200 acres | 1926 Gazeteer of Cities and Towns of Colorado, 1926 Colorado Yearbook, Colorado State Board of Immigration |
| April 30, 1919 | Ilse post office discontinued in Custer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 77 |
| April 30, 1919 | Noel post office discontinued in San Miguel County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 105 |
| April 30, 1919 | Platoro post office discontinued in Conejos County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 115 |
| April 30, 1919 | Keenesburg incorporated in Weld County, 300 acres | 1926 Gazeteer of Cities and Towns of Colorado, 1926 Colorado Yearbook, Colorado State Board of Immigration |
| May 1919 | New bear habitat at Denver Zoo designed by Victor Borchardt [where Velox would reside] | Municipal Facts , Vol. 2, No. 5, May 1919, p. 7 |
| May 1919 | New city shops under construction opposite City Hall between Blake and Larimer Streets | Municipal Facts , Vol. 2, No. 5, May 1919, p. 15 |
| May 7, 1919 | Hugo Times ceases publishing in Hugo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 99 |
| May 15, 1919 | Kearns post office discontinued in Archuleta County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 81 |
| May 16, 1919 | Idaho Springs Siftings-News ceases publishing in Idaho Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 21 |
| May 17, 1919 | Standley Hall wing to the Colorado Museum of Natural History opens in Denver | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|---------------|---|--|
| May 31, 1919 | Cole post office discontinued in Kit Carson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 35 |
| June 1919 | Baca County Democrat ceases publishing, merged with Springfield Herald in Springfield | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 8 |
| June 1919 | The last death of about 1,400 Denverites from the influenza epidemic that began in 1918 is recorded | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 82 |
| June 9, 1910 | Barnesville post office established in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 17 |
| June 9, 1919 | Vona incorporated in Kit Carson County, 140 acres | 1926 Gazeteer of Cities and Towns of Colorado, 1926 Colorado Yearbook, Colorado State Board of Immigration |
| June 14, 1919 | Krain post office discontinued in Chaffee County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 83 |
| June 14, 1919 | Nowlinsville post office discontinued in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 106 |
| June 14, 1919 | Westcreek post office discontinued in Douglas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 150 |
| June 25, 1919 | Eaton Metal Products Company is established at 1841 Wazee Street, but moves to 33rd and Walnut | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 599 |
| June 27, 1919 | Springfield Herald ceases publishing, continues as Springfield Democrat-Herald in Springfield | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 8 |
| June 30, 1919 | Buford post office discontinued in Rio Blanco County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 25 |
| July 1919 | Springfield Democrat-Herald begins publishing in Springfield | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 8 |
| July 1, 1910 | President Taft signs a proclamation creating the Colorado National Forest; renamed Roosevelt National Forest March 28, 1932 | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-6-2017 |
| July 4, 1919 | Jack Dempsey defeats Jess Willard in Cleveland, Ohio to win the World Heavyweight Boxing Championship | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-6-2017 |
| July 15, 1919 | Lombard post office discontinued in Clear Creek County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 90 |
| July 15, 1919 | Wezel post office discontinued in Lincoln County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 151 |
| July 16, 1919 | Youghal post office established in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 155 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|---|--|
| July 16, 1919 | Cross Mountain post office established in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 40 |
| July 31, 1919 | Glen Haven post office discontinued in Larimer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 63 |
| August 1, 1919 | Dedication of the Colonnade of Civic Benefactors is held at the Greek Theater in Civic Center | Municipal Facts , Vol. 2, No. 12, December 1919, p. 6 |
| August 3, 1919 | Greek Theater in Civic Center is dedicated in Denver | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| August 3, 1919 | Dedication of the Colonnade of Civic Benefactors is held at the Greek Theater in Civic Center | Municipal Facts , Vol. 2, No. 9 & 10, September-October 1919, p. 3 |
| August 15, 1919 | Pallas post office discontinued in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 109 |
| August 15, 1919 | Vallery post office discontinued in Morgan County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 146 |
| August 30, 1919 | Northway post office discontinued in Prowers County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 106 |
| August 30, 1919 | Pearl post office discontinued in Jackson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 111 |
| August 30, 1919 | Romley post office discontinued in Chaffee County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 124 |
| September 4, 1919 | Juniper post office discontinued in Moffat County, name changed to Juniper Springs | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 81 |
| September 4, 1919 | Juniper Springs post office established in Moffat County, formerly named Juniper. | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 81 |
| September 13, 1919 | Kearns post office established in Archuleta County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 81 |
| September 13, 1919 | Little Beaver post office established in Rio Blanco County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 89 |
| September 14, 1919 | Fouret post office established in Las Animas County, never operated - postmaster declined appointment | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 57 |
| September 16, 1919 | Molding post office established in Dolores County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 99 |
| October 1919 | Several firemen are injured when engines No. 4 and 6 collide at 17th and Blake Streets in Denver | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|--|
| October 1919 | Dennis Sullivan Memorial Gate at the Esplanade entrance to City Park; donated by John Clarke Mitchell; consists of Mining group and an Agriculture group (The Dairy Maid) on separate pedestals [now grounds of East High] | Municipal Facts , Vol. 2, No. 9 & 10, September-October 1919, p. 5-6 |
| October 5, 1919 | Mr. And Mrs. Spencer Penrose offer their residence at 30 West Dale to the Colorado Springs Arts Club which changes its name to the Broadmoor Art Society and incorporates as the Broadmoor Art Academy | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 439 |
| October 15, 1919 | Cardinal post office discontinued in Boulder County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 30 |
| October 24, 1909 | Limon incorporated in Lincoln County, 400 acres | 1926 Gazeteer of Cities and Towns of Colorado, 1926 Colorado Yearbook, Colorado State Board of Immigration |
| October 25, 1919 | Fort Lyon (II) post office established in Bent County as a rural station of Las Animas | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 57 |
| October 30, 1919 | Noel post office established in San Miguel County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 105 |
| October 31, 1919 | Liberty post office discontinued in Saguache County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 89 |
| November 1919 | City Shops completed opposite City Hall between Blake and Larimer Streets | Municipal Facts , Vol. 2, No. 11, November 1919, p. 7 |
| November 1, 1909 | Evening Herald begins publishing in Colorado Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 61 |
| November 10, 1919 | Elkhead post office established in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 50 |
| November 14, 1919 | Arvada Sun ceases publishing in Arvada, continued as Jefferson County Republican (Golden) | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 81 |
| November 15, 1919 | Floresta post office discontinued in Gunnison County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 54 |
| November 15, 1919 | Hermes post office discontinued in Yuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 71 |
| November 15, 1919 | Steffens post office discontinued in Yuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 135 |
| November 15, 1919 | Dawson post office discontinued in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 42 |
| November 19, 1919 | Watervale post office established in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 149 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|---|
| November 20, 1919 | Jefferson County Republican begins publishing in Golden | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 82 |
| November 29, 1919 | Webb post office discontinued in Prowers County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 150 |
| December 1919 | City of Denver to acquire the Omaha & Grant Smelter and use the 500,000 tons of slag around it to improve Denver's streets; also planning to develop the chimney, third highest in the world, as a lookout point for tourists with a park created around it | Municipal Facts , Vol. 2, No. 12, December 1919, p. 3 |
| December 1919 | Christmas decorations in Civic Center | Municipal Facts , Vol. 3, No. 1, January 1920, p. 10 |
| December 1919 | Big Beaver, the Blackfoot Indian used as the model for the sculpture "On the War Path" by A. Phoneas Proctor to be installed in Civic Center Park | Municipal Facts , Vol. 3, No. 1, January 1920, p. 15 |
| December 19, 1919 | President Wilson signs a proclamation creating the Yucca House National Monument | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-6-2017 |
| December 26, 1919 | Mount Streeter post office established in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 102 |
| December 26, 1919 | Tiger post office established in Summit County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 141 |
| December 26, 1919 | Delhi post office established in Las Animas County, moved from Edwest | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 43 |
| December 26, 1919 | Edwest post office discontinued in Las Animas County, moved to Delhi | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 49 |
| December 27, 1919 | Micheols post office established in Montrose County, probably never operated | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 98 |
| December 31, 1919 | Sams post office discontinued in San Miguel County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 127 |
| December 31, 1919 | Swift post office discontinued in Lincoln County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 138 |
| 1920 | Roggen News begins publishing in Roggen | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 147 |
| 1920 | Hibbard post office established in El Paso County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 71 |
| 1920 | Englewood Advertiser ceases publishing in Englewood | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 5 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|---|
| 1920 | Englewood Herald begins publishing in Englewood | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 5 |
| 1920 | Baca County Republican begins publishing in Springfield | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 8 |
| 1920 | Romeo Journal begins publishing in Romeo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 23 |
| 1920 | Nazione ceases publishing in Italian in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 41 |
| 1920 | Colorado Progressive ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 46 |
| 1920 | Colorado Union Farmer begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| 1920 | Glen Eyrie begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| 1920 | Rocky Mountain Mirror begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| 1920 | Elbert County Banner ceases publishing in Elizabeth | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 55 |
| 1920 | Clarin Americano ceases publishing in Spanish in Walsenburg | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 79 |
| 1920 | Optimist begins publishing in Walsenburg | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 79 |
| 1920 | Community News begins publishing in Edgewater | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 81 |
| 1920 | Golden Globe ceases publishing in Golden | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 82 |
| 1920 | Arlington Advance begins publishing in Arlington | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 83 |
| 1920 | National Issue begins publishing in Branson | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 94 |
| 1920 | General News begins publishing in Delhi | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 94 |
| 1920 | Trinidad Democrat ceases publishing in Trinidad | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 97 |
| 1920 | Pioneer Chieftain begins publishing in Ackmen | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 106 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|--|
| 1920 | Montrose Daily Enterprise begins publishing in Montrose | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 107 |
| 1920 | Farmers Exchange Bulletin begins publishing in Montrose | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 107 |
| 1920 | Western Slope Criterion ceases publishing in Olathe, continues as Olathe Criterion | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 108 |
| 1920 | Olathe Criterion begins publishing in Olathe | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 108 |
| 1920 | Orchard Organ ceases publishing in Orchard | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 109 |
| 1920 | Otero County Democrat ceases publishing in La Junta, continues as Otero County Democrat-Press | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 110 |
| 1920 | Otero County Press ceases publishing in La Junta, merges with Otero County Democrat | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 111 |
| 1920 | Otero County Democrat-Press begins publishing in La Junta | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 111 |
| 1920 | Megaphone ceases publishing in Pueblo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 125 |
| 1920 | Oak Creek Herald ceases publishing in Oak Creek | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 128 |
| 1920 | Victor Times Record begins publishing in Victor | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 140 |
| 1920 | Central Farm News ceases publishing in Greeley | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 144 |
| 1920 | Crow Creek News ceases publishing in Hereford | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 145 |
| 1920 | Keene Valley Tribune ceases publishing in Keenesburg | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 145 |
| 1920 | Keenesburg News begins publishing in Keenesburg | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 145 |
| 1920 | Trucks registered in Colorado this year total 7,585 | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 567 |
| 1920 | By this date 122,138 telephones were in use throughout Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 584 |
| 1920 | Dr. W.D. Reynolds establishes the "pioneer broadcasting service" in Colorado Springs, moving to Denver where it became KLZ | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 585 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|--|
| 1920 | Frederick Edward Clements and his wife, Edith Schwartz Clements publish a joint work, Rocky Mountain Flowers , which she illustrates with color drawings | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 24 |
| 1920 | The census enumerates 2,464 Japanese in Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 117 |
| 1920 | A sugar factory is built in Fort Lupton | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 141 |
| 1920 | Colorado Wheat Growers' Association is formed | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 155 |
| 1920 | The College of Music is created by the University of Colorado leading to granting bachelor degrees in Music | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 472 |
| 1920 | Colorado Woman's College becomes a junior college | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 482 |
| 1920 | J.H. Empson retires from the J.H. Empson and Daughter Company though the company continues to thrive and in 1927 combines with Kuner to form the Kuner-Empson Company | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 573 |
| 1920 | Otto Baur's bakery in Denver now employees 150 people | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 577 |
| 1920 | By now only four brewers remain in Colorado: Adolph Coors Co. at Golden, Tivoli Brewing Co. of Denver, Philip Schneider of Trinidad and Walters of Pueblo | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 578 |
| 1920 | Colorado's population is 939,629 | Mary Fretch, state editor, Chronology and Documentary Handbook of the State of Colorado, 1973, p. 14 |
| 1920 | Bourk-Donaldson-Taylor Building is completed at 1639 18th Street at Wynkoop to house the wholesale produce and candy brokers featuring a BDT monogram on the exterior of the structure in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 67 |
| 1920 | The carriage house of the Toll House - built a block away from the 919 Race Street site - is enlarged by William E. Fisher and becomes the Henry W. Toll, Jr. House at 777 Vine St. in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 88 |
| 1920 | Park Hill Branch Library opens at 4705 Montview Boulevard in Denver; designed by Merrill H. and Burnham F. Hoyt a Carnegie library | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 98 |
| 1920 | The Elyria Branch Library opens at 1901 E. 47th; designed by Harry James Manning; it's one of eight Carnegie libraries in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 111 |
| 1920 | The Pillar of Fire Church purchases the campus of Westminster University at 3455 West 83rd Avenue for $40,000 and changed the name to Bellevue College | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 122 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|---|
| 1920 | Littleton High School is constructed at 5776 S. Crocker Street ; designed by Robert K. Fuller; later converted into the Littleton Public Schools Administration Building | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 125 |
| 1920 | Littleton Town Hall is constructed at 2450 W. Main Street; designed by Jacques Benedict | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 126 |
| 1920 | George Gano builds a 32-room home at 4100 S. University; designed by William E. Fisher and Arthur A. Fisher; known later as the The Gano-Bradley Mansion | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 134 |
| 1920 | Waite Phillips buys the Springer Ranch southwest of Denver in what will become Highlands Ranch in the 1980s | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 146 |
| 1920 | Bells of Granite Glen Museum built at 30213 Upper Bear Creek by Arthur H. Jones; while the three-story log and granite structure was being constructed the family lived in tents | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 166 |
| 1920 | The Mayo House is built at 32743 Upper Bear Creek Road near Evergreen; designed by Jacques Benedict near Evergreen; marked now by a wrought-iron gate reading "Rosedale" | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 166 |
| 1920 | Shrine of St. Anne Catholic Church is built at 7555 Grant Place in Arvada; designed by Harry James Manning | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 169 |
| 1920 | The Rialto Theater opens in Loveland with 1,014 seats at 228-230 E. 4th Street as designed by Robert K. Fuller | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 237 |
| 1920 | Great Western Sugar opens a sugar beet processing plant designed by James Stewart and Co. near Fort Lupton; it is abandoned in 1953 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 249 |
| 1920 | Sterling Banker George A. Henderson has a building designed by Eugene G. Groves for 223 Main Street; named it the I&M Building for his daughters Isabel & Mildred | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 257 |
| 1920 | Farmers State Bank opens in Sedgwick at 100 Main Street; the upper floor was the Sedgwick Hotel | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 261 |
| 1920 | Sedgwick High School is constructed at 300 5th Street; designed by Wilson and Wilson; closed in 1966 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 261 |
| 1920 | United Methodist Church is completed at Main and 3rd Streets in Akron | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 271 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|--|
| 1920 | Otis Hotel opens in the Washington County town of the same name at 110 S. Washington Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 272 |
| 1920 | A school house is built on a hill south of Matheson in the Beaux-Arts classical style | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 276 |
| 1920 | Bell House is converted to a restaurant by chef Sigfried Krauss and his wife and becomes known as Briarhurst Inn | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 309 |
| 1920 | Manitou Spa opens at 934 Manitou Avenue | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 311 |
| 1920 | Ohio-Colorado Smelting and Refining Company closes its business in Salida | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 352 |
| 1920 | Rectory added to the Sangre de Cristo Catholic Church in San Luis | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 412 |
| 1920 | Fall River Road opens to Rocky Mountain National Park and John Holzwarth begins taking in visitors at his ranch for $2 a day; he adds other buildings including an icehouse, woodshed, guest houses and a taxidermy shop | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 456 |
| 1920 | Woody Creek gets a post office after more than 30 years of existence | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 501 |
| 1920 | State Home and Training School opens in Grand Junction in the former Teller Institute for Indians at 2800 Road D | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 508 |
| 1920 | Nichols House is completed behind the Nichols store in Rangely | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 515 |
| 1920 | Strikebreakers kill seven bystanders during the Denver Tramway strike | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xv |
| 1920 | Elizabeth Byers, widow of the newspaper editor, dies in Denver and is buried at Fairmount | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 25 |
| 1920 | Denver's population reaches 256,491 | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 48 |
| 1920 | Colorado has nearly 60,000 farms this year, up from the 1,800 a half century earlier | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 50 |
| 1920 | Philip S. Van Cise is elected Denver district attorney; he finds widespread corruption and illegal drinking | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 84 |
| 1920 | The Nazarene church is established at Armel, in Yuma County | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 198 |
| 1920 | The Women's Christian Temperance Union (WCTU) is established in Yuma, in Yuma County | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 200 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|---|--|
| 1920s | Silver Heels Tavern is built at 11 Main Street in Alma and named for a prostitute who nursed local miners through a smallpox epidemic | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 215 |
| 1920s | Lamar Theater opens at 219 S. Main Street with an Art Deco motif | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 385 |
| 1920s | American Legion Hall opens in Center at 204 Worth Street in Saguache County | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 440 |
| 1920s | Cozens ranch outside of Frazer is used as a church retreat known as Maryvale thanks to the donation from Mary Cozens; it was used until the 1980s | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 452 |
| 1920s | City Market grocery store is opened by the Prinster Brothers in Grand Junction | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 502 |
| 1920s | Fox Theater opens in Montrose at 23 S. Cascade Avenue | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 579 |
| 1920s | Crown Hill Cemetery adds its Tower of Memories at W. 29th and Wadsworth Boulevard | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 133 |
| circa 1920 | Hart House is built at 11937 E. Colfax Avenue in Aurora a two story hexagonal windmill now known as the Novelty Windmill | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 138 |
| circa 1920 | A two-room beet worker's shack, typical of the houses used by laborers, is part of the displays at Greeley's Centennial Village Museum | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 241 |
| circa 1920 | Otis Pool Hall opens at 1st and Washington Streets | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 272 |
| circa 1920 | Haskin Medical Building opens in Center at 220 Worth Avenue in Saguache County | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 440 |
| circa 1920 | Stonemason Carl Howelsen builds the Furlong Building at 810 Lincoln Avenue in Steamboat Springs | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 522 |
| January 4, 1920 | Pinneo post office established in Washington County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 114 |
| January 5, 1920 | Deer Trail incorporated in Arapahoe County | 1926 Gazeteer of Cities and Towns of Colorado, 1926 Colorado Yearbook, Colorado State Board of Immigration |
| January 6, 1920 | Elizabeth Byers, widow of W.N. Byers dies in California | The First Hundred Years by Robert L. Perkin, p. 335 |
| January 6, 1920 | Pauley post office established in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 111 |
| January 13, 1920 | North Veta post office established in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 106 |
| January 15, 1920 | Century Building 17th and Stout razed | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|--|
| January 22, 1920 | Milner post office established in Routt County, formerly named Pool. | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 98 |
| January 31, 1920 | Kuhns Crossing post office discontinued in Elbert County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 84 |
| January 31, 1920 | Spence post office discontinued in Washington County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 134 |
| 1920s | Cherry Hills Village is established south of Hampden Avenue as a 6.5 square mile community | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 133 |
| February 1920 | Great Southwest News begins publishing in Lamar | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 120 |
| February 2, 1920 | Verdun post office established in Prowers County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 146 |
| February 5, 1920 | Prowers County News ceases publishing in Lamar | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 120 |
| February 9, 1920 | Romley post office established in Chaffee County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 124 |
| February 10, 1920 | Kazan post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 81 |
| February 11, 1920 | Clanda post office established in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 34 |
| February 14, 1920 | Lodge post office discontinued in Gunnison County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 90 |
| February 14, 1920 | Overland post office discontinued in Denver County, located within Denver | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 109 |
| February 16, 1920 | Andrix post office established in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 12 |
| February 20, 1920 | Regnier post office gets a new postmaster in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 120 |
| March 1920 | Center Consolidated School in Saguache County is dedicated | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 184 |
| March 5, 1920 | Lytle post office discontinued in El Paso County, place named Turkey Creek | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 92 |
| March 9, 1920 | Irwin Canyon post office established in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 78 |
| March 16, 1920 | Eckley incorporated in Yuma County, 145 acres | 1926 Gazeteer of Cities and Towns of Colorado, 1926 Colorado Yearbook, Colorado State Board of Immigration |

| Date | Event | Source |
|----------------|--|---|
| 1920 | Population of Yuma County is 13,895 | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 196 |
| April 1, 1920 | Colorado's population increases 17.60 percent since the 1910 census with 939,639 recorded in this enumeration | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-6-2017 |
| April 13, 1920 | Robb post office established in Yuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 122 |
| April 15, 1920 | Irving post office discontinued in Douglas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 78 |
| April 15, 1920 | Stamford post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 135 |
| April 20, 1920 | Villapark post office discontinued in Arapahoe County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 147 |
| April 21, 1920 | Spanish Peaks post office established in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 134 |
| April 21, 1920 | Deora post office established in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 45 |
| April 23, 1920 | The first of what became an annual event, the song festival, is held at Stratton Park in Colorado Springs | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 186 |
| April 30, 1920 | Elbert County Tribune ceases publishing in Elbert, continues as Elbert County Tribune in Elizabeth | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 55 |
| May 7, 1920 | Elbert County Tribune begins publishing in Elizabeth | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 55 |
| May 11, 1920 | Jasper post office established in Rio Grande County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 80 |
| May 15, 1920 | Medill post office discontinued in Cheyenne County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 97 |
| May 31, 1920 | Glen post office discontinued in Washington County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 62 |
| May 31, 1920 | Goldhill post office discontinued in Boulder County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 63 |
| May 31, 1920 | Setonsburg post office discontinued in Baca County, formerly named Seton | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 131 |
| May 31, 1920 | Duer post office discontinued in Prowers County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 47 |
| June 1920 | Fort Collins Courier ceases publishing in Fort Collins | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 91 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|---------------|---|--|
| June 1920 | Larimer County Democrat ceases publishing in Fort Collins | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 91 |
| June 1920 | Fort Collins Express ceases publishing in Fort Collins | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 92 |
| June 2, 1920 | Crossons post office established in Jefferson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 40 |
| June 3, 1920 | Branson incorporated in Las Animas County, 300 acres | 1926 Gazeteer of Cities and Towns of Colorado, 1926 Colorado Yearbook, Colorado State Board of Immigration |
| June 12, 1920 | Cahone post office established in Dolores County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 27 |
| June 12, 1920 | Ophir (I) post office established in San Miguel County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 108 |
| June 14, 1920 | Fort Lyon (II) post office discontinued in Bent County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 57 |
| June 15, 1920 | Clyde post office discontinued in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 35 |
| June 15, 1920 | Pride post office discontinued in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 116 |
| June 15, 1920 | Verdun post office discontinued in Prowers County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 146 |
| June 17, 1920 | Hydrate post office established in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 76 |
| June 17, 1920 | Elkdale post office established in Grand County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 50 |
| June 22, 1920 | Timnath incorporated in Larimer County, 70 acres | 1926 Gazeteer of Cities and Towns of Colorado, 1926 Colorado Yearbook, Colorado State Board of Immigration |
| June 23, 1920 | Crescent post office established in Boulder County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 39 |
| June 30, 1920 | Disappointment post office discontinued in Dolores County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 45 |
| July 1920 | The U.S. Army renames Army Hospital 21 as Fitzsimons Army Hospital | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-6-2017 |
| July 1, 1920 | Dillingham post office discontinued in Washington County, name changed to De Nova | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 45 |
| July 2, 1920 | Larimer County Independent begins publishing in Fort Collins | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 92 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|----------------|--|--|
| July 3, 1920 | Emma post office discontinued in Eagle County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 51 |
| July 7, 1920 | Joylan post office discontinued in Jefferson County, name changed to Starbuck | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 80 |
| July 7, 1920 | Starbuck post office established in Jefferson County, formerly named Joylan | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 135 |
| July 14, 1820 | Edwin James and two other members of a U.S. Army expedition led by Major Stephen Long make the first recorded ascent of Pikes Peak; Major Long names the mountain James Peak | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-13-2017 |
| July 15, 1920 | Atchee post office discontinued in Garfield County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 15 |
| July 15, 1920 | United Americans begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| July 20, 1920 | Turret post office established in Chaffee County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 144 |
| July 20, 1920 | Roma ceases publishing in Italian in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 38 |
| July 30, 1920 | Haswell incorporated in Kiowa County, 320 acres | 1926 Gazeteer of Cities and Towns of Colorado, 1926 Colorado Yearbook, Colorado State Board of Immigration |
| July 31, 1920 | Hoopup post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 74 |
| July 31, 1920 | Maxey post office discontinued in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 96 |
| July 31, 1920 | Turret post office discontinued in Chaffee County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 144 |
| August 1, 1920 | Colorado Republican begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| August 1920 | Auto Show held in Denver's Civic Center | Municipal Facts , Vol. 4, No. 9&10, September-October 1921, p. 14 |
| August 1920 | Gates Rubber Company; Brecht Chocolates; Merchants Biscuit Company in Denver | Municipal Facts , Vol. 3, No 9, Aug 1920, p. 7 |
| August 1, 1920 | Some 900 Denver Tramway Company streetcar drivers walk off the job in a pay dispute | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 83 |
| August 2, 1920 | Hyde post office established in Yuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 76 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------------|--|--|
| August 5, 1920 | Rioting breaks out in Denver during the streetcar strike; 7 people die of gunshots; 2 streetcars are set afire at 40th and Williams; attempts are made to set fire to the streetcar barn; streetcars are overturned and vandalized; the Denver Post building is ransacked; troops from Fort Logan finally restore order | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| August 5, 1920 | Denver Tramway Company stiking drivers attack DTC headquarters at 14th & Arapahoe and then storm the offices of the Denver Post for supporting the company | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 83 |
| August 6-October 2, 1920 | Some 700 U.S. Army soldiers are sheltered in the Denver Auditorium during duty to quell the turmoli of the Tramway strike | Municipal Facts , Vol. 3, No. 10, October 1920, p. 15 |
| August 7, 1920 | Ironton post office discontinued in Ouray County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 78 |
| August 1920 | Strikebreakers hired by the Denver Tramway Company kill seven innocent bystanders before federal troops restore order in Denver; the strike is broken and so is the union of the Tramway Company drivers | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 83 |
| August 10, 1920 | Rapson post office established in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 119 |
| August 16, 1920 | Plains post office discontinued in Prowers County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 115 |
| August 19, 1920 | Northdale post office discontinued in Dolores County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 106 |
| August 30, 1920 | Plains post office established in Prowers County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 115 |
| August 31, 1920 | Atwell post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 15 |
| August 31, 1920 | Cherry post office discontinued in Douglas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 33 |
| August 31, 1920 | Edenview post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 49 |
| September 1920 | Transcontinental airmail service begins between New York and San Francisco, by-passing Colorado for Cheyenne | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 574 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|---|---|
| September 3, 1920 | Ruin Canyon post office established in Montezuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 125 |
| September 4, 1920 | Woody Creek post office established in Pitkin County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 154 |
| September 15, 1920 | Hermit post office discontinued in Hinsdale County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 71 |
| September 27, 1920 | Atchee post office established in Garfield County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 15 |
| September 27, 1920 | Hoopup post office established in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 74 |
| September 3, 1920 | Caisson post office established in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 27 |
| September 30, 1920 | Kuner post office discontinued in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 84 |
| October 1920 | Map of the proposed Tri Tunnels: Moffat, Monarch & San Juan to link the eastern and western slopes | Municipal Facts , Vol. 3, No. 10, October 1920, p. 4 |
| October 7, 1920 | The Sociedad Protección Matua de Trabajadores Unidos (SPMDTU) Concilio No. 31 opens at the southwest corner of Costilla County L.7 and 22.3; the fraternal workers' mutual protection society was founded in 1900 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 414 |
| October 14, 1920 | Liberty post office established in Saguache County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 89 |
| October 15, 1920 | Husted post office discontinued in El Paso County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 76 |
| October 19, 1920 | The Colorado State Music Teachers' Association opens a three day conference at the Wolcott School Auditorium | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 471 |
| October 21, 1920 | Denver school bonds in the amount of $2,000,000 authorized | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| October 30, 1920 | Capitol City post office discontinued in Hinsdale County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 28 |
| October 30, 1920 | Spanish Peaks post office discontinued in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 134 |
| November 2, 1920 | Eagle incorporated in Eagle County, 120 acres | 1926 Gazeteer of Cities and Towns of Colorado, 1926 Colorado Yearbook, Colorado State Board of Immigration |
| November 3, 1920 | Squaw Point post office established in Dolores County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 135 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|---|
| 1920s | Mullen Nurses Home completed at 1895 Franklin Street; designed by Temple Hoyne Buell in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 87 |
| November 15, 1920 | Robb post office discontinued in Yuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 122 |
| November 15, 1920 | Denver & Rio Grande Western Railroad Company is incorporated | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 680 |
| November 17, 1920 | Spargo post office established in Montezuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 134 |
| November 18, 1920 | Milner post office discontinued in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 98 |
| January 22, 1920 | Pool post office discontinued in Routt County, name changed to Milner | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 115 |
| November 30, 1920 | Grimaldi post office discontinued in Pueblo County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 67 |
| November 30, 1920 | Stage Canyon post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 135 |
| November 30, 1920 | Cousin Springs post office discontinued in Pueblo County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 39 |
| December 5, 1920 | Douglas Fairbanks becomes the first Coloradoan to star in a major motion picture, The Mark of Zorro | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-6-2017 |
| December 10, 1920 | Ilse post office established in Custer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 77 |
| December 13, 1920 | Lobatos post office discontinued in Conejos County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 89 |
| December 16, 1920 | Paulus post office established in Jackson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 111 |
| December 17, 1920 | Northdale post office established in Dolores County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 106 |
| December 30, 1920 | Boulder County Miner ceases publishing, continued as Boulder County Miner and Farmer in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 11 |
| December 31, 1920 | Bassick post office discontinued in Custer County, near Querida | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 17 |
| December 31, 1920 | Lakewood post office discontinued in Boulder County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 85 |
| December 31, 1920 | Magnolia post office discontinued in Boulder County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 92 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|---|
| December 31, 1920 | Mogote post office discontinued in Conejos County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 99 |
| December 31, 1920 | Paisaje post office discontinued in Conejos County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 109 |
| before 1924 | Fort Lyon (II) post office discontinued in Bent County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 57 |
| July 31, 1920 | Lasauses post office discontinued in Conejos County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 86 |
| 1921 | Roggen News ceases publishing in Roggen | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 147 |
| 1921 | Denver Advertiser ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 46 |
| 1921 | Great Western ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 46 |
| 1921 | United Americans ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| 1921 | Colorado Republican ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| 1921 | Glen Eyrie ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| 1921 | America begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| 1921 | Community Herald begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| 1921 | New American begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| 1921 | Dove Creek Inland Empire begins publishing in Dove Creek | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 51 |
| 1921 | Agate Post begins publishing in Agate | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 55 |
| 1921 | Colorado Press ceases publishing in Canon City | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 65 |
| 1921 | La Veta Enterprise ceases publishing in La Veta | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 79 |
| 1921 | La Veta Leader and Enterprise begins publishing in La Veta | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 79 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|--|
| 1921 | Community News ceases publishing in Edgewater | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 81 |
| 1921 | Union News begins publishing in Golden | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 82 |
| 1921 | Arlington Advance ceases publishing in Arlington | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 83 |
| 1921 | Fort Collins News begins publishing in Fort Collins | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 92 |
| 1921 | National Issue ceases publishing in Branson | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 94 |
| 1921 | Plum Valley Leader ceases publishing in Plum Valley | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 95 |
| 1921 | Timpas Times begins publishing in Timpas | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 113 |
| 1921 | Plaindealer ceases publishing in Ouray | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 114 |
| 1921 | Star Herald ceases publishing in Holyoke, continues as Phillips County Herald | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 116 |
| 1921 | Phillips County Herald begins publishing in Holyoke | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 116 |
| 1921 | Rising Sun ceases publishing in Pueblo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 125 |
| 1921 | Monte Vista Graphic-Reporter ceases publishing in Monte Vista | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 127 |
| 1921 | Summit County Star ceases publishing in Breckenridge | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 135 |
| 1921 | Victor Nugget begins publishing in Victor | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 140 |
| 1921 | Coal Ridge News begins publishing in Frederick | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 143 |
| 1921 | Yuma County Times ceases publishing in Yuma | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 149 |
| 1921 | The county seat of Eagle County is moved from Redcliff to Eagle | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 410 |
| 1921 | Colorado had 146 consolidated schools in 38 counties | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 186 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|--|
| 1921 | George William Eggers comes to Denver to become director of the Denver Art Museum - his first task - to find a building | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 431 |
| 1921 | Denver organized a Civic Symphony Orchestra begun by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hart and Horace Tureman | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 470 |
| 1921 | Colorado's legislature authorizes the State Normal School of Alamosa | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 475 |
| 1921 | Stearns-Roger Manufacturing Company, the Colorado Iron Works, Vulcan Iron Works, Queen City Foundry, and Denver Engineering Works combine to form the General Iron Works, which is completed in 1924 | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 583 |
| 1921 | Offices of the Stearns-Roger Manufacturing Company are destroyed by the flood in Pueblo; it carried away patterns, machinery, and other items | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 585 |
| 1921 | Wright and McGill Fishing Equipment Company is organized in Denver by bank examiner Stan M. Wright and his cousin A.D. McGill; they set up their business in the Clayton Building at 17th and Lawrence Streets, later moving to 1463 York, Colfax and Lincoln and 431 Grant | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 603 |
| 1921 | State Board of Corrections given control over the state penitentiary, reformatory and hospital | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 610 |
| 1921 | Flood waters devastate Pueblo causing $20 million in damage | Mary Fretch, state editor, Chronology and Documentary Handbook of the State of Colorado, 1973, p. 14 |
| 1921 | The home of Oscar Malo is completed at 500 E. 8th Avenue in Denver on the corner of Pennsylvania; designed by Harry James Manning | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 75 |
| 1921 | The Brown-Garrey-Congdon House in completed at 1300 E. 7th Ave; designed by Jacques Benedict in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 93 |
| 1921 | Carl Schwalb builds a house at 2325 E. 7th Avenue Parkway; designed by Marean and Norton in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 93 |
| 1921 | House at 4050 Mountview Boulevard is completed; designed by Jacques Benedict in Tuscan-style | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 99 |
| 1921 | College of the Sacred Heart on West 50th Avenue Parkway between Lowell Boulevard and Irving is renamed Regis College and later becomes Regis University | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 105 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|---|
| 1921 | The Armory in Brighton is completed at 300 Strong Street on the corner of Cabbage Avenue; designed by John J. Huddart and looking somewhat like a medieval castle | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 119 |
| 1921 | Buffalo Bill's Grave and Museum opens on Lookout Mountain in Jefferson County; designed by Edwin H. Moorman following Cody's burial there in 1917 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 156 |
| 1921 | Evergreen's first public library is completed | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 164 |
| 1921 | Hellems Arts and Sciences Building is the first building on the University of Colorado Boulder campus designed by Charles Klauder | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 179 |
| 1921 | State Armory is constructed at 614 8th Avenue in Greeley similar to those in Brighton, Cañon City, and Fort Morgan among other places; the two-story beige brick hall is now a restaurant and saloon | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 243 |
| 1921 | Three women's dormitories are built on the campus of Colorado State Teachers College in Greeley: Belford, Gordon and Decker Halls | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 246 |
| 1921 | Kiowa High School is completed at 700 E. Comanche | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 274 |
| 1921 | Agate Community Church opens at 1st and Monroe Streets, built by a Baptist Congregation | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 274 |
| 1921 | State Armory is built in Cañon City across from the Warden's House | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 342 |
| 1921 | Crowley High School opens at 200 E. Main Street; designed by W.E. Strickney | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 396 |
| 1921 | Red Cliff loses its position as the county seat of Eagle County to the town of Eagle | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 478 |
| 1921 | Ellison House is built in Grand Junction at 520 N. 7th Street for the owner of a local lumber company | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 507 |
| 1921 | Sacred Heart Catholic Church is built by Nunzio Grasso at 513 E. Aspen in Fruita | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 512 |
| 1921 | United Presbyterian Church of Eckert opens on Main Street (Colorado 65) in what is now Orchard City | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 535 |
| 1921 | School District No. 6 Schoolhouse built in Montrose County 2 miles east of Cimarron | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 583 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|--|---|
| 1921 | Jesse Nusbaum builds the Superintendent's Residence at Mesa Verde National Park on the rim of Spruce Tree Canyon; additions are made in the 1930s | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 602 |
| 1921 | A smallpox epidemic starts in Denver that kills more than 200 people before the end of 1922 | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 84 |
| 1921 | Walter R. Chapman, an African American, buys a home at 2112 Gilpin Street in a white neighborhood and his house is bombed; he sells his home to another black man and the home is bombed a second time | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 136 |
| 1921 | Broadway extension in Denver completed at a cost of $601,278 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| 1921 | Paved road between Denver and Morrison opens | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| 1921 | West Side Court structure in Denver built at a cost of $218,000 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| 1921 | North side storm sewer completed at a cost of $372,000 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| 1921 | P.E.O. Sisterhood is established at Yuma, in Yuma County | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 199 |
| 1921 | Wray Hospital is established in Yuma County | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 200 |
| 1921 | Shannon Grain Company's elevator built at Wray, in Yuma County | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 200 |
| unknown | Regnier post office discontinued in Baca County and is later listed in Oklahoma | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 120 |
| January 1921 | Curb Trader begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| January 1921 | Nearly completed West Side court building; new Elyria Branch Library; Globeville Community House; Park Hill Branch Library | Municipal Facts , Vol. 4, No. 1&2, January-February 1921, p. 10 |
| January 6, 1921 | Boulder County Miner and Farmer begins publishing in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 11 |
| January 15, 1921 | Cedar post office discontinued in San Miguel County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 31 |
| January 15, 1921 | Flat Top post office discontinued in Washington County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 54 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|--|
| January 15, 1921 | Cucharas post office discontinued in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 41 |
| January 27, 1921 | Milner post office established in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 98 |
| January 31, 1921 | Ophir (I) post office discontinued in San Miguel County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 108 |
| February 15, 1921 | Bland post office discontinued in Elbert County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 21 |
| February 15, 1921 | Camfield post office discontinued in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 27 |
| February 15, 1921 | Moraine Park post office discontinued in Larimer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 101 |
| March 1921 | Construction of the "Pahaska Teepee" on Lookout Mountain a joint project of the City and County of Denver and Johnny Baker, foster son of William F. Cody | Municipal Facts , Vol. 4, No. 3, March 1921, p. 11 |
| March 1921 | Colfax Avenue closed to make a bend to make the Bates Triangle part of the Civic Center | Municipal Facts , Vol. 4, No. 3, March 1921, p. 11 |
| March 14, 1921 | Fire destroys the railroad bridge at Holyoke; by March 16th a temporary bridge had been constructed | Centennial History of Phillips County, Colorado - Those Were The Days , Phillips County Historical Society, p. 26 |
| March 15, 1921 | Plains post office discontinued in Prowers County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 115 |
| March 28, 1921 | Willow Gulch post office established in Dolores County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 153 |
| March 31, 1921 | Liberty post office discontinued in Saguache County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 89 |
| March 31, 1921 | Watervale post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 149 |
| April 1921 | Article about the name of the Colorado River being applied to the former Grand River from its source on the slopes of Mt. Richthofen in Middle Park instead of its junction with the Green River in Utah | Municipal Facts , Vol. 4, No. 4&5, April-May 1921, p. 13 |
| April-May 1921 | Denver Civic Center from an airplane showing from the state capitol to downtown and the mountains with a fake plane - numerous other aerial photos are in this edition including closeup of 77 Pennsylvania on the block between 1st Avenue and Ellsworth | Municipal Facts , Vol. 4, No. 4&5, April-May 1921, p. 1 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|----------------|--|--|
| April 9, 1921 | De Beque New Era ceases publishing in De Beque, continues as De Beque Shale and Oil News | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 102 |
| April 13, 1921 | Glentivar post office established in Park County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 63 |
| April 15, 1921 | Estes Park Trail begins publishing in Estes Park | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 90 |
| April 16, 1921 | De Beque Shale and Oil News begins publishing in De Beque | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 102 |
| April 19, 1921 | Articles of incorporation change the name of Sacred Heart College to Regis College | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 478 |
| April 21, 1921 | Konantz post office established in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 83 |
| April 30, 1921 | Hanover post office discontinued in El Paso County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 68 |
| May 5, 1921 | Focus post office established in Custer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 54 |
| May 31, 1921 | Bonanza post office discontinued in Saguache County, not effected, operation was continuous | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 22 |
| May 31, 1921 | Heartstrong post office established in Yuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 70 |
| May 31, 1921 | Concrete post office discontinued in Fremont County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 36 |
| June-July 1921 | Denver eliminates "oblique" parking because of the narrowness of the streets, parallel parking is okay | Municipal Facts , Vol. 4, No. 6&7, June-July 1921, p. 14 |
| June 2, 1921 | Grand River name changed to Colorado River | Denver Post June 2, 1921 p. 1; Rocky Mountain News March 24, 1921 |
| June 2, 1921 | Rains begin in Pueblo which will continue for two days and causes the most massive flood in the town's history; 510 dwellings are washed away, 98 buildings are wrecked, 61 swept off their foundations causing $19 million in damage; 78 bodies are recovered and more never found | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 531 |
| June 3, 1921 | A torrential downpour northwest of Pueblo sends cascades of water down the Arkansas River and Fountain Creek taking the lives of over 100 and devastating the community with over $20 million in losses | Summit of Destiny: Taming the Pikes Peak Country 1858-1918 , 2008, Francis J. Pierson, p. 315 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|---------------|---|---|
| June 3, 1921 | Flooding on the Arkansas River and Fountain Creek kills about 1,500 of people and causes over $20 million in damage in and around Pueblo | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-6-2017 |
| June 10, 1921 | Bijouview post office discontinued in Morgan County, spelling changed to Bijou View | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 20 |
| June 10, 1921 | Bijou View post office established in Morgan County, formerly spelled Bijouview | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 20 |
| June 20, 1921 | Greystone post office established in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 67 |
| June 24, 1921 | Westland ceases publishing in Brandon, continues as Brandon News | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 83 |
| June 27, 1921 | Bonanza post office established in Saguache County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 22 |
| June 30, 1921 | Baker post office discontinued in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 16 |
| June 30, 1921 | Online post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 107 |
| June 30, 1921 | Pinewood post office discontinued in Larimer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 113 |
| June 30, 1921 | Pinon post office discontinued in Pueblo County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 114 |
| June 30, 1921 | Rule post office discontinued in Bent County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 125 |
| June 30, 1921 | Wentworth post office discontinued in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 150 |
| July 1921 | Silverton Miner ceases publishing in Silverton | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 131 |
| July 1921 | State Office Building is first used across from the capitol building in Denver at a cost of $1.250,000 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| July 7, 1921 | Brandon News begins publishing in Brandon | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 83 |
| July 7, 1921 | Kit Carson County Record ceases publishing in Burlington, continues as Burlington Republican | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 84 |
| July 14, 1921 | Burlington Republican begins publishing in Burlington | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 84 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|--|--|
| July 20, 1921 | Kant post office established in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 81 |
| July 21, 1921 | The Grand River tributary to the Colorado River is renamed the Colorado River with its source in Colorado; many locations retain their names - Grand Valley, Grand Junction, Grand Lake, Grand County, et al | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-6-2017 |
| August 1921 | "Evidence that a branch of the Ku Klux Klan has been organized in Denver was brought to Mayor Bailey's attention last month... such an organization would seem to be entirely out of place anywhere in the U.S" [only mention of the KKK in Municipal Facts] | Municipal Facts , Vol. 4, No. 8, August 1921, p. 2 |
| August 1, 1921 | Voorhies Memorial in Civic Center in Denver dedicated at a cost of $133,000 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| August 10, 1921 | Foothills post office established in Pueblo County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 54 |
| August 19, 1921 | Work begins on the D.L.D. [Detroit Lincoln Denver Route] in Phillips County with the expectation that $30,000 will be spent on the project. | Centennial History of Phillips County, Colorado - Those Were The Days , Phillips County Historical Society, p. 26 |
| August 19, 1921 | Niwot Tribune begins publishing in Niwot | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 15 |
| August 31, 1921 | Graycreek post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 65 |
| 1921 | Broadway Extension completed between 19th & Broadway and 26th and Blake Streets | Municipal Facts , Vol. 4, No. 11&12, November-December 1921, p. 6 & 7 |
| September 1921 | Sargent Co-Operator begins publishing in Monte Vista | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 127 |
| September 3, 1921 | Third Annual Campfire of the Cactus Club is held on Lookout Mountain | Municipal Facts , Vol. 4, No. 9&10, September-October 1921, p. 11 |
| September 15, 1921 | Wallstreet post office discontinued in Boulder County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 148 |
| September 20, 1921 | Crowley incorporated in Crowley County, 142 acres | 1926 Gazeteer of Cities and Towns of Colorado, 1926 Colorado Yearbook, Colorado State Board of Immigration |
| September 21, 1921 | Boulder Tribune ceases publishing in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 10 |
| September 30, 1921 | Burnt Mill post office discontinued in Pueblo County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 26 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------------|---|---|
| September 30, 1921 | Cathedral post office discontinued in Hinsdale County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 31 |
| September 30, 1921 | Garnett post office discontinued in Alamosa County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 60 |
| September 30, 1921 | Rene post office discontinued in Otero County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 120 |
| September-October 1921 | Aerial photo of Golden with the Lariat Trail up Lookout Mountain | Municipal Facts , Vol. 4, No. 9&10, September-October 1921, p. 3 |
| October 1, 1921 | Davis' Auction Bulletin begins publishing in Delta | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 26 |
| October 11, 1921 | Brook Forest post office established in Jefferson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 24 |
| October 11, 1921 | Mesaview post office established in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 97 |
| October 15, 1921 | Bald Mountain post office discontinued in Gilpin County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 16 |
| October 15, 1921 | Buffer post office discontinued in Summit County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 25 |
| November 1, 1921 | Fort Lyon (II) post office reestablished in Bent County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 57 |
| November 2, 1921 | Bunell post office discontinued in Adams County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 26 |
| November 2, 1921 | Fitzsimons post office established in Adams County, formerly named Bunell, originally named Camp Speer | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 54 |
| November 15, 1921 | Mount Streeter post office discontinued in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 102 |
| November 15, 1921 | Sunset post office discontinued in Boulder County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 137 |
| November 30, 1921 | Coalview post office discontinued in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 35 |
| December 1921 | Hill's Monthly begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| December 2, 1921 | The Walsenburg Independent is put under strict censorship by the governor because of the editorials being written by editor J.F. Coss which were in favor of the labor side during the coal strike | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 276 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|--|
| December 6, 1921 | Buford post office established in Rio Blanco County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 25 |
| December 8, 1921 | Gilpin Observer ceases publishing in Central City | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 71 |
| December 12, 1921 | Dry Land Record ceases publishing in Kim | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 94 |
| December 24, 1921 | Kirkwell post office discontinued in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 83 |
| December 31, 1921 | Fremont County Leader ceases publishing in Canon City | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 65 |
| 1922 | Hooper -Mosca Tribune ceases publishing in Hooper | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 4 |
| 1922 | Hibbard post office discontinued in El Paso County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 71 |
| 1922 | Determination is made that additional electric capacity is needed to serve the Denver area; this prompts formation of Public Service Company of Colorado and ultimately the construction of the Valmont power plant east of Boulder | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 22 |
| 1920s | Another owner of Flick's Carriage shop lets the American Tobacco Company paint a large Bull Durham sign across the façade of the building; in 1991 the sign is restored and recycled as the Bull Durham Casino | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 198 |
| 1922 | Romeo Journal ceases publishing in Romeo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 23 |
| 1922 | Public Forum ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 46 |
| 1922 | Hill's Monthly ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| 1922 | New American ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| 1922 | Blue Bird Messenger begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| 1922 | Highlands Radio begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| 1922 | Denver Messenger begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|---|
| 1922 | Frying Pan begins publishing in Basalt | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 54 |
| 1922 | Agate Post ceases publishing in Agate | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 55 |
| 1922 | Colorado Springs Index begins publishing in Colorado Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 61 |
| 1922 | Rifle Telegram-Reveille ceases publishing in Rifle | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 68 |
| 1922 | Rifle Telegram begins publishing in Rifle | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 68 |
| 1922 | Optimist ceases publishing in Walsenburg | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 79 |
| 1922 | Union News ceases publishing in Golden | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 82 |
| 1922 | Loveland Leader begins publishing in Loveland | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 93 |
| 1922 | Limon Express ceases publishing in Limon | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 99 |
| 1922 | Eastern Colorado Leader begins publishing in Limon | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 99 |
| 1922 | Sterling Enterprise ceases publishing in Sterling | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 101 |
| 1922 | Industrial Review begins publishing in La Junta | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 111 |
| 1922 | Otero County Star begins publishing in La Junta | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 111 |
| 1922 | Swink Advocate ceases publishing in Swink | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 112 |
| 1922 | Colona News begins publishing in Colona | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 113 |
| 1922 | Pueblo Labor Advocate ceases publishing in Pueblo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 125 |
| 1922 | Coloradeno ceases publishing in Spanish in Pueblo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 125 |
| 1922 | Pueblo County Democrat begins publishing in Pueblo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 125 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|--|
| 1922 | Farm Herald ceases publishing in Fort Lupton | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 143 |
| 1922 | The Moffat Tunnel Improvement District is created by the state legislature | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 572 |
| 1922 | Per Axel Rydberg publishes a second edition of his book, Flora of the Rocky Mountains and Adjacent Plains | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 25 |
| 1922 | A five year Bureau of Reclamation project to reconstruct and rehabilitate the Orchard Mesa Irrigation District near Grand Junction begins | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 130 |
| 1922 | Wyoming's 1911 suit of Colorado over the diversion of water from the Laramie River into the Cache la Poudre Valley is decided and Colorado is limited to 39,750 acre-feet of water | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 131 |
| 1922 | Blanca school districts consolidate into one | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 184 |
| 1922 | Earl R. Hoage becomes president of the American Federation of Labor in Colorado serving 1922-1933 | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 325 |
| 1922 | Mrs. George Cranmer and her brother Delos Chappell give the Chappell home at 1300 Logan Street to the Denver Art Association as a memorial to their parents; this becomes the first home of the Denver Art Association | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 432 |
| 1922 | The president's residence on the campus of Colorado Woman's College is completed | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 482 |
| 1922 | About half the coal mined in Colorado is cut by machine | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 503 |
| 1922 | The Moffat Tunnel District is authorized by the Colorado legislature; six years later the first train passes through the 6.21 mile long tunnel | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 536 |
| 1922 | Drennan post office established in El Paso County, formerly named Hibbard | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 47 |
| 1922 | Work begins on the Moffat Tunnel through a special legislative act | Mary Fretch, state editor, Chronology and Documentary Handbook of the State of Colorado, 1973, p. 14 |
| 1922 | Columbine Mill is completed at 5798 S. Rapp Street in Littleton becoming the towns "skyscraper" with its 64-foot-tall grain storage elevator | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 126 |
| 1922 | Coal Creek School is constructed at 17700 E. 8th Avenue in Aurora | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 137 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|---|
| 1922 | Melvin school is built on the town site near Cherry Creek which was displaced in 1950 when Cherry Creek Dam was built; the school building was moved from Melvin and placed at Quincy Avenue and Parker Road where it became the Emerald Isle Tavern in South Aurora | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 140 |
| 1922 | The Fairplay Hotel opens at 500 Main Street replacing two older hotels that both burned | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 214 |
| 1922 | Ammons Hall is completed on the Colorado State Agricultural College; designed by Eugene Groves for use as a women's gymnasium and social center; also known as the Women's Club Building | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 227 |
| 1922 | The old library in Estes Park is completed; it is used until a new one is constructed in 1991 and a year later the old building is demolished | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 234 |
| 1922 | Fall River Road opens in Rocky Mountain National Park running 9.5 miles between Horshoe Park and Fall River Pass on the Trail Ridge Road | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 238 |
| 1922 | Fall River Pass Ranger Station opens in Rocky Mountain National Park | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 238 |
| 1922 | Carter Hall, designed as a library by Robert S. Roeschlaub, is constructed on the campus of the former State Normal School called at the time Colorado State Teacher's College | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 245 |
| 1922 | Sim Hudson Motor Company opens at 1332 Senter Avenue in Burlington | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 267 |
| 1922 | Colorado Springs Day Nursery is completed at 104 E. Rio Grande Street; designed by William Stickney with murals by Allen Tupper True | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 285 |
| 1922 | City Auditorium opens in Colorado Springs at 221 E. Kiowa Street; designed by Thomas MacLaren and Thomas D. Hetherington | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 287 |
| 1922 | Pueblo's Grand Opera House, designed by Louis Sullivan, burns to the ground | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 315 |
| 1922 | W.D. Corley purchases the abandoned road bed of the Colorado Springs and Cripple Creek Railroad and turns it into the Gold Camp Auto Road | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 334 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|---|
| 1922 | An addition to St. Mary's School in Walsenburg makes it the largest parochial school in Colorado | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 372 |
| 1922 | Trinidad Country Club opens at 142 Nolan Way; designed by Isaac H. Rapp, William M. Rapp & A.C. Hendrickson; now a municipal golf course | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 380 |
| 1922 | Holly Elementary School opens; designed by Mountjoy and Frewen | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 387 |
| 1922 | Armory built in Monte Vista at Washington Street and North 1st Avenue; designed by Mountjoy and Frewen; now J.J.'s Lounge | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 429 |
| 1922 | St. Joseph Catholic Church opens in Monte Vista at 359 Patterson; built by Bernard Noriega using stone blocks and bricks from two predecessor churches | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 430 |
| 1922 | Community House built in the Grand Lake Town Square; now used as a summer theater | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 454 |
| 1922 | Mesa County Courthouse opens on N. 6th Street between Rood and White Avenues; designed by Eugene Groves | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 505 |
| 1922 | State Armory constructed at Craig by John J. Huddart at 590 Yampa Avenue; converted to a museum in 1991 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 517 |
| 1922 | Community United Methodist Church opens in Cedaredge at 3rd & Aspen streets | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 534 |
| 1922 | Montrose County Courthouse opens at 300 S. 1st Street in Montrose; designed by William N. Bowman | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 579 |
| 1922 | Alexander Phimister Proctor creates a statue, On the Warpath , that is placed in Civic Center Park | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 17 |
| 1922 | The revived Ku Klux Klan reaches Denver and grows under the leadership of Grand Dragon John Galen Locke to a dominant political force by 1923 | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 85 |
| 1922 | Denver begins building new schools | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| 1922 | York Street Bridge completed in Denver at a cost of $48,662 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| 1922 | New state office building completed on Colfax across from the state capitol | Municipal Facts , Vol. 5, No. 9&10, September-October 1922, p. 9 |
| 1922 | Tuesday Study Club is organized at Yuma, in Yuma County | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 199 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|--|
| 1922 | Delphian Club is organized at Yuma, in Yuma County | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 199 |
| 1922 | A golf club is started at Wray, in Yuma County | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 200 |
| 1922 | Ladies' Auxilliary of the American Legion Post is organized in Wray, in Yuma County | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 200 |
| 1922 | Wray Telephone Company, in Yuma County, is sold to Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 200 |
| 1922 | J.K. Mullen builds an elevator at Yuma, known as the Denver Elevator, in Yuma County | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 201 |
| 1922 | Farmers' Equity Union Elevators organized in Yuma County at Yuma | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 201 |
| circa 1920s | Valley View Hot Springs opens 5 miles south of Villa Grove on US 285 and then 8 miles east on road CG | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 444 |
| January 1922 | Country Record begins publishing in Kim | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 94 |
| January 14, 1922 | Wootton post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 154 |
| January 17, 1922 | Haxtum post office discontinued in Phillips County, name changed to Haxtun | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 69 |
| January 17, 1922 | Haxtun post office established in Phillips County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 69 |
| January 17, 1922 | Spelling is changed from Haxtum to Haxtun | Centennial History of Phillips County, Colorado - Those Were The Days , Phillips County Historical Society, p. 26 |
| January 23, 1922 | Gotera post office discontinued in Las Animas County, name changed to Lone Oak | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 64 |
| January 23, 1922 | Lone Oak post office established in Las Animas County, formerly named Gotera | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 91 |
| February 15, 1922 | Hebron post office discontinued in Larimer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 70 |
| February 15, 1922 | Monarch post office discontinued in Grand County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 100 |
| February 15, 1922 | Uranium post office discontinued in Montrose County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 145 |
| February 28, 1922 | Happyville post office discontinued in Yuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 68 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|----------------|---|--|
| March 1, 1922 | Fire destroys the Pueblo Opera House | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| March 1, 1922 | KLZ in Denver obtains the first radio station license in Colorado for commercial broadcasting | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| March 10 1922 | Colorado's first radio station begins broadcasting; 9ZAF is licensed as KLZ at 560 AM | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-6-2017 |
| March 20, 1922 | Heaviest snowfall in five years hits Phillips County | Centennial History of Phillips County, Colorado - Those Were The Days , Phillips County Historical Society, p. 27 |
| March 21, 1922 | Omar post office established in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 107 |
| April 1, 1922 | Davis' Auction Bulletin ceases publishing in Delta | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 26 |
| April 15, 1922 | Buttes post office discontinued in El Paso County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 27 |
| April 15, 1922 | Waremont post office discontinued in Pueblo County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 148 |
| May 2, 1922 | Druce post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 47 |
| May 12, 1922 | The Colorado General Assembly passes a measure calling for creation of a flood control district for Pueblo and a Moffat Tunnel Improvement District | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 683 |
| May 12, 1922 | Moffat Tunnel District bond completed for $6,720,000 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| May 23, 1922 | Pallas post office established in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 109 |
| May 26, 1922 | Glen Haven post office established in Larimer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 63 |
| May 31, 1922 | Loco post office discontinued in Kit Carson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 90 |
| May 31, 1922 | Medford Springs post office discontinued in Bent County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 97 |
| May 31, 1922 | Wigwam post office discontinued in El Paso County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 152 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-----------------|---|---|
| June 3, 1922 | Ophir (II) post office established in San Miguel County, moved from Ames. The site of "old" Ophir was moved one mile downhill to relocate on the Rio Grande Southern Railroad | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 108 |
| June 3, 1922 | Ames post office discontinued in San Miguel County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 11 |
| June 15, 1922 | Chapelton post office discontinued in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 32 |
| June 28, 1922 | Deep Channel post office established in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 43 |
| June 30, 1922 | Fortification post office discontinued in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 56 |
| July 1922 | Denver authorizes a motion picture to be made highlighting: police & fire departments, parks and residential areas, public building and civic attractions, mountain parks, winding boulevards, tourist resort towns | Municipal Facts , Vol. 5, No. 7&8, July-August 1922, p. 11 |
| July 5, 1922 | San Juan post office established in Mineral County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 128 |
| July 13, 1922 | Schram post office established in Yuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 130 |
| July 14, 1922 | Capulin post office discontinued in Conejos County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 28 |
| July 20, 1922 | Sago post office established in Montezuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 126 |
| August 1, 1922 | Loveland Daily Herald ceases publishing in Loveland, merges with Loveland Reporter | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 93 |
| August 1, 1922 | Loveland Reporter ceases publishing in Loveland, continues as Loveland Reporter-Herald | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 93 |
| August 2, 1922 | Loveland Reporter-Herald begins publishing in Loveland | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 93 |
| August 15, 1922 | Perins post office discontinued in La Plata County, same place as Perin | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 112 |
| August 18, 1922 | Overland Park tourist camp dedicated to the tourists of the United States | Municipal Facts , Vol. 5, No. 7&8, July-August 1922, p. 11 |
| August 31, 1922 | Clover post office discontinued in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 35 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|---|--|
| August 31, 1922 | Koenig post office discontinued in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 83 |
| September 18, 1922 | Lindland post office established in Jackson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 89 |
| September 22, 1922 | Elbert County News begins publishing in Elbert | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 55 |
| September 30, 1922 | Howardsville post office discontinued in San Juan County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 74 |
| September 30, 1922 | Mesaview post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 97 |
| September 30, 1922 | Poncho Springs post office discontinued in Chaffee County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 115 |
| November 1922 | Colorado Labor Advocate begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| November 4, 1922 | Tornado hits near Holyoke destroying the Pleasant Valley school and killing the teacher J.B.F. Bishop | Centennial History of Phillips County, Colorado - Those Were The Days , Phillips County Historical Society, p. 27 |
| November 15, 1922 | Trull post office discontinued in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 143 |
| November 15, 1922 | Crescent post office discontinued in Boulder County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 39 |
| November 24, 1922 | The Colorado River Compact is signed after negotiations among the seven states of the Colorado River Valley going into effect in 1928; it apportioned 7.5 million acre feet of water to both the upper and lower basin states | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 131 |
| November 27, 1922 | The first agreement over water rights between Colorado and New Mexico is reached with the signing of a compact over the allocation of the waters of the La Plata River; it became effective in 1925 after ratification by both states and the U.S. Congress | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 131 |
| December 1922 | Eagle County News ceases publishing in Redcliff | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 55 |
| December 8, 1922 | Coppertown post office established in Eagle County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 37 |
| December 14, 1922 | Gladel post office established in San Miguel County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 61 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|--|
| December 18, 1922 | Denver mint robbed (actually a vehicle in front of the mint) | The First Hundred Years by Robert L. Perkin, p. 200 |
| December 26, 1922 | Cherokee Park post office established in Larimer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 33 |
| December 29, 1922 | El Paso County Democrat ceases publishing in Colorado Springs, continues as Colorado Springs Farm News | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 60 |
| December 31, 1922 | Denver Tourist & Publicity Report for 1922: rail & auto stop-over traveler, 4 million; money expended $42 million; tourists remaining 7 days, 600,000; Rocky Mountain National Park 219,164 visitors; Mesa Verde 4,251 visitors; National Forests 1,450,000; Colorado National Monument 6,000; Wheeler National Monument [today La Garita Wilderness]; Denver Mountain Parks (estimate) 750,000; Overland Park campers 47,577; passing through Union Station gates 3,771,545 | Municipal Facts , Vol. 6, No. 5, May 1923, p. 28 |
| 1923 | Stonington News ceases publishing in Stonington | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 8 |
| 1923 | Artesian News begins publishing in Stonington | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 8 |
| 1923 | Chaffee County Democrat ceases publishing in Buena Vista | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 16 |
| 1923 | Democrata begins publishing in Spanish in San Luis | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 23 |
| 1923 | Highlands Radio ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| 1923 | Barnum Star begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| 1923 | Colorado begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| 1923 | Parker News begins publishing in Parker | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 53 |
| 1923 | County Seat News begins publishing in Kiowa | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 56 |
| 1923 | Matheson Herald begins publishing in Matheson | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 56 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|--|
| 1923 | Colorado Springs Index ceases publishing in Colorado Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 61 |
| 1923 | Ramah Record ceases publishing in Ramah | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 63 |
| 1923 | Crystal River Empire begins publishing in Carbondale | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 66 |
| 1923 | Garfield County Democrat ceases publishing in New Castle | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 68 |
| 1923 | New Castle Weekly begins publishing in New Castle | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 68 |
| 1923 | Garfield County Leader ceases publishing in Silt | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 69 |
| 1923 | Kremmling News ceases publishing in Kremmling | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 73 |
| 1923 | Marble Column begins publishing in Marble | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 76 |
| 1923 | La Veta Leader and Enterprise ceases publishing in La Veta | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 79 |
| 1923 | Fort Collins News ceases publishing in Fort Collins | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 92 |
| 1923 | Crook Index ceases publishing in Crook | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 99 |
| 1923 | Crook Booster begins publishing in Crook | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 99 |
| 1923 | Iliff Independent ceases publishing in Iliff | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 100 |
| 1923 | Iliff News begins publishing in Iliff | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 100 |
| 1923 | Pioneer Chieftain ceases publishing in Ackmen | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 106 |
| 1923 | Weldon Valley Wonderland begins publishing in Weldon | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 110 |
| 1923 | Timpas Times ceases publishing in Timpas | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 113 |
| 1923 | Pueblo Sunday Opinion ceases publishing in Pueblo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 122 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|--|
| 1923 | Pueblo County Democrat ceases publishing in Pueblo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 125 |
| 1923 | Public Opinion begins publishing in Pueblo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 125 |
| 1923 | Western Ideal begins publishing in Pueblo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 125 |
| 1923 | Platte Valley Telegram begins publishing in Sedgwick | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 134 |
| 1923 | Victor Times Record ceases publishing in Victor | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 140 |
| 1923 | Keota News ceases publishing in Keota | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 146 |
| 1923 | Pawnee Herald begins publishing in Keota | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 146 |
| 1923 | La Salle Record begins publishing in La Salle | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 146 |
| 1923 | Pierce Leader ceases publishing in Pierce | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 147 |
| 1923 | Work begins on the pioneer bore of the Moffat Tunnel | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 525 |
| 1923 | The tax on gasoline levied in 1919 to build a fund to improve Colorado's roads is raised to two cents | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 567 |
| 1923 | Public Service Company of Colorado is formed combining the Denver Gas and Electric Light Company and The Western Light and Power Company | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 580 |
| 1923 | Construction begins on Valmont electric generating plant east of Boulder | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 581 |
| 1923 | Theodore Holm publishes Vegetation of Alpine Region of Rocky Mountains in Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 25 |
| 1923 | The United Fruit Growers' Association is formed in Mesa County | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 153 |
| 1923 | Mountain States Beet Growers' Marketing Association is formed | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 155 |
| 1923 | Colorado enacts a certification law requiring college credits and training for teaching in the public schools | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 173 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|---|
| 1923 | Colorado's State Board of Charities and Corrections is abolished; in its place a Department of Charities and Corrections is created that lasted only two years | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 337 |
| 1923 | Colorado's legislature funds construction of the State Normal School of Alamosa, but changes the name to Adams State Normal School | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 475 |
| 1923 | William Ainsworth and Sons incorporates | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 602 |
| 1923 | The Colorado and Southern begins the process of abandonment of what had once been the Denver, South Park and Pacific - later the Denver, Gunnison & San Juan | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 684 |
| 1923 | A Studebaker and Franklin auto showroom opens at 1160 Broadway in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 77 |
| 1923 | Cherry Hills Country Club is built on the 80-acre farm of James Steck with a clubhouse designed by Merrill H. Hoyt; greens are laid out by golf course architect William S. Flynn; remodeled in 1961 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 134 |
| 1923 | Golden High School is built at 710 10th Street as designed by Eugene Groves | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 151 |
| 1923 | The Glens opens from West Colfax to 6th Avenue between Estes and Garrison Streets in Lakewood; the design by Saco DeBoer - a "Park for Happy Homes" | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 159 |
| 1923 | Highland School at 885 Arapahoe Road in Boulder is enlarged to its current "H" plan | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 177 |
| 1923 | Congregational Church in Lafayette at 300 E. Simpson becomes the community library | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 185 |
| 1923 | Ideal Cement Plant is completed at 4629 North Overland Trail in Laporte | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 236 |
| 1923 | Fort Morgan builds a municipal power plant in what is now Riverside Park as designed by George Cox replacing the original "eyesore" next to City Hall | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 253 |
| 1923 | Rainbow Arch Bridge is constructed on highway 52 over the South Platte River near Fort Morgan on a 1912 design patented by James B. Marsh of Des Moines | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 253 |
| 1923 | Lincoln County Courthouse is completed in Hugo at 3rd Avenue and 7th Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 268 |
| 1923 | Rialto Theater built in Florence Colorado on Main Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 346 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|--|
| 1923 | Asperidon Faris, a Lebanese merchant, establishes a 160-acre ranch he called Farista; just off Colorado 69 in Huerfano County | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 373 |
| 1923 | Scouting Clubhouse opens in Rocky Ford at 91 Play Park Hill on a bluff overlooking the town | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 394 |
| 1923 | St. Thomas Episcopal Church is completed at 401 4th Street; designed by William E. and Arthur A. Fisher | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 408 |
| 1923 | Richardson Hall is completed on the Adams State Normal School campus; designed by William N. Bowman | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 409 |
| 1923 | Sickenberger House completed at 710 Ouray Avenue in Grand Junction | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 507 |
| 1923 | Routt County Courthouse opens at 522 Lincoln Avenue in Steamboat Springs as designed by Fuller and Fuller | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 522 |
| 1923 | Students at Western State College in Gunnison install a large letter "W" on a hillside that is claimed to be the world's largest letter | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 537 |
| 1923 | Colorado State Normal School becomes known as Western State College in Gunnison located between Colorado Street, Georgia Avenue and Escalante Drive | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 537 |
| 1923 | Hovenweep National Monument designated 25 miles west of Cortez; Hovenweep is Ute for deserted valley | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 596 |
| 1923 | Spruce Tree Point Museum opens in Mesa Verde National Park; built by Jesse Nusbaum; additional work is done in 1936 including the addition of dioramas | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 602 |
| 1923 | Mesa Verde National Park Headquarters is built by Jesse Nusbaum near the Chief Ranger Station; additions are made in 1940 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 602 |
| 1923 | Jesse Nusbaum builds a post office at Mesa Verde National Park | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 602 |
| 1923 | Benjamin Stapleton, a member of the Ku Klux Klan, is elected mayor of Denver | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xv |
| 1923 | Mayor Stapleton helps destroy the local Klan operation | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xv |
| 1923 | Benjamin Franklin Stapleton is elected mayor of Denver while disavowing secret societies though a secret member of the Ku Klux Klan | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 86 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|---|---|
| 1923 | Manual Training High School completed in Denver at a cost of $376,180 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| 1923 | Broadway viaduct completed in Denver at a cost of $343,641 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| 1923 | Burlington shops completed in Denver at a cost of $2,500,000 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| 1923 | The 16th Street viaduct in Denver is completed at a cost of $668,563 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| 1923 | Construction begins on a 600 acre site five miles east of Boulder on Valmont Station | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 22 |
| 1923 | Boy Scouts of America unit is organized at Yuma, in Yuma County | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 200 |
| Deceemember 1923 | Marisca Nuova ceases publishing in Italian in Pueblo, continues as Abruzzo-Molise | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 125 |
| May 1923 | Aerial photo of Civic Center Park in Denver | Municipal Facts , Vol. 6, No. 5, May 1923, p. 6 |
| May 1923 | Newly completed Byers Junior High School at Bayaud and S. Pearl; new Henry M. Teller School [no address given]; Skinner Junior High at W. 40th & King; Aaron Gove School at 14th & Colorado Boulevard - all in Denver | Municipal Facts , Vol. 6, No. 5, May 1923, p. 9 |
| January 1, 1923 | Bonds for building new schools in Denver voted as a cost of $6,150,000 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| January 1, 1923 | Ad-a-man Club organized on the summit of Pikes Peak by five Colorado Springs men who had climbed to the summit to set off fireworks for the New Year - Ed Morath, Harry Standley, Willis McGee, Fred Barr and Fred Morath | Municipal Facts , Vol. 11, No 11&12, November-December 1928, p. 9 |
| January 2, 1923 | Edgewater Tribune begins publishing in Edgewater | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 81 |
| January 4, 1923 | Broadcast license for radio station KFEL issued in Denver | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| January 5, 1923 | Colorado Springs Farm News begins publishing in Colorado Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 61 |
| January 8, 1923 | William Ellery Sweet takes the oath as the 23rd Governor of Colorado | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-6-2017 |
| January 12, 1923 | Holy Cross Trail begins publishing in Redcliff | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 55 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|---|
| January 18, 1923 | Howardsville post office established in San Juan County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 74 |
| January 25, 1923 | Serene post office established in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 130 |
| January 31, 1923 | Mount Pearl post office discontinued in Cheyenne County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 102 |
| February 12, 1923 | Willow Creek post office established in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 153 |
| February 21, 1923 | Alamo post office established in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 9 |
| February 26, 1923 | Abarr post office established in Yuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 9 |
| February 28, 1923 | North Veta post office discontinued in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 106 |
| February 28, 1923 | Montrose Daily Enterprise ceases publishing in Montrose | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 107 |
| February 28, 1923 | Apache (II) post office discontinued in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 12 |
| March 1923 | Montrose Press ceases publishing in Montrose, continues as Montrose Enterprise | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 107 |
| March 1923 | Montrose Enterprise-Press begins publishing in Montrose | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 107 |
| March 1923 | Senator Nicholson dies while in office and is replaced by the son of former governor Adams, Alva B. Adams | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 546 |
| March 1923 | Street cars to operate on the 16th Street Viaduct by May 1, 1923; construction photos of viaduct in Denver | Municipal Facts , Vol. 6, No. 3&4, March-April 1923, p. 5 |
| March 1923 | New bridge over Dry Creek at 13th & Federal just completed at a cost of $26,706 in Denver | Municipal Facts , Vol. 6, No. 3&4, March-April 1923, p. 5 |
| March 1923 | Progress of construction of Burlington Railroad shops at 51st & Broadway north of Denver | Municipal Facts , Vol. 6, No. 3&4, March-April 1923, p. 6 |
| March 1923 | Denver Opportunity School averages 3,500 persons per day | Municipal Facts , Vol. 6, No. 3&4, March-April 1923, p. 8 |
| March 1923 | Combination fire station & repair shop with an assembly hall for fireman just completed at 19th & Market in Denver | Municipal Facts , Vol. 6, No. 3&4, March-April 1923, p. 11 |
| March 1923 | Construction begins on Denver Municipal Trap Shooter's Association at Sloan's Lake Park | Municipal Facts , Vol. 6, No. 3&4, March-April 1923, p. 11 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|----------------|--|---|
| March 1923 | First unit of Presbyterian Hospital is under construction on Grasshopper Hill near City Park in Denver | Municipal Facts , Vol. 6, No. 3&4, March-April 1923, p. 12 |
| March 2, 1923 | President Harding signs a proclamation creating Hovenweep National Monument | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-6-2017 |
| March 8, 1923 | San Juan post office discontinued in Mineral County, establishment rescinded | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 128 |
| March 9, 1923 | Sanatorium post office established in Jefferson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 128 |
| March 15, 1923 | Kelim post office discontinued in Larimer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 82 |
| March 16, 1923 | Poncho Springs post office established in Chaffee County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 115 |
| March 30, 1923 | The General Assembly changes the name of the school in Gunnison to Western State College of Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 481 |
| April 2, 1923 | Kittredge post office established in Jefferson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 83 |
| April 5, 1923 | Cliff post office discontinued in Jefferson County, name changed to Cliffdale | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 34 |
| April 5, 1923 | Cliffdale post office established in Jefferson County, formerly named Cliff | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 34 |
| April 16, 1923 | Kelim post office established in Larimer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 82 |
| April 17, 1923 | The Denver Art Museum incorporates | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 432 |
| April 20, 1923 | Rockwood post office established in La Plata County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 123 |
| April 24, 1923 | Farisita post office established in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 53 |
| April 28, 1923 | Apache (II) post office established in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 12 |
| April 30, 1923 | Fitzsimons post office discontinued in Adams County, converted to a branch of Denver | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 54 |
| April 30, 1923 | Laub post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 86 |
| April 30, 1923 | Arena post office discontinued in Cheyenne County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 13 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|---------------|---|---|
| May 15, 1923 | Omar post office discontinued in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 107 |
| May 15, 1923 | Water Department Bond in Denver voted on for $6,500,000 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| May 15, 1923 | Municipal Building bonds in Denver voted for $500,000 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| May 15, 1923 | Benjamin F. Stapleton elected mayor of Denver to succeed Mayor Dewey C. Bailey | Municipal Facts , Vol. 6, No. 5, May 1923, p. 2 |
| May 19, 1923 | Koenig post office established in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 83 |
| May 25, 1923 | Goldhill post office established in Boulder County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 63 |
| May 31, 1923 | Goodpasture post office discontinued in Pueblo County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 64 |
| May 31, 1923 | Jack Rabbit post office discontinued in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 79 |
| 1923 | Construction begins on the Moffat Tunnel that would cover 6.09 miles | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 683 |
| June 1923 | The Moffat Tunnel is cleared for construction | Summit of Destiny: Taming the Pikes Peak Country 1858-1918 , 2008, Francis J. Pierson, p. 315 |
| June 15, 1923 | Boxelder post office discontinued in Larimer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 22 |
| June 29, 1923 | De Beque Shale and Oil News ceases publishing in De Beque, continues as De Beque News | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 102 |
| June 30, 1923 | Noel post office discontinued in San Miguel County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 105 |
| June 30, 1923 | Crest post office discontinued in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 39 |
| July 1923 | Colorado Potato Growers' Exchange grows out of seven cooperatives in the San Luis Valley and on the western slope; the first statewide cooperative formed on the basis of a commodity | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 155 |
| July 6, 1923 | De Beque News begins publishing in De Beque | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 102 |
| July 31, 1923 | Opal post office discontinued in Bent County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 107 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-----------------------------|--|--|
| August 2, 1923 | Grading and surfacing 4.6 mile stretch of the new state highway completed near Holyoke this week | Centennial History of Phillips County, Colorado - Those Were The Days , Phillips County Historical Society, p. 27 |
| August 2, 1923 | Public Service Company of Colorado (I) formed | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 3 |
| August 2, 1923 | Public Service Company of Colorado (1) was formed | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 14 |
| August 6, 1923 | President Harding's funeral train passes through Julesburg traveling from San Francisco to Washington DC | Centennial History of Phillips County, Colorado - Those Were The Days , Phillips County Historical Society, p. 27 |
| August 11, 1923 | Fort Collins Courier ceases publishing in Fort Collins | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 92 |
| August 12, 1923 | Fort Collins Express ceases publishing in Fort Collins, continues as Fort Collins Express-Courier | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 91 |
| August 13, 1923 | Fort Collins Express-Courier begins publishing in Fort Collins | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 92 |
| August 14, 1923 | Gibson post office discontinued in Saguache County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 60 |
| August 15, 1923 | Piceance post office discontinued in Rio Blanco County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 112 |
| September 1923 | Construction begins on Moffat Tunnel | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| September 1923 | Construction on the Moffat Tunnel begins; James Peak (13,260) lies three miles south of the tunnel line; east portal is 9,198 feet - west portal is 9,242 feet; apex of the tunnel is 9,242 feet; average number of men working on the tunnel is 700; tunnel is 24 feet high and 16 feet wide; nine million feet of timber used in the tunnel; service (water) tunnel is 8x9 feet & 75 feet south of the rail tunnel | Municipal Facts , Vol. 8, No.7&8, September-October 1925, p. 3 |
| September 1923 to July 1925 | Tabulated monthly progress on the Moffat Tunnel; east and west water tunnel, main tunnel & enlargement | Municipal Facts , Vol. 8, No.7&8, September-October 1925, p. 8 |
| September 2, 1924 | Phillips County Fair begins and features auto races for the first time | Centennial History of Phillips County, Colorado - Those Were The Days , Phillips County Historical Society, p. 27 |
| September 4, 1923 | Phillips County Fair expands to four days in its eighth year of operation | Centennial History of Phillips County, Colorado - Those Were The Days , Phillips County Historical Society, p. 27 |
| September 15, 1923 | Gurney post office discontinued in Yuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 67 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|--|---|
| September 21, 1923 | Capulin post office established in Conejos County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 28 |
| September 26, 1923 | Adams City post office established in Adams County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 9 |
| Late 1923 | Construction begins on the Moffat Tunnel with an eight foot pioneer bore that eventually carries water | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 572 |
| October 1923 | New Broadway viaduct now open in Denver | Municipal Facts , Vol. 6, No. 10,11&12, October-November-December 1923, p. 4 |
| October 1923 | New Denver Public Schools administration building open [no location listed] | Municipal Facts , Vol. 6, No. 10,11&12, October-November-December 1923, p. 7 |
| October 1923 | New photographic recording machine installed in Clerk and Recorder's office in Denver; the machine photographs directly onto paper that is then washed and dried - machine is called a Cameragraph | Municipal Facts , Vol. 6, No. 10,11&12, October-November-December 1923, p. 8 |
| October 3, 1923 | Public Service Company of Colorado (2) was formed merging Denver Gas and Electric Light Company and Westyern Light and Power Company headquartered in Boulder | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 14 |
| October 3, 1923 | Western Light and Power Company merges with Public Service Company of Colorado (1) to create Public Service Company of Colorado (2) | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 17 |
| October 12, 1923 | West Portal post office established in Grand County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 151 |
| October 12, 1923 | East Portal post office established in Gilpin County at East Portal of the Moffat Tunnel | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 48 |
| October 31, 1923 | Comanche post office discontinued in Adams County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 36 |
| October 31, 1923 | Engleburg post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 51 |
| November 1923 | Carbondale Item ceases publishing in Carbondale | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 66 |
| November 1, 1923 | Cumbres post office established in Conejos County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 41 |
| November 2, 1923 | Cedar post office established in San Miguel County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 31 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|--|
| November 9, 1923 | Akron Pioneer Press ceases publishing in Akron | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 140 |
| November 11, 1923 | Armistice Well blows in in the Wellington oil field ten miles north of Fort Collins with such force that the derrick and rigging were blown apart | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 23 |
| November 24, 1923 | J.F. Coss leaves the Walsenburg Independent to serve a four-year term in the Colorado Senate | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 276 |
| November 30, 1923 | Marnel post office discontinued in Pueblo County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 95 |
| December 1923 | Denver Bar Association publishes first volume of its law review, the Record , which became known as Dicta in November of 1931 | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 379 |
| December 5, 1923 | Burlington Shops dedicated north of Denver - cost of the new building complex $2,500,000 | Municipal Facts , Vol. 7, No. 1&2, January-February 1924, p.14 |
| December 15, 1923 | Alfalfa post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 10 |
| December 15, 1923 | Earl post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 48 |
| December 31, 1923 | Overheated furnaces cause fatal apartment house fires in Denver when temperatures fall below zero | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| December 31, 1923 | Elphis post office discontinued in Kit Carson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 51 |
| 1924 | Gas found in Wellington Field near Fort Collins | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 3 |
| 1924 | Adams County Record begins publishing in Aurora | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 1 |
| 1924 | Englewood Messenger begins publishing in Englewood | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 5 |
| 1924 | Campo Enterprise ceases publishing in Campo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 7 |
| 1924 | Artesian News ceases publishing in Stonington | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 8 |
| 1924 | Stonington Times begins publishing in Stonington | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 8 |
| 1924 | Aurora ceases publishing in Spanish in Antonito | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 22 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|---|
| 1924 | Colorado Leader ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| 1924 | Defensor Popular begins publishing in Spanish in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1924 | Rocky Mountain Journal begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1924 | Frying Pan ceases publishing in Basalt | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 54 |
| 1924 | Matheson News ceases publishing in Matheson | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 56 |
| 1924 | New Castle Echo begins publishing in New Castle | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 68 |
| 1924 | Marble Column ceases publishing in Marble | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 76 |
| 1924 | Edgewater Tribune ceases publishing in Edgewater | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 81 |
| 1924 | Brandon News ceases publishing in Brandon | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 83 |
| 1924 | Las Animas County Democrat begins publishing in Trinidad | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 98 |
| 1924 | Limon Herald ceases publishing in Limon | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 99 |
| 1924 | Western Colorado Progress begins publishing in Grand Junction | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 104 |
| 1924 | Montrose County Chronicle begins publishing in Montrose | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 107 |
| 1924 | Weldon Valley Wonderland ceases publishing in Weldona | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 110 |
| 1924 | Weldona Tribune begins publishing in Weldona | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 110 |
| 1924 | Cheraw Herald ceases publishing in Cheraw | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 110 |
| 1924 | Otero County Democrat-Press ceases publishing in La Junta | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 111 |
| 1924 | American Tolerance begins publishing in Swink | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 112 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|--|
| 1924 | Haxtun Herald ceases publishing in Haxtun | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 116 |
| 1924 | Granada Leader ceases publishing in Granada | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 119 |
| 1924 | Granada News begins publishing in Granada | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 119 |
| 1924 | Great Southwest News ceases publishing in Lamar | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 120 |
| 1924 | Farm and Stock Livestock Reporter ceases publishing in Center | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 129 |
| 1924 | Platte Valley Telegram ceases publishing in Sedgwick | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 134 |
| 1924 | Victor Nugget ceases publishing in Victor | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 140 |
| 1924 | Hudson Headlight ceases publishing in Hudson | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 145 |
| 1924 | Hudson News begins publishing in Hudson | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 145 |
| 1924 | Judge C.C. Coffin, A. Lynn Coffin, and C.K. Collins find a site in northern Colorado with abundant artifacts that differ from the typical Indian arrowheads; the unique points are later identified as Folsom Points | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 29 |
| 1924 | The national Register is developed by Father Matthew Smith with a national circulation by 1946 of 700,000 | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 212 |
| 1924 | State high school contest for choruses and orchestras begin, by 1926 there were 83 schools in the contest with 70,000 people watching some 6,000 performers | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 470 |
| 1924 | Eaton Metal Products Company builds a plant at 4800 York Street in Denver | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 599 |
| 1924 | Schwayder Brothers moves its luggage production facility to 1050 South Broadway in Denver | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 607 |
| 1924 | Colorado National Bank at 918 17th Street gets an addition; designed by Merrill H. and Burnham Hoyt | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 59 |
| 1924 | The Denver Woman's Press Club moves into the former home of George Elbert Burr | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 78 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|---|
| 1924 | Temple Emanuel at 1595 Pearl Street in Denver is renovated by T. Robert Wieger | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 79 |
| 1924 | Jacques Benedict designs another addition to the Richthofen Castle at 7020 E. 12th Avenue in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 97 |
| 1924 | Elyria School is completed at 4725 High Street; designed by Wilson & Wilson | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 111 |
| 1924 | Radio station KOA builds a two-story brick building at 18500 E. Colfax Avenue now used by the Colorado Department of Transportation | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 139 |
| 1924 | Charlford Castle is begun by Charles A. Johnson and designed by Burnham F. Hoyt at 6113 N. Daniels Park Road; resembles a Scottish Castle on a bluff overlooking Plum Valley; later called Cherokee Ranch | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 147 |
| 1924 | The Table Mountain Inn is built as a hotel at 1310 Washington Avenue in Golden | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 152 |
| 1924 | Anne Evans Cabin on the Evans Ranch in Clear Creek County is expanded by Merrill and Burnham Hoyt | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 167 |
| 1924 | A dining room is added to the Indian Hot Springs near Idaho Springs | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 210 |
| 1924 | The Administration Building is completed on the campus of Colorado State Agricultural College in Fort Collins; designed by Eugene Groves - a "renaissance palace" | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 227 |
| 1924 | Fort Collins High School is completed at 1400 S. Remington Street; designed by William N. Bowman | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 229 |
| 1924 | Willow Park Patrol Cabin and Stable is completed on the Fall River Road in Rocky Mountain National Park | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 238 |
| 1924 | Wings designed by William B. Ittner are added to Kepner Hall at Colorado State Teachers College in Greeley | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 246 |
| 1924 | After Presbyterians in Elizabeth build a new church the old one at Poplar and Pine becomes the Elizabeth library and later a private residence | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 276 |
| 1924 | St. Michael's Eastern Orthodox Church opens at 801 W. Summit Street in the Bessemer area of Pueblo | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 323 |
| 1924 | Holy Cross Abbey is completed 2 miles east of Cañon City; designed by Joseph Dillon and L.A. Des Jardins | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 339 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|---|
| 1924 | Howard Bridge on US 50 over the Arkansas River is completed by Minneapolis Steel and Machinery Company | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 348 |
| 1924 | Masonic Temple opens on East 3rd Street in La Junta; designed by George W. Roe | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 390 |
| 1924 | United Methodist Church completed in Monte Vista at Washington Street and 2nd Avenue; designed by C.J. Anderson | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 430 |
| 1924 | Schoolhouse is built of brick at Hot Sulphur Springs; becomes the Grand County Museum in 1976 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 449 |
| 1924 | Grand Lake Lodge built by Frank I. Huntington a mile north of Grand Lake and east of US 34 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 456 |
| 1924 | Meeker Junior High School opens at 555 Garfield Avenue | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 513 |
| 1924 | Hahns Peak fire lookout tower constructed | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 527 |
| 1924 | Pagosa Springs Junior High School opens at 310 Pagosa Street; designed by Leo Des Jardins Company | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 552 |
| 1924 | A 70-mile stretch of US 550 goes from Ouray to Durango and is called the Million Dollar Highway following the route of the 1883 toll road | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 575 |
| 1924 | Anti-Klan Denverites try to remove Ben Stapleton as mayor when his ties to the Klan become known; his open embrace of the KKK saved him from the recall effort | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 86 |
| 1924 | Estimates of the number of male Ku Klux Klan members range as high as 25,000 with thousands more women members; they place Clarence Morley in the governor's seat, William Candlish as Chief of Police in Denver, and Rice Means in the U.S. Senate | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 87 |
| 1924 | District Attorney Philip Van Cise opposes the Klan as did Judge Ben Lindsey | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 87 |
| 1924 | Harry H. Tammen, Denver Post publisher, dies leaving much of his fortune to Children's Hospital | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 97 |
| 1924 | Antero and Lost Peak Reservoirs and High Line Canal acquired by the City & County of Denver for $854,000 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| 1924 | Denver street paving program adopted with a $4,000,000 pricetage | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| 1924 | Commercial Club is organized at Yuma, in Yuma County | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 199 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|---|
| 1924 | Gem Theater opens at Yuma, in Yuma County | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 200 |
| 1924 | Farmers' Equity Union Elevators organized in Yuma County at Eckley | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 201 |
| circa 1924 | Fort Lyon (II) post office established in Bent County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 57 |
| January 1924 | Abruzzo-Molise begins publishing in Italian in Pueblo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 126 |
| January 10, 1924 | Piceance post office established in Rio Blanco County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 112 |
| January 15, 1924 | Cedar Creek post office discontinued in Montrose County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 31 |
| February 29, 1924 | Bonny post office discontinued in Kit Carson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 22 |
| February 29, 1924 | Molding post office discontinued in Dolores County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 99 |
| February 29, 1924 | Spargo post office discontinued in Montezuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 134 |
| March 25, 1924 | Ladore post office discontinued in Moffat County, spelling changed to Lodore. | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 84 |
| March 25, 1924 | Lodore post office established in Moffat County, formerly spelled Ladore | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 90 |
| April 4, 1924 | Clear Creek Mining Journal begins publishing in Idaho Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 21 |
| April 7, 1924 | A ten-year lease on a municipal flying field is approved by Denver City Council; to be headquarters for a national guard airship service for 4 states | Municipal Facts , Vol. 7, No. 5&6, May-June 1924, p.12 |
| April 24, 1924 | Westerns Nyheter begins publishing in Swedish in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| April 30, 1924 | Konantz post office discontinued in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 83 |
| May 1924 | Adams County Republican begins publishing in Brighton | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 2 |
| May 16, 1924 | Boxelder post office established in Larimer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 22 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-----------------|---|---|
| May 19, 1924 | Mesa Verde National Park post office established in Montezuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 97 |
| May 31, 1924 | Bardeen post office discontinued in El Paso County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 16 |
| 1924 | In this year 42% of the irrigated land in the Arkansas Valley was devoted to alfalfa | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 144 |
| June 9, 1924 | Elk Springs post office established in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 50 |
| June 14, 1924 | Vega Ranch post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 146 |
| July 1, 1924 | A second gas well comes in north of Fort Collins on the Mitchell farm in the Wellington oil filed; the well ignites and sends flames 150 into the air and visible from Denver | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 23 |
| July 1, 1924 | Camp Shumway post office discontinued in County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 28 |
| July 1, 1924 | Gordon post office established in Huerfano County, moved from Shumway | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 64 |
| July 2, 1924 | Red Feather Lakes post office established in Larimer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 120 |
| July 19, 1924 | H.H. Tammen, co-owner of the Denver Post dies | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 273 |
| July 26, 1924 | Rivas post office established in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 122 |
| July 26, 1924 | The Ku Klux Klan burns three crosses on the hills around Grand Junction | Historic Tales of Colorado's Grand Valley: Heroes, Heroines, Hucksters and Hooligans , 2016, by Kate Ruland-Thorne p. 91 |
| July 28, 1924 | Grand Junction News ceases publishing in Grand Junction | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 104 |
| July 31, 1924 | Glen Haven post office discontinued in Larimer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 63 |
| August 1924 | An estimated 500-800 robed and hooded Ku Klux Klansmen march through the streets, including Main Street, of Grand Junction carrying torches | Historic Tales of Colorado's Grand Valley: Heroes, Heroines, Hucksters and Hooligans , 2016, by Kate Ruland-Thorne p. 91 |
| August 12, 1924 | Recall election fails when Ben Stapleton is sustained as Mayor of Denver by a 2-1 vote | Municipal Facts , Vol. 7, No. 7&8, July-August 1924, p. 2 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|---|--|
| September 1, 1924 | Malcolm Glenn Wyer takes over as Denver City Librarian after Chalmer Hadley resigns to take a position in Cincinnati citing funding as an ongoing issue | Municipal Facts , Vol. 7, No. 7&8, July-August 1924, p. 13 |
| September 3, 1924 | Public Service Company of Colorado (3) was formed merging Public Service Company of Colorado (2) and Colorado Power Company | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 14 |
| September 3, 1924 | Colorado Power Company merges with Public Service Company of Colorado (2) to form Public Service Company of Colorado (3) | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 22 |
| September 15, 1924 | Elkhead post office discontinued in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 50 |
| September 17, 1924 | McPhee post office established in Montezuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 97 |
| September 20, 1924 | Ku Klux Klan lecture draws a large crowd in Holyoke | Centennial History of Phillips County, Colorado - Those Were The Days , Phillips County Historical Society, p. 28 |
| September 3, 1924 | Colorado Power Company merges with the Public Service Company of Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 581 |
| September 26, 1924 | Elbert County News ceases publishing in Elbert, merged with Elbert County Tribune in Elizabeth | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 55 |
| September 30, 1924 | Irwin Canyon post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 78 |
| October 1, 1924 | Aerial photo of Fitzsimons General Hospital and recuperation camp near the Denver city limits | Municipal Facts , Vol. 7, No. 9&10, September-October 1924, p. 6 |
| October 1924 | Elbert County Tribune ceases publishing in Elizabeth | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 55 |
| October 1924 | Elbert County News-Tribune begins publishing in Elizabeth | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 55 |
| October 1924 | County Seat News ceases publishing in Kiowa, continues as County Seat News-Tribune | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 56 |
| October 1924 | County Seat News-Tribune begins publishing in Kiowa | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 56 |
| October 1, 1924 | Fair Play post office discontinued in Park County, name changed to Fairplay, spelling changed to Fairplay | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 53 |
| October 1, 1924 | Fairplay post office established in Park County, formerly spelled Fair Play | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 53 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|---|
| October 1, 1924 | New Colorado General Hospital and Medical School at 8th & Colorado Boulevard in Denver from the air showing virtually nothing around it | Municipal Facts , Vol. 7, No. 9&10, September-October 1924, p. 4 |
| October 1, 1924 | Aerial photos of Bethesda Sanitarium near Iliff, Phipps Memorial Sanitarium in Montclair, National Jewish Sanitarium on East Colfax & National Lutheran Sanitarium on West 38th Avenue in Denver | Municipal Facts , Vol. 7, No. 9&10, September-October 1924, p. 7 |
| October 1, 1924 | Some of Denver's new school buildings: Elyria School at 47th & High; Rosedale School at S, Sherman & East Iliff; Garden Place addition at 44th & Lincoln; & Stedman School at 29th & Dexter | Municipal Facts , Vol. 7, No. 9&10, September-October 1924, p. 10 |
| October 1, 1924 | Some more of Denver's new school buildings: Columbian addition at W. 40th Ave & Federal Boulevard; Ebert School at 23rd & Glenarm Place; Barnum School at W. 1st & Hooker; & Valverde at W. Alameda & S. Tejon | Municipal Facts , Vol. 7, No. 9&10, September-October 1924, p. 11 |
| October 6, 1924 | Perins post office established in La Plata County, same place as Perin | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 112 |
| October 30, 1924 | Romley post office discontinued in Chaffee County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 124 |
| November 1924 | Colorado's governorship, U.S. Senate seat, and the majority of the state legislature are controlled by the Ku Klux Klan in this election with their anti-Catholic, anti-Negro, anti immigrant, and anti-Jewish philosophy | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 547 |
| November 1924 | Radio broadcasting begins in Denver when Atwater Kent's program is broadcast by KLZ | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 584 |
| November 1, 1924 | Palisade post office established in Mesa County, formerly spelled Palisades. | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 109 |
| November 1, 1924 | Palisades post office discontinued in Mesa County, spelling changed to Palisade | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 109 |
| November 6, 1924 | Keating post office discontinued in Custer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 82 |
| November 13, 1924 | Beecher Island post office established in Yuma County, formerly named Glory | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 18 |
| November 13, 1924 | Glory post office established in Yuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 63 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|---|
| November 19, 1924 | Boxelder post office discontinued in Larimer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 22 |
| November 19, 1924 | Falfa post office established in La Plata County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 53 |
| November 19, 1924 | Griffith post office discontinued in La Plata County, name changed to Falfa | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 67 |
| November 22, 1924 | Poncha Springs post office established in Chaffee County, formerly named Ponco Springs | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 115 |
| November 22, 1924 | Poncho Springs post office discontinued in Chaffee County, name changed to Poncha Springs | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 115 |
| December 1, 1924 | Electricity is first generated at the Valmont power plant east of Boulder | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 23 |
| December 1924 | Radio station KOA is established in Denver by General Electric | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 585 |
| December 15, 1924 | Radio station KOA begins broadcasts in Denver owned by General Electric | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| 1920s | Architects' Small House Service Bureau Model House is completed at 456 Williams Street in Denver; these "no-frills" houses were an attempt to provide affordable architect-designed housing | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 89 |
| 1925 | Fort Lyon Scout begins publishing in Las Animas | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 9 |
| 1925 | Jaroso Record begins publishing in Jaroso | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 23 |
| 1925 | Olney Springs Journal ceases publishing in Olney Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 24 |
| 1925 | Crowley County Republican begins publishing in Olney Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 24 |
| 1925 | Rocky Mountain News (weekly) ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 27 |
| 1925 | Capitale ceases publishing in Italian in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 45 |
| 1925 | Blue Bird Messenger ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| 1925 | Barnum Star ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|--|
| 1925 | Defensor Popular ceases publishing in Spanish in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1925 | Rocky Mountain Journal ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1925 | Daily American begins publishing in Canon City | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 65 |
| 1925 | Fremont Citizen-Democrat ceases publishing in Florence, continues as Florence Citizen | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 66 |
| 1925 | Fremont Citizen begins publishing in Florence | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 66 |
| 1925 | New Castle Weekly ceases publishing in New Castle | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 68 |
| 1925 | New Castle Echo ceases publishing in New Castle | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 68 |
| 1925 | Garfield County Republican begins publishing in New Castle | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 68 |
| 1925 | Kremmling Register begins publishing in Kremmling | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 73 |
| 1925 | Bayfield Blade ceases publishing in Bayfield | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 87 |
| 1925 | Fort Collins Herald begins publishing in Fort Collins | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 92 |
| 1925 | Las Animas County News ceases publishing in Branson | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 94 |
| 1925 | Las Animas County Democrat ceases publishing in Trinidad | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 98 |
| 1925 | Crook Booster ceases publishing in Crook | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 99 |
| 1925 | Iliff News ceases publishing in Iliff | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 100 |
| 1925 | Farmers Exchange Bulletin ceases publishing in Montrose | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 107 |
| 1925 | Montrose Enterprise-Press ceases publishing in Montrose | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 107 |
| 1925 | Morgan County Republican ceases publishing in Brush, continues as Brush News | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 109 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|---|
| 1925 | Brush News begins publishing in Brush | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 109 |
| 1925 | Industrial Review ceases publishing in La Junta | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 111 |
| 1925 | American Tolerance ceases publishing in Swink | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 112 |
| 1925 | Park County News begins publishing in Fairplay | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 115 |
| 1925 | Granada News ceases publishing in Granada | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 119 |
| 1925 | Public Opinion ceases publishing in Pueblo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 125 |
| 1925 | Public Times begins publishing in Pueblo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 126 |
| 1925 | Firestone Torch begins publishing in Firestone | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 143 |
| 1925 | Coal Ridge News ceases publishing in Frederick | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 143 |
| 1925 | Colorado Bean Growers' Association is formed | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 155 |
| 1925 | State Commission for the Blind created | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 341 |
| 1925 | The official organ of the Colorado Bar Association, The Jealous Mistress , is first printed | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 380 |
| 1925 | Trinidad State Junior College is established by the state legislature | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 484 |
| 1925 | Koppers Company, a lumber and creosoting plant, is established in Salida | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 607 |
| 1925 | Prison labor for making license plates, highway signs, road markers and booster plates is begun in Canon City | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 612 |
| 1925 | The Kohn-Dobbins-Dominick House at 770 High Street is completed with the design of Jacques Benedict as commissioned by the founding president of the American Furniture Company Samuel Kohn in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 88 |
| 1925 | The Weicker Depository is completed at 2100 E. Colfax as designed by William E. and Arthur A. Fisher in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 90 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|---|
| 1925 | Denver's East High School is completed on the City Park Esplanade and East Colfax Avenue; designed by George H. Williamson; reminiscent of Philadelphia's Independence Hall with a 162 foot high bell tower | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 91 |
| 1925 | The False-fronted House at 1340 Quebec is completed in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 98 |
| 1925 | The El Jebel Shrine and Clubhouse is completed at 4625 W. 50th Avenue; designed by William N. Bowman and T. Robert Wieger with stucco over brick and decorative tile trim and an observation deck | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 105 |
| 1925 | Keys on the Green Restaurant and Evergreen Golf Club are built at 29614 Upper Bear Creek Road; designed by Jacques Benedict | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 165 |
| 1925 | Arvada Flour Mill is built by Eugene Benjamin at 5580 Wadsworth Boulevard (Colorado 121) | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 168 |
| 1925 | Charles Klauder adds sandstone wings to the chemistry building on the University of Colorado Boulder campus | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 179 |
| 1925 | St. James-on-the-Mount Episcopal Chapel is erected at Allenspark; now the Allenspark Community Church | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 182 |
| 1925 | Timberline Cabin is completed near the 11,749-foot-high junction of Fall River Road and Trail Ridge Road in Rocky Mountain National Park | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 238 |
| 1925 | Conrad Luft buys the Stone Mortuary building and moves it from Poplar Street to his property 1.5 miles away on Sterling Ditch No. 1 where it becomes known as the Luft House; as many as 17 family members reside there | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 259 |
| 1925 | Fire Station No. 1 is completed in Colorado Springs at 29 S. Weber Street; designed by Thomas MacLaren | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 285 |
| 1925 | The Sisters of Mercy leave St. Nicholas Hospital at 3rd Street and Eaton Avenue in Cripple Creek; several doctors operate it as a private hospital until 1960 when it is sold to Teller County for $1 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 332 |
| 1925 | Bonicelli Gas Station goes into operation at 724 7th Street in Walsenburg | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 371 |
| 1925 | Trinidad State Junior College opens | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 374 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|---|
| 1925 | Adams State Normal School opens in Alamosa on US 285 between Richardson and Pike Avenues; later named Adams State Teachers College, Adams State College [now Adams State University] | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 408 |
| 1925 | Corpus Gallegos establishes a ranch one mile west of San Luis south of Colorado 142 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 413 |
| 1925 | The Sociedad Protección Matua de Trabajadores Unidos (SPMDTU) Concilio No. 1 is established in Antonito at 603 Main Street (US 285) to promote Spanish language and culture, fight discrimination, and provide social activities and low-cost group insurance | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 420 |
| 1925 | Rainbow Trout Lodge built by William B. Hamilton and some other Texas oilmen on Colorado 17 35 miles west of Antonito near the old Conejos Ranch | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 422 |
| 1925 | Spruce Lodge is built at South Fork west of US 160 by the owners of the local lumber mill as a boarding house for customers | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 431 |
| 1925 | C Lazy U Ranch opens 6.5 miles west of Granby on Colorado 125 one of the original "dude ranches" | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 453 |
| 1925 | Lowell School opens at 310 N 7th Street in Grand Junction; designed by Eugene Groves; now R-5 High School | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 506 |
| 1925 | Mesa College established as a junior college in Grand Junction in a former elementary school at 5th Street and Rood Avenue | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 508 |
| 1925 | Rocky Mountain Biological Laboratory opens on Gothic Road amid the ruins of the old mining town of Gothic | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 543 |
| 1925 | The Cheyenne Mountain Highway is completed to the Cheyenne Mountain Lodge on Cheyenne Mountain above Colorado Springs | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| 1925 | State General Hospital and Medical School completed in Denver at a cost of $2,500,000 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| 1925 | East High School in Denver completed at a cost of $1,717,457 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| 1925 | West High School completed in Denver at a cost of $1,426,244 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|---|
| 1925 | South High School completed in Denver at a cost of $1,444,812 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| 1925 | Colburn Hotel completed in Denver | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| 1925 | Broadcast license issued for radio station KVOD in Denver | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| 1925 | A second public library is established in Yuma County at Yuma | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 197 |
| January 1925 | Aerial photo of Washington Park in Denver looking south | Municipal Facts , Vol. 8, No.1&2, January-February 1925, p. 1 |
| January 1925 | Aerial photo of Cherry Creek and downtown Denver showing the recently walled Creek and what is today called the Golden Triangle | Municipal Facts , Vol. 8, No.1&2, January-February 1925, p. 3 |
| January 1925 | Aerial photo of Denver's Civic Center, the State Capitol and downtown Denver | Municipal Facts , Vol. 8, No.1&2, January-February 1925, p. 5 |
| January 1925 | Aerial photo of Denver Union Stockyards with the stadium and National Western livestock buildings | Municipal Facts , Vol. 8, No.1&2, January-February 1925, p. 6 |
| January 1925 | Aerial photo of new plant of General Ironworks Company (Stearns-Rogers Manufacturing Company) in Englewood | Municipal Facts , Vol. 8, No.1&2, January-February 1925, p. 7 |
| January 1925 | Aerial photo of Burlington Shops completed in 1924 in Denver | Municipal Facts , Vol. 8, No.1&2, January-February 1925, p. 7 |
| January 1925 | Aerial photo of Auraria section of Denver with 16th Street Viaduct and Colfax Avenue | Municipal Facts , Vol. 8, No.1&2, January-February 1925, p. 9 |
| January 1, 1925 | Salina post office discontinued in Boulder County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 127 |
| February 12, 1925 | Camp Center post office established in Gunnison County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 27 |
| January 13, 1925 | Clarence Morley is sworn in as the 24th Governor of Colorado | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-6-2017 |
| January 14, 1925 | Grant post office rescinded in Park County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 65 |
| January 31, 1925 | Red Feather Lakes post office discontinued in Larimer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 120 |
| January 31, 1925 | Rocky Mountain American begins publishing in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 11 |
| January 31, 1925 | Debs post office discontinued in Hinsdale County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 42 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|---|
| February 1, 1925 | Glory post office discontinued in Yuma County, name changed to Beecher Island | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 63 |
| February 9, 1925 | Denver Zoning Ordinance adopted | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| February 12, 1925 | Hardscrabble post office established in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 69 |
| February 14, 1925 | Heiberger post office discontinued in Mesa County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 70 |
| February 28, 1925 | Higbee post office discontinued in Otero County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 72 |
| March 1925 | Denver University Stadium under construction | Municipal Facts , Vol. 8, No.3&4, March-April 1925, p. 16 |
| March 4, 1925 | KLZ radio leases a telephone wire to Washington D.C. in order to carry President Coolidge's inaugural ceremony | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 584 |
| March 4, 1925 | Calvin Coolidge's inaugural address is carried by KLZ using a private wire; first presidential address broadcast | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| March 14, 1925 | Tabasco post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 138 |
| 1925 | There were 234,558 peach trees in Mesa County this year and in ten years the number more than doubled to 544,851 | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 152 |
| April 1925 | Denver has 81 public school; 65 elementary, 6 junior highs and 5 high schools; 1 opportunity school | Municipal Facts , Vol. 8, No.3&4, March-April 1925, p. 32 |
| April 1925 | Denver has 41 city parks with 1,664.43 acres including 17 supervised playgrounds | Municipal Facts , Vol. 8, No.3&4, March-April 1925, p. 32 |
| April 1925 | Denver owns 38 mountain parks with 7,379.66 acres | Municipal Facts , Vol. 8, No.3&4, March-April 1925, p. 32 |
| April 1925 | Denver has 998 miles of city streets with 102 of them paved and 290 miles surfaced | Municipal Facts , Vol. 8, No.3&4, March-April 1925, p. 32 |
| April 1925 | Denver has 1,500 retail stores and 447 downtown hotels and rooming houses | Municipal Facts , Vol. 8, No.3&4, March-April 1925, p. 32 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|----------------|--|---|
| April 1925 | Denver has sunshine 65% of the possible hours | Municipal Facts , Vol. 8, No.3&4, March-April 1925, p. 32 |
| April 10, 1925 | A strike force of 130 honest police, state police and members of the American Legion, secretly assembled by Denver Mayor Ben Stapleton, raid speakeasies, brothels and gambling dens | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 88 |
| April 15, 1925 | Graneros post office discontinued in Pueblo County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 65 |
| May 1925 | Dam and lake to be constructed at Evergreen | Municipal Facts , Vol. 8, No.5&6, May-June 1925, p. 2 |
| May 16, 1925 | Redstone post office established in Pitkin County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 120 |
| June 1925 | The national Klan organization move to oust John Galen Locke who resigned as grand dragon in July; by 1926 the Klan was dead in Denver | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 89 |
| June 1925 | Adams State Normal School opens in Alamosa; later Adams State College and then University in 2012 | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-6-2017 |
| June 2, 1925 | Indian Hills post office established in Jefferson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 77 |
| June 11, 1925 | Noland post office discontinued in Boulder County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 105 |
| June 15, 1925 | Harbourdale post office discontinued in Bent County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 68 |
| June 29, 1925 | Bear River post office established in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 17 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|--|---|
| June 30, 1925 | Bronquist post office discontinued in Pueblo County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 24 |
| July 4, 1925 | Ku Klux Klan holds initiation at the Phillips County fairgrounds in Holyoke | Centennial History of Phillips County, Colorado - Those Were The Days , Phillips County Historical Society, p. 28 |
| July 15, 1925 | Little Beaver post office discontinued in Rio Blanco County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 89 |
| August 15, 1925 | Buick post office discontinued in Elbert County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 26 |
| August 15, 1925 | Kant post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 81 |
| August 31, 1925 | Apache (II) post office discontinued in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 12 |
| September 1925 | Mesa Junior College is started when the governor signs the bill passed by the legislature; local organizations and individuals provided financial support for the college until 1938 when it | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 483 |
| September 3, 1925 | Ku Klux Klan day at the Phillips County Fair in Holyoke | Centennial History of Phillips County, Colorado - Those Were The Days , Phillips County Historical Society, p. 28 |
| September 3, 1925 | Walter Walker, publisher of the Grand Junction Daily Sentinel , is attacked on Main Street in Grand Junction by Deputy Sheriff Charles Thomas for his anti-Ku-Klux Klan stance | Historic Tales of Colorado's Grand Valley: Heroes, Heroines, Hucksters and Hooligans , 2016, by Kate Ruland-Thorne p. 87 |
| September 24, 1925 | Ground is broken for the Republic Building at 16th & Tremont in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| September 30, 1925 | Micanite post office discontinued in Fremont County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 98 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|---|--|
| September 30, 1925 | Rivas post office discontinued in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 122 |
| September 30, 1925 | Undercliffe post office discontinued in Pueblo County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 145 |
| September 30, 1925 | Elkdale post office discontinued in Grand County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 50 |
| October 28, 1925 | Kate McHale Slaughterback encounters a rattlesnake while collecting ducks near Hudson with her 3-year-old adopted son; she then sees another and another and winds up killing 140 | Greeley History Museum https://greeleymuseums.com/a-girl-and-her-snakes-the-story-of-kate-mchale-slaughterback/ |
| October 31, 1925 | Kearns post office discontinued in Archuleta County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 81 |
| October 31, 1925 | Kelim post office discontinued in Larimer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 82 |
| October 31, 1925 | Willow Creek post office discontinued in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 153 |
| October 31, 1925 | Alice post office discontinued in Clear Creek County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 11 |
| November 1925 | Drawing of City and County Building by Allied Architects' Association with a water feature between the library and a proposed building similar to it facing; they also proposed | Municipal Facts , Vol. 8, No.9&10, November-December 1925, p. 14 |
| June 30, 1925 | Bear River post office discontinued in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 17 |
| November 15, 1925 | Hardscrabble post office discontinued in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 69 |
| November 16, 1925 | Bijou View post office discontinued in Morgan County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 20 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|--|--|
| December 1, 1925 | Colorado Wyoming Gas Company incorporated | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 3 |
| December 1, 1925 | Colorado-Wyoming Gas Company formed; the following week a gas pipeline is completed to Fort Collins and seven months later a line is completed to Cheyenne | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 23 |
| December 4-5, 1925 | The Fairview Mine near Nederland in Boulder County is the site of a rescue of 32 miners by many fire departments | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| December 9, 1925 | A natural gas pipeline is completed by Colorado-Wyoming Gas Company to serve Fort Collins | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 23 |
| December 13, 1925 | DAR puts plaque on Constitution Hall building at 15th & Blake Street in Denver | Denver Post December 13, 1925, p. 8 |
| December 15, 1925 | Sago post office discontinued in Montezuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 126 |
| December 19, 1925 | Oracle begins publishing in Ovid | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 134 |
| December 31, 1925 | Schram post office discontinued in Yuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 130 |
| 1926 | Adams County Record ceases publishing in Aurora | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 1 |
| 1926 | Aurora Independent begins publishing in Aurora | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 1 |
| 1926 | Stonington Times ceases publishing in Stonington | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 8 |
| 1926 | Mesita Herald ceases publishing in Mesita | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 23 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|---|
| 1926 | North Fork Times ceases publishing in Hotchkiss | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 27 |
| 1926 | Hotel Bulletin ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 37 |
| 1926 | Community Herald ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| 1926 | Paramount News begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1926 | South Side Monitor begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1926 | Daily Mining Stock Reporter begins publishing in Colorado Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 61 |
| 1926 | Kolorado Klan Kourier begins publishing in Canon City | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 65 |
| 1926 | Garfield County Republican ceases publishing in New Castle | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 68 |
| 1926 | Fort Collins Herald ceases publishing in Fort Collins | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 92 |
| 1926 | General News ceases publishing in Delhi | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 94 |
| 1926 | Montrose County Chronicle ceases publishing in Montrose | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 107 |
| 1926 | Fowler Advertiser ceases publishing in Fowler | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 110 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|---|
| 1926 | Otero County Star ceases publishing in La Junta | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 111 |
| 1926 | Ridgeway Sun ceases publishing in Ridgeway | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 114 |
| 1926 | Wiley Journal ceases publishing in Wiley | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 120 |
| 1926 | Countryside ceases publishing in Pueblo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 125 |
| 1926 | Pen and Pencil begins publishing in Center | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 129 |
| 1926 | Oracle ceases publishing in Ovid | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 134 |
| 1926 | Ovid Record begins publishing in Ovid | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 134 |
| 1926 | Sedgwick Sun ceases publishing in Sedgwick | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 134 |
| 1926 | Sedgwick Independent begins publishing in Sedgwick | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 134 |
| 1926 | Keenesburg News ceases publishing in Keenesburg | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 145 |
| 1926 | Keene Valley Sun begins publishing in Keenesburg | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 145 |
| 1926 | Pawnee Herald ceases publishing in Keota | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 146 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|---|
| 1926 | A pumping unit is added to the Grand Valley Project to provide water to Orchard Mesa near Grand Junction | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 523 |
| 1926 | Many substantial buildings were begun in Denver: the Republic Building, Security Building, Midland Savings Building, Cosmopolitan Hotel, and Continental Oil Building | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 546 |
| 1926 | A party from the Colorado Museum of Natural History exploring along the Cimarron River in Union County, New Mexico uncover projectile points that come to be called "Folsom Points" due to the proximity to the town | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 27 |
| 1926 | Sugar factories are built at Ovid and Johnstown | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 141 |
| 1926 | Colorado has 217 Methodist Episcopal churches with 46,474 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 204 |
| 1926 | There are 122 Baptist Churches in Colorado with 24,166 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 208 |
| 1926 | There are 132 Presbyterian churches in Colorado with 27,090 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 209 |
| 1926 | There are 10 United Presbyterian Churches in Colorado with 2,467 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 209 |
| 1926 | The Holy Cross Abbey at Canon City is founded | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 212 |
| 1926 | There are 125,757 Catholic church members in Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 212 |
| 1926 | There are 91 Congregational Churches in Colorado with 13,561 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 213 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|---|
| 1926 | American Lutheran Church organized in Bethune | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 215 |
| 1926 | American Lutheran Church organized in Denver | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 215 |
| 1926 | The Seventh Day Adventists have 63 churches and 3,169 members in Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 216 |
| 1926 | There are 39 Church of the Nazarene congregations in Colorado with 1,728 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 217 |
| 1926 | There are 11 Assembly of God churches in Colorado with 817 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 217 |
| 1926 | The Pillar of Fire [formerly Pentecostal Union] has seven churches with 474 members in Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 218 |
| 1926 | There are 12 Church of the Brethren churches with 1,427 members in Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 220 |
| 1926 | There are 22 Jewish synagogues in Colorado with 18,950 members listed | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 223 |
| 1926 | Oil production in Colorado hit the $5 million mark | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 510 |
| 1926 | The $15 million Moffat Tunnel is completed | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 683 |
| 1926 | St. Cajetan's Catholic Church is built in the Auraria section of Denver; designed by Robert Willison at 9th and Lawrence becoming the first church for Spanish speakers in northern Colorado | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 70 |
| 1926 | Claude Boettcher purchases the Cheesman Mansion at 400 E. 8th Avenue in Denver where he lives until his death | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 75 |
| 1926 | Cullen-Thompson Motor Company opens at 1000 Broadway in Denver in a 3-story Deco Gothic building with ramps between floors | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 77 |
| 1926 | The Denver Botanic Gardens House, as it is now known, opens at 909 York as designed by Jacques Benedict | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 92 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|---|
| 1926 | Lake Junior High School opens at 1820 Lowell; designed by Merrill H and Burnham F. Hoyt for the Denver Public Schools, one of many schools designed by the Hoyts | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 102 |
| 1926 | South Denver High School is built at 1700 E. Louisiana; designed by William E. and Arthur A. Fisher overlooking Washington Park | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 113 |
| 1926 | The Philosophy Building is completed on the grounds of the St. Thomas Seminary at 1300 S. Steele Street in Denver; designed by Jacques Benedict | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 116 |
| 1926 | An addition is made to the Pleasant DeSpain School at 7200 Lowell Boulevard in Westminster | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 123 |
| 1926 | Frank Kistler buys the Waite Phillips Ranch southwest of Denver and enlarges the old stone ranch house using architect Jacques Benedict | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 146 |
| 1926 | Frank Kistler buys the Waite Phillips Ranch southwest of Denver and engages architect Jacques Benedict to remodel the old stone ranch house using a Tudor Revival style; later called the Highlands Ranch Mansion | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 147 |
| 1926 | The Neusteter Rehabilitation Building opens as part of the Jewish Consumptive Relief Society (JCRS); designed by William E. and Arthur A. Fisher in Lakewood | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 158 |
| 1926 | The Stanley Hotel is sold and suffers during the depression and is closed during World War II | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 235 |
| 1926 | The Great Western Sugar Company builds a sugar beet processing plant at Johnstown | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 250 |
| 1926 | John H. Bloedorn builds a house at 440 Sherman Street in Fort Morgan; it is featured in a 1928 Country Homes showcasing its third floor ballroom | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 252 |
| 1926 | Immanuel Lutheran Church is built north of Bethune in Kit Carson County | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 266 |
| 1926 | Burlington State Armory is built at 191 14th Street; designed by Sidney G. Frazier | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 266 |
| 1926 | Grace Episcopal Church Complex opens in Colorado Springs on the southwest corner of Monument and Tejon Streets; designed by Frohman, Robb & Little with a bell tower and four ornate spires | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 296 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|---|
| 1926 | Spencer Penrose founds the Cheyenne Mountain Zoo at 4200 Cheyenne Mountain Zoo Road | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 302 |
| 1926 | Star-Journal Model Home opens in Pueblo at 2920 High Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 320 |
| 1926 | Gus Masciotra adds a grocery to his house at 1201 Elm Street in the Bessemer area of Pueblo | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 321 |
| 1926 | Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic Church is rebuilt after the original structure burned down in Conejos | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 419 |
| 1926 | Whitman Elementary School opens in Grand Junction at Ute Avenue and S. 4th Street; reopened in 1966 as the Museum of Western Colorado | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 504 |
| 1926 | Murr House completed at 639 N. 7th Street in Grand Junction | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 507 |
| 1926 | Carpenter Ranch acquired by Farrington "Ferry" Carpenter family | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 528 |
| 1926 | Blackstock-O'Leary Elementary School opens at 225 N. Pine in Gunnison; designed by Mountjoy and Frewen | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 539 |
| 1926 | Ouray Hot Springs Pool opens on Main Street at the north entrance to the town carrying on the tradition established centuries earlier by the Utes of using the waters to soak away aches and pains | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 570 |
| 1926 | Montrose City Hall opens at 433 S. 1st Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 580 |
| 1926 | Jesse Nusbaum builds the Eileen Nusbaum Hospital in Mesa Verde National Park which his wife operated; now the Spruce Tree Terrace Restaurant | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 602 |
| 1926 | Presbyterian Hospital established in Denver | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 33 |
| 1926 | Spencer Penrose establishes the Cheyenne Mountain Zoo just outside of Colorado Springs | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| 1926 | Barnum sanitary sewer completed in Denver at a cost of $449,595 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| 1926 | Subway built on 38th Street in Denver at a cost of $218,189 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| 1926 | Denver property is revalued | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|--|
| 1926 | Western Air Express establishes air mail routes between Cheyenne, Denver & Pueblo | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| 1926 | A new generator is installed at Public Service Company's Valmont plant near Boulder | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 3 |
| 1926 | A second unit is added to Valmont Station | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 23 |
| 1926 | A golf club is started at Yuma, in Yuma County | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 200 |
| 1926 | Farmers' Equity Union Elevators organized in Yuma County at Schramm | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 201 |
| 1926-1928 | Competition between the Rocky Mountain News and Denver Post results in the Post publishing a morning edition and the News beginning to publish an afternoon paper, the Denver Times ; the papers call a truce in November 1928 realizing neither is gaining advantage and return to their morning and afternoon editions | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 273 |
| about 1926 | Presbyterian Hospital opens in Denver | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 209 |
| January 1926 | Denver's new schools are featured: East, South & West High Schools and Cole, Byers, Lake junior high schools, Adams, University Park, Gothic, Barnum, Ebert, Elyria, Skinner, Edison, Asbury, Valverde, Rosedale, Globeville, Fairview, and Stedman elementary schools and the Denver Public Schools administration building | Municipal Facts , Vol. 9, No.1&2, January-February 1926, p. 3 |
| January 1926 | Denver's Municipal Flag; designed by Margaret Overbeck of North High School; approved by the art commission | Municipal Facts , Vol. 9, No.1&2, January-February 1926, p. 16 |
| January 15, 1926 | Sulphur post office discontinued in Rio Blanco County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 137 |
| January 15, 1926 | Library is moved from the Phillips County State Bank to the county courthouse | Centennial History of Phillips County, Colorado - Those Were The Days , Phillips County Historical Society, p. 28 |
| February 11, 1926 | Wilds post office established in Larimer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 152 |
| February 24, 1926 | Denver City Planning Commission is set up | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| March 12, 1926 | Pallas post office discontinued in Routt County, moved to Pinnacle | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 109 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|----------------|---|---|
| March 13, 1926 | Pinnacle post office discontinued in Bent County, moved to Trout Creek | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 113 |
| March 13, 1926 | Pinnacle post office established in Bent County, moved from Pallas | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 113 |
| March 13, 1926 | Trout Creek post office established in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 143 |
| March 31, 1926 | Sawpit post office discontinued in San Miguel County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 130 |
| April 1926 | The Intermountain Press and Printer is absorbed by the Colorado Editor - a publication of the Colorado Press Association edited by Edwin A. Bemis | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 277 |
| April 10, 1926 | Suburban Light & Power Company in Aurora acquired by Public Service Company of Colorado | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 24 |
| April 15, 1926 | Piceance post office discontinued in Rio Blanco County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 112 |
| April 15, 1926 | Abbott post office discontinued in Washington County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 9 |
| April 16, 1926 | Kenwood post office established in Fremont County, formerly named Pyrolite | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 82 |
| April 16, 1926 | Pyrolite post office discontinued in Fremont County, name changed to Kenwood | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 117 |
| April 16, 1926 | Brighton Ice, Light & Power Company acquired by Public Service Company of Colorado | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 24 |
| April 23, 1926 | Eggers post office established in Larimer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 49 |
| April 24, 1926 | Swallows post office discontinued in Pueblo County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 138 |
| April 30, 1926 | Forestdale post office discontinued in Custer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 56 |
| May 1, 1926 | Brush Electric System, formerly a municipal plant is acquired by Public Service Company of Colorado | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 24 |
| May 15, 1926 | Squaw Point post office discontinued in Dolores County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 135 |
| May 18, 1926 | Glen Haven post office established in Larimer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 63 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-----------------|---|---|
| May 29, 1926 | Aspen Democrat-Times ceases publishing in Aspen, continues as Aspen Daily Times | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 117 |
| May 31, 1926 | The first mail flight arrived in Denver from Cheyenne landing at the Don Hogan airdome at 26th and Oneida piloted by E.L. Curtis; mail for Colorado Springs and Pueblo was transferred to another plane | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 574 |
| May 31, 1926 | Pueblo's first air mail service was witnessed by thousands who were treated to a pageant of the evolution of mail service from pony express on | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 574 |
| May 31, 1926 | Colorado Airways provides the first airmail service to Denver from a transcontinental line at Cheyenne and then continuing on to Colorado Springs and Pueblo | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| June 1926 | Cosmopolitan Hotel is completed and opened in Denver | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| June 1, 1926 | Aspen Daily Times begins publishing in Aspen | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 118 |
| June 19, 1926 | Dupont post office established in Adams County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 48 |
| June 25, 1926 | Sigman post office established in Adams County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 132 |
| June 29, 1926 | Dicks post office established in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 45 |
| July 1926 | Manassa Star begins publishing in Manassa | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 22 |
| July 1, 1926 | The Colorado Press Association opens its business office on the Boulder campus of the University of Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 278 |
| July 7, 1926 | A natural gas pipeline is completed by Colorado-Wyoming Gas Company to serve Cheyenne | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 23 |
| July 28, 1926 | Alamosa Empire ceases publishing in Alamosa | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 3 |
| July 31, 1926 | Thedalund post office discontinued in Adams County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 140 |
| August 4, 1926 | Red Feather Lakes post office established in Larimer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 120 |
| August 12, 1926 | Ovid Electric System acquired by Public Service Company of Colorado | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 24 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|---|---|
| August 14, 1926 | Perins post office discontinued in La Plata County, same place as Perin | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 112 |
| August 18, 1926 | Summit Gazette begins publishing in Breckenridge | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 135 |
| August 21, 1926 | Mt. Princeton Hot Springs post office established in Chaffee County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 103 |
| August 31, 1926 | Poudre Valley Gas Company acquired by Public Service Company of Colorado | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 23 |
| August 31, 1926 | Federal Gas Company in Boulder acquired by Public Service Company of Colorado | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 23 |
| August 31, 1926 | Poudre Valley Gas Company acquired by Public Service Company of Colorado | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 24 |
| August 31, 1926 | Federal Gas Company in Boulder acquired by Public Service Company of Colorado | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 24 |
| August 31, 1926 | Rifle Light, Heat & Power Company acquired by Public Service Company of Colorado | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 24 |
| August 31, 1926 | Deep Channel post office discontinued in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 43 |
| September 1, 1926 | Swallows post office established in Pueblo County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 138 |
| September 21, 1926 | Chambers post office discontinued in Larimer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 32 |
| September 29, 1926 | Colorado Springs Observer ceases publishing in Colorado Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 61 |
| October 9, 1926 | Rocky Mountain Canary begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| October 29, 1926 | Barnum News begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| October 30, 1926 | Focus post office discontinued in Custer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 54 |
| November 1926 | Democrat W.H. "Billy" Adams is elected governor; Republican Charles W. Waterman is elected to the U.S. Senate | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 547 |
| November 10, 1926 | Solar post office discontinued in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 133 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|---|
| November 15, 1926 | Rosemont post office discontinued in Teller County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 124 |
| November 15, 1926 | Elkton post office discontinued in Gunnison County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 50 |
| November 15, 1926 | Elkton post office discontinued in Teller County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 50 |
| November 20, 1926 | Denver Express ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 45 |
| November 22, 1926 | Scripps-Howard purchases the Rocky Mountain News and the Denver Times from John C. Shaffer for about one million dollars | The First Hundred Years by Robert L. Perkin, p. 466 |
| November 22, 1926 | Denver Times ceases publishing in Denver, continues as Denver Evening News | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 30 |
| November 23, 1926 | Merger of the Denver Times and the Denver Express announced by the Rocky Mountain News to form the Denver Evening News | The First Hundred Years by Robert L. Perkin, p. 467 |
| November 23, 1926 | Denver Evening News begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| November 24, 1926 | Grand Junction Electric, Gas & Manufacturing Company acquired by Public Service Company of Colorado | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 24 |
| November 24, 1926 | Sedgwick Electric Company acquired by Public Service Company of Colorado | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 25 |
| December 1926 | Voce del Popolo begins publishing in Italian in Pueblo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 126 |
| December 15, 1926 | Denver and Interurban Railroad 44-mile route to Louisville via Boulder and Superior is abandoned | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 16 |
| December 23, 1926 | Walsh post office established in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 148 |
| December 28, 1926 | Aspen Daily Times ceases publishing in Aspen | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 118 |
| December 31, 1926 | Clanda post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 34 |
| December 31, 1926 | Abruzzo-Molise ceases publishing in Italian in Pueblo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 126 |
| 1927 | Wiley Record begins publishing in Wiley | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 120 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|--|
| 1927 | Peter McFarlane closes the place in Central City Opera House | Summit of Destiny: Taming the Pikes Peak Country 1858-1918 , 2008, Francis J. Pierson, p. 149 |
| 1927 | Alamosa Aerial begins publishing in Alamosa | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 3 |
| 1927 | Englewood Messenger ceases publishing in Englewood | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 5 |
| 1927 | Englewood Monitor begins publishing in Englewood | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 5 |
| 1927 | Conejos County News begins publishing in Antonito | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 22 |
| 1927 | Jaroso Record ceases publishing in Jaroso | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 23 |
| 1927 | East End Echo ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 41 |
| 1927 | Curb Trader ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| 1927 | Rocky Mountain Canary ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1927 | Barnum News ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1927 | Paramount News ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1927 | Parker Post ceases publishing in Parker | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 53 |
| 1927 | Daily Mining Stock Reporter ceases publishing in Colorado Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 61 |
| 1927 | Florence Daily News begins publishing in Florence | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 66 |
| 1927 | Kremmling Register ceases publishing in Kremmling | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 73 |
| 1927 | Hartman Enterprise ceases publishing in Hartman | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 119 |
| 1927 | Wiley Leader begins publishing in Wiley | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 120 |
| 1927 | Telluride Journal ceases publishing in Telluride | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 133 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|--|
| 1927 | Summit Gazette ceases publishing in Breckenridge | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 135 |
| 1927 | Cope Courier begins publishing in Cope | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 141 |
| 1927 | Ault Advertiser ceases publishing in Ault, continues as Ault Booster | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 142 |
| 1927 | Ault Booster begins publishing in Ault | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 142 |
| 1927 | Fort Lupton Booster ceases publishing in Fort Lupton | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 143 |
| 1927 | Colorado Patriot ceases publishing in Wray | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 148 |
| 1927 | The penny tax on each gallon of gasoline levied in 1919 and increased to two cents in 1923, to improve Colorado's roads, is raised to three cents | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 567 |
| 1927 | Burton O. Longyear publishes Trees and Shrubs of the Rocky Mountain Region | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 26 |
| 1927 | Sweet Spanish or Valencia onions are introduced in Otero and Pueblo counties | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 147 |
| 1927 | The last of Colorado's tragic mining troubles happen in Weld County at the Columbine Mine | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 323 |
| 1927 | Working in cement plants is declared a dangerous occupation in Colorado and the work day set at 8 hours | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 327 |
| 1927 | Colorado's first Old Age Pension Law is enacted | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 345 |
| 1927 | Legislative Reference Bureau is created by the legislature and attached to the office of the Attorney General | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 546 |
| 1927 | J.H. Empson and Daughter Company and Kuner Pickle Company combine to form the Kuner-Empson Company | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 573 |
| 1927 | The Merchant's Biscuit Company merges with United Biscuit Company adopting the four-leaf clover and adding the word "supreme" to their label | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 576 |
| 1927 | A.R. Wilfley and Sons incorporates after the death of A.R. by his sons George and Elmer | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 595 |
| 1927 | The Moffat Tunnel is completed at a cost of $18 million for the six-mile tunnel | Mary Fretch, state editor, Chronology and Documentary Handbook of the State of Colorado, 1973, p. 14 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|--|
| 1927 | Helium gas deposits are discovered near Thatcher | Mary Fretch, state editor, Chronology and Documentary Handbook of the State of Colorado, 1973, p. 14 |
| 1927 | Following Dennis Sheedy's death his home at 1115 Grant Street is converted to the University of Denver's Lamont School of Music | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 77 |
| 1927 | The 12-story Tihen Tower at the St. Thomas Seminary is completed; designed by Jacquez Benedict at 1300 Steele Street in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 116 |
| 1927 | Brighton High School is completed on the southeast corner of Bridge and 8th Streets; designed by Robert K. Fuller; later becomes the Heritage Community Center | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 120 |
| 1927 | The Texas Pavillion for Women opens as part of the Jewish Consumptive Relief Society (JCRS); designed by William E. and Arthur A. Fisher in Lakewood | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 158 |
| 1927 | A Standard Oil service station with twin parapets over twin service bays with a central bell tower clad in stucco is built at 101-103 Bear Creek Avenue in Morrison; later becomes an art gallery, bakery and automobilia shop | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 161 |
| 1927 | Denver builds Evergreen Dam creating Evergreen Lake to provide fishing in the summer and ice skating in the winter for it's mountain park | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 164 |
| 1927 | Pine Valley Ranch opens as one of Denver's ice farms; William A. Baehr had a lodge built by Jacques Benedict with 27 rooms | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 167 |
| 1927 | Empson Cannery at 15 3rd Avenue in Longmont is purchased by Kuner Pickle Company after Benjamin C. Viney's death in 1926; it becomes Kuner-Empson Cannery | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 186 |
| 1927 | East Portal of the Moffat Tunnel is 6.2 miles from the West Portal that opens into Winter Park; the 1928 grand opening gave Denver a long awaited direct line to the Pacific Coast, a dream since the transcontinental railroad by-passed the Queen City of the Plains in 1867 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 197 |
| 1927 | Mount Evans Highway is constructed - at the time the world's highest paved road | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 211 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|---|
| 1927 | A library is constructed on the Colorado State Agricultural College, a Beaux-Arts design by Eugene Groves, now used as a music building | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 227 |
| 1927 | Denver's Orpheum Theatre sells its pipe organ to the First Baptist Church in Greeley | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 244 |
| 1927 | The City of Greeley acquires the Nathan Meeker House at 1324 9th Avenue and turns it into the Meeker Memorial House Museum | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 244 |
| 1927 | Eaton's Town Hall is constructed | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 247 |
| 1927 | World's Wonder View Tower is built in Genoa - usually referred to as the Genoa Tower - it claims a view of six states and is filled with antiques and curiosities | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 269 |
| 1927 | Benjamin Lefkowsky adds L-shaped wings to the Hagerman Mansion at 610-624 Cascade in Colorado Springs after purchasing the building; the carriage house also converted; now known as Cascade Park Apartments | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 292 |
| 1927 | The Cascade Community House is built on US 24 near Pikes Peak Road as a town hall, post office, general store, refreshment parlor, garage and filling station | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 307 |
| 1927 | The John R. Bradley Hacienda, a Spanish Colonial Revival home, is completed; designed by Addison Mizner 10 miles southeast of Colorado Springs | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 308 |
| 1927 | El Colorado Lodge opens at 23 Manitou Avenue in Manitou Springs | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 309 |
| 1927 | Cañon City Municipal Building and Museum opens at 612 Royal Gorge Boulevard | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 341 |
| 1927 | Pritchett established in Baca County and named for Henry S. Pritchett, a director of the Santa Fe Railroad | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 383 |
| 1927 | Sacred Heart Catholic Church opens in Alamosa at 727 4th Street; designed by Robert Willison | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 408 |
| 1927 | Saco R. DeBoer devises a city plan for Grand Junction | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 504 |
| 1927 | High School constructed of brick in Crested Butte | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 541 |
| 1927 | Jesse Nusbaum builds the Chief Ranger Station in Mesa Verde National Park | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 602 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|---|---|
| 1927 | Margaret Tobin "Molly" Brown buys the home of poet and journalist Eugene Field which was located at 307 W. Colfax and moves it to Washington Park where it served as a branch library of the Denver Public Library system | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 164 |
| 1927 | Evergreen Dam and Lake completed at a cost of $214,375 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| 1927 | The 46th Avenue Bridge is completed in Denver at a cost of $64,573 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| 1927 | Overland subway completed in Denver at a cost of $212,454 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| 1927 | Radio station KLZ in Denver becomes associated with the Columbia Broadcasting System (CBS) | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| circa 1927 | Wagon Wheel Gap schoolhouse is built and later moved to a site near the train depot | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 436 |
| January 1, 1927 | Groundbreaking for Empire Savings building in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| January 3, 1927 | Morning Post begins publishing by the owners of the Denver Post | The First Hundred Years by Robert L. Perkin, p. 488 |
| January 3, 1927 | Denver Morning Post begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| January 11, 1927 | Billy Adams takes the oath as Colorado's 25th governor | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| January 14, 1927 | Aspen Times begins publishing in Aspen | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 118 |
| January 17, 1927 | Elkhead post office established in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 50 |
| January 31, 1927 | Mirage post office discontinued in Saguache County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 99 |
| February 1927 | Transatlantic telephone service begins allowing people in Colorado to speak to people in London | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 584 |
| February 4, 1927 | When the Rocky Mountain News exceeded the Denver Post in classified advertising a gas war was begun; each paper offered gas free with each classified ad taken out | The First Hundred Years by Robert L. Perkin, p. 511 |
| February 5, 1927 | Foothills post office discontinued in Pueblo County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 54 |
| February 5, 1927 | Cragmor post office established in El Paso County, sanitorium at Colorado Springs | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 39 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|---|
| February 8, 1927 | Denver voters approve a 20-year franchise for Public Service Company of Colorado | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 3 |
| February 8, 1927 | A 20-year franchise granted to Public Service Company of Colorado by the City and County of Denver with provision for a supplemental natural gas franchise should natural gas become available for Denver | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 25 |
| February 12, 1927 | The Moffat Tunnel holes tunnel holes through | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 525 |
| February 13, 1927 | Ground is broken for the Telephone Building at 14th and Curtis Streets in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| February 15, 1927 | Jasper post office discontinued in Rio Grande County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 80 |
| February 18, 1927 | North Veta post office established in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 106 |
| February 18, 1927 | Moffat Tunnel bore breaks through, bonded for $15,470,000 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| February 18, 1927 | At 8:10 President Coolidge pressed a button in the White House and over the Western Union wires came an electric spark which fired the shot that pierced the Continental Divide with a man-sized hole completing the bore of the Moffat Tunnel | Municipal Facts , Vol. 10, No.3&4, March-April 1927, p. 11 |
| March 15, 1927 | Joycoy post office discontinued in Baca County, moved to Pritchett | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 80 |
| March 15, 1927 | Pritchett post office established in Baca County, moved from Joycoy. | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 116 |
| March 17, 1927 | Worst blizzard in 25 years hits Phillips County delaying trains and causing drifts 8 to 15 feet high | Centennial History of Phillips County, Colorado - Those Were The Days , Phillips County Historical Society, p. 29 |
| April 1, 1927 | Phillips County Herald ceases publishing in Holyoke | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 116 |
| April 6, 1927 | City elections in Grand Junction end the grip of the Ku Klux Klan on the community; the Daily Sentinel headline trumpeted "Klan Hold in This City is Broken" | Historic Tales of Colorado's Grand Valley: Heroes, Heroines, Hucksters and Hooligans , 2016, by Kate Ruland-Thorne p. 92 |
| February 12, 1927 | The pioneer bore of the Moffat Tunnel "holes through" on this date after nearly four years of construction | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 572 |
| May 26, 1927 | Trapper's Lake post office established in Garfield County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 142 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|---|---|
| May 31, 1927 | Lamport post office discontinued in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 85 |
| June 1927 | Echo Lake Lodge opens for season with new dining room and dance hall | Municipal Facts , Vol. 10, No.5-6, May-June 1927, p. 21 |
| June 4, 1927 | Skyway post office established in Mesa County, post office at Mesa Lakes Resort | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 133 |
| June 10, 1927 | Forkscreek post office discontinued in Jefferson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 56 |
| June 16, 1927 | Ione post office established in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 78 |
| June 23, 1927 | Grand Mesa post office established in Delta County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 65 |
| June 30, 1927 | Piedra post office discontinued in Archuleta County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 112 |
| July 30, 1927 | Buster post office discontinued in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 27 |
| June 30, 1927 | Denver Rock Drill Manufacturing Company consolidates with the Gardner Governor Company of Quincy, Illinois forming the Gardner-Denver Company | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 594 |
| July 7, 1927 | The railroad part of the Moffat Tunnel "holes through" | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 572 |
| July 27, 1927 | Sams post office established in San Miguel County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 127 |
| August 5, 1927 | Ansel Watrous dies in Fort Collins | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 271 |
| August 10, 1927 | Estelene post office discontinued in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 52 |
| August 27, 1927 | Clear Creek Power & Development Company acquired by Public Service Company of Colorado | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 25 |
| August 31, 1927 | White Rock post office discontinued in Pueblo County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 152 |
| September 1, 1927 | Big Springs Nebraska Electric System acquired by Public Service Company of Colorado (sold in 1935) | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 25 |
| September 16, 1927 | Idaho Springs Mining Gazette ceases publishing in Idaho Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 21 |
| September 16, 1927 | Clear Creek Mining Journal ceases publishing in Idaho Springs, merged with Idaho Springs Mining Gazette | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 21 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|---|---|
| September 19, 1927 | Natural gas ordinance with the City and County of Denver passed given Public Service Company of Colorado rights to distribute natural gas in Denver | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 25 |
| September 23, 1927 | Clear Creek Mining Journal-Gazette begins publishing in Idaho Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 21 |
| October 1927 | Granada Journal begins publishing in Granada | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 119 |
| October 7, 1927 | Air mail contract between Cheyenne, Denver, and Pueblo is given to Western Air Express | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| November 18, 1927 | Crowley County Leader ceases publishing in Ordway | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 24 |
| November 21, 1927 | Striking miners at the Columbine Mine in Weld County insist on their right to pass through to the post office; six miners are killed and 60 injured when guards and state rangers open fire on them | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 324 |
| November 30, 1927 | Alder post office discontinued in Saguache County, also known as Round Hill | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 10 |
| December 5, 1927 | Rollinsville Electric System acquired by Public Service Company of Colorado | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 25 |
| December 10, 1927 | Western Air Express begins operating under the air mail contract | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| December 16, 1927 | Spurgin post office discontinued in Weld County, name changed to Vim. | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 135 |
| December 16, 1927 | Vim post office established in Weld County, formerly named Spurgin | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 147 |
| December 20, 1927 | Denver General Hospital completed | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| December 30, 1927 | Mead Messenger ceases publishing in Mead | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 146 |
| December 31, 1927 | Willow Gulch post office discontinued in Dolores County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 153 |
| December 31, 1927 | Denver Gas & Electric Company's Pintsch Gas manufacturing plant at 7th and Wewatta shuts down | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 11 |
| 1928 | Wiley Record ceases publishing in Wiley | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 120 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|--|
| 1928 | Aurora Independent ceases publishing in Aurora | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 1 |
| 1928 | Alamosa Aerial ceases publishing in Alamosa | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 3 |
| 1928 | Daily Courier begins publishing in Alamosa | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 3 |
| 1928 | Byers Hustler begins publishing in Byers | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 4 |
| 1928 | Tab begins publishing in Walsh | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 8 |
| 1928 | Fort Lyon Scout ceases publishing in Las Animas | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 9 |
| 1928 | Antonito Ledger ceases publishing in Antonito, continues as Antonito Ledger-News | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 22 |
| 1928 | Conejos County News ceases publishing in Antonito, merges with as Antonito Ledger to become Antonito Ledger-News | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 22 |
| 1928 | Antonito Ledger-News begins publishing in Antonito | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 22 |
| 1928 | Costilla Valley Democrat begins publishing in San Luis | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 24 |
| 1928 | South Denver Eye and Bulletin ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 44 |
| 1928 | North Side Monitor begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1928 | South Denver Independent begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1928 | Matheson Herald ceases publishing in Matheson | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 56 |
| 1928 | How begins publishing in Colorado Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 61 |
| 1928 | Florence Daily News ceases publishing in Florence | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 66 |
| 1928 | Crystal River Empire ceases publishing in Carbondale | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 66 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|--|
| 1928 | Carbondale Headlight begins publishing in Carbondale | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 66 |
| 1928 | Avalanche-Echo ceases publishing in Glenwood Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 67 |
| 1928 | Evening Picketwire ceases publishing in Trinidad | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 97 |
| 1928 | Trinidad Picketwire ceases publishing in Trinidad | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 97 |
| 1928 | Trinidad Herald begins publishing in Trinidad | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 98 |
| 1928 | Progress Review begins publishing in Crook | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 99 |
| 1928 | De Beque News ceases publishing in De Beque | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 102 |
| 1928 | Moffat County Bell ceases publishing in Maybell | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 106 |
| 1928 | Cortez Sentinel begins publishing in Cortez | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 106 |
| 1928 | Pen and Pencil ceases publishing in Center | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 129 |
| 1928 | Coal miners strike and a clash in Boulder County claims several lives | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 547 |
| 1928 | Denver purchased the site for the municipal airport for $141,417 | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 575 |
| 1928 | The Moffat Railroad tunnel is completed, and seven years later work on the pioneer tunnel to carry water is begun | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 529 |
| 1928 | Alma Schoolhouse is built at 59 E. Buckskin; later becomes the Alma Town Hall | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 215 |
| 1928 | Gunter Hall of Health is completed on Colorado State Teachers College campus in Greeley; housed a gymnasium and classrooms; designed by William N. Bowman | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 246 |
| 1928 | Central School is completed in Fort Morgan; designed by Denver architects Frederick Mountjoy and Francis Frewen at 411 Clayton Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 254 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|--|
| 1928 | A carousel built in 1905 for Elitch Gardens in Denver by the Philadelphia Toboggan Company is sold to Kit Carson County; a 12-sided building is constructed to house the carousel and after operation for 3 years the building is closed and used for feed storage during the depression | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 266 |
| 1928 | Spaid Motor Company opens at 900 Main Street in Limon | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 270 |
| 1928 | Burlington Railroad builds a depot in Akron at Adams Avenue and Railroad Ave | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 271 |
| 1928 | County seat of Chaffee County is moved from Buena Vista to Salida | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 348 |
| 1928 | Prowers County Courthouse opens at 301 S. Main Street; designed by Robert K. Fuller | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 385 |
| 1928 | St. Anthony of Padua Chapel is completed on Conejos County road 28 which incorporates some walls of the original 1880 church building | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 423 |
| 1928 | Garfield County Courthouse opens in Glenwood Springs; designed by Robert K. Fuller; an addition is made in 1983 by Henningson, Durham & Richardson | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 481 |
| 1928 | Oak Creek High School opens in Routt County; designed by Temple Hoyne Buell | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 529 |
| 1928 | Egyptian Theater opens at 452 Main Street in Delta; designed by Montana S. Fallis and inspired by the discovery of King Tut's tomb in Egypt | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 532 |
| 1928 | Archuleta County Courthouse opens at 455 Pagosa Street in Pagosa Springs; designed by Eugene G. Groves; this is the county's third courthouse | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 552 |
| 1928 | Post Office opens in Durango at 1060 Main Avenue using the OSA design of James A. Wetmore and built by F.M. Beadreau | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 556 |
| 1928 | Twenty-six years after David Moffat proposed traveling by rail from Denver to Salt Lake City the Moffat Tunnel opens; Moffat died bankrupt in 1911 | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 69 |
| 1928 | Denver buys Red Rocks at the base of Mount Morrison and creates an amphitheater there in 1941 | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 94 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|--|
| 1928 | Rodolfo "Corky" Gonzales is born in Denver to migrant worker parents | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 138 |
| 1928 | Arapahoe Street from Speer to Broadway is widened in Denver at a cost of $70,000 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| 1928 | The Eckley Tribune is established in Yuma County | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 197 |
| 1928 | Lutheran church is organized at Wray, in Yuma County | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 198 |
| 1928 | Cathchpole Theater opens in Eckley, in Yuma County | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 200 |
| 1928 | Lutheran Deaconess Hospital opens in Yuma, in Yuma County | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 200 |
| Janaury 1928 | Evergreen dam is completed at a cost of $200,000; the lake will cover 55 acres and have an average depth of 17 feet | Municipal Facts , Vol. 11, No.1&2, January-February 1928, p. 8 |
| January 14, 1928 | Lone Oak post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 91 |
| January 20, 1928 | Aurora-Fitzsimons Sun begins publishing in Aurora | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 1 |
| January 31, 1928 | East Portal post office discontinued in Gilpin County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 48 |
| February 6, 1928 | Newcastle Electric System acquired by Public Service Company of Colorado | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 25 |
| February 26, 1928 | The first regular train goes through the Moffat Tunnel westbound through the six mile bore; originally expected to cost $7 million, the final figure was nearly $18 million | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 572 |
| February 26, 1928 | The Moffat Tunnel opens giving a 6.2 mile route under the continental divide; at the time the world's longest railroad tunnel | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| February 26, 1928 | Moffat Tunnel completed at a total cost of $15,470,000 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| March 19, 1928 | One of Denver's oldest hotels, the Colorado House, is damaged by fire | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| March 28, 1928 | Denver buys the site for the Municipal Airport for $141,417 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| April 5, 1928 | Durango Herald ceases publishing in Durango, continues as Durango Herald-Democrat | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 88 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|----------------|--|--|
| April 5, 1928 | Durango Democrat ceases publishing in Durango, merges with Durango Herald | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 89 |
| April 6, 1928 | Durango Herald-Democrat begins publishing in Durango | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 89 |
| April 20, 1928 | Fire at Alexander Industries plant in Englewood kills 11 and injures many others in the plant that manufactures aircraft and other machinery | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| April 30, 1928 | Whitepine post office discontinued in Gunnison County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 151 |
| May 1928 | Barnum Booster begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| May 1, 1928 | Trump post office established in Park County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 143 |
| May 15, 1928 | Augusta post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 15 |
| May 31, 1928 | Osier post office discontinued in Conejos County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 108 |
| June 1928 | Natural gas reached Denver via a 340 mile pipeline costing $23 million from Amarillo, Texas | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 582 |
| June 8, 1928 | The James Wing added to the Colorado Museum of Natural History in Denver | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| June 9, 1928 | La Jara Electric Company acquired by Public Service Company of Colorado | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 25 |
| June 13, 1928 | Kings Canyon post office established in Jackson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 82 |
| June 15, 1928 | Great Divide ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 46 |
| June 18, 1928 | Rodolfo "Corky" Gonzales is born at Denver General Hospital | Rodolfo "Corky" Gonzales Papers, WH1971 finding aid, Denver Public Library, biographical note |
| June 23, 1928 | Texas to Denver natural gas line completed by Colorado Interstate Gas Company | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 3 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|---|--|
| June 23, 1928 | At 9 p.m. the town border station valve on the southern edge of Denver was opened bringing natural gas 340.7 miles from the Texas panhandle via a 22 inch pipeline; all gas appliances in Denver had to be converted from manufactured to natural gas by Public Service Company of Colorado | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 26 |
| June 30, 1928 | Osgood post office discontinued in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 108 |
| July 1928 | Routt County Sentinel ceases publishing in Steamboat Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 128 |
| July 14, 1928 | Patches post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 111 |
| July 31, 1928 | Ruin Canyon post office discontinued in Montezuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 125 |
| August 1928 | Work on Denver's new airport with land scrappers | Municipal Facts , Vol. 11, No.7&8, July-August 1928, p. 3 |
| August 1, 1928 | The old Public Service Company of Colorado gas works with its retorts at 7th and Wewatta Streets closes; kept as a standby in case of interruption of the natural gas supply | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 26 |
| August 15, 1928 | Ojo post office discontinued in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 107 |
| August 26, 1928 | The first scheduled train passes thru the Moffat Tunnel | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 683 |
| September 1, 1928 | Sanatorium post office discontinued in Jefferson County, name changed to Spivak | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 128 |
| September 1, 1928 | Spivak post office established in Jefferson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 134 |
| September 5, 1928 | Bartlett post office established in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 17 |
| September 6, 1928 | Fire consumes the Loop Market in downtown Denver where 12 firefighters are injured | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| September 12, 1928 | Stanley Power Company in Estes Park acquired by Public Service Company of Colorado | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 25 |
| September 17, 1928 | Peetz Electric System acquired by Public Service Company of Colorado | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 25 |
| September 22, 1928 | Summit County Power Company acquired by Public Service Company of Colorado | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 25 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|--|
| October 1928 | The Park of the Red Rocks Now Denver Property; located 17 miles from the city limits | Municipal Facts , Vol. 11, No.9&10, September-October 1928, p. 2 |
| October 10, 1928 | Placita post office established in Pitkin County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 114 |
| October 12, 1928 | Three firefighters are killed when two firetrucks (No. 12 and pumper No. 7) collide at 44th and Federal in Denver | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| October 15, 1928 | Anton post office discontinued in Washington County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 12 |
| November 1928 | Governor "Billy" Adams is reelected | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 547 |
| November 5, 1928 | Morning Post and Evening News suspend publication when the Denver Post and Rocky Mountain News agree to not directly compete, though both raise the price of their original publications | The First Hundred Years by Robert L. Perkin, p. 516 |
| November 5, 1928 | Denver Evening News ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| November 5, 1928 | Denver Morning Post ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| November 15, 1928 | Svenska Amerikanska Western ceases publishing in Swedish in Denver, merges with Western Hyheter | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 43 |
| November 29, 1928 | Alamosa Courier ceases publishing in Alamosa | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 3 |
| December 5, 1928 | Smuggler post office discontinued in San Miguel County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 133 |
| December 28, 1928 | Norwood Post ceases publishing in Norwood, continues as Norwood Post-Independent | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 132 |
| 1929 | Aurora-Fitzsimons Sun ceases publishing in Aurora | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 1 |
| 1929 | Byers Hustler ceases publishing in Byers | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 4 |
| 1929 | Manassa Star ceases publishing in Manassa | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 22 |
| 1929 | San Luis Valley Farmer begins publishing in Manassa | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 22 |
| 1929 | South Denver Tribune ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 45 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|--|
| 1929 | Mining and Financial Record ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 46 |
| 1929 | Rocky Mountain Mirror ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| 1929 | South Denver Independent ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1929 | Carbondale Headlight ceases publishing in Carbondale | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 66 |
| 1929 | Plateau Voice ceases publishing in Collbran | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 101 |
| 1929 | Plateau Valley Voice begins publishing in Collbran | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 102 |
| 1929 | Mesa County Mail ceases publishing in Fruita | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 102 |
| 1929 | Fruita Times begins publishing in Fruita | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 102 |
| 1929 | Western Colorado Progress ceases publishing in Grand Junction | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 104 |
| 1929 | Nucla Independent ceases publishing in Nucla | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 108 |
| 1929 | Colona News ceases publishing in Colona | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 113 |
| 1929 | Park County News ceases publishing in Fairplay | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 115 |
| 1929 | Bristol Herald ceases publishing in Bristol | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 118 |
| 1929 | Cope Courier ceases publishing in Cope | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 141 |
| 1929 | The Telephone Building is completed in Denver with its set-back, skyscraper look | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 546 |
| 1929 | The tax on each gallon of gasoline to build a fund to improve Colorado's roads is raised to four cents | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 567 |
| 1929 | Natural gas line is extended from Denver to Fort Collins | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 582 |
| 1929 | Colorado ranks 5th nationally in flower & seed production behind California, Idaho, Michigan, and Montana | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 144 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|---|
| 1929 | Order of St. Anne establishes a house in Denver and operates a convalescent home for children | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 206 |
| 1929 | Colorado's legislature changes the name of the Adams State Normal School to the Adams State Teachers College of Southern Colorado, and makes several appropriations | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 475 |
| 1929 | La Porte Cement Company is completed near Fort Collins | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 538 |
| 1929 | Colorado Library Commission established by combining the Colorado Board of Library Commissioners and the Colorado Traveling Library Commission | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 547 |
| 1929 | Hathaway Instrument Company is organized with the plant in the basement of Claude Hathaway's home at 517 University Boulevard | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 600 |
| 1929 | A prison riot erupts in the Colorado State Penitentiary which results in the death of 13 men | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 612 |
| 1929 | Mountain States Telephone Building is completed at 14th and Curtis; designed by William N. Bowman in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 60 |
| 1929 | Westminster's first high school is built north and east of the Pleasant DeSpain School at 7200 Lowell Blvd | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 123 |
| 1929 | Trinity English Lutheran Church is completed at 2200 Broadway in Boulder; designed by Margaret Read | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 175 |
| 1929 | First United Methodist Church is completed at Main Street and Elizabeth Avenue in Platteville | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 249 |
| 1929 | Fort Lupton Library opens at 453 1st Street; now the Fort Lupton Museum and Recreation Center | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 250 |
| 1929 | Union Pacific builds a depot in Julesburg at 202 West 1st Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 261 |
| 1929 | An equestrian statue is erected in Colorado Springs of General William Jackson Palmer, the town's founder, at the intersection of Nevada and Platte Avenues | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 282 |
| 1929 | Royal Gorge Bridge and Incline Railway opens; designed by George Cole of the Royal Gorge Bridge and Amusement Company and touted as the World's Highest Suspension Bridge at 1,053 feet above the Arkansas River | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 345 |
| 1929 | Custer County Courthouse opens at 205 S. 6th Street in Westcliffe; designed by John J. Huddart | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 369 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|---|---|
| 1929 | West Cliffe becomes the county seat of Custer County replacing Silver Cliff | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 369 |
| 1929 | Community House opens at 129 E. Kansas Avenue in Walsenburg | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 372 |
| 1929 | Big Timbers Museum opens in Lamar at the junction of US 50, US 287 and Colorado 196 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 384 |
| 1929 | President's Home completed on the Adams State Normal School campus; designed by William N. Bowman at 1401 2nd Street with 17 rooms | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 409 |
| 1929 | First Church of Christ Scientist built at 535 N. 7th Street in Grand Junction by J. Louis Ford | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 507 |
| 1929 | Denver Municipal Airport opens; later Stapleton Airport and Stapleton International Airport | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xv |
| 1929 | Denver Municipal Airport opens at 32nd and Quebec; later called Stapleton Airport (1944) and Stapleton International Airport (1964) | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 184 |
| 1929 | Construction begins on the new City & County Building in Denver | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| 1929 | Idalia Flour Mill, in Yuma County, is sold to C.G. Ashliman | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 200 |
| 1929 | Telephone Company Building completed, in Denver, with 17 stories and a height of 250 feet | Western History Subject Index, Denver.Buildings.Heights |
| November 1929 | The City of Canon City completes the Royal Gorge Bridge over the Arkansas River | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| January 1929 | Norwood Post-Independent begins publishing in Norwood | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 132 |
| January 15, 1929 | Bowen post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 22 |
| January 15, 1929 | Forbes post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 54 |
| January 15, 1929 | Renaraye post office discontinued in Montezuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 120 |
| January 31, 1929 | Elkhead post office discontinued in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 50 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|---|
| February 1, 1929 | New warehouse and garage buildings completed at 3rd and Lipan in Denver for Public Service Company of Colorado | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 3 |
| February 1, 1929 | Two new buildings at 3rd and Lipan open; a service center and a garage; the service center on the north side of 3rd Avenue houses Gas and Electric Engineering, Stores, Warehouse, Gas Street, Utilization, Gas Service and Gas Motor, Electric Line, Service, Meter, Appliance, Transformer, Pole and Carpenter shop in a structure 280 by 270 feet with a two story front | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 27 |
| February 1, 1929 | The second building at 3rd and Lipan which open this month is a garage 270 feet by 125 feet that houses 300 trucks, automobiles, and special pieces of equipment of Public Service Company of Colorado | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 27 |
| February 1, 1929 | The Public Service Company of Colorado warehouse at 2145 Blake is abandoned when the Frueauff Service Center opens at 3rd and Lipan [due to difficulty spelling and pronouncing the name it is soon changed to just Service Center, when additional service centers are built it becomes known as the Lipan Service Center] | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 27 |
| February 1929 | There are 21 miles of walks in City Park | Municipal Facts , Vol. 12, No 1&2, January-February 1929, p. 2 |
| February 1929 | Denver's tallest building - the new telephone company building at 14th and Curtis Streets; 85,000 customers | Municipal Facts , Vol. 12, No 1&2, January-February 1929, p. 2 |
| February 8, 1929 | Skull Creek post office established in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 132 |
| February 12, 1929 | Loyd post office established in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 92 |
| February 28, 1929 | Akron News ceases publishing in Akron, continues as Akron News-Reporter | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 141 |
| February 28, 1929 | Akron Reporter ceases publishing in Akron, merges with Akron News | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 141 |
| February 28, 1929 | Alvin post office discontinued in Yuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 11 |
| February 28, 1929 | Conifer post office discontinued in Jefferson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 37 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|----------------|--|--|
| March 6, 1929 | Ground broken for Denver's City & County Building | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| March 7, 1929 | Akron News-Reporter begins publishing in Akron | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 141 |
| March 26, 1929 | Ground is broken for Denver's City and County Building | Digitized photo X-27525 in Denver Public Library Western History Collection. |
| March 26, 1929 | At 1:30 p.m. work started on Denver's new municipal building: Mayor Stapleton turned the first shovel of dirt | Municipal Facts , Vol. 12, No 5&6, May-June 1929, p. 2 |
| March 28, 1929 | Kathrine Lee Bates dies; she penned the words to "America the Beautiful" after visiting the top of Pikes Peak during the summer of 1893 while teaching at Colorado College | Summit of Destiny: Taming the Pikes Peak Country 1858-1918 , 2008, Francis J. Pierson, p. 317 |
| April 5, 1929 | San Juan Prospector ceases publishing in Del Norte | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 126 |
| April 12, 1929 | Del Norte Prospector begins publishing in Del Norte | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 127 |
| April 15, 1929 | Huerfano post office discontinued in Pueblo County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 75 |
| April 25, 1929 | 4-H clubs to be organized soon in Phillips County with Glen Lewis & Ed Hethcote as leaders | Centennial History of Phillips County, Colorado - Those Were The Days , Phillips County Historical Society, p. 29 |
| April 26, 1929 | Lincoln County Democrat ceases publishing in Hugo, continues as Eastern Colorado Plainsman | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 98 |
| May 1929 | Work continues on the new municipal Denver airport with the 120 x 120 foot hanger structure; the airport is bounded by 26th Avenue, 38th Avenue with Ulster on the West and extending a mile east | Municipal Facts , Vol. 12, No 5&6, May-June 1929, p. 3 |
| May 1929 | Aerial photo of Fitzsimons General Hospital with no main building and a lot of smaller two story structures | Municipal Facts , Vol. 12, No 7&8, July-August 1929, p. 8 |
| May 1, 1929 | Telephone Building at 14th and Curtis in Denver dedicated | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| May 3, 1929 | Eastern Colorado Plainsman begins publishing in Hugo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 99 |
| May 4, 1929 | Dial telephone service begins in Colorado; over 40,000 telephones were cut over in downtown Denver from manual to dial operation with the equipment housed in the new telephone building | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 584 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|---------------|--|---|
| May 31, 1929 | Gladel post office discontinued in San Miguel County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 61 |
| May 31, 1929 | Lester post office discontinued in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 88 |
| May 31, 1929 | Strong post office discontinued in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 136 |
| June 4, 1929 | Adolph Coors falls from a sixth floor window at the Cavalier Hotel in Virginia Beach, Virginia; it is never determined whether it was suicide, accident or even murder | Summit of Destiny: Taming the Pikes Peak Country 1858-1918 , 2008, Francis J. Pierson, p. 247 |
| June 5, 1929 | Tigiwon post office established in Eagle County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 141 |
| June 5, 1929 | Adolph Coors commits suicide by leaping to his death [hotel in Virginia] | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 51 |
| June 11, 1929 | Colorado Interstate Gas Company pipes natural gas to Littleton | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 27 |
| June 14, 1929 | Gilpin County Light, Heat & Power Company acquired by Public Service Company of Colorado | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 25 |
| June 17, 1929 | Denver begins building a five mile long road through Park of the Red Rocks | Municipal Facts , Vol. 12, No 9&10, September-October 1929, p. 4 |
| June 28, 1928 | Park Lane Hotel finished in Denver adjacent to Washington Park | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| June 29, 1929 | Pauley post office discontinued in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 111 |
| July 1929 | Barnum Booster ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| July 8, 1929 | Colorado Interstate Gas Company pipes natural gas to Englewood | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 27 |
| July 26, 1929 | Pitkin Miner ceases publishing in Pitkin | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 76 |
| July 31, 1929 | Yeiser post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 155 |
| July 31, 1929 | Cowans post office discontinued in Lincoln County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 39 |
| August 1929 | San Miguel Examiner ceases publishing in Telluride, merges with Telluride Journal | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 133 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|---|--|
| August 1, 1929 | Tyrone post office established in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 144 |
| August 1, 1929 | Yetta post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 155 |
| August 8, 1929 | Gunnison Empire ceases publishing in Gunnison | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 75 |
| August 9, 1929 | J.K. Mullen dies | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 53 |
| August 6, 1929 | Paoli incorporated in Phillips County | Centennial History of Phillips County, Colorado - Those Were The Days , Phillips County Historical Society, p. 30 |
| August 31, 1929 | Telluride Daily Journal ceases publishing in Telluride | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 133 |
| September 7, 1929 | Telluride Journal begins publishing in Telluride | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 133 |
| September 12, 1929 | Colorado Springs Observer begins publishing in Colorado Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 61 |
| September 28, 1929 | Colorado Interstate Gas Company pipes natural gas to Boulder | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 27 |
| September 30, 1929 | Cassels post office discontinued in Park County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 31 |
| September 30, 1929 | Ilse post office discontinued in Custer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 77 |
| October 1929 | A prison riot at the penitentiary in Canon City takes the lives of eight guards and five prisoners | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 547 |
| October 1, 1929 | Copper Spur post office established in Eagle County, formerly named Coppertown | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 37 |
| October 1, 1929 | Coppertown post office discontinued in Eagle County, name changed to Copper Spur | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 37 |
| October 1, 1929 | Radio station KOA in Denver becomes part of the National Broadcasting Company (NBC) | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| October 3, 1929 | An escape attempt, riot, and subsequent fire at the Colorado State Penitentiary in Canon City takes the lives of 13 guards and inmates after guards taken hostage | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| October 9, 1929 | Dinan post office established in San Miguel County, establishment rescinded | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 45 |
| October 17, 1929 | Denver Municipal Airport four day dedication begins | Dedication program Denver Public Library C629.144 D438s |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|---|
| October 17, 1929 | Denver Municipal Airport opens with a formal dedication; renamed Stapleton Airfield in 1944 | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| October 18, 1929 | DeBeque Electric System acquired by Public Service Company of Colorado | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 25 |
| October 19, 1929 | Construction begins on the Municipal Airport in Denver and buildings which will cost $414,319 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| October 24, 1929 | A frenzy of stock selling begins on the New York Stock Exchange, and leads to massive declines and the Great Depression | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 548 |
| 1929-1932 | About 1/3 of Colorado's banks failed | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 550 |
| October 31, 1929 | Sterling Democrat (w) ceases publishing in Sterling, continues as Sterling Farm Journal | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 100 |
| November 1929 | Fort Collins Leader begins publishing in Fort Collins | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 92 |
| November 7, 1929 | Ideal post office discontinued in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 77 |
| November 7, 1929 | Sterling Farm Journal begins publishing in Sterling | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 101 |
| November 30, 1929 | Glentivar post office discontinued in Park County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 63 |
| November 30, 1929 | Rouse post office discontinued in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 124 |
| December 1929 | Moffat County Courier ceases publishing in Craig, continues as Craig Empire-Courier | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 106 |
| December 10, 1929 | Colorado Interstate Gas Company pipes natural gas to Berthoud | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 27 |
| December 11, 1929 | Craig Empire ceases publishing in Craig, merges with Moffat County Courier | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 105 |
| December 12, 1929 | Colorado Interstate Gas Company pipes natural gas to Arvada | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 27 |
| December 18, 1929 | Craig Empire-Courier begins publishing in Craig | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 106 |
| December 28, 1929 | Roach post office established in Larimer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 122 |
| December 31, 1929 | Kenwood post office discontinued in Fremont County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 82 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|---|
| December 31, 1929 | Nepesta post office discontinued in Pueblo County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 104 |
| 1929 | By the end of this year the Denver Municipal Airport had expended $414,319 in preparing the air field | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 575 |
| 1930 | Rolling Stone Press begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1930 | Washington Park Press begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1930 | Pritchett News begins publishing in Pritchett | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 7 |
| 1930 | Western Empire begins publishing in Springfield | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 8 |
| 1930 | Salida Daily Reminder begins publishing in Salida | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 18 |
| 1930 | Rocky Mountain Sentinel ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 35 |
| 1930 | Paradox ceases publishing in Florence | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 66 |
| 1930 | East Jefferson Sentinel begins publishing in Edgewater | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 81 |
| 1930 | Lamar Daily Times begins publishing in Lamar | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 120 |
| 1930 | Wiley Leader ceases publishing in Wiley | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 120 |
| 1930 | Vindice ceases publishing in Italian in Pueblo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 123 |
| 1930 | Erie News begins publishing in Erie | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 142 |
| 1930 | Firestone Torch ceases publishing in Firestone | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 143 |
| 1930 | Census of Colorado enumerates 1,035,791 | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 78 |
| 1930 | During the previous 30 years more than a million Mexicans moved to the U.S. | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 99 |
| 1930 | The census enumerates 3,213 Japanese in Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 117 |
| 1930 | The Denver Russian Orthodox church changed its name to Russian-Serbian Orthodox Church at 47th and Logan | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 219 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|--|
| 1930 | Foot Hall dormitory is completed on the Colorado Woman's College campus | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 482 |
| 1930 | Denver University establishes a school of librarianship | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 554 |
| 1930 | Colorado's population is 1,035,791 | Mary Fretch, state editor, Chronology and Documentary Handbook of the State of Colorado, 1973, p. 14 |
| 1930 | Paramount Theatre completed at 1631 Glenarm Place; designed by Temple Hoyne Buell | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 52 |
| 1930 | Mayan Theatre opens at 110 Broadway; designed by Montana S. Fallis in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 73 |
| 1930 | Bryant-Webster Elementary School is built at 3635 Quivas Street in Denver; designed by G. Meredith Musick | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 108 |
| 1930 | Hanna's Super Shell Station opens at 9445 E. Colfax Avenue in Aurora | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 138 |
| 1930 | Irl Mawson, a lumber magnate, constructs a home at 1530 S. College Avenue in Fort Collins | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 228 |
| 1930 | Union Pacific Depot in Greeley is completed at 902 7th Avenue; designed by Gilbert Stanley Underwood | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 243 |
| 1930 | Colorado State Teachers College adds a Faculty Club House on its Greeley campus | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 246 |
| 1930 | St. Michael's Catholic Church opens at 490 Wall Street in Eaton | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 248 |
| 1930 | Farmers State Bank opens at 300 Main Street in Fort Morgan; designed by Eugene G. Groves | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 251 |
| 1930 | Club Tap Room opens in Fort Morgan at 212-214 Main Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 252 |
| 1930 | First United Presbyterian Church in Akron gets an addition on the south side | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 271 |
| 1930 | Carlton House is built by Cripple Creek mine and mill owner Albert E. Carlton north of Colorado Springs, on what will become the U.S. Air Force Academy in 1955 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 306 |
| 1930 | Chapel of the Holy Rosary is built by Charles S. Thomas at 4435 Holiday Trail at Fountain Avenue | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 307 |
| 1930 | Fountain Valley School is completed 10 miles southeast of Colorado Springs for the faculty of the Old Farms School of Connecticut first moving into the John R. Bradley Hacienda designed by Addison Mizner | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 308 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------|---|---|
| 1930 | Elizabeth Sage Hall is completed on the Fountain Valley School; designed by John Gaw Meem in El Paso County | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 308 |
| 1930 | Manitou Arcade opens at 924 Manitou Avenue in Manitou Springs by M.F. Yount | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 310 |
| 1930 | Business and Technology Center opens at 301 Main Street in Pueblo; designed by George E. Mackay; now the S.H. Kress Store | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 316 |
| 1930 | Original Salida depot replaced with a modern one - now also gone | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 349 |
| 1930 | Salida population is 5,065 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 349 |
| 1930 | Baca County Courthouse completed between Main and Colorado Streets and 6th & 7th Avenues in Springfield; designed by Hutchison Architects as a WPA project; now houses the Baca County Museum | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 382 |
| 1930 | San Pedro y San Pablo Catholic Church in Costilla County reconstructed | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 417 |
| 1930 | El Monte Hotel opens at 925 1st Avenue in Monte Vista; designed by E. Floyd Redding; now known as the Monte Villa Inn | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 429 |
| 1930 | A girls dormitory is constructed in Ignacio for Southern Utes at the boarding school | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 559 |
| 1930 | Porter Memorial Hospital established in Denver | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 33 |
| 1930 | The black population of Denver is 7,204 in the census enumerated this year | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 137 |
| 1930 | The 23rd Street Viaduct is completed at a cost of $377,157 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| 1930 | Flood protection against the Platte River with expenditures to date of $523,398 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| 1930 | Improvements are made to Denver General Hospital at a cost of $920,397 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| 1930 | A golf club is started at Eckley, in Yuma County | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 200 |
| 1930s | Belmar mansion is built as a replica of the Petit Trianon at Versailles for May Bonfils Stanton by Jacques Benedict on a 750 acre estate in Lakewood | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 157 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|---|---|
| 1930s | Stapleton Building opens in Fort Morgan at 316 Main Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 252 |
| 1930s | La Jara School is built at Poplar and Main Streets | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 423 |
| 1930s | A rope ski tow is installed on the Barney Ford Hill at Breckenridge | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 458 |
| 1930s | Trappers Lake, located 53 miles east of Meeker on Rio Blanco County 8, becomes the focus of the first push for legislation to preserve wilderness in the U.S. led by Arthur Carhart, a U.S. Forest Service Employee | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 515 |
| 1930s | Rio Grande Southern begins to use a hybrid vehicle called the "Gallopig Goose" to carry passengers, mail and freight between Durango, Telluride, Dolores & Ridgeway until 1952; the "goose" consisted of an automobile engine fitted on a narrow-gauge cab with a homemade bus attached behind it to hold cargo and passengers | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 576 |
| 1930s | Cortez Schoolhouse opens at 121 E. 1st Street in Cortez, probably a WPA project; now the Cortez School Administration Building | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 595 |
| 1931 | First unit of the U.S. Customs House is finished in Denver at a cost of $1,300,000 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| circa 1930 | The Kiahtipes Summer Ranch House is built in what becomes Vail with the Circle-K brand on the chimney; now used as a bus stop | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 471 |
| January 1930 | Succinct facts about Colorado: 47 of the 60 highest peaks (over 14,000 feet) in the U.S. are in Colorado; 2,989 wild flowers are found in the state; 6,000 miles of fishing streams; 420 varieties of birds; 20 wild game refuges; 5 national monuments; 2 national parks; 14 national forests; 80 continental divide mountain passes | Municipal Facts , Vol. 13, No 3&4, March-April 1930, p. 19 |
| January 3, 1930 | Larimer County Independent ceases publishing in Fort Collins, continues as Mountain and Plains Farmer (Fort Collins) | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 92 |
| January 4, 1930 | Shavano (II) post office established in Chaffee County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 131 |
| January 10, 1930 | Mountain and Plains Farmer begins publishing in Fort Collins | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 92 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|--|
| January 15, 1930 | Camp Center post office discontinued in Gunnison County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 27 |
| January 31, 1930 | Scholl post office discontinued in Grand County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 130 |
| February 1, 1930 | Fire in cellhouse #4 at the Colorado State Penitentiary in Canon City destroys the tailor and carpentry shops and prompts about a dozen prisoners to try to escape | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| February 14, 1930 | Routt post office established in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 124 |
| February 21, 1930 | Mountain and Plains Farmer ceases publishing in Fort Collins, continues as Mountain and Plains (Fort Collins) | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 92 |
| February 28 1930 | Mountain and Plains begins publishing in Fort Collins | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 92 |
| 1930 | Population of Yuma County is 13,613 | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 196 |
| April 1, 1930 | Colorado's population increases 10.23 percent since the 1920 census with 1,035,791 recorded in this enumeration | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| April 15, 1930 | Brookston post office discontinued in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 24 |
| April 25, 1930 | Carr Crossing post office discontinued in Lincoln County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 30 |
| April 30, 1930 | Calcite post office discontinued in Fremont County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 27 |
| April 30, 1930 | Centreville post office discontinued in Chaffee County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 32 |
| April 30, 1930 | Leal post office discontinued in Grand County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 88 |
| May 1, 1930 | Hawthorne post office discontinued in Boulder County, name changed to Eldorado Springs | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 69 |
| May 1, 1930 | Eldora Springs post office established in Boulder County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 50 |
| May 2, 1930 | Durango News begins publishing in Durango | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 89 |
| May 15, 1930 | Phillips County has a population of 5,798 a gain of 300 in the last decade | Centennial History of Phillips County, Colorado - Those Were The Days , Phillips County Historical Society, p. 30 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|--|
| May 26, 1930 | Ground is broken for the New Custom House at 18th and Stout in Denver in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| May 31, 1930 | Oakview post office discontinued in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 106 |
| June 16, 1930 | Colorado Interstate Gas Company pipes natural gas to Loveland | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 27 |
| July 1930 | Denver's new golf course at Berkeley Park [Willis Case] | Municipal Facts , Vol. 13, No 7&8, July-August 1930, p. 10 |
| July 1, 1930 | Fort Morgan Times (w) ceases publishing in Fort Morgan | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 109 |
| July 15, 1930 | Jamestown post office discontinued in Boulder County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 79 |
| July 22, 1930 | Colorado Interstate Gas Company pipes natural gas to Johnstown | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 27 |
| August 1930 | Former home of Eugene Field, formerly located near the Denver Mint, has been moved to Franklin and Exposition in Washington Park to be used as a Denver Public Library branch | Municipal Facts , Vol. 13, No 7&8, July-August 1930, p. 15 |
| August 7, 1930 | First night baseball game in Denver at Merchants Park, Denver Bears vs. Oklahoma City | The Kno-Log September 1930, p. 8 and 13 (Public Service Company of Colorado company publication) |
| August 12, 1930 | Some 12,000 attend an air circus in Holyoke - a Denver aviatrix, Mrs. Anthony F. Joseph, dies when her plane crashes during the event | Centennial History of Phillips County, Colorado - Those Were The Days , Phillips County Historical Society, p. 31; Rocky Mountain News August 14, 1930, p. 1 |
| August 15, 1930 | Higgo post office discontinued in Jackson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 73 |
| August 28, 1930 | Chlorine gas escapes from a railroad tank car and drifts into the Denver Fire Clay Company plant where 10 employees and 13 firefighters are overcome by the fumes; a plant worker, J.W. Gibbs, dons a gas mask and closes the leaking valve on the train car | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| September 1930 | Western Slope Democrat begins publishing in Montrose | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 108 |
| September 1, 1930 | Idledale post office established in Jefferson County, formerly named Starbuck | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 77 |
| September 1, 1930 | Starbuck post office discontinued in Jefferson County, name changed to Idledale | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 135 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|--|---|
| September 2, 1930 | Boomerang begins publishing in Delta | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 26 |
| September 11, 1930 | Colorado Interstate Gas Company pipes natural gas to Golden | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 27 |
| September 15, 1930 | Englewood post office established in Arapahoe County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 51 |
| September 17, 1930 | Raymer Electric System acquired by Public Service Company of Colorado | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 25 |
| September 20, 1930 | Shavano (II) post office discontinued in Chaffee County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 131 |
| October 6, 1930 | Sneffles post office discontinued in Ouray County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 133 |
| October 30, 1930 | Stillwater post office discontinued in Grand County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 136 |
| November 1930 | Aerial photos of Civic Center with City and County Building under construction from south; aerial photo of downtown Denver looking northeast | Municipal Facts , Vol. 13, No 11&12, November-December 1930, p. 16 |
| November 5, 1930 | Boomerang ceases publishing in Delta, continues as Free Press | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 26 |
| November 12, 1930 | Free Press begins publishing in Delta | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 26 |
| November 15, 1930 | Gowanda post office discontinued in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 64 |
| November 29, 1930 | Cary Ranch post office discontinued in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 31 |
| December 27, 1930 | Creede Candle ceases publishing in Creede | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 105 |
| December 31, 1930 | Koenig post office discontinued in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 83 |
| 1931 | Western Empire ceases publishing in Springfield | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 8 |
| 1931 | Boulder Free Press begins publishing in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 11 |
| 1931 | Rolling Stone Press ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|--|
| 1931 | East Side Monitor begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1931 | North Star begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1931 | Western Ideal begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1931 | Burlington Republican ceases publishing in Burlington, continues as Burlington Record | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 84 |
| 1931 | Burlington Record begins publishing in Burlington | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 84 |
| 1931 | San Juan Daily American begins publishing in Durango | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 89 |
| 1931 | Top O' the World begins publishing in Durango | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 89 |
| 1931 | Cortez Journal-Herald ceases publishing in Cortez, continues as Montezuma Valley Journal | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 106 |
| 1931 | Montezuma Valley Journal begins publishing in Cortez | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 106 |
| 1931 | Orchard News begins publishing in Orchard | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 109 |
| 1931 | Aspen News begins publishing in Aspen | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 118 |
| 1931 | Mead Gazette begins publishing in Mead | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 146 |
| 1931 | The Congregational Church merged with the Christian Church | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 213 |
| 1931 | Contracts not to join a union were voided in Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 328 |
| 1931 | Beginning as the State Normal School and then becoming Colorado State Teachers College the Greeley school becomes the Colorado State College of Education | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 478 |
| 1931 | U.S. Custom House is completed in Denver at 721 19th Street; designed by James A. Wetmore | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 57 |
| 1931 | Mary Reed commissioned the Reed House at 475 Circle Drive shortly after the death of her husband; Harry James Manning designed the largest and finest house in the Country Club Historic District | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 89 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|--|
| 1931 | St. Thomas Seminary Chapel at 1300 S. Steele Street in Denver is completed; designed by Jacques Benedict | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 116 |
| 1931 | William M. Smith High School is constructed at 10000 E. 13th Avenue in Aurora; designed by Eugene G. Groves | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 138 |
| 1931 | Additions of an auditorium and meeting room are made to Cantril School at 320 Cantril Street in Castle Rock | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 144 |
| 1931 | London Mine and Mill Complex opens a mile south of Alma on U.S. Forest Service Road 438 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 215 |
| 1931 | A Post Office and Federal Building are built in Sterling at 3rd and Poplar Streets using the standard OSA design of James A. Wetmore | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 257 |
| 1931 | Municipal Utilities Building opens in Colorado Springs as designed by T.D. Hetherington at 18-20 S. Nevada | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 285 |
| 1931 | Shove Chapel is completed on the Colorado College campus; designed by John Gray at 1010 N. Nevada Avenue with a bell tower and carillon | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 295 |
| 1931 | Post Office completed at 505 Macon Avenue in Cañon City using the OSA design of James A. Wetmore; also housing federal offices | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 344 |
| 1931 | St. Mary's Catholic Church at 121 E. 7th Avenue in Walsenburg loses its steeple in a windstorm | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 372 |
| 1931 | Menkhaven lodge is completed 20 miles west of Antonito at 20900 Colorado 17; started by Gladys, Dutch and Hazel Menk daughters of a local businessman | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 422 |
| 1931 | Municipal Building opens in Gunnison at Virginia Avenue and Wisconsin Street; designed by Mountjoy and Frewen with a fire station at the south end | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 539 |
| 1931 | George D. Begole elected mayor of Denver replacing Ben Stapleton | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 93 |
| circa 1931 | Akron Public Library is completed at 3rd and Main Streets built by M.S. Beach | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 271 |
| February 1, 1931 | New Custom House is dedicated at 18th and Stout in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| February 21, 1931 | Cornerstone of the City and County Building is laid under the auspices of the Grand Lodge A.F. and A.M.; building is 450 feet wide, 275 feet deep and 90 feet high | Municipal Facts , Vol. 14, No 3&4, March-April 1931, p. 15 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|----------------|--|--|
| March 1931 | Longmont Times ceases publishing in Longmont | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 14 |
| March 1931 | Longmont Times ceases publishing, continues as Longmont Times-Call in Longmont | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 14 |
| March 1931 | Longmont Call ceases publishing in Longmont | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 14 |
| March 16, 1931 | Wyoming Air Service begins flights from Denver | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| March 17, 1931 | A bomb destroys the north Denver home of Pete Carlino who was attempting to extend his bootleg operation from Pueblo to Denver; Carlino and his family were not home | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| March 27, 1931 | Colorado Interstate Gas Company pipes natural gas to Aurora | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 27 |
| April 1931 | Longmont Times-Call begins publishing in Longmont | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 14 |
| April 13, 1931 | Colorado Interstate Gas Company pipes natural gas to Longmont | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 27 |
| April 15, 1931 | Kalous post office discontinued in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 81 |
| April 30, 1931 | Dover post office discontinued in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 47 |
| May 8, 1931 | Sam Carlino is killed on a north Denver street along with another gangster | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| May 9, 1931 | Kazan post office established in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 81 |
| May 30, 1931 | Tollerburg post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 142 |
| May 31, 1931 | Berwind post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 19 |
| June 1931 | Colorado's new state bird the Lark Bunting | Municipal Facts , Vol. 3, No 9, May-June 1931, p. 7 |
| June 17, 1931 | Colorado Interstate Gas Company pipes natural gas to Brighton | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 27 |
| July 1931 | Kolorado Klan Kourier ceases publishing in Canon City | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 65 |
| July 7, 1931 | Oleson post office discontinued in Adams County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 107 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|--|--|
| July 11, 1931 | Colorado Interstate Gas Company pipes natural gas to Fort Lupton | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 27 |
| July 21, 1931 | Emma post office established in Pitkin County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 51 |
| July 31, 1931 | Russell post office discontinued in Costilla County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 125 |
| July 31, 1931 | Sloss post office discontinued in Eagle County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 133 |
| August 3, 1931 | Gasoline sells for 18 cents per gallon at Holyoke | Centennial History of Phillips County, Colorado - Those Were The Days , Phillips County Historical Society, p. 32 |
| August 15, 1931 | Ortiz post office discontinued in Conejos County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 108 |
| August 24, 1931 | W.M. Lytle uncovers bones and relics 4 feet underground between Holyoke and Julesburg; he and others remove stone and flint implements, weapons, pottery and bones of people and animals from the 40 foot trench | Centennial History of Phillips County, Colorado - Those Were The Days , Phillips County Historical Society, p. 32 |
| Fall 1931 | Yuma County high school students number 781 this year | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 197 |
| September 11, 1931 | Bootlegger Peter Carlino's bullet riddled body is found on a rural road | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| September 22, 1931 | Common stock of Colorado-Wyoming Gas Company purchased by Public Service Company of Colorado | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 27 |
| September 30, 1931 | Barela post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 16 |
| September 30, 1931 | Morapos post office discontinued in Rio Blanco County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 101 |
| October 15, 1931 | Higmore post office discontinued in Garfield County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 73 |
| November 1931 | Kremmling Record begins publishing in Kremmling | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 73 |
| November 1931 | Denver Bar Association changes the name of its law review from the Record to Dicta | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 379 |
| November 30, 1931 | Trump post office discontinued in Park County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 143 |
| December 5, 1931 | Pinneo post office discontinued in Washington County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 114 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|--|
| December 10, 1931 | Phillips County State Bank closes in Holyoke | Centennial History of Phillips County, Colorado - Those Were The Days , Phillips County Historical Society, p. 32 |
| December 31, 1931 | Peckham post office discontinued in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 111 |
| December 31, 1931 | Crossons post office discontinued in Jefferson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 40 |
| 1930s | A Streamline Modern structure is built on the campus of the Colorado State Agricultural and Mechanic Arts College in Fort Collins to house student services | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 228 |
| 1932 | Adams-Arapahoe Farmer begins publishing in Bennett | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 2 |
| 1932 | Strasburg News ceases publishing continues as Eastern Colorado News in Strasburg | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 6 |
| 1932 | Boulder Free Press ceases publishing in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 11 |
| 1932 | Wall Paper begins publishing in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 12 |
| 1932 | San Luis Valley Farmer ceases publishing in Manassa | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 22 |
| 1932 | Crowley County Republican begins publishing in Crowley | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 24 |
| 1932 | Crowley County Republican ceases publishing in Olney Springs, continues as Crowley County Republican Crowley | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 24 |
| 1932 | North Star ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1932 | Western Ideal ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1932 | Adams County Suburban News begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1932 | Dawn begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1932 | South Denver Daily begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1932 | University Park Advertiser begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|---|
| 1932 | How ceases publishing in Colorado Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 61 |
| 1932 | Daily American ceases publishing in Canon City | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 65 |
| 1932 | Canon City News and American begins publishing in Canon City | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 65 |
| 1932 | Daily Post Reminder begins publishing in Glenwood Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 68 |
| 1932 | Walsenburg Daily Reminder begins publishing in Walsenburg | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 79 |
| 1932 | Durango Democrat ceases publishing in Durango | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 88 |
| 1932 | San Juan Daily American ceases publishing in Durango | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 89 |
| 1932 | Top O' the World ceases publishing in Durango | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 89 |
| 1932 | Fort Collins Daily Reminder begins publishing in Fort Collins | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 92 |
| 1932 | Trinidad Herald ceases publishing in Trinidad | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 98 |
| 1932 | Progress Review ceases publishing in Crook | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 99 |
| 1932 | Northeast Colorado News begins publishing in Sterling | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 101 |
| 1932 | Western Slope Democrat ceases publishing in Montrose | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 108 |
| 1932 | Weldona Tribune ceases publishing in Weldona | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 110 |
| 1932 | Rocky Ford Booster begins publishing in Rocky Ford | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 112 |
| 1932 | Daily Midget News begins publishing in Rocky Ford | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 112 |
| 1932 | Aspen News ceases publishing in Aspen | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 118 |
| 1932 | Yampa Leader ceases publishing in Yampa | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 128 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|--|
| 1932 | Greeley Coloradoan begins publishing in Greeley | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 145 |
| 1932 | The municipal building, Denver's City and County Building is completed | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 546 |
| 1932 | A Works Progress Administration project on the Platte River near Denver taught people how to pan for gold | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 551 |
| 1932 | The Colorado State Relief Committee is appointed by the governor to administer federal funds | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 338 |
| 1932 | Denver University discontinues its Dental medicine department | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 411 |
| 1932 | When Denver's City and County Building opens it gives a wing of the top floor to house the collections of the Denver Art Museum | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 432 |
| 1932 | Eleven Mile Canon Reservoir is constructed to supplement Denver's water supply | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 527 |
| 1932 | Schwayder Brothers expands its product line to include folding card tables and starts to research folding chairs | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 607 |
| 1932 | Denver's City and County Building is completed; designed by Roland L. Linder, Robert K. Fuller & others | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 46 |
| 1932 | Following the death of Molly Brown [Margaret Tobin Brown] her Denver home at 1340 Pennsylvania becomes a home for wayward girls | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 80 |
| 1932 | Mary Reed Library is completed on the Denver University campus; designed by Harry James Manning | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 114 |
| 1932 | Belcaro (The Phipps House) is completed at 3400 Belcaro Drive in Denver; designed by Charles A. Platt with subsequent additions by Fisher and Fisher; the 54-room mansion was built for $301,063 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 116 |
| 1932 | Original Boulder County Courthouse destroyed by fire | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 173 |
| 1932 | The Central City Opera House reopens with a production of Camille , after it was acquired by Anne Evans and Ida Kruse McFarlane who founded the Central City Opera House Association | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 194 |
| 1932 | The Hard Rock Café opens in Empire | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 211 |
| 1932 | Memorial Auditorium opens in Sterling designed by Temple Hoyne Buell; burns down in 1970s | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 256 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------|--|---|
| 1932 | The Sim Hudson Motor Company at 1332 Senter Avenue in Burlington is remodeled in art deco style | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 267 |
| 1932 | D.Y. Murphy and Brothers add a sanatorium to the Union Printers Home in Colorado Springs at 101 S. Union Boulevard; the tower clock is stopped at 8 o'clock to symbolize the victory of the 8-hour workday | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 299 |
| 1932 | Chaffee County Courthouse is completed at 104 Crestone Avenue in Salida; designed by Walter De Mordaunt | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 352 |
| 1932 | Shamrock gas station opens in Lamar at 501 N. Main Street designed and executed by W.G. Brown who used petrified wood from Two Buttes to cover the east and south elevations of the building - The Petrified Gas Station earned a listing in Ripley's Believe It or Not | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 384 |
| 1932 | Great Sand Dunes National Monument is designated in the San Luis Valley on the west edge of the Sangre de Christo Mountain Range | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 410 |
| 1932 | Old Post Office opens at southeast corner of Costilla County L.7 and 22.3 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 414 |
| 1932 | Passenger service to Creede is abandoned by Denver & Rio Grande Railway | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 432 |
| 1932 | Eagle County Courthouse opens in Eagle at 500 Broadway | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 468 |
| 1932 | Post Office opens in Montrose using the OSA design of James A. Wetmore at 321 S. 1st Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 579 |
| 1932 | Cone Bar opens in Norwood at 1580 Grand Avenue after a fire consumes the original building | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 591 |
| 1932 | Eleven Mile Canyon Dam & Reservoir is finished | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| 1932 | Airplane service between Denver and Kansas City is established | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| 1932 | Denver's City & County Building completed at a cost of $5,500,000 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| April 1932 | Brighton Register ceases publishing in Brighton | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 2 |
| January 1932 | Imparcial begins publishing in Spanish in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|--|
| January 7, 1932 | Gunnison Republican ceases publishing in Gunnison | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 75 |
| January 15, 1932 | Strontia Springs post office discontinued in Douglas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 136 |
| February 1, 1932 | The Denver police Department's short wave radio system (KGPX) goes into use with 10 cars equipped with receivers and a transmitter at 9th & Columbine | Denver Public Library "Denver. Police Department. Buildings" clipping file, 1940 booklet called "Headquarters" - p. 22 |
| February 29, 1932 | McElmo post office discontinued in Montezuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 96 |
| February 29, 1932 | Boulder News Herald ceases publishing in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 11 |
| March 15, 1932 | Jansen post office established in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 79 |
| March 17, 1932 | President Hoover signs an Act of Congress creating the Great Sand Dunes National Monument | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| March 28, 1932 | Colorado National Forest is renamed Roosevelt National Forest | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-6-2017 |
| April 12, 1932 | A bomb explodes at the Paradise Cleaning & Dyeing Company in Denver after the owners refuse to pay protection money to gangsters | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| April 15, 1932 | Boulder Advertiser begins publishing in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 12 |
| April 15, 1932 | Arapahoe County Courthouse in Denver razed | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| April 30, 1932 | Apex post office discontinued in Gilpin County, not listed in 1915 and 1916 postal guides | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 12 |
| Spring 1932 | Yuma County has 117 school districts with 171 teachers and 3,306 pupils | History of Yuma County, Colorado , Thesis by C.V. Dedman, 1932, p. 197 |
| May 11, 1932 | Eastonville post office discontinued in El Paso County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 48 |
| May 20, 1932 | Denver Mirror begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| June 1932 | Lamar Daily Times ceases publishing in Lamar | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 120 |
| June 3, 1932 | Gold Field post office discontinued in Teller County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 63 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|---|--|
| July 16, 1932 | Central City Opera House reopens with Lillian Gish in the title role of Camille; it was broadcast live by NBC radio network and aroused considerable press coverage nationwide | Summit of Destiny: Taming the Pikes Peak Country 1858-1918 , 2008, Francis J. Pierson, p. 150 |
| July 16, 1932 | The Central City Opera House reopens after restoration led by Miss Anne Evans and Ida Kruse McFarlane on the property deeded to the University of Denver by Peter McFarlane, one of the original builders | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 457 |
| July 27, 1832 | Joseph Merrill (birthdate), biographic sketch | History of the City of Denver , Arapahoe County and Colorado , 1880 by William B. Vickers, p. 529 |
| July 29, 1932 | Alamosa Journal ceases publishing in Alamosa | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 3 |
| August 1932 | Senator C.W. Waterman dies in office | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 552 |
| August 1932 | Walter Walker, editor of the Grand Junction Daily Sentinel , describes Denver Post owner Frederick Bonfils as a "vulture" and a "contemptible dog"; when the Rocky Mountain News prints his statements Bonfils sues for libel, but the attorney for the News sets out to show Bonfils' reputation was so bad it could not be harmed | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 97 |
| August 1932 | Blacks attempt to integrate the swimming beach at Washington Park's Smith Lake and are driven away by a stick-wielding, stone-throwing white mob | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 137 |
| August 10, 1932 | Work and Wages begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| August 1932 | When blacks try to swim in the lake at Washington Park they are driven out by a white mob | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 89 |
| September 14, 1932 | Echo begins publishing in Gunnison | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 75 |
| September 22, 1932 | Boulder County Journal begins publishing in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 12 |
| October 1932 | Farmer and Miner begins publishing in Frederick | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 143 |
| October 15, 1932 | Massadona post office discontinued in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 96 |
| October 26, 1932 | Margaret Tobin Brown, a.k.a. "Molly Brown", dies in a New York hotel room | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 97 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|---|
| October 31, 1932 | Pictou post office discontinued in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 112 |
| October 31, 1932 | Walsen post office discontinued in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 148 |
| November 1932 | Edwin C. Johnson is elected governor | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 552 |
| November 1932 | Karl C. Schuyler is elected to fill the balance of C.W. Waterman's senate term | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 552 |
| November 11, 1932 | Construction begins on the 38-mile link between the Rio Grande at Dotsero with the Moffat tracks at Orestod | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 688 |
| November 24, 1932 | Boulder Star begins publishing in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 12 |
| December 1932 | Dove Creek Inland Empire ceases publishing in Dove Creek, merged with Rico Item | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 51 |
| December 15, 1932 | Pyramid post office discontinued in Rio Blanco County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 117 |
| December 31, 1932 | Rico Item ceases publishing in Rico, continues as Rico-Dove Creek News | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 52 |
| 1933 | Alamosa News begins publishing in Alamosa | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 3 |
| 1933 | Englewood Press begins publishing in Englewood | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 5 |
| 1933 | Two Buttes Sentinel ceases publishing in Two Buttes | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 8 |
| 1933 | Boulder Advertiser ceases publishing in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 12 |
| 1933 | Wall Paper ceases publishing in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 12 |
| 1933 | Clear Creek Mining Journal-Gazette ceases publishing in Idaho Springs, continues as Clear Creek Mining Journal | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 21 |
| 1933 | Clear Creek Mining Journal begins publishing in Idaho Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 21 |
| 1933 | Denver Messenger ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| 1933 | Washington Park Press ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|---|
| 1933 | Imparcial ceases publishing in Spanish in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1933 | Denver Mirror ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1933 | Work and Wages ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1933 | Adams County Suburban News ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1933 | Dawn ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1933 | South Denver Daily ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1933 | University Park Advertiser ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1933 | Park Hill Topics begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1933 | University Park Herald begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1933 | Manitou Springs Journal ceases publishing in Manitou Springs, continues as Pikes Peak Journal | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 62 |
| 1933 | Pikes Peak Journal begins publishing in Manitou Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 63 |
| 1933 | Canon City News and American ceases publishing in Canon City | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 65 |
| 1933 | Fremont County Tribune begins publishing in Canon City | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 65 |
| 1933 | Daily Post Reminder ceases publishing in Glenwood Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 68 |
| 1933 | Walsenburg Daily Reminder ceases publishing in Walsenburg | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 79 |
| 1933 | Haswell Herald ceases publishing in Haswell | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 83 |
| 1933 | Fort Collins Daily Reminder ceases publishing in Fort Collins | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 92 |
| 1933 | White River Review ceases publishing in Meeker | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 126 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|--|
| 1933 | Monte Vista Tribune ceases publishing in Monte Vista | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 127 |
| 1933 | Erie Herald begins publishing in Erie | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 142 |
| 1933 | Greeley Coloradoan ceases publishing in Greeley | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 145 |
| 1933 | Kersey News ceases publishing in Kersey | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 146 |
| 1933 | Ruth E. Ashton publishes a handbook, Plants of Rocky Mountain National Park | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 26 |
| 1933 | Men in Greeley organize and create plans for the Colorado-Big Thompson Project to divert water under the Continental Divide to irrigate the South Platte River Valley | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 125 |
| 1933 | Church at Sugar City joins (Lutheran) Wisconsin Synod | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 216 |
| 1933 | C.B. Nixon served as president of the American Federation of Labor in Colorado from 1933-1935 | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 325 |
| 1933 | Another Old Age Pension Law is enacted by the Colorado legislature | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 346 |
| 1933 | The first tran-mountain diversion project is undertaken under Independence Pass, a distance of 3.85 miles to bring water from the Roaring Fork to the Twin Lakes on the eastern slope | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 528 |
| 1933 | Jay Ambrose founds a winery in Pueblo after Prohibition ends | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 579 |
| 1933 | Administrative Code passed by the legislature abolishes the Department of Charities and Corrections and establishes a State Division of Public Welfare | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 610 |
| 1933 | Annette Hoyt Flanders designs the 8.5 acre gardens of the Phipps House at 3400 Belcaro Drive in Denver in collaboration with Charles A. Platt who was the principle designer of the home | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 116 |
| 1933 | Boulder County Courthouse is completed at 1300 Pearl Street; designed by Glen H. Huntington | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 173 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|---|
| 1933 | The Meadow Park Picnic Shelter is one of the few buildings in Lyons not made of native sandstone; this shelter was a Works Progress Administration project and used stone from St. Vrain Creek | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 188 |
| 1933 | Anne Evans buys the deteriorating Teller House hotel in Central City and begins renovating it | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 194 |
| 1933 | North Ward School is expanded in Greeley at 6th Street and 13th Avenue; now houses Project Head Start Center | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 242 |
| 1933 | Gus Masciotra opens a tavern in the front of the grocery and sells take-out beer in buckets from a side window house at 1201 Elm Street in the Bessemer area of Pueblo | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 321 |
| 1933 | Walsenburg High School opens at 415 Walsen Avenue; designed by Isaac H. Rapp; later converted to Walsenburg Middle School | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 371 |
| 1933 | Willow Creek Park established as the first WPA Project in Colorado on Parkway Drive and S. 1st Street in Lamar | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 385 |
| 1933 | Fowler Auto Camp established on the north side of US 50 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 393 |
| 1933 | Post Office and Federal Building completed in Monte Vista using the OSA design of James A. Wetmore at Washington Street and 2nd Avenue | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 429 |
| 1933 | Trail Ridge Road is completed; highest continuous paved road in the U.S. going from Grand Lake to Estes Park | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 457 |
| 1933 | Tigiwon Shelter constructed by the Civilian Conservation Corps 6 miles west of Colorado 24 between Gilman and Minturn at the trailhead to the Mount of the Holy Cross and Top-Notch Mountain | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 477 |
| 1933 | Rio Blanco County Courthouse completed on Main Street between 5th & 6th Streets and Park in Meeker | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 513 |
| 1933 | Michael and Emily Benedict take over operation of the Antlers Bar in Yampa when Prohibition ends | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 530 |
| 1933 | Fort Lewis College established in Durango | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 554 |
| 1933 | Southern Ute hospital erected in Ignacio | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 559 |
| 1933 | Black Canyon of the Gunnison receives National Monument designation for the 1,000 foot deep and 53-mile long gorge cut by the Gunnison River | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 582 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|---|
| 1933 | Mary Reed Library at Denver University completed with a gift of Mrs. Verner Z. Reed | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 12 |
| 1933-1942 | Between 1933 and 1942 more than $50 million is spent on the Civilian Conservation Corps programs in Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 553 |
| circa 1933 | Shadow Mountain Lookout built by the Civilian Conservation Corp on Shadow Mountain Trail | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 457 |
| January 7, 1933 | Rico-Dove Creek News begins publishing in Rico | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 52 |
| January 10, 1933 | Edwin Johnson is sworn in as 26th governor of Colorado | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| January 14, 1933 | Sinbad post office discontinued in Mesa County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 132 |
| February 1933 | Congress submits the 21st Amendment to the states for ratification | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 553 |
| February 2, 1933 | Frederick Bonfils dies of encephalitis at 72 | The First Hundred Years by Robert L. Perkin, p. 530 |
| February 2, 1933 | Frederick G. Bonfils co-owner of the Denver Post dies. | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 273 |
| February 2, 1933 | Denver Post publisher Frederick Gilmer Bonfils dies in his home on Humboldt Street | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 97 |
| February 12, 1933 | Charles Boettcher II is kidnapped from the garage of his home at 777 Washington Street; his family paid the $60,000 ransom and he was released March 1st | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 97 |
| February 14, 1933 | East Portal post office established in Gilpin County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 48 |
| March 2, 1933 | President Herbert Hoover signs a proclamation creating the Black Canyon of the Gunnison National Monument | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| March 31, 1933 | Tarryall (II) post office discontinued in Park County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 140 |
| March 31, 1933 | The Civilian Conservation Corps is created by Congress; the CCC provides work to unmarried men 18 to 25 | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 553 |
| March 31, 1933 | Congress creates the Civilian Conservation Corps, named by executive order on April 5, 1933 | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 356 |
| April 16, 1933 | Denver's City & County Building dedicated | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| April 29, 1933 | Primero post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 116 |
| May 1933 | First students graduate at Trinidad State Junior College | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 484 |
| May 12, 1933 | Walsenburg World ceases publishing in Walsenburg, continues as World-Independent | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 79 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|---------------|--|--|
| May 12, 1933 | Independent ceases publishing in Walsenburg, merges with Walsenburg World | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 79 |
| May 12, 1933 | The Agricultural Adjustment Act was passed by Congress to limit production of certain basic crops with the government buying surplus goods | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 558 |
| May 15, 1933 | Prowers post office discontinued in Bent County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 116 |
| May 19, 1933 | World-Independent begins publishing in Walsenburg | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 80 |
| May 19, 1933 | Dotsero post office established in Eagle County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 46 |
| May 21, 1933 | Fire on a coal seam near Durango spreads to the surface of Carbon Mountain | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| May 31, 1933 | Cherokee Park post office discontinued in Larimer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 33 |
| Summer 1933 | Pueblo Junior College is organized as the San Isabel Junior College and later called Southern Colorado Junior College; classes are first held in September | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 483 |
| June 1, 1933 | Colorado Tribune begins publishing in Pueblo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 126 |
| June 6, 1933 | Greeley Booster begins publishing in Greeley | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 145 |
| June 15, 1933 | Cliffdale post office discontinued in Jefferson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 34 |
| June 16, 1933 | National Industrial Recovery Act becomes law | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 560 |
| June 22, 1933 | Fall Creek post office established in San Miguel County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 53 |
| June 29, 1933 | Weld County News ceases publishing in Greeley, continues as Greeley Booster | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 144 |
| June 30, 1933 | Howbert post office discontinued in Park County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 75 |
| July 15, 1933 | Flues post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 54 |
| July 31, 1933 | Green Knoll post office discontinued in Lincoln County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 66 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|---|--|
| August 1933 | Governor Johnson calls a special session of the Colorado legislature to seeks ways of funding unemployment relief | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 354 |
| August 2, 1933 | Heavy rain over a nine hour period causes the Castlewood Dam south of Franktown causes the dam to fail; seven die in Denver despite the efforts of telephone operators and police and firemen | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| August 3, 1933 | Cherry Creek floods when the Castlewood Dam breaks near Franktown | The First Hundred Years by Robert L. Perkin, p. 224 |
| 3-Aug-33 | Castlewood Dam fails sending flood waters through downtown Denver | Summit of Destiny: Taming the Pikes Peak Country 1858-1918 , 2008, Francis J. Pierson, p. 183 |
| August 3, 1933 | Castlewood Dam collapses on Cherry Creek sending floodwaters into Denver | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 187 |
| August 14, 1933 | Winnview post office established in Arapahoe County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 153 |
| August 15, 1933 | Arriola post office discontinued in Montezuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 14 |
| August 15, 1933 | Eskdale post office discontinued in Adams County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 52 |
| September 15, 1933 | Elmoro post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 51 |
| September 15, 1933 | Espinoza post office discontinued in Conejos County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 52 |
| September 29, 1933 | Boulder County Journal ceases publishing in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 12 |
| October 6, 1933 | Journal begins publishing in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 12 |
| October 31, 1933 | Paulus post office discontinued in Jackson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 111 |
| November 15, 1933 | Deckers post office discontinued in Douglas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 43 |
| November 30, 1933 | Lodore post office discontinued in Moffat County, site moved 10 miles northwest into Dagget County, Utah | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 90 |
| December 3, 1933 | With the ratification of the 21st Amendment Prohibition is repealed | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 552 |
| 1934 | Fleming News ceases publishing in Fleming | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 99 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-----------|--|---|
| 1930s | Carnahan Ranch in Elbert County hosts a Civilian Conservation Corps camp | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 274 |
| 1933-1934 | A program of the Civil Works Administration interviewed pioneers in Colorado in a program proposed and managed by the State Historical Society of Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 554 |
| 1934 | Salida Mail Bulletin begins publishing in Salida | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 18 |
| 1934 | Crowley County Republican ceases publishing in Crowley | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 24 |
| 1934 | America ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| 1934 | Barnum Advertiser begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1934 | Neighborhood News begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1934 | North Denver Sentinel begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1934 | Nuevo Era begins publishing in Spanish in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1934 | Rocky Nippon begins publishing in Japanese in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1934 | Saturday Night begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1934 | South Pearl News begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1934 | Fremont County Tribune ceases publishing in Canon City | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 65 |
| 1934 | Rifle Daily Reminder begins publishing in Rifle | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 68 |
| 1934 | Clarín begins publishing in Spanish in Walsenburg | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 80 |
| 1934 | Huerfano County News begins publishing in Walsenburg | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 80 |
| 1934 | Fort Collins Bulletin begins publishing in Fort Collins | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 92 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|--|
| 1934 | Aguilar Press ceases publishing in Aguilar | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 94 |
| 1934 | Aguilar News begins publishing in Aguilar | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 94 |
| 1934 | Morning Light begins publishing in Trinidad | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 98 |
| 1934 | Sterling Republican-Advocate ceases publishing in Sterling | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 100 |
| 1934 | Grand Junction Independent begins publishing in Grand Junction | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 104 |
| 1934 | A severe drought strikes and creates a "Dust Bowl" in the southeastern part of Colorado and wide areas of Kansas, Oklahoma, and Texas | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 559 |
| 1934 | The tax on each gallon of gasoline to build a fund to improve Colorado's roads, is temporarily raised to five cents from February 1 to August 31 | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 567 |
| 1934 | Excavations begin on the property of William Lindenmeir, Jr. (28 miles north of Fort Collins) to fully explore the area where the Folsom type artifacts were discovered in 1924; The Smithsonian Institution sponsors the excavations that continue each summer through 1940; the age of the artifacts was between 10,000 and 25,000 years old | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 29 |
| 1934 | Plans for the Colorado-Big Thompson Project are presented to the Bureau of Reclamation to divert 310,000 acre-feet of water to the South Platte Valley | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 125 |
| 1934 | Rainfall for this year in Burlington was 7.67 inches | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 134 |
| 1934 | Rainfall for this year in Yuma was 10.61 inches | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 134 |
| 1934 | Rainfall for this year in Cheyenne Wells was 8.83 inches | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 134 |
| 1934 | German Reformed Church merges with the Evangelical Synod to form the Evangelical and Reformed Church | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 214 |
| 1934 | Construction of the Fine Arts Center begins on land donated by the Penrose family in Colorado Springs | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 440 |
| 1934 | Professional members of the Civic Symphony organize the Denver Symphony Orchestra | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 470 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|---|---|
| 1934 | Tasty Food Company is organized in Colorado by Leon and Silam M. Kobey to produce dehydrated and canned shoestring potatoes | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 575 |
| 1934 | C.A. Heiland and J.C. Hallister form the Heiland Research Corporation to explore for oil | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 600 |
| 1934 | Coors Brew house is built in Golden and is the oldest surviving brewing structure in the 3,400 acre plant that claims to be the world's largest single brewery | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 152 |
| 1934 | A warming house is built by the Civilian Conservation Corps on the south shoreline of Evergreen Lake | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 164 |
| 1934 | St. Catherine's Chapel at St. Malo is built 4.4 miles north of Allenspark; designed by Jacques Benedict | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 182 |
| 1934 | The Cassells railroad stop 13 miles west of Bailey becomes a Catholic summer camp called Santa Maria; Christ of the Rockies, a 33-foot-high sculpture of Christ on a 22-foot-high pedestal made by Denver's Northwestern Terra Cotta Company stands on a hill behind the camp | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 217 |
| 1934 | Colorado State Hospital Superintendent's Residence is completed at 13th and Francisco Streets in Pueblo | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 319 |
| 1934 | Walsenburg Post Office opens at 204 E. 6th Street; designed by Louis A. Simon of the OSA | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 371 |
| 1934 | Cook cabin built for the Ruby Lake Cabins 11 miles south of Antelope Park in Mineral County | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 437 |
| 1934 | Wyoming Air Service gets a contract to provide air mail service from Pueblo, through Denver to Great Falls, MT | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| circa 1934 | Christian Science Society Church opens at 641 Oak Street in Steamboat Springs | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 523 |
| January 15, 1934 | Marvine post office discontinued in Rio Blanco County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 96 |
| January 19, 1934 | Boulder Star ceases publishing in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 12 |
| January 31, 1934 | Read post office discontinued in Delta County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 120 |
| January 31, 1934 | Wilds post office discontinued in Larimer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 152 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|---|
| February 28, 1934 | Kauffman post office discontinued in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 81 |
| March 29, 1934 | Las Animas County News begins publishing in Trinidad | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 98 |
| April 1934 | Lowry Field established as a technical school and training center through efforts by the Denver Chamber of Commerce and the city administration; Denver purchased the Agnes Memorial Sanitarium and acquired an adjoining 960 acres along with a 64,000 acre site to the southeast and offered it to the government for free | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 591 |
| May 17, 1934 | The Dotsero Cutoff of 38.1 miles cuts the Denver to Salt Lake City distance by train by 173 miles | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| May 26, 1934 | The Denver Zephyr sets a speed record between Denver and Chicago covering the distance in just over 13 hours | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 99 |
| June 1934 | The Dotsero Cutoff is completed by the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad linking to a forty-mile stretch of track along the Colorado River and putting Denver on a direct transcontinental rail route | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 573 |
| June 15, 1934 | Sharpsdale post office discontinued in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 131 |
| June 15, 1934 | Youghal post office discontinued in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 155 |
| June 15, 1934 | The Dotsero Cutoff is completed after nearly two years of construction work shortening the rail distance from Denver to Glenwood Springs by 175 miles | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 536 |
| June 15, 1934 | Construction is completed on the 38-mile link between the Rio Grande at Dotsero with the Moffat tracks at Orestod completing Denver's dream of a transcontinental railroad | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 688 |
| June 16, 1934 | Dotsero cut-off on the Denver & Rio Grande Western Railroad is used | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| June 19, 1934 | Jamestown post office established in Boulder County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 79 |
| June 19, 1934 | New Silver Purchase Act passed to purchase newly mined silver; the price is far below the $35 an ounce that gold was bringing, and did not stimulate much mining activity | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 561 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|---|--|
| June 30, 1934 | North Veta post office discontinued in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 106 |
| June 30, 1934 | Anton post office established in Washington County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 12 |
| July 21, 1934 | East Portal post office discontinued in Gilpin County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 48 |
| July 23, 1934 | Laplata post office discontinued in La Plata County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 85 |
| September 26, 1934 | Willow Creek post office established in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 153 |
| September 29, 1934 | Wormington post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 154 |
| October 15, 1934 | Rapson post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 119 |
| October 31, 1934 | Placita post office discontinued in Pitkin County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 114 |
| October 31, 1934 | Trapper's Lake post office discontinued in Garfield County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 142 |
| November 30, 1934 | Martin post office discontinued in Grand County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 96 |
| November 30, 1934 | Assistant fire chief Andrew Mahon is killed when a brick wall collapses at the Midwest Trunk & Bag Company at 1524 15th Street; a dozen other firefighters were rescued from the blaze, which also gutted the Colorado Implement Company next door to the luggage factory | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| December 1934 | Echo ceases publishing in Gunnison | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 75 |
| December 31, 1934 | Graft post office discontinued in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 65 |
| December 31, 1934 | Mindeman post office discontinued in Otero County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 98 |
| 1930s | Poets Row Apartments are completed at 1000-1055 Sherman Street; designed by Charles D. Strong in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 77 |
| 1930s | Harleigh R. Holmes remodels the Little House at 5777 S. Rapp Street in Littleton; he had purchased the home and replaced the original windows | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 126 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|---|
| 1935 | Salida Daily Reminder ceases publishing in Salida | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 18 |
| 1935 | Merchants Index ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 44 |
| 1935 | South Side Monitor ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1935 | North Side Monitor ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1935 | East Side Monitor ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1935 | University Park Herald ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1935 | North Denver Sentinel ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1935 | Nuevo Era ceases publishing in Spanish in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1935 | South Pearl News ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1935 | Denver Civic News begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1935 | Denver Monitor begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1935 | Rocky Mountain Forum begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1935 | Loveland Leader ceases publishing in Loveland | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 93 |
| 1935 | Big Thompson Valley News begins publishing in Loveland | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 93 |
| 1935 | Aguilar News ceases publishing in Aguilar | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 94 |
| 1935 | Grand Junction Independent ceases publishing in Grand Junction | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 104 |
| 1935 | Nucla Forum begins publishing in Nucla | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 108 |
| 1935 | Orchard News ceases publishing in Orchard | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 109 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|--|
| 1935 | Rocky Ford Gazette-Topic (w) ceases publishing in Rocky Ford, continues as Rocky Ford Gazette-Topic (d) | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 112 |
| 1935 | Rocky Ford Booster ceases publishing in Rocky Ford | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 112 |
| 1935 | Daily Midget News ceases publishing in Rocky Ford | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 112 |
| 1935 | Rocky Ford Gazette-Topic (d) begins publishing in Rocky Ford | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 112 |
| 1935 | Sargent Co-Operator ceases publishing in Monte Vista | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 127 |
| 1935 | Ault Booster ceases publishing in Ault | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 142 |
| 1935 | Ault Progress begins publishing in Ault | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 142 |
| 1935 | Soil conservation demonstration projects are begun in eastern Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 135 |
| 1935 | A soil conservation association is formed in Kit Carson County | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 135 |
| 1935 | Frank Hefferly served as president of the American Federation of Labor in Colorado from 1935-1938 | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 325 |
| 1935 | Work begins on the tunnel within the Moffat tunnel to carry water from the western slope to the eastern project completed in 1936 | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 529 |
| 1935 | The Jane Silverstein Ries House is completed at 737 Franklin in Denver; designed by Henry Eggers and Stanley Morse; her landscaping was exceptional on her own home and her many clients | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 87 |
| 1935 | The General Electric Demonstration House is built at 450 Race Street as designed by Lester L. Jones; designed to showcase new electronic appliances in collaboration with Architectural Record and Time magazine; landscaped by Jane Silverstein Ries | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 89 |
| 1935 | The Hannigan-Canino Terrace at 3500 Navajo Street in Denver is remodeled by second owner Joseph Canino into a storefront and apartment | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 109 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|---------------|---|---|
| 1935 | Paul Wolf and family move into the Bowles House at 3600 W. Bowles Avenue and call the place Willowcraft | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 128 |
| 1935 | Old Georgetown School closes after a replacement is built at 4th and Taos | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 205 |
| 1935 | The Colorado Agricultural College becomes Colorado State College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts | Colorado State University website retrieved 4 January 2016 http://www.colostate.edu/features/history-8.aspx |
| 1935 | Phillips County Courthouse opens at 221 S. Interocean Highway in Holyoke; designed by Eugene G. Groves | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 262 |
| 1935 | A flood devastates Elbert wiping out half the town and prompting the Denver and New Orleans Railroad to discontinue service there | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 275 |
| 1935 | Young Women's Christian Association (YWCA) opens in Pueblo at 801 N. Santa Fe Avenue; designed by Walter De Mordaunt | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 317 |
| 1935 | Post Office opens in Rocky Ford at 401 N. 9th Street using the OSA design of Louis A. Simon; features a mural by Taos, New Mexico artist W. Victor Higgins entitled The First Crossing at Rocky Ford | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 394 |
| 1935 | Bunk cabin added to the Ruby Lake Cabins 11 miles south of Antelope Park in Mineral County | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 437 |
| 1935 | Chief Ranger's House constructed on the north side of the visitors' center to the Colorado National Monument; designed by William G. Carnes a National Park Service architect | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 509 |
| 1935 | Stables and a grandstand are added to the La Plata Fairgrounds in Durango at Main Avenue and 25th Street as a WPA project | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 559 |
| 1935 | Fort Logan construction program decided on with a budget of $754,000 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| circa 1935 | Denver raises $750,000 to buy the Agnes Phipps Sanitorium and surrounding land at 6th Avenue and Quebec Street for Lowry Air Base; the facility is initially used to train aerial photographers | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 101 |
| February 1935 | Greeley Journal begins publishing in Greeley | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 145 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|---|
| January 4, 1935 | A charter amendment establishes the name of the Colorado Springs Fine Arts Center | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 440 |
| January 8, 1935 | Ortiz post office established in Conejos County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 108 |
| January 9, 1935 | Westcreek post office established in Douglas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 150 |
| January 10, 1935 | Courier begins publishing in Gunnison | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 75 |
| January 31, 1935 | Sigman post office discontinued in Adams County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 132 |
| February 1935 | Farm Journal begins publishing in Greeley | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 145 |
| February 8, 1935 | Range Ledger ceases publishing in Hugo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 98 |
| February 15, 1935 | Trout Creek post office discontinued in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 143 |
| February 23, 1935 | Capital Hill News begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| February 28, 1935 | Alcreek post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 10 |
| March 8, 1935 | Firestone Municipal Electric Distribution System acquired by Public Service Company of Colorado | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 25 |
| March 8, 1935 | Dental Practicing Act passed by the Colorado legislature | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 412 |
| March 8, 1935 | Baby Doe Tabor is found frozen to death in her cabin near the Matchless Mine outside Leadville | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| March 9, 1935 | Chipita Park post office established in El Paso County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 33 |
| March 15, 1935 | Trumpet begins publishing in Italian and English in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| April 1935 | Denver Mirror begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| April 1935 | The General Assembly creates the State Highway Courtesy Patrol | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 571 |
| April 1, 1935 | John Galen Locke, former grand dragon of the Ku Klux Klan in Denver dies of a heart attack | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 90 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-----------------|--|--|
| April 8, 1935 | The Works Progress Administration (WPA) is created by Congress | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 555 |
| April 12, 1935 | The state legislature enacts a law governing the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 553 |
| April 15, 1935 | Maitland post office discontinued in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 93 |
| April 30, 1935 | Veta Pass (II) post office discontinued in Costilla County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 146 |
| May 1935 | Alma Mining Record begins publishing in Alma | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 115 |
| May 15, 1935 | Troublesome post office discontinued in Grand County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 142 |
| May 20, 1935 | Fire breaks out at the Casanova, a night club in the Brown Palace Hotel in Denver; the club and the instruments of the Husk O'Hare Orchestra are destroyed | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| June 10, 1935 | Phillips County Courthouse is vacated in anticipation of the construction of a new one; some offices moved to the First National Bank Building | Centennial History of Phillips County, Colorado - Those Were The Days , Phillips County Historical Society, p. 33 |
| June 14, 1935 | Bids for the construction of the new Phillips County Courthouse are opened; contract awarded to Walter Knutzen and Sons of Kearney, Nebraska | Centennial History of Phillips County, Colorado - Those Were The Days , Phillips County Historical Society, p. 34 |
| June 17, 1935 | Razing begins of the Phillips County Courthouse; the process takes about a month | Centennial History of Phillips County, Colorado - Those Were The Days , Phillips County Historical Society, p. 34 |
| June 29, 1935 | Peaceful Valley post office discontinued in Boulder County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 111 |
| July 12, 1935 | Summitville post office established in Rio Grande County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 137 |
| July 31, 1925 | Rocky Mountain American ceases publishing in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 11 |
| August 14, 1935 | The Social Security Board is created to administer the new system | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 563 |
| August 15, 1935 | Plum Valley post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 115 |
| August 26, 1935 | Warren Cramer, 17, confesses to setting 20 fires over the last five days in Denver | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|--|--|
| September 13, 1935 | Cornerstone of the new Phillips County Courthouse is laid under the auspices of the Masonic lodges of Holyoke & Huxton | Centennial History of Phillips County, Colorado - Those Were The Days , Phillips County Historical Society, p. 34 |
| September 14, 1935 | Barnesville post office discontinued in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 17 |
| September 14, 1935 | Cebolla post office discontinued in Gunnison County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 31 |
| September 30, 1935 | Dicks post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 45 |
| October 18, 1935 | Victor Herald begins publishing in Victor | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 140 |
| November 1935 | Civic Sentinel begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| November 15, 1935 | The Valmont-Denver substation (North Substation) completed and energized | Public Service Company of Colorado, History of the Company Pamphlet VIII, p. 23 |
| November 30, 1935 | Red Lion post office discontinued in Logan County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 120 |
| December 1935 | Glentivar post office established in Park County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 63 |
| December 4, 1935 | Bond post office established in Eagle County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 22 |
| December 31, 1935 | Cragmor post office discontinued in El Paso County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 39 |
| June 29, 1935 | Oklarado post office discontinued in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 107 |
| 1936 | Colorado Union Farmer ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| 1936 | Denver Mirror ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1936 | Civic Sentinel ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1936 | Rocky Mountain Forum ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1936 | East Denver Five Points begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|--|
| 1936 | News of the Times begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1936 | Crook News begins publishing in Crook | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 99 |
| 1936 | De Beque Dragon begins publishing in De Beque | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 102 |
| 1936 | Eye Opener begins publishing in Grand Junction | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 104 |
| 1936 | Alma Mining Record ceases publishing in Alma | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 115 |
| 1936 | The first water flows through the Moffat Tunnel | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 526 |
| 1936 | During this year 41 CCC (Civilian Conservation Corps) camps in Colorado employ over 5,000 young men | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 553 |
| 1936 | Wyoming again sues Colorado over the diversion of water from the Laramie River and again the court finds in Wyomings favor, as it had done in 1922 | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 131 |
| 1936 | Colorado amends its constitution to allow an income tax | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 191 |
| 1936 | Colorado has 148 Methodist Episcopal churches with 36,932 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 204 |
| 1936 | There are 82 Episcopalian churches with 14,401 members in Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 206 |
| 1936 | There are 99 Baptist Churches in Colorado with 20,496 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 208 |
| 1936 | There are 94 Presbyterian churches in Colorado with 19,950 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 209 |
| 1936 | There are 10 United Presbyterian Churches in Colorado with 3,548 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 209 |
| 1936 | There are 3 Reformed Presbyterian Church of North Amerca congregations in Colorado with 278 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 210 |
| 1936 | There are 140,797 Catholic church members in Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 212 |
| 1936 | There are 20 Church of Christ churches in Colorado with 809 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 214 |
| 1936 | The Church of God has 16 churches in Colorado with 894 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 217 |
| 1936 | There are 19 International Church of the Four Square Gospel congregations in Colorado with 863 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 217 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|---|
| 1936 | The Pillar of Fire [formerly Pentecostal Union] has nine churches with 858 members in Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 218 |
| 1936 | There were 14 Salvation Army corps in Colorado with 1,397 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 218 |
| 1936 | There are 39 Christian Science Churches in Colorado with 3,088 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 219 |
| 1936 | There are three Russian Orthodox churches in Colorado with 403 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 219 |
| 1936 | There are two Russian Orthodox churches in Colorado with 737 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 219 |
| 1936 | There are 5 Mennonite churches in Colorado with 484 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 220 |
| 1936 | There are 4 Christian Reformed Churches in Colorado with 899 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 220 |
| 1936 | There are 22 Mormon Units with 6,968 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 222 |
| 1936 | The Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints has 11 units with 1,630 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 222 |
| 1936 | There are 23 Jewish synagogues in Colorado with 20,116 members listed | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 223 |
| 1936 | Colorado established a statewide old age pension by constitutional amendment | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 328 |
| 1936 | Welfare Organization Act establishes the State Department of Public Welfare and the county departments in Colorado designated the Official State Relief Committee as the State Board of Public Welfare | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 338 |
| 1936 | Child Welfare Division, within the State Department of Public Welfare is created by the Colorado legislature | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 339 |
| 1936 | The Aid to Dependent Children Act replaces the Mothers' Compensation Law in Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 344 |
| 1936 | Colorado legislature enacts an Old Age Assistance Act and specifies the duties of the State Department of Public Welfare and those of county departments | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 347 |
| 1936 | Colorado Unemployment Compensation Act is passed creating a partnership between the state and federal governments | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 359 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|---|
| 1936 | Water project to carry water within the Moffat tunnel is completed | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 529 |
| 1936 | Morse Brothers Machinery and Supply Company drops the word supply from its name and the reorganized company was headed by Max Grimes | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 592 |
| 1936 | Schwayder Brothers expands its product line manufacturing folding card tables and chairs | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 607 |
| 1936 | The Delos Chappell House at 1555 Race Street becomes the Unity Temple of Practical Christianity in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 87 |
| 1936 | The Rooney Ranch barn is enlarged in Jefferson County | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 157 |
| 1936 | The Tri Boro Dining Hall opens as part of the Jewish Consumptive Relief Society (JCRS); designed by William E. and Arthur A. Fisher in Lakewood | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 158 |
| 1936 | Boulder Theatre opens at 2031 14th Street; designed by Robert Otto Roller | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 173 |
| 1936 | Herndon Davis, a Denver artist, paints a woman's face on the barroom floor of the Teller House Bar in Central City drawing inspiration from the Hugh d'Arcy poem | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 194 |
| 1936 | Squaw Mountain Fire Lookout is built as a project of the Civilian Conservation Corps off Colorado 103 at the end of Squaw Mountain Road | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 211 |
| 1936 | The Town Pump - the oldest saloon in Fort Collins opens in the Avery Building | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 224 |
| 1936 | Fort Collins Municipal Power Plant is built at 430 North College Avenue by Burns and McDonell Engineering | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 226 |
| 1936 | The Morgan County Courthouse opens at 225 Ensign Street in Fort Morgan as designed by Eugene G. Groves | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 251 |
| 1936 | Overland Trail Museum is built at Sterling by WPA workers as a replica of Fort Sedgwick near Julesburg where the Oregon Trail passed | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 258 |
| 1936 | The WPA constructs a library in Julesburg at 320 Cedar Street; now the Julesburg Library-Pioneer Museum | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 261 |
| 1936 | Colorado Springs Fine Arts Center opens at 30 W. Dale Street; designed by John Gaw Meem | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 293 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|---|
| 1936 | The Navajo Hogan is built at 2817 N. Nevada Avenue in Colorado Springs by John Aaron as a restaurant and bar made from hand-hewn pine slabs | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 296 |
| 1936 | St. Mary's Eastern Orthodox Church opens near Calhan designed by carpenter-priest Michael Zoharkov who supervised the construction on the Andrew Trojanovich farm where Calhan and Ramah Roads intersect | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 306 |
| 1936 | Florence Post Office opens at 121 N. Pikes Peak Avenue in the design of Louis A. Simon with a mural painted by Olive Rush entitled Antelope Grazing | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 347 |
| 1936 | Post Office opens at 300 S. 5th Street in Lamar using the design of Pueblo architect Louis A. Simon selected by the Office of the Supervising Architect | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 385 |
| 1936 | Douglas Crossing Bridge is completed over Two Butte Creek nearly 20 miles south of Holly as a WPA project in Prowers County | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 387 |
| 1936 | Fruita Junior High School opens at E. Pabor Avenue and N. Maple Street in Mesa County; designed by Temple Hoyne Buell | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 512 |
| 1936 | UraVan established for mining uranium and vanadium by the U.S. Vanadium Company later run by the Union Carbide Corporation | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 583 |
| 1936 | John Walter Ertel builds a funeral home at 42 N. Market Street in Cortez | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 595 |
| 1936 | Western slope water begins to serve the needs of Denverites through the Pioneer Bore of the Moffat Tunnel | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xv |
| 1936 | By this year water from the Fraser River was being diverted for use in Denver rather than the Colorado River going through the Moffat Tunnel | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 185 |
| 1936 | Moffat tunnel water bore first used | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| 1936 | The 4,000 foot long Kenwood Dam near Sullivan is completed as part of Cherry Creek flood control in Denver | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|---|--|
| 1936 | Radio station KVID in Denver associates itself with the Blue Network of National Broadcasting Company which will become the American Broadcasting Company (ABC) | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| April 1936 | Colorado Governor Edwin Johnson orders a blockade on Colorado's southern border to keep out poor people | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 137 |
| circa 1936 | The Madrid House opens in San Isidro in Costilla County | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 415 |
| January 1, 1936 | Manitou post office discontinued in El Paso County, again renamed Manitou Springs | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 95 |
| January 1, 1936 | Manitou Springs post office established in El Paso County, formerly named Manitou | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 95 |
| January 6, 1936 | The Agricultural Adjustment Act is declared unconstitutional by the U.S. Supreme Court | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 559 |
| January 15, 1936 | Waitley post office discontinued in Washington County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 148 |
| January 15, 1936 | Deepcreek post office discontinued in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 43 |
| February 1936 | The Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act is passed by Congress to help curtail soil erosion, increase fertility, and provide economic use of farm land | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 560 |
| February 9, 1906 | Juniper post office established in Routt and later Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 81 |
| April 1, 1936 | State Department of Public Welfare established and responsibility for assisting the blind becomes theirs under the Aid to the Blind Act | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 341 |
| May 1936 | Rural Electrification Act (REA) passes Congress | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 156 |
| May 4, 1936 | Russell post office established in Costilla County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 125 |
| May 9, 1936 | Members of the Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC) Company 1848 at Morrison Camp SP-13-C in Red Rocks Park cease work on all other projects in preparation for the construction of Red Rocks Amphitheatre | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| May 14, 1936 | Phillips County Courthouse is accepted by the county commissioners; two stories high and 61 by 83 feet with a full basement | Centennial History of Phillips County, Colorado - Those Were The Days , Phillips County Historical Society, p. 34 |
| May 15, 1936 | Mt. Princeton Hot Springs post office discontinued in Chaffee County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 103 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|---|
| May 22, 1936 | Salida Mail ceases publishing in Salida, continues as Salida Daily Mail | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 17 |
| May 25, 1936 | Salida Daily Mail begins publishing in Salida | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 18 |
| May 30, 1936 | Avalo post office discontinued in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 15 |
| June 18, 1936 | San Isabel post office established in Custer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 128 |
| June 22, 1936 | A flood Control Act is passed by Congress to provide flood control on the Arkansas River; the John Martin Reservoir construction begins on August 23, 1940 | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 523 |
| June 30, 1936 | Cheneycenter post office discontinued in Prowers County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 32 |
| June 30, 1936 | Longs Peak post office discontinued in Larimer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 91 |
| August 27, 1936 | Olava post office established in Park County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 107 |
| August 27, 1936 | Uravan post office established in Montrose County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 145 |
| August 31, 1936 | Kings Canyon post office discontinued in Jackson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 82 |
| September 1936 | Gilpin County Miner begins publishing in Central City | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 71 |
| November 1936 | Kremmling Record ceases publishing in Kremmling | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 73 |
| November 3, 1936 | Colorado voters approve a constitutional amendment setting: monthly payments for Old Age Pension recipients; reducing the age to 60 years; exempting an owned home; depleting any balance at the end of the calendar year; setting January 1, 1937 as the date on which the Old Age Pension Fund would begin to accrue | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 348 |
| November 9, 1936 | Alice post office established in Clear Creek County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 11 |
| December 18, 1936 | East Portal post office established in Gilpin County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 48 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|--|
| December 21, 1936 | Democrat-News Trade Edition begins publishing in Aurora | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 1 |
| December 25, 1936 | Colorado Springs Farm News ceases publishing in Colorado Springs, continues as Colorado Springs News | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 61 |
| December 29, 1936 | Radio station KFEL in Denver becomes affiliated with the Mutual Broadcasting System | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| 1937 | Two of the first irrigation wells in Phillips County are drilled by George Garland on a farm operated by Mrs. Burt Randall and by Will Heginbotham on Joe Paloucek's farm | Centennial History of Phillips County, Colorado - Those Were The Days , Phillips County Historical Society, p. 35 |
| 1937 | Pagosa Journal ceases publishing in Pagosa Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 6 |
| 1937 | Plainsman begins publishing in Springfield | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 8 |
| 1937 | Liberty Press ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 46 |
| 1937 | Barnum Advertiser ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1937 | Saturday Night ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1937 | East Denver Five Points ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1937 | News of the Times ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1937 | Verdad begins publishing in Spanish in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1937 | Parker News ceases publishing in Parker | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 53 |
| 1937 | Las Animas County News ceases publishing in Trinidad | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 98 |
| 1937 | Merino Breeze ceases publishing in Merino | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 100 |
| 1937 | Tri-County Herald begins publishing in Merino | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 100 |
| 1937 | Eye Opener ceases publishing in Grand Junction | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 104 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|--|
| 1937 | Colorado Chieftain ceases publishing in Pueblo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 120 |
| 1937 | Voce del Popolo ceases publishing in Italian in Pueblo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 126 |
| 1937 | Norwood Post-Independent ceases publishing in Norwood | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 132 |
| 1937 | Erie News ceases publishing in Erie | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 142 |
| 1937 | The Big Thompson Project is authorized by Congress to bring surplus water from the western slope of Colorado through a 13-mile tunnel under the continental divide to farm land in northeastern Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 524 |
| 1937 | The first work on the Williams Fork Tunnel begins; it will be completed in 1939 and provide water for Denver's sewage disposal plant | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 526 |
| 1937 | The Colorado Soil Erosion District Law is passed by the legislature enabling farmers to form soil conservation districts | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 156 |
| 1937 | Grand Valley Rural Power Lines, the first REA in Colorado, begins supplying electricity to homes in and around Grand Junction and Fruita | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 156 |
| 1937 | The separation of the American Federation of Labor from the Congress of Industrial Organizations results in the miners unions in Colorado becoming affiliated with the United Mine Workers of Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 325 |
| 1937 | Some 3,000 mules were still used in Colorado mines | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 503 |
| 1937 | Fire destroys the Collins Opera House in Creede | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| 1937 | Colorado-Big Thompson project is authorized by Congress to bring western water to irrigate the northeastern part of the state | Mary Fretch, state editor, Chronology and Documentary Handbook of the State of Colorado, 1973, p. 14 |
| 1937 | A Colorado Constitutional amendment of 1936 goes into effect providing an old age pension of $45 a month | Mary Fretch, state editor, Chronology and Documentary Handbook of the State of Colorado, 1973, p. 14 |
| 1937 | Temple Hoyne Buell and G. Meredith Musick complete an addition to the U.S. Custom House at 721 19th Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 57 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|---|
| 1937 | The Dorset House, a 3-story flat roofed home; designed by S. Arthur Axtens is completed at 1001 Logan Street in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 76 |
| 1937 | The Shangri-la House is completed at 150 S. Bellaire Street in Denver; designed by Raymond Harry Ervin for Harry Huffman | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 96 |
| 1937 | Masons purchase the First National Bank of Douglas County at 300 Wilcox Street in Castle Rock after the bank closed in 1933 and turn it into a Masonic Hall | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 143 |
| 1937 | Lawrence Phipps buys the ranch that was originally owned by John W. Springer and later Waite Phillips and Frank Kistler; it becomes Highlands Ranch in the 1980s | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 146 |
| 1937 | Steinhauer Field House opens on the Colorado School of Mines campus as designed by Jacques Benedict | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 154 |
| 1937 | Berthoud Hall is completed at 16th and Illinois Streets in Golden; designed by Temple Hoyne Buell as a WPA project; now houses the Geological Museum | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 154 |
| 1937 | Mary Rippon Outdoor Theatre is completed on the University of Colorado Boulder campus; used for summer Shakespeare festival | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 179 |
| 1937 | Loveland's Post Office opens at 501 Cleveland Avenue; inside there is a 1938 WPA mural by Russell Sherman called Industries Around Loveland | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 237 |
| 1937 | Fort Morgan Municipal Fire & Police Building is completed at 120 Main Street; designed by Walter H. Simon | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 252 |
| 1937 | An 80-foot-long barn is constructed by the Pizel family in Kit Carson County; later moved to the Old Town Burlington site where it is restored and turned into a museum and community hall | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 266 |
| 1937 | Hotel Flagler at 311 Main Street is converted to a hospital by Dr. W.L. McBride | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 267 |
| 1937 | Will Rogers Shrine of the Sun opens on Cheyenne Mountain; Spencer Penrose dedicated the tower to Rogers after his 1935 death in an airplane crash; Penrose and wife Julie are buried there in a private mausoleum | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 303 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|---|
| 1937 | Pueblo Community College building opens at 900 W. Orman Avenue; designed by Walter De Mordaunt and John Gray in South Pueblo 6 years after college is founded | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 324 |
| 1937 | Salida Hot Springs are built as a WPA project at 410 W. Rainbow Boulevard using 200 workers | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 352 |
| 1937 | Veterans Memorial Square created as a WPA project on the corner of Chestnut and 1st Streets in Trinidad | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 379 |
| 1937 | Junior College of Southeastern Colorado develops in Lamar between 8th and 9th Streets and Chestnut and Walnut; remodeled as Eighth Street Arms Apartments in 1960s when the renamed Lamar Community College moved to a new campus at 2400 South Main Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 385 |
| 1937 | Lincoln School is completed at 317 W. 3rd Street in La Junta; designed by Walter De Mordaunt and John Gray; now converted to offices | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 392 |
| 1937 | The three-story Alamosa County Courthouse opens at San Juan Avenue and 4th Street in Alamosa after 24-years of construction work | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 407 |
| 1937 | Farm Security Administration Resettlement Project begins at Waverly in Alamosa County where families received a house with running water, electricity and out buildings | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 410 |
| 1937 | Grand County Courthouse opens at Byers Avenue and Maple Street in Hot Sulphur Springs; designed by Denver architect Robert K. Fuller | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 450 |
| 1937 | Colorado's first rope ski tow is installed on Berthoud Pass followed by the first double-seat chair lift | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 450 |
| 1937 | Denver, South Park & Pacific and Denver & Rio Grande Railroads end service to Frisco; Dillon Reservoir and The Eisenhower-Johnson Tunnel breathed fresh life into Frisco after 1973 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 464 |
| 1937 | Delta's Municipal Power and Light Company building opens at 1223 S. Main Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 531 |
| 1937 | Post Office Building opens at 200 N. Wisconsin Street in Gunnison using design of OSA architect Louis A. Simon | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 539 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|--|
| 1937 | Colorado Fuel & Iron Company builds a Company Store in Crested Butte at 303 Elk Avenue | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 541 |
| 1937 | Ralston Creek Dam completed at a cost of $1,770,000 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| 1937 | Moffat filter plant completed at a cost of $1,021,000 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| 1937 | Sewage Disposal Plant completed for Denver at a cost of $3,500,000 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| 1937 | U.S. government acquires title to Fitzsimons General Hospital land | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| 1937 | The 8th Avenue viaduct is completed in Denver | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| 1937 | U.S. Customs House is completed in Denver at a cost of $1,000,000 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| 1937 | Continental Air Lines begins operating through Denver | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| January 1937 | Victor Herald ceases publishing in Victor | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 140 |
| January 1, 1937 | Colorado Springs News begins publishing in Colorado Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 61 |
| January 1, 1937 | Lieutenant Governor Ray Herbert Talbot is sworn in as Colorado's 27th governor filling out the remaining days of Edwin Johnson's term after he resigns to become a U.S. Senator | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| January 3, 1937 | Edwin Johnson is sworn in as U.S. Senator from Colorado | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| January 12, 1937 | Teller Ammons takes the oath as the 28th Governor of Colorado | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| February 2, 1937 | Peneold post office established in Jackson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 112 |
| February 7, 1937 | A donated rope tow begins operation at Berthoud Pass creating Colorado's first public tow-assisted alpine skiing | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| February 7, 1937 | Two skiers are killed in an avalanche on Berthoud Pass | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| February 11, 1937 | A meeting is held to organize the Boy Scouts in Phillips County | Centennial History of Phillips County, Colorado - Those Were The Days , Phillips County Historical Society, p. 35 |
| February 27, 1937 | Amity post office discontinued in Prowers County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 12 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|--|
| February 27, 1937 | Cumbres post office discontinued in Conejos County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 41 |
| March 25, 1937 | First radio broadcast made from Holyoke by station KGEK of Sterling | Centennial History of Phillips County, Colorado - Those Were The Days , Phillips County Historical Society, p. 35 |
| March 31, 1937 | Amy post office discontinued in Lincoln County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 12 |
| Spring 1937 | The Junior College of Southeastern Colorado is organized in Lamar | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 481 |
| April 14, 1937 | Legislation enacted in Colorado requires collection of ownership tax along with fees for registration of vehicle titles and the issuance of licenses | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 570 |
| April 29, 1937 | Boy Scouts receive a charter to organize a troop in Holyoke | Centennial History of Phillips County, Colorado - Those Were The Days , Phillips County Historical Society, p. 35 |
| April 30, 1937 | Burdett post office discontinued in Washington County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 26 |
| April 30, 1937 | Lindland post office discontinued in Jackson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 89 |
| May 1937 | Denver Labor Bulletin ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 46 |
| May 1937 | Colorado's $45 Old Age Pension Act comes into being and takes effect September 1, 1937 | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 348 |
| May 15, 1937 | Lily post office discontinued in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 89 |
| May 16, 1937 | Transcontinental air service to Denver begins with the arrival of United Air Lines flight; United acquired the Cheyenne-Denver line from Wyoming Air Service | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| May 29, 1937 | The Public Utilities Commission is given jurisdiction over persons and companies using the states highways for the business of transporting persons or property for compensation | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 570 |
| June 1, 1937 | Gould post office established in Jackson County, formerly named Peneold | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 64 |
| June 1, 1937 | Peneold post office discontinued in Jackson County, name changed to Gould | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 112 |
| June 7, 1937 | Lakewood post office established in Jefferson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 85 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|---|---|
| June 14, 1937 | The State Board of Examiners pass a resolution to change requirements for teachers effective September 1, 1937 | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 174 |
| June 16, 1937 | Tacony post office moved to Pueblo County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 138 |
| June 24, 1937 | Denver Newspaper Guild signs its first contract with the Rocky Mountain News | The First Hundred Years by Robert L. Perkin, p. 543 |
| June 30, 1937 | Floyd Hill post office discontinued in Clear Creek County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 54 |
| July 9, 1937 | Trail Ridge post office established in Larimer County as a summer post office | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 142 |
| August 7, 1937 | Denver's first high frequency radio station, W9XLA, begins broadcasting KLZ shows on 38.6 megacycles | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| August 27, 1937 | Lowry training facility authorized by Congress and approved on this date by President Roosevelt | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 591 |
| September 1937 | Plainsman ceases publishing, merged with Springfield Democrat-Herald in Springfield | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 8 |
| September 1937 | The first classes are held at the Junior College of Southeastern Colorado in Lamar | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 481 |
| September 6, 1937 | The Will Rogers Shrine of the Sun is dedicated on Cheyenne Mountain above Colorado Springs | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| September 12, 1937 | La Boca post office discontinued in La Plata County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 84 |
| September 15, 1937 | Hydrate post office discontinued in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 76 |
| September 15, 1937 | Longview post office discontinued in Jefferson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 91 |
| September 15, 1937 | South Platte post office discontinued in Jefferson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 134 |
| September 20, 1937 | The Northern Colorado Water Conservancy District is created | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 125 |
| September 30, 1937 | Rodley post office discontinued in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 124 |
| October 4, 1937 | Conversion of the Agnes Stipps Memorial Sanitorium to an Air Corps training facility begins east of Denver as a Works Progress Administration project; this facility will be renamed Lowry Air Force Base June 24, 1948 | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|--|
| October 7, 1937 | Girl Scout troop formed in Holyoke | Centennial History of Phillips County, Colorado - Those Were The Days , Phillips County Historical Society, p. 35 |
| October 30, 1937 | Thornburg post office discontinued in Rio Blanco County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 141 |
| November 4, 1937 | Frank Sumner Byers dies; son of W.N. Byers | The First Hundred Years by Robert L. Perkin, p. 335 |
| November 15, 1937 | Estabrook post office discontinued in Park County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 52 |
| December 1937 | Moffatt County forms the first soil conservation district in Colorado; the Great Divide Soil Conservation District | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 156 |
| December 9, 1937 | Ground is broken for Porter Hall on the Colorado Woman's College campus; completed in 1938 | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 482 |
| December 15, 1937 | Gordon post office discontinued in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 64 |
| December 15, 1937 | Hoopup post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 74 |
| December 31, 1937 | Caisson post office discontinued in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 27 |
| 1938 | Fleming Farmer begins publishing in Fleming | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 99 |
| 1938 | Byers News ceases publishing in Byers | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 4 |
| 1938 | Englewood Monitor ceases publishing in Englewood | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 5 |
| 1938 | Colorado Citizen begins publishing in Englewood | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 5 |
| 1938 | Englewood Times begins publishing in Englewood | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 5 |
| 1938 | Pritchett News ceases publishing in Pritchett | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 7 |
| 1938 | Broadcaster begins publishing in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 12 |
| 1938 | Neighborhood News ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1938 | Alameda Advertiser begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|--|
| 1938 | Denver Call begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1938 | Neighborhood News-Digest begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1938 | Denver Republican begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1938 | South Denver Neighborhood News begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1938 | Minturn Booster begins publishing in Minturn | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 55 |
| 1938 | Colorado Springs Advertiser begins publishing in Colorado Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 61 |
| 1938 | Pikes Peak Herald begins publishing in Manitou Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 63 |
| 1938 | Fort Collins Crusader begins publishing in Fort Collins | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 92 |
| 1938 | Big Thompson Valley News ceases publishing in Loveland | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 93 |
| 1938 | Loveland Pioneer Press begins publishing in Loveland | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 93 |
| 1938 | Genoa Sentinel ceases publishing in Genoa | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 98 |
| 1938 | Genoa Guide begins publishing in Genoa | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 98 |
| 1938 | La Junta News begins publishing in La Junta | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 111 |
| 1938 | Crow Valley News begins publishing in Grover | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 145 |
| 1938 | The Pine River Project, a reclamation project, begins to provide water to the Ute Indian Reservation near Ignacio and to white settlers with a large dam near Bayfield | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 523 |
| 1938 | Work begins on expanding Fitzsimons General Hospital; work is completed just before World War II begins | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 598 |
| 1938 | The Denver and Colorado Bar Associations begin jointly publishing Dicta | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 380 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|---|
| 1938 | The First Baptist Church opens in Denver at 230 E. 14th Avenue; designed by G. Meredith Musick | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 78 |
| 1938 | Eugene G. Groves designs and builds a house at 330 Birch Street in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 94 |
| 1938 | Red Rocks Civilian Conservation Corps Camp opens near Red Rocks near Colorado 74 and Red Rocks Park where 125 young men are employed constructing the Red Rocks Amphitheater | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 162 |
| 1938 | Boulder High School is built at 1604 Arapahoe Avenue; designed by Earl Morris, Francis W. Frewen, and Glen H. Huntington | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 177 |
| 1938 | Thomas J. Callahan retires to California and leaves his house at 312 Terry St. to Longmont as a community center | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 186 |
| 1938 | An art deco fountain is added to the Fort Collins Municipal Power Plant as a WPA project | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 226 |
| 1938 | First National Bank in Sedgwick at 27 Main Street is converted to a Post Office and used until 1995 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 261 |
| 1938 | James Vernon Phelps has a home constructed at 420 Lincoln Street for his family; remodeled in 1984 by Hurtig, Gardner & Froelich | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 324 |
| 1938 | County garage built in Kim as a WPA project | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 381 |
| 1938 | District 13 School is built in Wiley as a WPA project at Main and 6th Streets | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 387 |
| 1938 | San Luis Community Center is built as a WPA project | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 412 |
| 1938 | St. James the Less Catholic Church opens at 9th and Broadway in Blanca | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 414 |
| 1938 | Immaculate Conception Church opens in Chama on Costilla County 22 a mile north of Costilla County L.7; replaced the church constructed in 1864 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 414 |
| 1938 | San Gaetano y San Juan Nepomucen Catholic Church is completed at Ortiz | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 424 |
| 1938 | The road over Berthoud Pass becomes the first paved road over the continental divide when US 40 is completed | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 450 |
| 1938 | First ski tow installed in Aspen on the Aspen Mountain run designed by Swiss skier Andre Roche | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 487 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|---|
| 1938 | Aspen Mountain Ski Area opens at the south end of Aspen Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 496 |
| 1938 | Fruita Museum - a WPA project - opens at 432 E. Aspen Avenue in Mesa County; now the Fruita Library | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 512 |
| 1938 | Post Office opens in Delta at 360 Meeker Street using the OSA design of Louis A. Simon with consulting architect Harry B. Carter | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 533 |
| 1938 | Baptists move into a new church on 14th Avenue and Grant Street | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 29 |
| 1938 | Using labor from the Civilian Conservation Corps a ski area is built at Winter Park | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 99 |
| 1938 | Wyoming Air Service changes its name to Inland Air Lines, Inc. | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| 1938-1942 | Military facilities begin to be established in the Denver area with the Army Air Corps Technical School at Lowry Field, the Rocky Mountain Arsenal, Buckley Field and Remington Arms Plant which will become the Denver Federal Center at 6th Avenue and Kipling | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xv |
| circa 1938 | Fort Vasquez is reconstructed, and slightly modified, as a WPA project along US 85 a mile south of Platteville | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 249 |
| circa 1938 | U.S. Forest Service Ranger Residence opens in Saguache at 450 Christy Avenue | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 438 |
| circa 1938 | City Hall Complex opens in 400 block of Worth Avenue in Center in Saguache County | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 440 |
| circa 1938 | San Ildefonso House completed at 509 W. Virginia Avenue in Gunnison by Indians who came to Gunnison to make and sell jewelry at Ender's Hardware | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 539 |
| February 1938 | Latin American News begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| February 3, 1938 | Battle Creek post office discontinued in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 17 |
| February 26, 1938 | Lowry Field is dedicated | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 592 |
| February 26, 1938 | Classes start at Lowry Field; part of Army Air Force under construction of Western Technical Training Command | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| February 28, 1938 | Keysor post office discontinued in Elbert County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 82 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|--|--|
| February 28, 1938 | Richards post office discontinued in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 122 |
| March 1938 | The Rio Grande water compact is concluded between Colorado, New Mexico, Texas and Mexico | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 527 |
| March 31, 1938 | Bartlett post office discontinued in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 17 |
| April 1, 1938 | Grand Lake post office reestablished in Grand County with the original spelling | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 65 |
| April 1, 1938 | Grandlake post office discontinued in Grand County, spelling reverts back to original spelling of Grand Lake. | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 65 |
| May 14, 1938 | Bonanza post office discontinued in Saguache County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 22 |
| May 18, 1938 | Clarkville post office established in Yuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 34 |
| May 19, 1938 | Middle Park Times ceases publishing in Hot Sulphur Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 72 |
| May 26, 1938 | Middle Park Times begins publishing in Kremmling | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 73 |
| May 27, 1938 | Telluride Journal ceases publishing in Telluride, continues as San Miguel County Journal | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 133 |
| May 31, 1938 | Bloom post office discontinued in Otero County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 21 |
| June 2, 1938 | W.E. Tyler begins work on a history of Phillips County | Centennial History of Phillips County, Colorado - Those Were The Days , Phillips County Historical Society, p. 36 |
| June 3, 1938 | San Miguel County Journal begins publishing in Telluride | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 133 |
| June 30, 1938 | Officer post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 106 |
| August 1938 | Garden Home News begins publishing in Garden Home | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 5 |
| August 18, 1938 | New main hospital building opens at Fitzsimons General Hospital; new building estimated at $4,500,000 with old buildings estimated at $4,000,000 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| September 16, 1938 | East Side Journal begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|---|
| October 1, 1938 | Butte Valley (II) post office established in Huerfano County, formerly Alamo | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 27 |
| October 1, 1938 | Alamo post office discontinued in Huerfano County, name changed to Butte Valley | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 9 |
| October 31, 1938 | Rattlesnake Buttes post office discontinued in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 119 |
| December 2, 1938 | President Franklin Roosevelt signs an order creating the Colorado State Forest | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| December 31, 1938 | San Isabel post office discontinued in Custer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 128 |
| December 31, 1938 | Alice post office discontinued in Clear Creek County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 11 |
| 1939 | Garden Home News ceases publishing in Garden Home | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 5 |
| 1939 | Tab ceases publishing in Walsh | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 8 |
| 1939 | Hasty Herald begins publishing in Hasty | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 9 |
| 1939 | Caddoa Dam New Era begins publishing in Hasty | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 9 |
| 1939 | Broadcaster ceases publishing in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 12 |
| 1939 | Boulder County Courier begins publishing in Longmont | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 14 |
| 1939 | Salida Mail Bulletin ceases publishing in Salida | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 18 |
| 1939 | Delta County Tribune ceases publishing in Delta | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 26 |
| 1939 | Latin American News ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1939 | East Side Journal ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1939 | Denver Republican ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1939 | South Denver Neighborhood News ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|--|
| 1939 | Colorado Press begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1939 | Public Ledger begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1939 | Colorado Springs Advertiser ceases publishing in Colorado Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 61 |
| 1939 | Florence Daily Citizen ceases publishing in Florence | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 66 |
| 1939 | Rifle Daily Reminder ceases publishing in Rifle | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 68 |
| 1939 | Fort Collins Crusader ceases publishing in Fort Collins | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 92 |
| 1939 | Trinidad Chronicle-News (w) ceases publishing in Trinidad | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 97 |
| 1939 | Arriba Advocate begins publishing in Arriba | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 98 |
| 1939 | Genoa Guide ceases publishing in Genoa | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 98 |
| 1939 | Morgan County Herald ceases publishing in Fort Morgan, continues as Fort Morgan Herald | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 109 |
| 1939 | Fort Morgan Herald begins publishing in Fort Morgan | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 109 |
| 1939 | La Junta Tribune ceases publishing in La Junta | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 110 |
| 1939 | La Junta News ceases publishing in La Junta | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 111 |
| 1939 | La Junta Tribune begins publishing in La Junta | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 111 |
| 1939 | Raymer Enterprise ceases publishing in New Raymer | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 146 |
| 1939 | Colorado Agricultural Marketing Act is passed which allows growers to agree to regulations relating to pricing, sizing, grading, advertising, and sales promotion | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 153 |
| 1939 | George W. Brayfield was president of the American Federation of Labor in Colorado beginning in 1939 | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 325 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|---|
| 1939 | La Junta school district voters decide to partially finance a junior college building and equipment | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 482 |
| 1939 | The Climax Molybdenum Company is producing two-thirds of the world's supply of molybdenum | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 505 |
| 1939 | A water project to carry water from the western slope to Denver, the Williams Fork Tunnel, is completed at Jones Pass | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 529 |
| 1939 | Dental Speciality Manufacturing Company incorporated by W.P. Mussey and R.W. Brown | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 601 |
| 1939 | A WPA renovation project remodels the Adams County Courthouse; designed by Richard O. Perry and Lester L. Jones in Brighton at 22 South 4th Avenue | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 119 |
| 1939 | Englewood Post Office is built at 3330 S. Broadway one of 16 Colorado postoffices with a mural painted by the Federal Artists Project | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 130 |
| 1939 | Norlin Library is completed on the University of Colorado Boulder campus; designed by Charles Z. Klauder | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 179 |
| 1939 | The Georgetown Loop Railroad ceases operation when the Colorado and Southern Railway abandons the line | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 206 |
| 1939 | The Georgetown Loop Railroad ceases operation when the Colorado and Southern Railway abandons the line and the depot at Silver Plume closes | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 207 |
| 1939 | Beebe Clinic is built at 605 S. College Avenue; now converted to a real estate office | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 229 |
| 1939 | Frederick W. Ireland, Jr. modifies Carter Hall on the Colorado State College of Education campus in Greeley to become the administration building | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 245 |
| 1939 | A marker is placed on the lawn of the Elbert County Courthouse commemorating the Hungate and Dietmann families lost to Indian raids in 1864 and 1868 respectively | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 273 |
| 1939 | Super Service Station opens at 300 Main Street in Walsenburg | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 371 |
| 1939 | Kim High School and Elementary School built as WPA projects at 425 State Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 381 |
| 1939 | Community Gymnasium opens in Holly as a WPA project | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 387 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|--|
| 1939 | John Gray designs an addition to the Bent County High School at 1214 Thompson Boulevard in Las Animas; now the Las Animas Middle School | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 388 |
| 1939 | Great Sand Dunes National Monument superintendent's residence is completed; designed for a WPA project by Kenneth Saunders | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 410 |
| 1939 | Winter Park is established as a ski area where the Moffat Tunnel west portal construction camp was located | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 450 |
| 1939 | Land's End Shelter Cabin is built as a WPA project by the Civilian Conservation Corps 10 miles east of Whitewater atop Grand Mesa on the Land's End Road | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 511 |
| 1939 | Meeker Elementary School is built at Main Street and Park Avenue between 5th and 6th streets as a WPA project with construction superintendent Harry Pollard | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 513 |
| 1939 | Leslie J. Savage Library opens on the Western State College campus in Gunnison as designed by Temple Hoyne Buell; restored in 1996 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 538 |
| 1939 | The Metropole Bar gives way to the Enterprise Café and Bar in the Dey Building in Rico | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 593 |
| 1939 | Wazee & Denargo markets open in Denver | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| 1939-1954 | Rio Grande County Courthouse opens; designed by Walter H. Simon at 6th and Cherry streets in Del Norte | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 427 |
| January 10, 1939 | Ralph Carr takes the oath as Colorado's 29th governor | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| January 30, 1939 | Three truckloads of dynamite explode at the Colorado Portland Cement Company plant six miles north of Fort Collins killing two and injuring four others | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| January 31, 1939 | River Bend post office discontinued in Elbert County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 122 |
| February 15, 1939 | Hastings post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 69 |
| March 31, 1939 | Ravenwood post office discontinued in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 120 |
| April 15, 1939 | Lebanon post office discontinued in Montezuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 88 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|--|--|
| April 22, 1939 | Point Lookout post office established in Montezuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 115 |
| April 29, 1939 | Brodhead post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 24 |
| April 29, 1939 | Raven post office discontinued in Garfield County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 119 |
| June 8, 1939 | Rocky Mountain Tourist News begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| June 11, 1939 | Sandra Dallas born in Washington D.C. | Gale Literary Databases, retrieved 10 April 2011 |
| June 20, 1939 | Heeney post office established in Summit County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 70 |
| June 23, 1939 | Pleasant View post office established in Montezuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 115 |
| July 21, 1939 | Ouray Herald ceases publishing in Ouray, continues as Ouray County Herald | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 114 |
| July 28, 1939 | Ouray County Herald begins publishing in Ouray | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 114 |
| August 12, 1939 | Rescuers cut trapped passengers from wreckage of two trains that collided on the crossover a block south of Alameda in south Denver; two are killed and 50 injured | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| August 24, 1939 | Rocky Mountain Tourist News ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| August 26, 1939 | Vallecito post office established in La Plata County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 146 |
| 1939 | Larimer County produced 54% of Colorado's cherry crop during this year | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 138 |
| September 1, 1939 | Germany invades Poland starting World War II | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| September 9, 1939 | State Capitol annex completed in Denver at a cost of $976,000 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| September 14, 1939 | Springfield Democrat-Herald ceases publishing, continues as Plainsman-Herald in Springfield | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 8 |
| September 15, 1939 | Blaine post office discontinued in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 21 |
| September 21, 1939 | Plainsman-Herald begins publishing in Springfield | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 8 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|--|
| October 4, 1939 | Denver Daily Record-Stockman ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 43 |
| October 31, 1939 | Howardsville post office discontinued in San Juan County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 74 |
| October 31, 1939 | Turret post office discontinued in Chaffee County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 144 |
| December 1, 1939 | West Portal post office discontinued in Grand County, moved to Winter Park | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 151 |
| December 1, 1939 | Winter Park post office established in Grand County, moved from West Portal | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 153 |
| December 8, 1939 | Paramount Weekly begins publishing in Arvada | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 81 |
| December 27, 1939 | Fire burns the Anna Dora Opera House in Delta | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| December 31, 1939 | Aurora post office discontinued in Arapahoe County, converted to a branch of Denver | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 15 |
| 1940 | Fleming Farmer ceases publishing in Fleming | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 99 |
| 1840s | "Uranium Fever" sweeps Montrose County as miners hope to make their fortune with this toxic mineral found in abundance in the area | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 578 |
| 1931-1940 | Colorado experienced an unusually dry period with rainfall far below normal levels | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 564 |
| 1940 | Baca County Republican ceases publishing in Springfield | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 8 |
| 1940 | Baca County Banner begins publishing in Springfield | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 8 |
| 1940 | Hasty Record begins publishing in Hasty | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 9 |
| 1940 | Boulder County Courier ceases publishing in Longmont | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 14 |
| 1940 | Tusker begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1940 | Denver Leader begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|--|
| 1940 | Pikes Peak Daily News ceases publishing in Manitou Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 62 |
| 1940 | Pikes Peak Herald ceases publishing in Manitou Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 63 |
| 1940 | Morning Reminder begins publishing in Glenwood Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 68 |
| 1940 | Silver World ceases publishing in Lake City | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 78 |
| 1940 | Montrose Advertiser begins publishing in Montrose | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 108 |
| 1940 | Nucla News begins publishing in Nucla | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 108 |
| 1940 | Pawnee Press ceases publishing in Grover | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 145 |
| 1940 | From 1900 to 1940 the number of farms in Colorado more than doubled, while the value of farm property tripled | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 629 |
| 1940 | Charles O. Boissevain and Carol Davidson publish Colorado Cacti | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 26 |
| 1940 | Census of Colorado enumerates 1,123,296 | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 78 |
| 1940 | There were 1,360 Indians enumerated in this census in Colorado, 499 in Montezuma, 402 in La Plata, 195 in Denver and a scattering in 16 other counties | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 94 |
| 1940 | Census figures for this year list 6,360 people in Colorado born in Mexico | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 100 |
| 1940 | The census enumerates 2,734 Japanese in Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 117 |
| 1940 | Wyoming again sues Colorado over the diversion of water from the Laramie River and again the court finds in Wyomings favor, as it did in 1922 and 1936 | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 131 |
| 1940 | Between the years 1870 and 1940 21,888 prisoners were received by the Colorado State Penitentiary | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 613 |
| 1940 | There are 1,378 prisoners in the Colorado State Penitentiary, 17 of them women | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 613 |
| 1940 | Colorado's population is 1,123,296 | Mary Fretch, state editor, Chronology and Documentary Handbook of the State of Colorado, 1973, p. 15 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------|---|---|
| 1940 | Denver Police Building opens at 1245 Champa Street across the street from the Denver Auditorium; designed by Earl Morris, G. Meredith Musick & C. Francis Pillsbury | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 62 |
| 1940 | A post office is built in Golden at 619 12th Street featuring a WPA mural, Building the New Road , by Kenneth Evett depicting construction of US 6 along Clear Creek | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 153 |
| 1940 | Cyclone Roller Coaster is added to Lakeside Amusement Park; designed by Edward Vettel | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 158 |
| 1940 | William J. Palmer High School opens at Nevada and Platte Avenues in Colorado Springs; designed by Edward L. Bunts and Burnham F. Hoyt | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 289 |
| 1940 | Post Office opens in Manitou Springs at 307 Cañon Avenue with a mural painted by Archibald Musick | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 311 |
| 1940 | Holy Family Mission Church completed in South Fork in Rio Grande County south of US 160 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 430 |
| 1940 | Winter Park Ski Area is built as a Denver Mountain Park at the west portal of the Moffat Tunnel | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 450 |
| 1940 | Red Cliff Bridge opens on US 24 1 mile west of Red Cliff | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 478 |
| 1940 | New Post Office opens in Rifle at Railroad Avenue and E. 4th Street with OSA design of Louis A. Simon | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 486 |
| 1940 | Houston Hall is built on the Mesa College Campus on North Avenue | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 508 |
| 1940 | Phipps Auditorium in City Park dedicated with a seating capacity of 1,000 in Denver | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| 1940 | Power plant for the State Capitol in Denver completed at a cost of $300,000 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| 1940 | The New Police Building and City Auditorium are completed in Denver | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| 1940 | Denver police substations are located around town at 17th & Vine (east side); 26th & Federal (north); Broadway & Center (south) | Denver Public Library "Denver. Police Department. Buildings" clipping file, 1940 booklet called "Headquarters" - p. 17 & 22 |
| 1940s | Richard L. Crowther makes additions to the Lakeside Amusement Park in Lakewood | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 158 |
| 1940s | St. Mary's Convent at 205 Pine Street in Central City is renovated by Julie Penrose as a private residence | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 195 |
| 1940s | A rope ski town is installed on Dillon's Cemetery Hill | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 458 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|---|
| 1940s | Grand Junction High School opens at 1400 N. 5th Street in Grand Junction; designed by Paul Atchison | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 508 |
| January 1940 | The U.S. has $17 billion in gold and $2 billion in silver in its possession | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 561 |
| January 31, 1940 | Heartstrong post office discontinued in Yuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 70 |
| January 31, 1940 | Mustang post office discontinued in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 103 |
| February 1, 1940 | Delta Independent ceases publishing in Delta | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 26 |
| February 3, 1940 | Delta Daily Independent ceases publishing in Delta | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 26 |
| February 8, 1940 | Delta County Independent begins publishing in Delta | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 26 |
| February 15, 1940 | Hyde post office discontinued in Yuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 76 |
| February 15, 1940 | Rockwood post office discontinued in La Plata County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 123 |
| April 1, 1940 | Colorado's population increases 8.45 percent since the 1930 census with 1,123,296 recorded in this enumeration | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| April 16, 1940 | The Rocky Mountain News has a near death experience in a Scripps-Howard meeting in New York, Jack Rohe Howard takes on the job of saving the paper | The First Hundred Years by Robert L. Perkin, p. 547-8 |
| April 30, 1940 | Atchee post office discontinued in Garfield County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 15 |
| May 1, 1940 | Dover Creek Press begins publishing in Dove Creek | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 52 |
| May 4, 1940 | The old city hall and police building at 14th and Larimer is abandoned in favor of the new police headquarters structure at 13th & Champa that opens on this date | Denver Public Library "Denver. Police Department. Buildings" clipping file, 1940 booklet called "Headquarters" - p. 9 |
| June 15, 1940 | Grand Lake Pioneer begins publishing in Grand Lake | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 72 |
| June 30, 1940 | Denver Branch of the Mormon Church is made a stake | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 222 |
| August 23, 1940 | Construction begins on the John Martin Dam on the Arkansas River in southeastern Colorado, construction is stalls on March 25, 1943 because of the war | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 523-524 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|---|---|
| August 31, 1940 | Grand Lake Pioneer ceases publishing in Grand Lake | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 72 |
| September 16, 1940 | The Selective Training and Service Act becomes law | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 588 |
| September 20, 1940 | Bear River post office discontinued in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 17 |
| October 21, 1940 | Colorado's state staff are ordered to active duty | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 588 |
| October 29, 1940 | National lottery is held to determine the order registrants would be called up for military service | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 588 |
| October 31, 1940 | Tiger post office discontinued in Summit County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 141 |
| November 1, 1940 | Jack Foster named editor of The Rocky Mountain News | The First Hundred Years by Robert L. Perkin, p. 553 |
| November 18, 1940 | The first selectees are sent to the U.S. Army Induction center on this date | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 588 |
| December 28, 1940 | Elizabeth "Mollie" Byers Robinson dies, the last surviving child of W.N. Byers | The First Hundred Years by Robert L. Perkin, p. 335 |
| December 31, 1940 | Leader post office discontinued in Adams County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 88 |
| December 31, 1940 | Leonard post office discontinued in San Miguel County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 88 |
| December 31, 1940 | Marshall Pass post office discontinued in Saguache County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 95 |
| 1941 | Verdad ceases publishing in Spanish in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1941 | Alameda Advertiser ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1941 | Tusker ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1941 | Bulletin begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| 1941 | Morning Reminder ceases publishing in Glenwood Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 68 |
| 1941 | Gilpin County Miner ceases publishing in Central City | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 71 |
| 1941 | Mountain and Plains ceases publishing in Fort Collins | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 92 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|--|
| 1941 | Loveland Pioneer Press ceases publishing in Loveland | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 93 |
| 1941 | Montrose Advertiser ceases publishing in Montrose | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 108 |
| 1941 | Nucla News ceases publishing in Nucla | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 108 |
| 1941 | Norwood Star begins publishing in Norwood | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 132 |
| 1941 | State Board of Industries for the Blind created when the State Commission for the Blind was abolished | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 343 |
| 1941 | The American Red Cross begins independent financing rather than participating in the Community Chest | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 364 |
| 1941 | Junior College of Northeastern Colorado is organized in Sterling | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 484 |
| 1941 | The South Platte Dredging Company builds a dredge at Fairplay able to wash 17,000 cubic yards per day | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 499 |
| 1941 | Over 70% of the coal mined in Colorado is cut by machine | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 503 |
| 1941 | Exploration for oil in the U.S. Canada, and Mexico is discontinued | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 600 |
| 1941 | Denver Municipal Auditorium at 14th & Champa modified by G. Meredith Musick and Frederick E. Mountjoy | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 61 |
| 1941 | The 610-bed main building of Fitzsimons Army Hospital opens on East Colfax Avenue east of Peoria Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 138 |
| 1941 | Red Rocks Outdoor Amphitheater opens on the northwest side of Morrison, an acoustically superb setting for outdoor concerts and theater | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 161 |
| 1941 | Crest House is constructed at the top of 14,264-foot Mount Evans; designed by Edwin A. Francis and built by Justus Roehling | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 211 |
| 1941 | Bear Lake Comfort Station opens in Rocky Mountain National Park at the west end of Bear Lake parking lot | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 238 |
| 1941 | Colorado Yule Marble Company closes four miles south of Marble on Yule Creek Road in Gunnison County after briefly rivaling Vermont and Tennessee for production of marble; taken over by the Vermont Marble Company | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 543 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|---|---|
| 1941 | Vallecito Reservoir built as a WPA project in La Plata County | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 553 |
| 1941 | Red Rocks outdoor amphitheater opens in the foothills west of Denver | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xv |
| 1941 | The federal government buys the Downing-Hayden Ranch stretching between W. 6th Avenue and Alameda and Kipling and Union Streets where the Denver Ordnance Plant opens; later becomes the Remington Arms Company and still later the Denver Federal Center | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 129 |
| 1941 | Building 500 opens as the main building of Fitzsimons Army Hospital; the largest building in Colorado at the time near East Colfax and Peoria in Aurora | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 171 |
| 1941 | Denver's first modern four-lane limited access highway is built to move workers to the Denver Ordnance plant from their homes in Denver using W. 6th Avenue | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 181 |
| 1941 | Red Rocks Part Theater unofficially opens with a Rotary International Convention event near Morrison | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| 1941 | Inland Air Lines (formerly Wyoming Air Service) reinstates flights out of Denver | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| January 1941 | The War Department contracts with the Remington Arms Company for construction and operation of an ordnance plant at Denver [this becomes the Federal Center]; located on a 2,000 acres eight miles west of Denver | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 614 |
| January 1941 | Forerunner to the USO is established in Denver by representatives of all religious and racial groups meeting at the Community Chest Building; Civilian Military Hospitality Association opens at 1514 Welton Street | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 625 |
| January 3, 1941 | William S. Hill is sworn in as the 2nd congressional district representative in the House of Representatives | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| January 3, 1941 | John Chenoweth is sworn in as the 3rd congressional district representative in the House of Representatives | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| January 6, 1941 | Colorado adopts rule for civil procedure as prepared by a committee headed by Philip S. Van Cise | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 385 |
| February 1, 1941 | The air corps takes control of Fort Logan and converts it to a clerical training school for Lowry Field | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 592 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|---|--|
| February 4, 1941 | The boiler of a Denver & Rio Grande Western locomotive explodes in a trainyard in southwest Denver injuring 25 | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| March 1941 | Fort Logan becomes a clerical training school for the army air corps | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 598 |
| March 1941 | Construction begins on the Denver Ordnance Plant after a contract with the Remington Arms company is signed in January; later the Denver Federal Center | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| March 6, 1941 | Ground is broken for the first building at the Remington Arms Company ordnance plant [Denver Federal Center] | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 615 |
| March 6, 1941 | Construction begins on the Denver Ordnance Plant, owned by the U.S. Government and operated by Remington Arms Company; the plant manufactured small arms ammunition located eight miles west of Denver at 6th Avenue and Kipling on the Alameda Parkway; the final valuation of the property was $75,000,000; it became known as the Denver Federal Center | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| March 26, 1941 | Recommendation is made to form a Denver Defense Council, recognizing the importance Mayor Stapleton appointed a board in July | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 624 |
| April 1941 | The Lowry Field Rev-Meter begins publication | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 592 |
| April 1941 | The Denver Unit of the American Women's Voluntary Services is organized | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 627 |
| April 11, 1941 | Price Administration and Civilian Supply Board created by executive order of President Roosevelt | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 606 |
| April 20, 1941 | Radio station KMYR begins broadcasting; the first station in Denver with local classification | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| April 25, 1941 | Colorado Council of Defense created by the legislature and signed by Governor Ralph Carr on this date | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 622 |
| May 1, 1941 | Slick Rock post office established in San Miguel County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 133 |
| May 31, 1941 | Ackmen post office discontinued in Montezuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 9 |
| June 1941 | County Seat News-Tribune ceases publishing in Kiowa | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 56 |
| June 9, 1941 | The Rocky Mountain News begins using Acme Telephoto news photos | The First Hundred Years by Robert L. Perkin, p. 566 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|---|---|
| June 15, 1941 | Rotary International celebrates the grand opening of Red Rocks Amphitheater with 10,000 attending the convention | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| June 20, 1941 | Elbert County News-Tribune ceases publishing in Elizabeth | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 56 |
| July 1941 | Fort Logan becomes an armed forces induction center, and new buildings are added to facilitate this function | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 598 |
| July 1, 1941 | A second draft registration is held for those turned 21 since October 16, 1940 | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 588 |
| July 31, 1941 | Fosston post office discontinued in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 57 |
| August 1, 1941 | Organization meeting for state Defense Savings Staff takes place in Denver, Ralph Nicholas selected administrator and Louis Montania deputy administrator | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 601 |
| August 18, 1941 | Military term of service is extended to 18 months | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 588 |
| August 22, 1941 | The first ocean-going ship prefabricated in Denver is launched at Mare Island Navy Yard in California; part of the first inland ship building program in the U.S. | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| August 31, 1941 | Ayer post office discontinued in Otero County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 16 |
| August 31, 1941 | Sligo post office discontinued in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 133 |
| September 1941 | La Junta Junior College opens with 58 students | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 482 |
| September 1941 | The "Chile Line" between Antonito and Santa Fe was abandoned by the Denver & Rio Grande Western | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 685 |
| September 11, 1941 | Westerns Nyheter ceases publishing in Swedish in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 47 |
| September 12, 1941 | Holy Cross Trail ceases publishing in Redcliff | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 55 |
| September 18, 1941 | Western News begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| September 21, 1941 | Ground is broken for the Farmers Union Building in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|---|
| October 26, 1941 | Denver Ordnance Plant is dedicated with 265 buildings grouped in four production units; the plant was surrounded by a high woven wire fence and 35 guard towers manned by 400 guards; at its peak 19,500 were employed there in mid summer 1943 | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 615 |
| November 15, 1941 | Ruedi post office discontinued in Eagle County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 125 |
| November 15, 1941 | Colorado is made into an archdiocese and the diocese of Pueblo is formed | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 212 |
| November 26, 1941 | Hahns Peak post office discontinued in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 67 |
| December 1941 | Site for the Pueblo Army Air Base is selected six miles east of Pueblo, an area of 4,130 acres | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 594 |
| December 1941 | Fitzsimons Hospital is expanded to become the largest building in Colorado and treats some of the first World War II casualties | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 101 |
| Late 1941 | A site six miles south of Colorado Springs is selected for Camp Carson, a military reservation of some 60,000 acres | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 595 |
| December 4, 1941 | Sidney post office discontinued in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 132 |
| December 7, 1941 | Five "War Extras" published by the Rocky Mountain News after Pearl Harbor is bombed | The First Hundred Years by Robert L. Perkin, p. 557 |
| December 7, 1941 | Japanese planes attack Pearl Harbor, Hawaii | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 588 |
| December 7, 1941 | Pearl Harbor, Hawaii is attacked by the Japanese | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| December 8, 1941 | War is declared on Japan by Congress following a request from President Roosevelt | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 588 |
| December 8, 1941 | The U.S. declares war on Japan | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| December 10, 1941 | War is declared on Germany and Italy by Congress | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 588 |
| December 11, 1941 | Delivery of new tires is restricted and rationing of tires soon begins | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 607 |
| December 11, 1941 | The U.S. declares war on Italy and Germany | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| December 11, 1941 | The first airport addition is annexed to Denver (0.731 square miles) | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|---|
| December 18, 1941 | Eastern Colorado News begins publishing in Strasburg | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 6 |
| December 27, 1941 | Trumpet ceases publishing in Italian and English in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| December 31, 1941 | Roach post office discontinued in Larimer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 122 |
| 1942 | Adams-Arapahoe Farmer ceases publishing in Bennett | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 2 |
| 1942 | Colorado Citizen ceases publishing in Englewood | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 5 |
| 1942 | Hasty Herald ceases publishing in Hasty | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 9 |
| 1942 | Caddoa Dam New Era ceases publishing in Hasty | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 9 |
| 1942 | Hasty Record ceases publishing in Hasty | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 9 |
| 1942 | Democrata ceases publishing in Spanish in San Luis | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 23 |
| 1942 | Costilla Valley Democrat ceases publishing in San Luis | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 24 |
| 1942 | Rocky Nippon ceases publishing in Japanese in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1942 | Colorado Press ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1942 | Rocky Shimpo begins publishing in Japanese in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| 1942 | Minturn Booster ceases publishing in Minturn | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 55 |
| 1942 | Clarín ceases publishing in Spanish in Walsenburg, continues as Clarion | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 80 |
| 1942 | Huerfano County News ceases publishing in Walsenburg | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 80 |
| 1942 | Clarion begins publishing in Walsenburg | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 80 |
| 1942 | Fort Collins Leader ceases publishing in Fort Collins | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 92 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|--|
| 1942 | Fort Collins Bulletin ceases publishing in Fort Collins | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 92 |
| 1942 | Faro ceases publishing in Spanish in Trinidad | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 97 |
| 1942 | Crook News ceases publishing in Crook | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 99 |
| 1942 | De Beque Dragon ceases publishing in De Beque | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 102 |
| 1942 | Briggsdale Banner ceases publishing in Briggsdale | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 142 |
| 1942 | Crow Valley News begins publishing in Briggsdale | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 142 |
| 1942 | Farm Journal ceases publishing in Greeley | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 145 |
| 1942 | Mead Gazette ceases publishing in Mead | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 146 |
| 1942 | Nunn News ceases publishing in Nunn | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 146 |
| 1942 | By 1942 Works Progress Administration workers had constructed or improved about 10,000 miles of state and country roads in Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 557 |
| 1942 | M. Walter Pesman publishes Meet the Natives to allow readers to recognize 700 Rocky Mountain wildflowers | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 26 |
| 1942 | Denver celebrates "Slav" day with a gathering of Serbs, Czechs, Poles and other Balkans in City Park | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 113 |
| 1942 | Church of God (Cleveland, Tenn.) comes to Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 217 |
| 1942 | Buckley Field is built in Aurora during World War Two at 18500 E. 6th Avenue; today it is most notable because of the radar domes resembling 6 giant golf balls | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 136 |
| 1942 | Montcalm Castle at 9 Capitol Hill Avenue in Manitou Springs is converted to apartments during WWII | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 311 |
| 1942 | Sacred Heart Church at 1025 N. Grand Avenue in Pueblo becomes a Cathedral when it becomes the seat of the Diocese of Southern Colorado | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 318 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|---|
| 1942 | Amache Japanese Relocation Camp is built 1 mile southwest of Granada; between 1942 and 1945 there were 7,657 Japanese-Americans interred in this isolated camp in Prowers County | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 386 |
| 1942 | Del Norte Grade School opens; designed by Walter H. Simon at the south end of Oak Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 426 |
| 1942 | Camp Hale is built to train mountain and ski troops - The 10th Mountain Division - during World War II, below Fremont Pass 11 miles south of Gilman; many soldiers who train here returned to Colorado after the war and are instrumental in developing Colorado ski areas | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 478 |
| 1942 | Hahns Peak school closes in Routt County and becomes a community center | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 527 |
| 1942 | Fort Logan becomes a clerical training center during World War II southwest of Denver | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 102 |
| 1942 | Buckley Field is established under the jurisdiction of the Army Air Force Technical Training Command | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| January 2, 1942 | Tire rationing begins nationwide | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 607 |
| January 6, 1942 | The U.S. Army announces the selection of Colorado Springs as the site of a major Army base; designated Camp Carson a few weeks later | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| January 8, 1942 | Oak Creek Times ceases publishing in Oak Creek | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 128 |
| January 15, 1942 | Gorham post office discontinued in Boulder County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 64 |
| January 15, 1942 | Times-Leader begins publishing in Oak Creek | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 128 |
| February 1942 | Construction begins on the Pueblo Ordnance Depot 15 miles east of Pueblo on nearly 22,000 acres | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 616 |
| February 5, 1942 | The first issue of the Colorado Defense News is published by the Colorado Council of Defense | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 623 |
| February 10, 1942 | Marshall Pass post office established in Saguache County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 95 |
| February 10, 1942 | Bids are opened for constructing Camp Carson near Colorado Springs; lowest bid was just over $30 million and construction work began immediately | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 595 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|----------------------|--|---|
| February 11, 1942 | Price Administrator Leon Henderson takes office and begins to control prices of rents; rationing soon begins for many items throughout the nation | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 606 |
| February 23-23, 1942 | Governor Carr sets this week as "Home Food Garden Enrollment Week"; a start to Victory Gardens | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 623 |
| February 26, 1942 | Denver City Council and Mayor Stapleton pass and sign an ordinance establishing the Denver Defense Council | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 624 |
| March 1942 | Construction begins on the Pueblo Army Air Base | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 594 |
| March 1, 1942 | Rents were frozen in defense rental areas designated as: Boulder, Canon City, Colorado Springs, Craig, Denver, Fort Collins, Glenwood Springs, Grand Junction, Greeley Leadville, Pueblo, and Salida | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 608 |
| March 15, 1942 | Vallecito post office discontinued in La Plata County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 146 |
| March 17, 1942 | Typewriter rationing begins nationwide | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 607 |
| March 31, 1942 | Lakewood post office discontinued in Jefferson County, converted to a branch of Denver. | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 85 |
| April 1, 1942 | Construction begins on Buckley Field | The First Hundred Years by Robert L. Perkin, p. 558 |
| April 1942 | Moffat County Mirror begins publishing in Craig | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 106 |
| April 1942 | Buckley Field construction begins, named for Lt. John Harold Buckley, of Longmont, killed in World War I | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 593 |
| April 1942 | Site for Peterson Field east of Colorado Springs is selected to house a tactical unit of the photographic division of the Army Air Corps | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 593 |
| April 1942 | Construction of Camp Hale begins near Tennessee Pass; the 10th Mountain Division will train here | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| April 1942 | Lowry Field No. 2 begins east of Aurora; later designated Buckley Field | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| April 2, 1942 | Adult bicycle rationing begins | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 607 |
| April 10, 1942 | Prairie Settler ceases publishing in Seibert | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 85 |
| April 10, 1942 | La Junta Army Air Field construction begins as a place to train members of the British Royal Air Force; an area of 521,000 acres south of La Junta was acquired as a bombing practice range | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 594 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|----------------|---|---|
| April 11, 1942 | Farmers Union Building is dedicated in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| April 13, 1942 | The "Molly Mayfield" column debuts in The Rocky Mountain News | The First Hundred Years by Robert L. Perkin, p. 563 |
| April 13, 1942 | The Rocky Mountain News debuts a five column "tabloid" size paper to save paper during the war | The First Hundred Years by Robert L. Perkin, p. 562 |
| April 13, 1942 | Negotiations begin for establishing a chemical warfare plant near Denver, the Rocky Mountain Arsenal | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 615 |
| April 21, 1942 | Sugar rationing begins nationwide | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 607 |
| April 28, 1942 | General maximum Price Regulation begins which froze the prices of many commodities at the March 1942 level | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 608 |
| April 28, 1942 | The U.S. Army opens an air base at the Colorado Springs Municipal Airport; the shared airfield is later designated Peterson Field | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| April 30, 1942 | Brookvale post office discontinued in Clear Creek County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 24 |
| April 30, 1942 | Eureka post office discontinued in San Juan County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 52 |
| May 1942 | Colorado Victory Fund Committee formed | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 601 |
| May 10, 1942 | The Rocky Mountain News inaugurates its "Service Edition" | The First Hundred Years by Robert L. Perkin, p. 566 |
| May 14, 1942 | Denver Chamber of Commerce announces awarding of a contract for building the Army Medical Supply Depot at Denver, that becomes the Denver Medical Depot | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 615 |
| May 31, 1942 | Logcabin post office discontinued in Larimer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 90 |
| May 31, 1942 | Pando post office discontinued in Eagle County, during World War II Pando was a branch of Denver | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 110 |
| June 1942 | Construction begins on Camp Hale on land near Pando, about 25 miles northwest of Leadville where troops will train for alpine service | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 595 |
| June 13, 1942 | Construction begins on the Rocky Mountain Arsenal on a 20,000 acre site northeast of Denver | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 615 |
| June 13, 1942 | Construction begins on the Rocky Mountain Arsenal, which was scheduled to manufacture chemical weapons for use in warfare | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-----------------|---|---|
| June 15, 1942 | Sunbeam post office discontinued in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 137 |
| June 25, 1942 | Tri-County Herald ceases publishing in Merino | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 100 |
| June 30, 1942 | Price Creek post office discontinued in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 116 |
| June 30, 1942 | Troy post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 143 |
| June 30, 1942 | There are 43 airports in Colorado, 26 municipal and 11 commercial | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 575 |
| June 30, 1942 | Construction begins on the Rocky Mountain Arsenal near Denver to produce chemical weapons | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| July 1, 1942 | Fort Logan becomes an independent unit again after serving as a clerical school for Lowry Field | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 592 |
| July 4, 1942 | Construction begins on the Japanese Relocation Center near Granada in the Arkansas Valley; about 11,000 acres are acquired to house between 8 and 10,000 people in an internment camp | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 598 |
| July 6, 1942 | Air Raid Warden training is held at Boulder for three days training over 100 students from 45 communities | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 623 |
| July 17, 1942 | The Continental-Denver Modification Center opens near the municipal airport to modify and prepare military aircraft for combat duty | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 617 |
| July 31, 1942 | Tacony post office discontinued in Pueblo County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 138 |
| July 31, 1942 | Vanadium post office discontinued in San Miguel County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 146 |
| August 13, 1942 | Del Rio post office established in Conejos County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 43 |
| August 29, 1942 | The first group of about 200 Japanese arrive at Amache, the internment center, to assist in setting up the facility | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 598 |
| August 22, 1942 | The first warship built in Denver was launched on this date at Mare Island, California; christened by Governor Carr's daughter Cynthia the USS Mountain Maid | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 618 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|--|--|
| August 27, 1942 | The Granada War Relocation Camp, also called Camp Amache, opens for Japanese-American internees in extreme southeastern Colorado | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| August 28, 1942 | First troops arrive at the Pueblo Army Air base by train | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 594 |
| August 31, 1942 | Serene post office discontinued in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 130 |
| September 3, 1942 | Sugar City Gazette ceases publishing in Sugar City | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 24 |
| September 5, 1942 | The first 1,106 Japanese "evacuees" arrive at Amache near Granada | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 599 |
| September 10, 1942 | The first weekly issue of Camp Carson Mountaineer is published | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 595 |
| September 14, 1942 | Falcon post office discontinued in El Paso County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 53 |
| September 21, 1942 | Denver Medical Depot is dedicated with ten buildings and 562,000 square feet at a cost of $2.5 million | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 616 |
| September 21, 1942 | Denver Medical Depot of the U.S. Army is dedicated | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| September 29, 1942 | Rubber footwear rationing begins nationwide | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 607 |
| September 30, 1942 | Tigiwon post office discontinued in Eagle County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 141 |
| October 1, 1942 | Air Raid Warden training is held at Denver's East High School; some 1,700 are trained in the first session | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 623 |
| October 2, 1942 | Plateau Valley Voice ceases publishing in Collbran | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 102 |
| October 3, 1942 | Winnview post office discontinued in Arapahoe County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 153 |
| October 5, 1942 | Fire burns the Aladdin Theater in Denver | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| October 7, 1942 | Boulder Mirror begins publishing in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 12 |
| October 14, 1942 | Granada Pioneer begins publishing in Amache | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 118 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|---|
| October 14, 1942 | A news bulletin mimeographed at the Amache internment center begins to be printed, and will become the semi-weekly Granada Pioneer ; the name Amache comes from Princess Amache whose husband, Chief One-eye, was killed in the Sand Creek Massacre | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 599 |
| October 22, 1942 | The Air Scoop begins publishing at the Pueblo Army Air Base | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 594 |
| October 24, 1942 | By this date there were over 600 Japanese-American students in high school classes at Amache | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 599 |
| October 31, 1942 | Chandler post office discontinued in Fremont County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 32 |
| October 31, 1942 | Marble post office discontinued in Gunnison County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 95 |
| October 31, 1942 | McGregor post office discontinued in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 96 |
| October 31, 1942 | Waunite Hot Springs post office discontinued in Gunnison County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 150 |
| November 29, 1942 | Coffee rationing begins nationwide | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 607 |
| November 30, 1942 | Messex post office discontinued in Washington County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 98 |
| November 30, 1942 | Mystic post office discontinued in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 103 |
| November 30, 1942 | Second airport addition is annexed to Denver (0.251 square miles) | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| December 1, 1942 | Gasoline rationing begins in the region | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 607 |
| December 19, 1942 | Stove rationing begins nationwide | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 607 |
| December 25, 1942 | Rico-Dove Creek News ceases publishing in Rico | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 52 |
| December 31, 1942 | Pershing post office discontinued in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 112 |
| December 31, 1942 | Plateau City post office discontinued in Mesa County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 115 |
| December 31, 1942 | Colorado Springs Weekly Gazette ceases publishing in Colorado Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 57 |
| December 31, 1942 | Dunkley post office discontinued in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 48 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-----------|--|--|
| 1935-1943 | During its eight years of operation the Works Progress Administration (WPA) spent nearly $111 million on projects in Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 557 |
| 1943 | Englewood Times ceases publishing in Englewood | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 5 |
| 1943 | Kit Carson Herald ceases publishing in Kit Carson | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 19 |
| 1943 | Surface Creek Champion ceases publishing in Cedaredge | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 26 |
| 1943 | Bulletin ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| 1943 | Bulletin Free Press begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| 1943 | Trinidad Anunciador ceases publishing in Spanish in Trinidad | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 97 |
| 1943 | Weekly Sentinel ceases publishing in Grand Junction | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 103 |
| 1943 | Moffat County Mirror ceases publishing in Craig | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 106 |
| 1943 | Montrose Enterprise ceases publishing in Montrose | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 107 |
| 1943 | Eckley Tribune ceases publishing in Eckley | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 148 |
| 1943 | Denver Municipal Airport adds 2,000 acres of land five miles south of Denver for construction of another airport | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 575 |
| 1943 | The Denver Modification Center was built by the U.S. government on land provided by the city to equip new planes with the latest in guns, radios, ammunition, and other communications devices; after the war the site was turned over to the city of Denver | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 575 |
| 1943 | Robert E. More publishes Colorado Evergreens | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 26 |
| 1943 | The Colorado Bar Association receives the American Bar Association Award of Distinction for its work in establishing modern procedure rules | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 380 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|--|---|
| 1943 | Colorado Historical Society designated as the official custodian and trustee of all documents, papers, manuscripts, newspapers, books, letters, maps, plans, pictures, photographs, recordings, and other public records, and archives and created a department of state archives and public records | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 545 |
| 1943 | The State Industrial School for Girls moves to Bear Creek Valley about 10 miles southwest of Denver | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 619 |
| 1943 | Holy Ghost Catholic Church at 19th and California Streets in downtown Denver is completed; designed by Jacques Benedict and John K. Monroe | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 57 |
| 1943 | The McMahon family purchase the Silver Dollar Saloon in Leadville | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 364 |
| 1943 | San Luis Community Center is converted to the San Luis Institute of Arts and Crafts, a branch of Adams State College five years after its construction; after World War II it was given back to San Luis and used as a high school | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 412 |
| 1943 | Hotel Colorado in Glenwood Springs is converted to a convalescent hospital during World War II | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 480 |
| 1943 | Skyland is erected at 917 Dodge Street in Delta to process fruit | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 531 |
| 1943 | Ben Stapleton is elected to his fourth term as mayor of Denver though he had lost the election in 1931 | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 90 |
| 1943 | In its year of peak production the Denver Ordnance Plant at 6th and Kipling employed nearly 20,000 munitions makers; later the Federal Center | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 103 |
| 1943 | Benjamin F. Stapleton is reelected mayor of Denver for a fourth term; a veteran of the Spanish-American War | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| 1943 | Denver Modification Center operated by Continental Air Lines begins operation on 97 acres of concrete with an estimated cost of $5,000,000 | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| January 1, 1943 | By this date 9,140 Japanese-Americans have been received at the internment camp near Granada | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 599 |
| January 12, 1943 | Ortiz post office discontinued in Conejos County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 108 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|--|
| January 21, 1943 | Fire destroys barracks for the prisoner of war camp at Camp Carson near Colorado Springs | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| February 1943 | Second U.S. Army Air Force transfers its headquarters from Spokane, Washington to Colorado Springs | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 593 |
| February 7, 1943 | Shoe rationing begins nationwide | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 607 |
| February 14, 1943 | Peterson Army Air Field is officially named on this date for Lt. Edward L. Peterson of Englewood, Colorado was the first pilot to lose his life at the field | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 593 |
| February 15, 1943 | Redstone post office discontinued in Pitkin County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 120 |
| February 28, 1943 | Dalerosé post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 42 |
| March 1, 1943 | Processed food rationing begins nationwide | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 607 |
| March 15, 1943 | Cedarwood post office discontinued in Pueblo County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 31 |
| March 25, 1943 | Brush News ceases publishing in Brush, continues as Brush News-Tribune | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 109 |
| March 26, 1943 | Lyons Recorder ceases publishing in Lyons | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 14 |
| March 31, 1943 | Colorado closes its books on the WPA (Works Projects Administration) showing work had been provided to 150,000 people at a cost of $120 million; projects included 9,000 miles of highway, 500 buildings constructed, 1,500 buildings remodeled, and numerous recreation and water projects and other types of enterprises | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 356 |
| March 31, 1943 | Colona post office discontinued in Ouray County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 36 |
| April 1, 1943 | Brush Mirror ceases publishing in Brush | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 108 |
| April 8, 1943 | Brush News-Tribune begins publishing in Brush | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 109 |
| April 12, 1943 | Rationing of meats, fats and oils begins nationwide | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 607 |
| April 24, 1943 | President Roosevelt visits Camp Carson | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 596 |
| April 30, 1943 | Siloam post office discontinued in Pueblo County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 132 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|---|--|
| May 20, 1943 | The first group of WACs (Women's Army Corps) arrive at Camp Carson | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 597 |
| May 31, 1943 | Russell Gulch post office discontinued in Gilpin County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 126 |
| June 7, 1943 | Denver's Civilian Military Hospitality Association decides to become a part of the recently organized United Service Organization (USO) and on August 1 the formal change is made | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 626 |
| June 27, 1943 | Railroad cars carrying war munitions catch fire and explode at Grand Junction showering debris on the western end of the city for several hours | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| June 30, 1943 | Lime post office discontinued in Pueblo County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 89 |
| June 30, 1943 | By this date there were 19 rural electric cooperatives providing electricity to 13,748 customers in Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 156 |
| July 1943 | The first group of 1,200 Nazi war prisoners arrive at Camp Carson | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 597 |
| July 1943 | The 250 room resort Hotel Colorado is acquired by the U.S. Navy to become the Naval Convalescent Hospital in Glenwood Springs equipped as a 585 bed hospital | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 598 |
| July 2, 1943 | Penrose Press ceases publishing in Penrose | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 66 |
| August 8, 1943 | Braniff Airways, Inc. makes its first Denver flight | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| August 14, 1943 | The first issue of prisoner of war newspaper, Die PW Woche (The PW Weekly) is published at Camp Carson | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 597 |
| August 31, 1943 | Simpson post office discontinued in Adams County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 132 |
| September 8, 1943 | Italy surrenders unconditionally | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| September 20, 1943 | Fire in a railway tunnel near Rollinsville kills three Denver firefighters, Vernon Parrish, Jim Williams, and Jack Kennedy; the roof supports collapse inside the tunnel | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| September 26, 1943 | A B-24 bomber crashes in a residential section of South Denver killing seven airmen | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|--|---|
| September 29, 1943 | A B-24 bomber crashes near East Yale and Marion Street killing 7 airmen from Lowry Field | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 102 |
| September 30, 1943 | Willow Creek post office discontinued in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 153 |
| October 20, 1943 | Some 41,500 Victory Gardens in Denver this year produce more than 15,000 tons of vegetables valued at more than $500,000 | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 624 |
| October 24, 1943 | Shipyard of the Rockies is christened at 32nd and Walnut | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 598 |
| October 29, 1943 | Testimonial of appreciation to Delph Carpenter signed in Denver | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 527 |
| November 1, 1943 | Village post office established in Otero County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 147 |
| November 13, 1943 | Fall Creek post office discontinued in San Miguel County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 53 |
| November 15, 1943 | Cedar post office discontinued in San Miguel County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 31 |
| November 15, 1943 | Cross Mountain post office discontinued in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 40 |
| December 6, 1943 | U.S. Supreme Court gives an inconclusive decision in the suit Colorado filed in 1928 over the appropriation of Arkansas River water and suggests that Kansas and Colorado settle the controversy through a compact | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 130 |
| December 31, 1943 | Hilltop post office discontinued in Douglas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 73 |
| 1943 | During this calendar year 1,047,368,000 kilowatt hours of electricity were supplied to customers of all of Colorado's electric utilities; 305,514,000 were generated by water power the balance by fuel power | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 581 |
| December 31, 1943 | Denver annexes Mountain View Park (0.374 square miles) | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| 1944 | Boulder Mirror ceases publishing in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 12 |
| 1944 | Colorado Booster begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| 1944 | North Denver Courier begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|---|---|
| 1944 | South Side Observer begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| 1944 | Denver Times begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| 1944 | Public Opinion ceases publishing in Colorado Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 61 |
| 1944 | Progreso ceases publishing in Spanish in Trinidad | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 96 |
| 1944 | Corriere de Trinidad ceases publishing in Italian in Trinidad | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 97 |
| 1944 | Arriba Advocate ceases publishing in Arriba | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 98 |
| 1944 | Lamar Sparks ceases publishing in Lamar | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 119 |
| 1944 | By this date Colorado had 12 national forests totalling 13,641,288 acres, or one-fifth of the land area | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 518 |
| 1944 | There were 4,412 miles of main line track among 22 railroad and terminal companies operating in Colorado this year | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 572 |
| 1944 | There are 11 Church of the Brethren churches with 1,371 members in Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 220 |
| 1944 | There were 22 fatal mining accidents in Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 331 |
| 1944 | Chaffee County Poor Farm is used as the local Grange Hall until 1963 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 353 |
| 1944 | Koshare Indian Museum opens at 115 W. 18th Street in La Junta; designed by Nebraska architect Damon O. Runyon | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 392 |
| 1944 | Dove Creek takes the title of county seat away from Rico | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 592 |
| 1944 | Denver's Municipal Airport is renamed Stapleton Airport to honor longtime mayor Benjamin Stapleton | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 184 |
| 1944 | Western Air Lines, Inc. buys Inland Air Lines, Inc. | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| January 1, 1944 | As of this date there are 72 hydroelectric plants of 100 or more horsepower operating in Colorado; they produce 29% of all the electric energy for public use | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 532 |
| January 31, 1944 | Pawnee post office discontinued in Morgan County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 111 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|---|
| February 24, 1944 | Burlington Call ceases publishing in Burlington, merged with Burlington Record | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 84 |
| February 29, 1944 | Patt post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 111 |
| February 29, 1944 | Sugar Loaf post office discontinued in Boulder County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 137 |
| March 18, 1944 | Elk Springs post office discontinued in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 50 |
| April 15, 1944 | Fort Logan is made into a convalescent center for air force servicemen, the first contingent arriving on this date | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 598 |
| April 20, 1944 | Journal ceases publishing in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 12 |
| April 30, 1944 | Eggers post office discontinued in Larimer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 49 |
| May 29, 1944 | Daily Democrat ceases publishing in La Junta, merges with La Junta Tribune | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 111 |
| May 31, 1944 | La Junta Tribune ceases publishing in La Junta, continues as La Junta Tribune-Democrat | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 111 |
| June 1, 1944 | Rodolfo "Corky" Gonzales graduates from Manual High School in Denver | Rodolfo "Corky" Gonzales Papers, WH1971 finding aid, Denver Public Library, biographical note |
| June 1944 | The Army Chemical Warfare Service is moved from Marysville, California to the Rocky Mountain Arsenal | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 615 |
| June 1, 1944 | La Junta Tribune-Democrat begins publishing in La Junta | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 111 |
| June 6, 1944 | Allies invade continental Europe through France - D-Day | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| June 10, 1944 | The 13-mile long Colorado-Big Thompson water diversion tunnel holes through under the Continental Divide | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 125 |
| June 10, 1944 | The Alva B. Adams Diversion tunnel breaks through; the key to the Colorado-Big Thompson Project with a length of 13.2 miles | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| June 30, 1944 | Tolland post office discontinued in Gilpin County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 142 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|---|--|
| July 16, 1944 | Fire sweeps through the Tunnel of Love at Elitch Gardens in Denver killing six; four of those killed were soldiers and their wives, the other two were employees who tried to rescue the riders | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| July 16, 1944 | Fire at Elitch Gardens kills six at the Old Mill ride | Denver Post Magazine July 10, 1944, p. 1, 10, 11, 12 & 14 |
| July 20, 1944 | Times-Leader ceases publishing in Oak Creek | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 128 |
| August 25, 1944 | Denver Municipal Airport becomes Stapleton Airport in honor of mayor Benjamin Stapleton; became the first airport to receive the national security award | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 575 |
| August 25, 1944 | The Denver Municipal Airport becomes Stapleton Airfield | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| August 25, 1944 | The national security award is given to Stapleton Airfield, the first airport to be so honored | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| Fall 1944 | Camp Hale is closed and the buildings and equipment disposed of | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 595 |
| September 1944 | Fort Logan is designated a discharge center | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 598 |
| September 30, 1944 | Forder post office discontinued in Lincoln County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 56 |
| September 30, 1944 | Vim post office discontinued in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 147 |
| October 1944 | Westwood News begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| October 9, 1944 | Colorado Nail begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| November 1944 | Colorado Nail ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| November 14, 1944 | Braniff Airways, Inc. extends service to Memphis, Tennessee providing direct service from Denver | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| November 15, 1944 | The first shipment of 155 mm shells is made from the Denver Ordnance Plant | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 615 |
| November 27, 1944 | Denver annexes the area from Yale to the High Line Canal and from Marion to Dahlia Streets (0.408 square miles) | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| December 14, 1944 | Cheyenne Record ceases publishing in Cheyenne Wells | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 19 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|---|
| December 21, 1944 | Denver annexes area bounded by Mississippi Avenue, Zuni Street, Pecos Street, Sheridan Boulevard, Mexico Avenue, and Jewell Avenue, an area of 1.05 square miles | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| December 30, 1944 | Granada Pioneer publishes a list of over 600 Japanese-Americans from Amache serving in the U.S. armed forces | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 599 |
| 1945 | Surface Creek News begins publishing in Cedaredge | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 26 |
| 1945 | Park Hill Topics ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 48 |
| 1945 | Capital Hill News ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1945 | Colorado Booster ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| 1945 | North Denver Courier ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| 1945 | South Side Observer ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| 1945 | Ski-Hi News begins publishing in Granby | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 72 |
| 1945 | East Jefferson Sentinel ceases publishing in Edgewater | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 81 |
| 1945 | Outlook begins publishing in Golden | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 82 |
| 1945 | East Jefferson Sentinel begins publishing in Lakewood | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 82 |
| 1945 | Durango Herald ceases publishing in Durango | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 89 |
| 1945 | San Miguel County Journal ceases publishing in Telluride | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 133 |
| 1945 | Telluride Tribune begins publishing in Telluride | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 133 |
| 1945 | Proceeds from motor vehicle licenses issued during this year total $2,354,663 | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 567 |
| 1945 | Passenger cars registered in Colorado number 269,616 | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 567 |
| 1945 | Trucks registered in Colorado this year total 34,963 | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 567 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|--|
| 1945 | Passenger cars in Colorado number 311,490 this year; over 75,000 miles of state and county roads | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 567 and 569 |
| 1945 | By this year farm products produced in Colorado were valued at more than 12 times the amount produced in precious metals in the state | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 629 |
| 1945 | There are 84 Episcopalian churches with 19,661 members in Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 206 |
| 1945 | There are 73 Congregational Churches in Colorado with over 14,000 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 213 |
| 1945 | There are 12 Evangelical Lutheran Augustana Synod of North America churches in Colorado with 3,210 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 216 |
| 1945 | There are 27 "preaching stations" of the Wisconsin Synod with 725 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 216 |
| 1945 | The Community Chest has 55 members in this year | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 364 |
| 1945 | Latin-American Service Club is formed in Rocky Ford to improve the social, economic, and cultural status of minority groups; other groups are formed in Alamosa, Greeley, Monte Vista, Montrose, Pueblo, Salida, San Luis, Trinidad and Walsenburg | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 365 |
| 1945 | Again the Colorado General Assembly changes the name from Adams State Teachers College of Southern Colorado to Adams State College of Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 475 |
| 1945 | The Heiser Company is sold to Denver Dry Goods, but operates separately from the company's own harness and saddle shop | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 605 |
| 1945 | The Miller House is built at 2319 21st Avenue; designed by J. Palmer Boggs for David and Lydia Alles Miller | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 245 |
| 1945 | Northeastern Junior College acquires its first building when it buys the Logan County Poor House in Sterling for a library; the building is now used for offices | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 258 |
| 1945 | Edna Coal Mine opens in Routt County the oldest strip mine in Colorado | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 528 |
| 1945 | Denverite Mary Coyle Chase is awarded the Pulitzer Prize for drama for her comedy Harvey | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 94 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|--|--|
| 1945 | The Colorado Springs Tent Camp is established between the eastern edge of Colorado Springs and Peterson Field; it is called Ent Air Force Base beginning in 1949 | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| 1945 | Construction on an addition to the U.S. Mint begins in Denver | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| 1945 | State Highway Department makes an appropriation of $2,041,034 for the first section of the Valley Highway - a limited access north-south highway bisecting Denver | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| unknown | Gary post office established in Mesa County, formerly named Gilsonite Rural Branch (of Fruita) Gary-Western refinery west of Fruita | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 60 |
| January 1945 | Junior College of Northeastern Colorado becomes a state supported institution and the name is changed to Sterling Junior College | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 483 |
| January 12, 1945 | John Charles Vivian is sworn in as Colorado's 30th governor | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| March 1945 | Cheyenne Wells Record begins publishing in Cheyenne Wells | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 19 |
| April 27, 1945 | Fort Collins Express-Courier ceases publishing in Fort Collins, continues as Fort Collins Coloradoan | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 92 |
| April 29, 1945 | Fort Collins Coloradoan begins publishing in Fort Collins | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 92 |
| April 30, 1945 | Critchell post office discontinued in Jefferson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 40 |
| May 6, 1945 | Germany surrenders unconditionally (Denver time) | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| May 7, 1945 | The full, final, formal surrender of Germany occurs | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 589 |
| May 8, 1945 | War in Europe ends when the Greater German Empire surrenders | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| May 8, 1945 | V-E Day (victory in Europe) is celebrated | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| June 25, 1945 | Fire burns a section of the Rocky Mountain Arsenal northeast of Denver | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| June 30, 1945 | Skyway post office discontinued in Mesa County, post office at Mesa Lakes Resort | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 133 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|---|---|
| July 1945 | Trans-World Airline opens an office in Denver (formerly Transcontinental and Western Air, Inc.) | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| July 1, 1945 | The Colorado Press Association moves its business office from Boulder to the campus of the University of Denver | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 278 |
| July 12, 1945 | Notice is given that the Granada Center will close October 15, 1945 | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 600 |
| July 16, 1945 | First atomic explosion is triggered in the New Mexico desert | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| July 23, 1945 | The Rocky Mountain News managing editor Edwin D. Minteer leaves to become executive editor of the Albuquerque Journal | The First Hundred Years by Robert L. Perkin, p. 568 |
| August 6, 1945 | First atomic bomb used in warfare is dropped by the U.S. on Hiroshima, Japan | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 13 |
| August 14, 1945 | Surrender of Japan is announced by President Truman | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 589 |
| August 14, 1945 | Japan surrenders unconditionally ending World War II | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 14 |
| August 31, 1945 | After over three years of operation the Continental-Denver Modification Center closes having modified 2,506 aircraft, most of them B-17 and B-29 bombers | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 617 |
| September 2, 1945 | World War II formally ends when the Empire of Japan surrenders | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| September 2, 1945 | V-J Day (victory over Japan) is celebrated | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 14 |
| September 10, 1945 | Mike the Headless Chicken remains alive after his Fruita owner chops his head off; he remains alive for 18 months | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| September 15, 1945 | Granada Pioneer ceases publishing in Amache | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 118 |
| September 15, 1945 | Final edition of the Granada Pioneer is published with these statistics: 7,567 was peak population (October 1942); 10,324 people processed; 408 births; 105 deaths | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 600 |
| September 19, 1945 | A developmental FM radio station W9XLA is licensed in Denver to KLZ to broadcast at 43.5 megacycles | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 14 |
| September 20, 1945 | Cervi's News Service begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|--|
| November 1945 | Pan-American News begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| November 1945 | Rangely News begins publishing in Rangely | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 126 |
| November 8, 1945 | Wellington Sun ceases publishing in Wellington, continues as Larimer County Sun | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 94 |
| November 15, 1945 | Larimer County Sun begins publishing in Wellington | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 94 |
| November 19, 1945 | President Truman in a special message to Congress asks for legislation for a national health program | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 406 |
| December 14, 1945 | Fire destroys the Hotel Glenwood in Glenwood Springs; the four-story building was gutted | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| December 14, 1945 | Governor John Vivian signs into law a measure creating the Colorado Aeronautics Commission | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 577 |
| December 31, 1945 | Denver annexes the area from Franklin to Steele Streets and from Yale to Dartmouth making the total area of Denver 61.937 square miles | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 14 |
| 1941-1946 | During World War II 138,832 men from Colorado served in the military; one out of eight residents | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 589 |
| 1946 | Walsh Enterprise begins publishing in Walsh | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 8 |
| 1946 | Kit Carson Press begins publishing in Kit Carson | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 19 |
| 1946 | Heraldo Del Valle ceases publishing in Spanish in San Luis continues as Valley Herald in English in San Luis | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 23 |
| 1946 | Valley Herald begins publishing in San Luis | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 24 |
| 1946 | Lake City Tribune begins publishing in Lake City | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 78 |
| 1946 | Crow Valley News ceases publishing in Briggsdale | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 142 |
| 1946 | Denver's airport facilities are now valued at $5 million boasting four runways, the longest 7,200 feet long | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 575 |
| 1946 | Mother Frances Xavier Cabrini is made a saint by the Roman Catholic Church; she had founded the Queen of Heaven Orphanage in Denver | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 111 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|---|
| 1946 | There were three "Negro newspapers" in Colorado, the Colorado Statesman , and Star in Denver and the Western Ideal in Pueblo, all weeklies | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 119-120 |
| 1946 | Colorado has 210 Methodist Episcopal churches with 56,106 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 204 |
| 1946 | There are 108 Baptist Churches in Colorado with 30,548 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 208 |
| 1946 | There are 125 Presbyterian churches in Colorado with about 30,000 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 209 |
| 1946 | There are 11 United Presbyterian Churches in Colorado with 2,781 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 209 |
| 1946 | There are 171,033 Roman Catholic church members in Colorado; 2 colleges, 23 high schools, 56 elementary schools, 6 orphanages, 3 homes and 17 hospitals | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 210 |
| 1946 | Colorado is a separate Catholic archdiocese with an archbishop, a bishop and 330 priests in 118 parishes, and dioceses located in Denver and Pueblo | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 210 |
| 1946 | There are 171,033 Catholic church members in Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 212 |
| 1946 | There are 54 Church of Christ churches in Colorado with about 2,500 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 214 |
| 1946 | Evangelical and Reformed Church merges with United Brethren to form the Evangelical United Brethren Church | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 214 |
| 1946 | The first Evangelical United Brethren Church in Colorado is a mission in Pueblo | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 214 |
| 1946 | The Evangelical United Brethren Church counts 49 churches in Colorado with 6,150 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 215 |
| 1946 | There are 77 Lutheran churches - Missouri Synod - in Colorado with 8,140 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 215 |
| 1946 | There are 20 American Lutheran Churches in Colorado with 2,715 confirmed members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 215 |
| 1946 | The Seventh Day Adventists have 63 churches and 4,790 members in Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 216 |
| 1946 | There are 68 Church of the Nazarene congregations in Colorado with 3,3268 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 217 |
| 1946 | The Church of God has 25 churches in Colorado with 1,317 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 217 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|---|---|
| 1946 | There are 22 International Church of the Four Square Gospel congregations in Colorado with 1,000+ members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 217 |
| 1946 | There are 12,176 Negroes in Colorado, and 51 Negro churches with 8,677 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 221-222 |
| 1946 | Fox Aurora Theater is built at 9900 E. Colfax Avenue | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 138 |
| 1946 | Following Charles Taylor's death his 50-foot high water wheel is moved to its present site on Clear Creek as an ornament and tourist attraction for Idaho Springs | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 209 |
| 1946 | Nathrop Schoolhouse closes and becomes the community center | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 354 |
| 1946 | An addition is made to the Columbian School in Las Animas at 1026 W. 6th Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 388 |
| 1946 | Mineral County Courthouse in Creede burns | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 435 |
| 1946 | Dinosaur is founded as Artesia in Moffat County until 1966 when the name is changed to promote tourist traffic bound for nearby Dinosaur National Monument | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 518 |
| 1946 | The Red Comet Fire Extinguisher Company suffers one of Littleton's worst fires and urges the town to establish a professional fire department, which it does in 1960 | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 130 |
| 1946 | The only television station in the Rocky Mountain area is an experimental station that is part of KDYL in Salt Lake City, 6X1S | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 14 |
| 1946 | There are 44 commercial airline flights leaving Denver daily | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 14 |
| January 1946 | A $15,000,000 building program is announced by the University of Denver | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 14 |
| January 31, 1946 | Del Rio post office discontinued in Conejos County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 43 |
| 1946 | Palmer Hoyt is named editor of the Denver Post replacing William Shepherd | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 106 |
| February 1946 | Mountaineer begins publishing in Evergreen | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 81 |
| February 1946 | Palmer Hoyt is named editor and publisher of the Denver Post , coming to Denver from Oregon where he edited the Portland Oregonian after serving in the Office of War Information during World War II | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 273 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|---|
| February 4, 1946 | Colorado Springs Gazette ceases publishing in Colorado Springs, continues as Colorado Springs Gazette-Telegraph | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 58 |
| February 4, 1946 | Evening Telegraph ceases publishing in Colorado Springs, merges with Colorado Springs Gazette | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 61 |
| February 5, 1946 | Colorado Springs Gazette-Telegraph begins publishing in Colorado Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 61 |
| February 21, 1946 | U.S. Government acquires active jurisdiction over the Ordnance Plant, now known as the Federal Center | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 14 |
| February 23, 1946 | General John Curry was appointed first state Director of Aeronautics | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 577 |
| March 20, 1946 | Artesia post office established in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 14 |
| March 24, 1946 | Challenge begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| March 26, 1946 | Farr post office discontinued in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 53 |
| March 31, 1946 | Home post office discontinued in Larimer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 74 |
| April 1, 1946 | Western Air Lines, Inc. begins direct Denver to Los Angeles air service including non-stop flights | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 14 |
| April 4, 1946 | Boulder Sentinel begins publishing in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 12 |
| April 18, 1946 | Boulder Sentinel ceases publishing in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 12 |
| April 25, 1946 | Cornerstone for the Mason Activities Building and the Pulliam Dormitory are laid on the Colorado Woman's College campus | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 482 |
| May 1, 1946 | As of this date there are 25 daily and 154 weekly papers in the state of Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 278 |
| May 6, 1946 | Prowers and Baca County voters form a junior college district consisting of the two counties; with the opening of the fall term the school becomes known as Baca-Prowers Junior College | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 482 |
| May 29, 1946 | Contract for construction of the Granby Dam is awarded | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 525 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|--|--|
| June 30, 1946 | Slick Rock post office discontinued in San Miguel County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 133 |
| July 1946 | Construction begins on Cherry Creek Dam & Reservoir; designed to give Denver complete flood protection and store water for irrigation and other uses; earthen dam to be constructed by the Army Engineers at a cost of about $18,000,000 with a length of 14,000 feet and a height of 140 feet; located on Cherry Creek 6 miles southeast of Denver | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 14 |
| August 7, 1946 | College View post office established in Arapahoe County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 36 |
| August 29, 1946 | The Jacobson Building is destroyed by fire; built in 1881 at 16th & Arapahoe Streets | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 14 |
| August 31, 1946 | Northdale post office discontinued in Dolores County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 106 |
| September 1946 | In the preceeding year over 258 million gallons of gasoline were consumed in Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 570 |
| September 30, 1946 | Juniper Springs post office discontinued in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 81 |
| October 1946 | There are 77 airports in Colorado, 26 municipal and 32 commercial, 6 military and 2 intermediate | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 575 |
| October 1946 | There are about 900 private aircraft in Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 577 |
| October 15, 1946 | There are 14 interstate commercial airlines operating in Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 575 |
| November 26, 1946 | Riland post office discontinued in Garfield County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 122 |
| November 27, 1946 | Fires in the Fort Collins business district overcome 15 firefighters | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| December 14, 1946 | Ajax Mountain Ski Area opens in Aspen with the longest chairlift in the world | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| 1947 | Aurora Advocate begins publishing | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 1 |
| 1947 | Westminster Journal begins publishing in Westminster | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 2 |
| 1947 | Colorado Herold (weekly) ceases publishing in German in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 43 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|--|
| 1947 | South Denver Standard ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 46 |
| 1947 | Westwood News ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| 1947 | Denver Times ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| 1947 | Rocky Ford Tribune ceases publishing in Rocky Ford | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 112 |
| 1947 | Rangely Driller begins publishing in Rangely | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 126 |
| 1947 | La Salle Record ceases publishing in La Salle | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 146 |
| 1947 | La Salle Leader begins publishing in La Salle | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 146 |
| 1947 | There are 67 Disciples of Christ Churches in Colorado with 15,406 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 213 |
| 1947 | The Pillar of Fire [formerly Pentecostal Union] has 14 churches and two missions in Colorado | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 218 |
| 1947 | There are 450 families in the Greek Orthodox church in Denver | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 219 |
| 1947 | There are 27 Mormon Units with 6,945 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 222 |
| 1947 | Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in Denver has 680 members | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 222 |
| 1947 | There are 15 Jewish synagogues in Colorado with about 20,000 members listed | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 223 |
| 1947 | Colorado has 12,400 miles of highways in the state system and 62,600 county and local roads of all kinds | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 537 |
| 1947 | Colorado has 774,000 miles of telephone wires in the state, and 29,500 miles of telegraph lines | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 537 |
| 1947 | A major legislative program is undertaken for schools with $2,150 as county tax replacement and $6 million in general state support | Mary Fretch, state editor, Chronology and Documentary Handbook of the State of Colorado, 1973, p. 15 |
| 1947 | Modifications are made to the Colorado State College of Education Greeley campus Faculty Club House | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 246 |
| 1947 | Dexter Cabin moved to 110 W. 3rd Street in Leadville and made into a museum | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 361 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|---|---|
| 1947 | Creede Consolidated School No. 1 Complex as designed by Jerry Crawford opens at 210-408 La Garita Avenue in Creede including the high school and library | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 433 |
| 1947 | Old Ladore School in Brown's Park a mile and a half west of Colorado 318 beside the Green River is abandoned as a school; later used as a community center | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 518 |
| 1947 | Denver & Rio Grande acquires the Denver & Salt Lake Depot in Hayden at 300 W. Pearl Street and operate it until 1971 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 528 |
| 1947 | Mother Buchanan's Bath House at 625 5th Street in Ouray becomes the Wiesbaden Hot Springs Spa and Lodge | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 573 |
| 1947 | Ohio Blue Tip Match Company opens five miles west of Mancos on US 160 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 598 |
| 1947 | Quigg Newton is elected Mayor of Denver replacing Benjamin F. Stapleton, mayor since the 1920s with one four-year gap between 1931 and 1935 | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 107 |
| 1947 | Denver radio station KLZ-FM begins broadcasting on the new higher quality frequency at 106.7 MHz | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| 1947 | The Masonic Hall at 1361 11th Street is the oldest building still standing in Denver | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 8 |
| 1947 | State Historical Society housed at E. 14th Avenue and Sherman | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 9 |
| 1947 | Rodolfo "Corky" Gonzales becomes a professional boxer after three years as an amateur; he fights 75 times as a featherweight with 65 wins 9 losses and 1 draw and was ranked number three by Ring Magazine | Rodolfo "Corky" Gonzales Papers, WH1971 finding aid, Denver Public Library, biographical note |
| 1947-1955 | Mayor Quigg Newton modernizes Denver; his traffic director, Henry Barnes, initiates one-way streets and diagonal pedestrian crossing termed the "Barnes Dance" | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xv |
| January 1, 1947 | Denver annexes area from Jewell to Yale Avenue and from Lowell to Federal Boulevard an area of 0.5 square miles | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 14 |
| January 3, 1947 | Eastern Colorado Leader ceases publishing in Limon, continues as Limon Leader | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 99 |
| January 10, 1947 | Limon Leader begins publishing in Limon | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 99 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|--|--|
| January 14, 1947 | William Lee Knous takes the oath as the 31st Governor of Colorado | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| January 16, 1947 | Lute Wilcox, editor and publisher of Field and Farm for many years, dies at the age of 90 | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 275 |
| January 28, 1947 | The cornerstone of the old City Hall at 14th and Larimer is opened and the contents of the lead box inside are examined; the box was sealed in 1881 by the contractors McPhee and McGinnity Construction; contained: newspapers, photographs, souvenir booklets, telephone directory, papers, pamphlets and coins. and other items | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 14 |
| January 31, 1947 | Rugby post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 125 |
| February 3, 1947 | Free Press begins publishing in Colorado Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 62 |
| March 27, 1947 | Poudre Valley ceases publishing in Windsor, continues as Windsor Beacon | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 147 |
| March 27, 1947 | Westwood is taken into the City and County of Denver at 3:10 p.m. | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 14 |
| March 28, 1947 | Unione ceases publishing in Italian in Pueblo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 124 |
| March 31, 1947 | Pagoda post office discontinued in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 109 |
| April 3, 1947 | Windsor Beacon begins publishing in Windsor | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 147 |
| April 10, 1945 | State Highway Courtesy Patrol becomes the Colorado State Patrol | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 1, p. 571 |
| May 1, 1947 | Boulder County Miner and Farmer ceases publishing, continued as Boulder County Journal in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 11 |
| May 8, 1947 | Boulder County Journal begins publishing in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 12 |
| May 31, 1947 | A natural gas explosion destroys a Denver apartment building at 35 West Dakota Avenue killing three | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| July 4, 1947 | East Drive-in Theater opens at 12800 E. Colfax Avenue, Colorado's first drive-in | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 138 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|--|--|
| July 17, 1947 | Tragedy is averted when Denver firefighters help control a fire at Rocky Flats that was threatening chlorine gas storage tanks near a powerhouse | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| August 6, 1947 | Swallows post office discontinued in Pueblo County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 138 |
| September 13, 1947 | Colorado Rancher and Farmer begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| September 17, 1947 | Challenge ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| September 18, 1947 | Cervi's News Service ceases publishing in Denver, continued as Cervi's News Letter | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| September 25, 1947 | Cervi's News Letter begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| October 1947 | Westwood-Barnum Tribune begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| circa 1947 | Valentine Diner is delivered to 9842 E. Colfax Avenue in Aurora already assembled as an enameled steel diner | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 137 |
| October 16, 1947 | Bears Stadium announced in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| November 14, 1947 | American Commentator begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| November 25, 1947 | Summitville post office discontinued in Rio Grande County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 137 |
| November 30, 1947 | Abarr post office discontinued in Yuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 9 |
| December 15, 1947 | Mineral Hot Springs post office discontinued in Saguache County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 98 |
| December 31, 1947 | Mountaineer ceases publishing in Evergreen | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 81 |
| December 31, 1947 | Edler post office discontinued in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 49 |
| 1948 | New News begins publishing in Littleton | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 6 |
| 1948 | Walsh Enterprise ceases publishing in Walsh | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 8 |
| 1948 | Topic begins publishing in Walsh | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 9 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|---|
| 1948 | Costilla County Free Press begins publishing in San Luis | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 24 |
| 1948 | Highland Chief ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 38 |
| 1948 | Denver Civic News ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1948 | American Commentator ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| 1948 | Lake City Tribune ceases publishing in Lake City | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 78 |
| 1948 | Larimer County Sun ceases publishing in Wellington | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 94 |
| 1948 | Bears Stadium is completed between W. 17th and 20th avenues and Elliot and Bryant Streets just east of Federal Boulevard the home of the minor league Denver Bears baseball team; designed by Stanley E. Morse; later the home of the Denver Broncos | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 102 |
| 1948 | The Benedict House at 6138 S. Gallup Street in Littleton is taken over by an order of Catholic nuns when Jacques Benedict passes away; now the Carmelite Convent | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 127 |
| 1948 | Katherine Ramus takes over the Blue Jay Inn and operates it as a summer resort | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 167 |
| 1948 | St. Anthony's Catholic Church opens in Julesburg at 606 West 3rd Street; designed by John K. Monroe | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 261 |
| 1948 | Spaid Motor Company at 900 Main Street in Limon is remodeled; later converted to retail space | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 270 |
| 1948 | Charles Boettcher builds an Ideal Cement Plant in Fremont County at a cost of $10 million | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 348 |
| 1948 | Fort Garland Museum opens when the fort is reconstructed after the site was acquired in 1945 by the Colorado Historical Society | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 415 |
| 1948 | American Legion Post takes over the Western Federation of Miners Union Hall in Silverton at 1069 Greene Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 564 |
| 1948 | Mile High Kennel Club opens in what will become Commerce City; operates until 2008 | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 125 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|---|
| January 1948 | Upstart begins publishing in Aurora | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 1 |
| January 1, 1948 | Grant post office established in Park County, formerly named Olava | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 65 |
| January 1, 1948 | Olava post office discontinued in Park County, name changed to Grant | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 107 |
| February 29, 1948 | Dotsero post office discontinued in Eagle County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 46 |
| March 5, 1948 | A prisoner is released from Canon City and receives $10,000 payable on his release from his production of goods and materials while incarcerated | Colorado and Its People , ed. LeRoy R. Hafen, vol. 2, p. 613 |
| March 31, 1948 | McPhee post office discontinued in Montezuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 97 |
| March 31, 1948 | College View post office discontinued in Arapahoe County, established as a rural station of Denver | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 36 |
| April 8, 1948 | Daniels post office established in Jefferson County as a rural branch of Golden | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 42 |
| May 31, 1948 | Salida Daily Mail ceases publishing in Salida, continues as Salida Mail-Record | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 18 |
| June 1, 1948 | Salida Mail-Record begins publishing in Salida | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 18 |
| June 18, 1948 | Rangely News ceases publishing in Rangely | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 126 |
| June 24, 1948 | Wray Rattler ceases publishing in Wray | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 148 |
| June 24, 1948 | An Air Force training facility in Aurora is designated Lowry Air Force Base | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| July 1, 1948 | Fruitvale post office established in Mesa County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 59 |
| July 16, 1948 | Elk Springs post office established in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 50 |
| July 31, 1948 | Galatea post office discontinued in Kiowa County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 59 |
| August 1948 | Construction begins on the Valley Highway in Denver; it will become part of I-25 | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|---|--|
| August 1, 1948 | A four alarm fire hits the Ace Box Company at 2950 Platte River Drive | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| August 24, 1948 | Bears Stadium dedicated in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| September 30, 1948 | Baldwin (II) post office discontinued in Gunnison County, name changed and site moved from Mount Carbon | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 16 |
| October 8, 1948 | Colorado Journal begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| 1949 | Upstart ceases publishing in Aurora | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 1 |
| 1949 | New News ceases publishing in Littleton | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 6 |
| 1949 | Colorado Journal ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| 1949 | Colorado Herald begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| 1949 | Pike View Farmer begins publishing in Simla | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 56 |
| 1949 | Fountain Herald ceases publishing in Fountain | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 62 |
| 1949 | East Jefferson Photo-News begins publishing in Lakewood | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 82 |
| 1949 | Jefferson Record begins publishing in Lakewood | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 82 |
| 1949 | Long View begins publishing in Fort Collins | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 92 |
| 1949 | Granada Journal ceases publishing in Granada | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 119 |
| 1949 | Public Times ceases publishing in Pueblo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 126 |
| 1949 | Woodland Park View begins publishing in Woodland Park | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 140 |
| 1949 | Erie Herald ceases publishing in Erie | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 142 |
| 1949 | Milliken Mail ceases publishing in Milliken | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 146 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-----------------|---|--|
| 1949 | Colorado and Arkansas River compacts with neighboring states ratified making coordinated conservation and water use planning possible | Mary Fretch, state editor, Chronology and Documentary Handbook of the State of Colorado, 1973, p. 15 |
| 1949 | Denver University Business School is completed at 1445 Cleveland Place; later used as City Hall Annex No. 1 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 48 |
| 1949 | A junior high school is constructed near the Pleasant DeSpain School at 7200 Lowell Boulevard in Westminster | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 123 |
| 1949 | Arapahoe Acres is begun as a 100-house development in Englewood; designed by Eugene Sternberg between Dartmouth and Bates Avenues and Merion and Franklin Streets | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 129 |
| 1949 | Colorado Midland Terminal Railroad goes out of business | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 304 |
| 1949 | Train service to Cripple Creek's Midland Terminal ends | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 330 |
| 1949 | Midland Terminal Railroad Depot closes at 230 N. 4th Street in Victor when passenger service ends | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 337 |
| 1949 | Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints opens a church at 716 Broadway in La Jara | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 423 |
| 1949 | Crestone School closes and becomes a community building for political, social and religious gatherings | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 442 |
| 1949 | An addition is made to the 1886 First Presbyterian Church of Glenwood Springs | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 482 |
| 1949 | Aspen Institute originates with a Goethe Festival | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 488 |
| 1949 | A Quonset hut is used as a high school gymnasium in Telluride; now used as a community center | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 589 |
| 1949 | The Denver Art Museum finds a permanent home by remodeling old buildings between Acoma and Bannock Streets on W. 14th Ave near Civic Center Park | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 112 |
| 1949 | Construction begins on the Pueblo Freeway; it will become part of I-25 | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| circa 1949 | Elbert County Bank is converted to a garage after the bank closes when J.E. Mayer retires | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 275 |
| January 3, 1949 | Wayne N. Aspinall of Palisade takes his seat in the U.S. House of Representatives representing Colorado's 4th District; he will serve for 24 years | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| January 5, 1949 | Jefferson County Republican ceases publishing in Golden | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 82 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|---|
| January 5, 1949 | East Jefferson Sentinel ceases publishing in Lakewood | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 82 |
| January 12, 1949 | Jefferson Sentinel begins publishing in Lakewood | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 82 |
| January 20, 1949 | Lascar post office discontinued in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 86 |
| January 31, 1949 | Woodmen post office discontinued in El Paso County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 154 |
| 1949 | Rodolfo "Corky" Gonzales marries Geraldine Romero in Denver | Rodolfo "Corky" Gonzales Papers, WH1971 finding aid, Denver Public Library, biographical note |
| February 1949 | Arkansas Valley Journal begins publishing in La Junta | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 111 |
| February 15, 1949 | Brook Forest post office discontinued in Jefferson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 24 |
| February 15, 1949 | Westplains post office discontinued in Logan County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 151 |
| February 17, 1949 | East Denver Journal begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| April 1, 1949 | Yampa Valley Flashes begins publishing in Craig | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 106 |
| April 15, 1949 | Pinnacle post office discontinued in Bent County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 113 |
| May 1, 1949 | Whitepine post office established in Gunnison County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 151 |
| May 31, 1949 | Emma post office discontinued in Pitkin County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 51 |
| July 21, 1949 | Royal Gorge post office established in Fremont County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 124 |
| July 28, 1949 | Elk Mountain Pilot ceases publishing in Crested Butte | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 73 |
| August 4, 1949 | Hideaway Park post office established in Grand County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 72 |
| September 1, 1949 | Blue Mountain post office established in Moffat County, moved from Skull Creek | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 21 |
| September 1, 1949 | Skull Creek post office discontinued in Moffat County, moved to Blue Mountain | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 132 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|--|--|
| September 6, 1949 | Butte Valley (II) post office discontinued in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 27 |
| September 15, 1949 | Cervi's News Letter ceases publishing in Denver, continued as Cervi's Rocky Mountain Journal | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| September 15, 1949 | Adena post office discontinued in Morgan County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 9 |
| September 22, 1949 | Cervi's Rocky Mountain Journal begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| September 29, 1949 | Calhan News ceases publishing in Calhan | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 56 |
| September 30, 1949 | Tercio post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 140 |
| October 1949 | Peetz Gazette ceases publishing in Peetz | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 100 |
| November 30, 1949 | Tungsten post office discontinued in Boulder County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 143 |
| 1895 | Original Holy Family Church replaced in Fort Garland | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 415 |
| 1950 | Westwood-Barnum Tribune ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| 1950 | Douglas County News begins publishing in Castle Rock | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 53 |
| 1950 | Rainbelt Echo begins publishing in Elizabeth | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 56 |
| 1950 | Simla Sun ceases publishing in Simla | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 56 |
| 1950 | Canon City Sun begins publishing in Canon City | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 65 |
| 1950 | Western Colorado Farm and Ranch Reporter begins publishing in Rifle | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 69 |
| 1950 | Mountain News begins publishing in Evergreen | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 81 |
| 1950 | Western Colorado Reporter begins publishing in Grand Junction | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 104 |
| 1950 | Colorado's population is 1,325,089 | Mary Fretch, state editor, Chronology and Documentary Handbook of the State of Colorado, 1973, p. 15 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------|--|---|
| 1950 | American Woodman Building completed at 2100 Downing Street; designed by Gordon D. White to house the fraternal African American insurance society in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 84 |
| 1950 | The Ketring House in built at 6028 S. Gallup in Littleton the core structure of the Littleton Historical Museum | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 127 |
| 1950 | Greenwood Village is established on the south side of Cherry Hills | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 131 |
| 1950 | The Hoffman Heights subdivision opens between E. 6th and 13th Avenues and Peoria and Potomac Streets in Aurora; the 1700 homes were sold for about $10,000 each | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 137 |
| 1950 | Melvin school building is moved from Melvin and placed on Parker Road near Quincy Avenue where it becomes the Emerald Isle Tavern | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 140 |
| 1950 | Ethel and Norman Meyer buy the Midway House and ranch and restore it into a spectacular ranch house later purchased by Jefferson County Open Space | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 163 |
| 1950 | Population of Fort Collins is 14,937 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 224 |
| 1950 | Berthoud Pass Inn is completed atop the pass | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 450 |
| 1950 | Bayer House is built in Aspen at 240 Lake Avenue | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 493 |
| 1950 | Winfield Morton of Dallas buys the Grand Imperial Hotel at 1219 Greene Street in Silverton for $60,000 and converts its 56 rooms in 42 all with baths | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 564 |
| 1950 | Ouray City Hall burns; rebuilt in stucco | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 572 |
| 1950 | Fort Logan National Cemetery is established resurrecting the aging army post | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 103 |
| 1950 | Cookie, the first elephant at the Denver Zoo, arrives and becomes a star of the zoo | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 113 |
| 1950 | Cherry Creek dam built to control the floodwaters of Cherry Creek which flooded in 1864, 1875, 1878 and 1912 | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 187 |
| 1950s | The Cushman Block in Georgetown at 500 6th Street is converted to the Silver Queen restaurant, saloon, and beer cellar and the Clear Creek National Bank | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 203 |
| 1950s | El Pueblo Museum opens at 324 W. 1st Street in Pueblo | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 315 |
| circa 1950 | San Francisco Catholic Church opens in the community of San Francisco in Costilla County | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 416 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|--|
| circa 1950 | St. Agnes Catholic Church opens at Gunnison Avenue and 6th Street in Saguache | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 438 |
| January 17, 1950 | A wildfire flashes across Camp Carson near Colorado Springs killing 8 soldiers and a teenaged volunteer fighting the fire which started near the Broadmoor Hotel | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| January 19, 1950 | Fort Morgan Herald ceases publishing in Fort Morgan, continues as Morgan County Herald (Fort Morgan) | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 109 |
| January 23, 1950 | Razing of Denver's Old City Hall to be Started This Week; demolition began in 1947; part of the building left to house engine 6 | Denver Post January 23, 1950, 1881 City Hall Clipping file |
| January 26, 1950 | Morgan County Herald begins publishing in Fort Morgan | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 109 |
| February 13, 1950 | Aspen hosts the FIS Alpine World Ski Championships at Ajax Mountain Ski Resort; these are the first World Ski Championships held outside Europe | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| February 25, 1950 | Omaha-Grant Smelter smoke stack demolished | Denver Post and Rocky Mountain News , digitized photos |
| March 17, 1950 | Rocky Ford Enterprise ceases publishing in Rocky Ford | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 112 |
| April 1, 1950 | Colorado's population increases 17.96 percent since the 1940 census with 1,325,089 recorded in this enumeration | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| April 15, 1950 | Lieutenant Governor Walter Johnson is sworn in as Colorado's 32nd governor when Governor Bill Knous resigns to serve as a federal judge | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| May 31, 1950 | Wages post office discontinued in Yuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 148 |
| June 1, 1950 | Villagrove post office discontinued in Saguache County, renamed Villa Grove. | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 147 |
| June 3, 1950 | Denver's last streetcar runs its route, replaced by rubber tired gasoline engine buses | The First Hundred Years by Robert L. Perkin, p. 592 |
| June 3, 1950 | Denver's last streetcar is run on this date abandoning rails for a bus system | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 183 |
| June 20, 1950 | Denver firefighters rescue James Sisler who slipped off a small bridge into black muck | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| June 23, 1950 | Boulder Forum begins publishing in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 12 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-----------------|---|--|
| July 1, 1950 | Black Hawk post office established in Gilpin County, spelling changed back to Black Hawk after using Blackhawk for about 55 years | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 21 |
| July 1, 1950 | Blackhawk post office discontinued in Gilpin County, returned to the spelling Black Hawk | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 21 |
| July 1, 1950 | Rioblanco post office discontinued in Rio Blanco County, spelling changed to Rio Blanco | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 122 |
| July 1, 1950 | Rio Blanco post office established in Rio Blanco County, formerly spelled Rioblanco | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 122 |
| July 1, 1950 | Villa Grove post office established in Saguache County, spelling changed back to Villa Grove | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 147 |
| July 27, 1950 | Ovid Record ceases publishing in Ovid | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 134 |
| July 27, 1950 | Sedgwick Independent ceases publishing in Sedgwick | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 134 |
| August 1, 1950 | Morrison post office established in Jefferson County and renamed Mount Morrison | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 101 |
| August 1, 1950 | Mount Morrison post office discontinued in Jefferson County, name changed back to Morrison. | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 102 |
| August 3, 1950 | Platte Valley News begins publishing in Ovid | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 134 |
| August 3, 1950 | President Truman signs an Act of Congress abolishing Wheeler National Monument which reverts to the Rio Grande National Forest and is now part of the La Garita Wilderness Area | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| August 24, 1950 | Fruitvale post office discontinued in Mesa County, established a a rural station of Grand Junction | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 59 |
| August 24, 1950 | Sams post office discontinued in San Miguel County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 127 |
| August 26, 1950 | Fire sweeps through a hotel at 17th and Market in Denver killing three and injuring nine others | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| October 1, 1950 | Deer Trail post office re-established in Arapahoe County with original spelling | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 43 |
| October 1, 1950 | Deertrail post office discontinued in Arapahoe County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 43 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|--|
| October 15, 1950 | Boulder Forum ceases publishing in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 12 |
| October 31, 1950 | Dyke post office discontinued in Archuleta County, moved to Chimney Rock | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 48 |
| November 1, 1950 | Chimney Rock post office established in Archuleta County, moved from Dyke, | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 33 |
| December 28, 1950 | Alamosa Sun begins publishing in Alamosa | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 3 |
| December 28, 1950 | Ground is broken for the Denver Chamber of Commerce building at 1301 Glenarm | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| 1951 | Neighborhood News-Digest ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1951 | Pan-American News ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| 1951 | Colorado Herald ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| 1951 | Clarion ceases publishing in Walsenburg | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 80 |
| 1951 | East Jefferson Photo-News ceases publishing in Lakewood | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 82 |
| 1951 | Pueblo Indicator ceases publishing in Pueblo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 125 |
| 1951 | Hudson News ceases publishing in Hudson | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 145 |
| 1951 | Leadville builds a city-wide sewer system | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 361 |
| 1951 | A visitors center is erected in Alamosa at the north end of Hunt Street in Cole Park; a replica of the Denver & Rio Grande depot that burned in 1907 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 407 |
| 1951 | Lake Granby Pumping Plant built to pump water up to the Shadow Mountain Reservoir | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 453 |
| 1951 | Merchants Park Shopping Center opens on South Broadway and West Exposition one of the cities first shopping areas outside of the downtown area | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 110 |
| January 3, 1951 | Byron G. Rogers is sworn in as the representative of Colorado's first congressional district; he will serve in the House of Representatives for 20 years | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|--|
| January 9, 1951 | Dan Thornton takes the oath as the 33rd Governor of Colorado | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| February 17, 1951 | A fire and explosion rock the Denver Athletic Club at 14th and Glenarm claiming four lives | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| February 18, 1951 | Fire in the furnace room of Wolfhurst Saddle Club kills a dishwasher, Tami Kaku, and a cook, Robert Snell | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| February 28, 1951 | Rago post office discontinued in Washington County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 118 |
| March 31, 1951 | Ute post office discontinued in Montrose County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 145 |
| April 1951 | Fruita Times ceases publishing in Fruita | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 102 |
| April 30, 1951 | Purcell post office discontinued in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 117 |
| May 14, 1951 | The last house in Denver using natural gas for lighting, 2524 Arapahoe, is converted to electric lights by Public Service Company of Colorado | Lines magazine, June 1951 p. 6 |
| June 30, 1951 | Point Lookout post office established in Montezuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 115 |
| July 10, 1951 | Construction begins on the Rocky Flats Plant by the Atomic Energy Commission 15 miles northwest of Denver | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| July 15, 1951 | Haybro post office discontinued in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 69 |
| October 5, 1951 | Drennan post office discontinued in El Paso County, rural station of Colorado Springs | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 47 |
| October 20, 1951 | Huerfano County News begins publishing in Walsenburg | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 80 |
| November 15, 1951 | F.W. Woolworth at 16th and Champa in Denver is enlarged, becoming the largest Woolworth in the world | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| November 22, 1951 | The Denver Chamber of Commerce building at 1301 Welton is dedicated | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| December 1951 | Woodland Park View ceases publishing in Woodland Park | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 140 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|--|
| December 3, 1951 | A disabled B-29 bomber crashes trying to reach Lowry Field killing eight airmen though six survived including the pilot; four homes were demolished and another damaged | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| December 28, 1951 | Cripple Creek Times-Record ceases publishing in Cripple Creek, continues as Cripple Creek Gold Rush | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 138 |
| December 29, 1951 | Huerfano County News ceases publishing in Walsenburg | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 80 |
| December 31, 1951 | Sheephorn post office discontinued in Eagle County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 131 |
| 1950s | The Mollie Kathleen Mine becomes a tourist attraction featuring mine tours going 1,000 feet underground | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 334 |
| 1952 | Alamosa News ceases publishing in Alamosa | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 3 |
| 1952 | Boulder County Journal ceases publishing in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 12 |
| 1952 | Cheyenne County News ceases publishing in Cheyenne Wells | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 19 |
| 1952 | Western Colorado Farm and Ranch Reporter ceases publishing in Rifle | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 69 |
| 1952 | Trinidad Free Press ceases publishing in Trinidad | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 97 |
| 1952 | Ross-Broadway Branch Library opens at 33 E. Bayaud; designed by Victor Hornbein in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 75 |
| 1952 | Commerce City is incorporated combining Adams City, Derby, Irondale & Rose Hill | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 120 |
| 1952 | Coolbaugh Chemistry Hall opens on the Colorado School of Mines campus; designed by Fuller, Fuller and Fuller | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 154 |
| 1952 | St. Ignatius Catholic Church is built at 4th and LaFever Streets in Walden; designed by John K. Monroe | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 221 |
| 1952 | An educational wing is added to the First United Presbyterian Church at Ash and 3rd Streets in Akron | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 271 |
| 1952 | The Tilley House is completed at 30 W. Mesa Road in Colorado Springs; designed by Gordon Ingraham and Elizabeth Wright Ingraham | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 294 |
| 1952 | The last coal mine in Crested Butte, Big Mine, closes | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 540 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|---|---|
| 1952 | Colorado Fuel & Iron Company closes its Company Store in Crested Butte when it closes the Big Mine; now a mini-shopping mall | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 541 |
| 1952 | The Denver-Boulder Turnpike opens using U.S. 36 between cities with an intermediate exit at Broomfield | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 118 |
| 1952 | Commerce Town is incorporated in the southern part of Adams County to prevent annexation by Denver; now Commerce City after absorbing Adams City, Derby, Irondale & Rose Hill | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 125 |
| 1952 | Denver-Boulder Turnpike opens as a toll road [25 cents] between the two cities [15 cents to Broomfield] | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 181 |
| 1952 | Rodolfo "Corky" Gonzales fights his last match, a benefit for the Latin American Education Fund in Denver | Rodolfo "Corky" Gonzales Papers, WH1971 finding aid, Denver Public Library, biographical note |
| Early 1950s | Rocky Flats begins making the first of some 70,000 plutonium triggers for hydrogen bombs | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 105 |
| January 4, 1952 | Cripple Creek Gold Rush begins publishing in Cripple Creek | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 138 |
| January 19, 1952 | The Denver Boulder Turnpike (US 36) opens to traffic | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| April 30, 1952 | Plainview post office discontinued in Jefferson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 115 |
| May 31, 1952 | Goldhill post office discontinued in Boulder County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 63 |
| June 13, 1952 | Durango Herald-Democrat ceases publishing in Durango, continues as Durango Herald-News | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 89 |
| June 13, 1952 | Durango News ceases publishing in Durango, merges with Durango Herald-Democrat | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 89 |
| June 15, 1952 | Durango Herald-News begins publishing in Durango | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 89 |
| July 10, 1952 | Boulder Reporter begins publishing in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 12 |
| July 17, 1952 | Sterling Farm Journal ceases publishing in Sterling, continues as High Plains Daily Journal | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 101 |
| 1952 | Colorado's first television station, KFEL, begins broadcasting on channel 2 | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xv |
| July 18, 1982 | Denver television station KFEL (channel 2) signs on and becomes the first TV station in Colorado | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|--|--|
| July 1952 | Television comes to Denver | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 104 |
| July 22, 1952 | High Plains Daily Journal begins publishing in Sterling | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 101 |
| August 31, 1952 | Barr Lake post office discontinued in Adams County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 17 |
| August 31, 1952 | Portland post office discontinued in Fremont County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 116 |
| September 3, 1952 | The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service establishes the Monte Vista Wildlife Refuge | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| September 30, 1952 | Marshall Pass post office discontinued in Saguache County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 95 |
| October 12, 1952 | KBTB becomes Denver's second TV station; occupying channel 9 and affiliating with the American Broadcasting Network (ABC) | Roger Dudley's Denver Television Chronology , p. 2, 6 & 7 |
| October 15, 1952 | Saint Elmo post office discontinued in Chaffee County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 126 |
| October 26, 1952 | Fire breaks out in the Hungarian Flour Mills in Denver and burns for days; 70 firefighters sought treatment at Denver General Hospital | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| November 30, 1952 | Boulder Reporter ceases publishing in Boulder | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 12 |
| 1953 | Canyon Courier begins publishing in Evergreen | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 81 |
| 1953 | Long View ceases publishing in Fort Collins | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 92 |
| 1953 | Arriba Record ceases publishing in Arriba | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 98 |
| 1953 | Town of Thornton is established; initially developed by Sam Hoffman with 300 ranch style homes it was named for Governor Daniel Thornton | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 121 |
| 1953 | Alderson Chemical and Petroleum Engineering Hall opens on the Colorado School of Mines campus; designed by Fuller, Fuller and Fuller | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 154 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-----------------|--|---|
| 1953 | Dearfield's lunch counter, operated by the town founder's niece Jennie, closes its doors effectively ending the town's short life | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 250 |
| 1953 | Garden Room opens at the Broadmoor Hotel in Colorado Springs | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 300 |
| 1953 | Midland Terminal Depot, at the bottom of Tenderfoot Hill, and at the east end of Bennett Avenue, in Cripple Creek, reopens as a museum | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 330 |
| 1953 | Westcliffe School closes at 302 S. 4th Street; restored as a museum and community center for 1981 centennial | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 368 |
| 1953 | Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Alamosa at 727 4th Street gets a coat of stucco | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 408 |
| 1953 | Colorado Rocky Mountain School opens at 1493 Garfield County Road 108 in the Bar Fork Ranch Barn built in 1895 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 485 |
| 1953 | Plutonium triggers begin to be produced at Rocky Flats facility northwest of Denver | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xvi |
| 1953 | Denver's first shopping center, Cherry Creek, opens at 1st Avenue and University Boulevard | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xvi |
| 1953 | Cherry Creek Shopping Center opens at 1st Avenue and University; designed by Temple Hoyne Buell on a 49 acre site three miles southeast of downtown Denver | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 112 |
| 1953 | Governor Dan Thornton and actress Jane Russell preside at the opening of the town of Thornton north of Denver | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 131 |
| 1953 | President Eisenhower establishes Lowry Air Force Base as the summer White House | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| January 1, 1953 | Adams County Republican ceases publishing in Brighton | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 2 |
| January 2, 1953 | Denver Inquirer begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 51 |
| January 8, 1953 | Adams County Sentinel begins publishing in Brighton | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 2 |
| March 31, 1953 | Kline post office discontinued in La Plata County, moved to Marvel. | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 83 |
| March 31, 1953 | Routt post office discontinued in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 124 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|--|
| April 1953 | Lamar Register ceases publishing in Lamar | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 119 |
| April 1, 1953 | Marvel post office established in La Plata County, moved from Kline | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 96 |
| May 15, 1953 | Ground is broken for the Denver U.S. National building | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| June 5, 1953 | Tommy-Knawker begins publishing in Central City | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 71 |
| July 1, 1953 | President Eisenhower declares drought-stricken parts of Colorado a disaster area | Mary Fretch, state editor, Chronology and Documentary Handbook of the State of Colorado, 1973, p. 15 |
| August 4, 1953 | Groundbreaking is held for the Petroleum Club in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| August 29, 1953 | Fire destroys the Central Block in downtown Pueblo; retired lawyer O.G. Pope dies in his apartment; heat, smoke, and water damage a furniture store and offices of the Southern Colorado Power Company across the street | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| October 10, 1953 | Morning Light ceases publishing in Trinidad | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 98 |
| October 31, 1953 | High Plains Daily Journal ceases publishing in Sterling, continues as High Plains Farm Journal | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 101 |
| November 1, 1953 | High Plains Farm Journal begins publishing in Sterling | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 101 |
| November 1, 1953 | KLZ becomes Denver's third TV station; assigned to channel 7 and affiliating with the Columbia Broadcasting System (CBS) | Roger Dudley's Denver Television Chronology , p. 2, 8 & 10 |
| December 1, 1953 | Airport post office established in Pueblo County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 9 |
| December 20, 1953 | Sterling Advocate ceases publishing in Sterling | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 101 |
| December 21, 1953 | Sterling Journal-Advocate begins publishing in Sterling | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 101 |
| December 24, 1953 | KOA becomes the fourth Denver TV station; assigned to channel 4 and affiliating with the National Broadcasting System (NBC) | Roger Dudley's Denver Television Chronology , p. 2, 10 & 11 |
| December 25, 1953 | Denver Inquirer ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 51 |
| December 31, 1953 | Toltec post office discontinued in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 142 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|---|
| December 31, 1953 | Trail Ridge post office discontinued in Larimer County as a summer post office. | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 142 |
| December 31, 1953 | Colorado Springs Independent ceases publishing in Colorado Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 61 |
| December 31, 1953 | Delcarbon post office discontinued in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 43 |
| 1954 | Mile High Center completed, in Denver, with 23 stories and a height of 294 feet | Western History Subject Index, Denver.Buildings.Heights |
| 1954 | Thornton Tribune begins publishing in Thornton | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 2 |
| 1954 | Baca County Banner ceases publishing in Springfield | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 8 |
| 1954 | Valley Herald ceases publishing in San Luis | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 24 |
| 1954 | Denver Chief begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 51 |
| 1954 | Crow Valley News ceases publishing in Grover | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 145 |
| 1954 | The Joshel House is completed at 220 S. Dahlia in Denver; designed by Joseph P. Marlow | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 96 |
| 1954 | Jewish Consumptive Relief Society (JCRS) becomes the American Medical Center when part of the grounds are sold off for the JCRS Shopping Center | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 158 |
| 1954 | Danforth Chapel is completed on the campus of Colorado State College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts; designed by James M. Hunter | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 227 |
| 1954 | Van Briggie Art Pottery takes over the old Colorado Midland Railroad Terminal in Colorado City | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 305 |
| 1954 | Colorado is selected as the site for the U.S. Air Force Academy; to be located on an 18,500 acre site 9 miles north of Colorado Springs | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 305 |
| 1954 | Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Depot opens in La Junta on US 50 north of Colorado Avenue replacing an 1892 three story station that also included a Harvey House | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 390 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-----------------|---|---|
| 1954 | Smoky Hill Trail Monument designed by Gerald Maydew is completed north of Kit Carson; stands 34 feet tall and resembling a fireplace and chimney of a burned-out house with a wagon wheel atop it | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 399 |
| 1954 | St. Joseph Hospital opens in Del Norte at 1280 Grande Avenue; designed by Gordon Sweet | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 427 |
| 1954 | Denver & Rio Grande Depot abandons their depot in Crested Butte at 724 Elk Avenue; it becomes a community center and Mountain Heritage Museum | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 540 |
| 1954 | Pagosa High School opens next to the middle school on Pagosa Street; designed by Wheeler and Lewis with a 1982 addition by Lescher and Mahoney | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 552 |
| January 1854 | Hoffman Heights Mirror begins publishing in Hoffman Heights | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 5 |
| January 2, 1954 | San Luis Valley News ceases publishing in Blanca | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 23 |
| March 7, 1954 | American Federation of Labor Building opens in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| March 15, 1954 | Tioga post office discontinued in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 141 |
| March 19, 1954 | Public Service Company of Colorado files for first electric rate increase in history of the company | Lines Magazine , April 1954, p. 11 |
| April 19, 1954 | Rocky Ford Gazette-Topic (d) ceases publishing in Rocky Ford, continues as Rocky Ford Daily Gazette | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 112 |
| April 20, 1954 | Rocky Ford Daily Gazette begins publishing in Rocky Ford | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 112 |
| April 30, 1954 | Clarkville post office discontinued in Yuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 34 |
| April 30, 1954 | Mildred post office discontinued in Yuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 98 |
| April 30, 1954 | Whitepine post office discontinued in Gunnison County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 151 |
| April 30, 1954 | Antlers post office discontinued in Garfield County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 12 |
| May 14, 1954 | Boulder Valley Lens-Shopper begins publishing in Lafayette | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 13 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|--|
| May 15, 1954 | Colorado Graphic ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 34 |
| May 22, 1954 | Denver switched to a seven-digit telephone number with 18 exchanges and a figure: AComa 8, ALpine 5, CHerry 4, DEXter 3, DUdley 8, EAsT 2, FLorida 5, FReMont 7, GEnesee 3, GLendale 5, GRand 7, KEystone 4, MAin 3, PEarl 3, RAce 2, SHerman 4, SPruce 7, & TABor 4 [later WESt 4] | Metropolitan Denver Spring 1954 Telephone Directory cover |
| May 31, 1954 | Gary post office discontinued in Morgan County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 60 |
| May 31, 1954 | Ludlow post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 92 |
| May 31, 1954 | Vallorso post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 146 |
| May 31, 1954 | Delagua post office established in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 43 |
| June 24, 1954 | Site near Colorado Springs is selected for the United States Air Force Academy | Mary Fretch, state editor, Chronology and Documentary Handbook of the State of Colorado, 1973, p. 15 |
| June 24, 1954 | The U.S. Air Force selects an area north of Colorado Springs on which to build the U.S. Air Force Academy | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| June 30, 1954 | Independence post office discontinued in Teller County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 77 |
| June 30, 1954 | Ridge post office discontinued in Jefferson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 122 |
| June 30, 1954 | Spicer post office discontinued in Jackson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 134 |
| July 1, 1954 | Daniels post office discontinued in Jefferson County, name changed to Edgemont (branch) | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 42 |
| July 15, 1954 | Fondis post office discontinued in Elbert County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 54 |
| July 31, 1954 | Great Divide post office discontinued in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 66 |
| August 27, 1954 | Name of Camp Carson is changed to Fort Carson by the U.S. Army | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-5-2017 |
| September 1, 1954 | Denver U.S. National building is dedicated | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|--|
| September 3, 1954 | Boulder Valley Lens-Shopper ceases publishing in Lafayette | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 13 |
| September 9, 1954 | Laboratory of solar physics dedicated near Climax at the University of Colorado High Altitude Observatory | Mary Fretch, state editor, Chronology and Documentary Handbook of the State of Colorado, 1973, p. 15 |
| October 31, 1954 | Hughes post office discontinued in Yuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 76 |
| November 30, 1954 | Breen post office discontinued in La Plata County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 24 |
| November 30, 1954 | Falfa post office discontinued in La Plata County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 53 |
| November 30, 1954 | Oxford post office discontinued in La Plata County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 109 |
| November 30, 1954 | Pagosa Junction post office discontinued in Archuleta County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 109 |
| November 30, 1954 | Red Mesa post office discontinued in La Plata County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 120 |
| November 30, 1954 | Stoner post office discontinued in Montezuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 136 |
| November 30, 1954 | Tacoma post office discontinued in La Plata County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 138 |
| November 30, 1954 | Tiffany post office discontinued in La Plata County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 141 |
| November 30, 1954 | Wagon Wheel Gap post office discontinued in Rio Grande County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 148 |
| November 30, 1954 | Allison post office discontinued in La Plata County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 11 |
| November 30, 1954 | Dunton post office discontinued in Dolores County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 48 |
| December 2, 1954 | Alamosa Sun ceases publishing in Alamosa | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 3 |
| December 25, 1954 | An explosion in a southwest Denver feed store hurls concrete 200 yards into the South Platte River | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| December 31, 1954 | Troutville post office discontinued in Eagle County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 143 |
| December 31, 1954 | Vroman post office discontinued in Otero County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 147 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------|---|---|
| 1950s | The Bungalow Theater becomes the Gaslight Theater at 4201 Hooker Street in Denver when R. Paul Willett reopens the theatre begun by George Swartz | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 105 |
| 1955 | Deer Trail Tribune ceases publishing in Deer Trail, continues as Tri-County Tribune | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 5 |
| 1955 | Tri-County Tribune begins publishing in Deer Trail | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 5 |
| 1955 | Hoffman Heights Mirror ceases publishing | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 5 |
| 1955 | Arapahoe Suburban begins publishing in Sheridan | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 6 |
| 1955 | Broomfield Star begins publishing in Broomfield | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 12 |
| 1955 | Volkszeitung-Tribune begins publishing in German in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 51 |
| 1955 | East Jefferson Star begins publishing in Lakewood | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 82 |
| 1955 | N.W. Colorado Press begins publishing in Craig | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 106 |
| 1955 | Rangely Driller ceases publishing in Rangely | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 126 |
| 1955 | Routt County Republican ceases publishing in Hayden | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 127 |
| 1955 | Denver Public Library opens at 1357 Broadway | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 44 |
| 1955 | Mrs. Crawford Hill's Denver mansion at 969 Sherman St. is converted into the Town Club following her death | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 76 |
| 1955 | Carlton House north of Colorado Springs becomes part of the U.S. Air Force Academy and is converted to housing for the base superintendent and visiting dignitaries | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 306 |
| 1955 | Coors Brewing Co. sells 1 million barrels of beer this year for the first time | Denver Post article October 12, 2016, p. 1 |
| 1955 | The Glenn L. Martin Company opens a factory in Waterton Canyon southwest of Denver to make Titan missiles that will become instrumental in the space race | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xvi |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|---|
| 1955 | Lowry Air Force Base houses the first classes of the Air Force Academy while the site north of Colorado Springs is being constructed | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 101 |
| 1955 | Turnpike Land Company buys part of the Adolph Zang spread near Broomfield and creates the Broomfield Heights subdivision | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 118 |
| mid-1950s | Glenn L. Martin Company in Waterton Canyon southwest of Denver begins building Titan I ICBM (Intercontinental Ballistic Missile) and helps make Denver an aerospace hub into the 21st century | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 104 |
| January 3, 1955 | Gordon Allott takes his seat representing Colorado in the U.S. Senate; he will serve three terms | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| January 11, 1955 | Ed Johnson takes the oath (again) as Governor of Colorado, the 34th governor | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| January 31, 1955 | Superior post office discontinued in Boulder County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 137 |
| February 1955 | Colorado Trumpet begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 51 |
| February 15, 1955 | Hardin post office discontinued in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 68 |
| February 28, 1955 | Garo post office discontinued in Park County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 60 |
| February 28, 1955 | Glentivar post office discontinued in Park County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 63 |
| February 28, 1955 | Loyd post office discontinued in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 92 |
| February 28, 1955 | Copper Spur post office discontinued in Eagle County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 37 |
| March 24, 1955 | High Plains Farm Journal ceases publishing in Sterling, continues as Business Farmer | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 101 |
| March 31, 1955 | Harrisburg post office discontinued in Washington County, name changed to Lindon | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 69 |
| March 31, 1955 | Thurman post office discontinued in Washington County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 141 |
| March 31, 1955 | Business Farmer begins publishing in Sterling | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 101 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|---|--|
| March 31, 1955 | De Nova post office discontinued in Washington County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 43 |
| April 5, 1955 | Fire at the Oriental Refinery in Commerce City takes the life of volunteer firefighter Harold Hubbard | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| April 16, 1955 | Aurora firefighters rescue a two-year-old who fell into an 18-foot well shaft four hours after he fell into the 18" hole | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| May 18, 1955 | Daily Courier ceases publishing, continued as San Luis Valley Courier | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 3 |
| May 19, 1955 | San Luis Valley Courier begins publishing in Alamosa | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 3 |
| June 1, 1955 | Wagon Wheel Gap post office established in Mineral County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 148 |
| June 9, 1955 | Colorado Springs News ceases publishing in Colorado Springs, continues as Colorado Farm News | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 61 |
| July 11, 1955 | The first class of Air Force Academy cadets is sworn in at the temporary facility at Lowry Air Force Base | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| July 14, 1955 | Colorado Farm News begins publishing in Colorado Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 62 |
| July 31, 1955 | Malta post office discontinued in Lake County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 93 |
| August 31, 1955 | Airport post office discontinued in Pueblo County, established as a rural station of Pueblo | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 9 |
| September 1, 1955 | Adams County News ceases publishing in Aurora | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 1 |
| September 1, 1955 | Adams County Sentinel ceases publishing in Brighton | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 2 |
| September 11, 1955 | Sharon Kay Ritchie is crowned Miss America, the first Miss Colorado to win the competition | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| September 15, 1955 | Aurora Democrat ceases publishing in Aurora | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 1 |
| September 24, 1955 | President Eisenhower suffers a heart attack at the home of his in-laws, the Douds, in Denver; he is treated at Fitzsimons Army Hospital in Aurora for several weeks | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| September 29, 1955 | Democrat-News Trade Edition ceases publishing in Aurora | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 1 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|---|---|
| September 29, 1955 | Wiggins Courier ceases publishing in Wiggins | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 110 |
| October 1, 1955 | San Luis Valley Courier ceases publishing, continues as Valley Courier | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 3 |
| October 3, 1955 | Valley Courier begins publishing in Alamosa | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 3 |
| October 8, 1955 | Denver television station KFEL, channel 2, changes its call letters to KTVR when the ownership of the station changes | Roger Dudley's Denver Television Chronology , p. 14 |
| October 22, 1955 | Denver Democrat ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 41 |
| October 29, 1955 | Colorado Farm News ceases publishing in Colorado Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 62 |
| November 1955 | Construction begins on the Monument Valley Freeway in Colorado Springs; now part of I-25 | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| November 5, 1955 | Colorado Democrat begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 51 |
| November 5, 1955 | Week-End begins publishing in Colorado Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 62 |
| November 21, 1955 | Business Farmer ceases publishing in Sterling, continues as High Plains Farmer | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 101 |
| November 28, 1955 | High Plains Farmer begins publishing in Sterling | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 101 |
| November 30, 1955 | Bovina post office discontinued in Lincoln County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 22 |
| November 30, 1955 | Shaw post office discontinued in Lincoln County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 131 |
| December 30, 1955 | Salida Mail-Record ceases publishing in Salida, continues as Salida Mountain Mail | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 18 |
| May 9, 1905 | Free Press ceases publishing in Delta, continues as Delta Press | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 26 |
| 1956 | Delta Press begins publishing in Delta | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 26 |
| 1956 | Aurora Star begins publishing in Aurora | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 1 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|---|
| 1956 | Arapahoe Herald begins publishing in Littleton | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 6 |
| 1956 | Surface Creek News ceases publishing in Cedaredge | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 26 |
| 1956 | Denver Call ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| 1956 | Westwood Independent begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 51 |
| 1956 | Columbine Herald begins publishing in Palmer Lake | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 63 |
| 1956 | Gunnison County Globe begins publishing in Gunnison | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 75 |
| 1956 | Brentwood Herald begins publishing in Arvada | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 81 |
| 1956 | Rangely Times begins publishing in Rangely | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 126 |
| 1956 | Norwood Star ceases publishing in Norwood | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 132 |
| 1956 | Telluride Tribune ceases publishing in Telluride | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 133 |
| 1956 | San Miguel Forum begins publishing in Telluride | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 133 |
| 1956 | Mile High Center opens at 1700 Broadway in downtown Denver; designed by I.M. Pei and Partners | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 54 |
| 1956 | Park Congregational Church at 803 10th Avenue in Greeley is abandoned when the Congregationalists move elsewhere; now the Greeley Foursquare Church | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 242 |
| 1956 | Kiowa County Courthouse is completed at Eads at 1305 Goff Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 396 |
| 1956 | Yampa Valley Electric Company offices open in Steamboat Springs at 32 10th Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 522 |
| 1956 | Fort Lewis College grows with the addition of buildings designed by James M. Hunter Associates | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 559 |
| 1956 | Ute Indian Museum established 2 miles south of Montrose at 17253 Chipeta Drive; designed by Dudley T. Smith; addition made in 1996 by Edward Chamberlin | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 582 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|---|--|
| 1956 | Denver Public Library moves to a new building just off Civic Center Park designed by Burnham Hoyt | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 113 |
| January 2, 1956 | Salida Mountain Mail begins publishing in Salida | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 18 |
| January 5, 1956 | Englewood Enterprise ceases publishing in Englewood | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 5 |
| January 30, 1956 | KRMA becomes Denver's fifth television station and its first educational station, later known as public television; assigned to channel 6 it is licensed to the Denver Public Schools | Roger Dudley's Denver Television Chronology , p. 2, 16 & 20 |
| February 1956 | Risveglio ceases publishing in Italian and English Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 44 |
| March 1956 | Awakening begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 51 |
| March 31, 1956 | Ragged Mountain post office discontinued in Gunnison County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 118 |
| March 31, 1956 | Village post office discontinued in Otero County, established as a rural station of La Junta | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 147 |
| May 29, 1956 | Ground is broken for Murchison Tower, later the First National Bank Building, at 17th and Welton in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| June 1, 1956 | A B-25 bomber departing Lowry Field crashes in southeast Denver killing eight on board the aircraft | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| July 1, 1956 | El Rancho post office established in Jefferson County as a rural branch of Golden, later a community post office | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 51 |
| July 7, 1956 | The Ballad of Baby Doe , by Douglas Moore, premieres at the Central City Opera House | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| July 31, 1956 | Russell post office discontinued in Costilla County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 125 |
| August 1, 1956 | North Pole post office established in El Paso County as a rural branch of Colorado Springs, now a rural branch of Cascade | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 106 |
| August 11, 1956 | Final irrigation branches of the Colorado-Big Thompson Project completed | Mary Fretch, state editor, Chronology and Documentary Handbook of the State of Colorado, 1973, p. 15 |
| August 24, 1956 | Morley post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 101 |
| October 7, 1956 | Denver Club opens | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|--|
| October 15, 1956 | The new central library of the Denver Public Library is dedicated in Denver's Civic Center | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| October 25, 1956 | East Denver Journal ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| November 30, 1956 | Kendrick post office discontinued in Lincoln County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 82 |
| 1957 | Delta Press ceases publishing in Delta | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 26 |
| 1957 | Wheat Ridge Advocate begins publishing in Wheat Ridge | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 82 |
| 1957 | Denver station #39 changed to University Park Station | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 145 |
| 1857 | Anna Bryce School opens in Holly; designed by C. Francis Pillsbury | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 387 |
| 1957 | Englewood Press ceases publishing in Englewood | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 5 |
| 1957 | Broomfield Star ceases publishing in Broomfield | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 12 |
| 1957 | Broomfield Star-Builder begins publishing in Broomfield | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 12 |
| 1957 | Awakening ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 51 |
| 1957 | Athmar Observer begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 51 |
| 1957 | La Veta Advertiser ceases publishing in La Veta | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 79 |
| 1957 | Morning Record begins publishing in Grand Junction | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 104 |
| 1957 | Platte Valley News ceases publishing in Ovid | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 134 |
| 1957 | Union Oil Company opens a $7 million prototype retort to recover oil from oil shale deposits near Grand Junction | Mary Fretch, state editor, Chronology and Documentary Handbook of the State of Colorado, 1973, p. 15 |
| 1957 | Uranium prospecting near Montrose touches off a land rush | Mary Fretch, state editor, Chronology and Documentary Handbook of the State of Colorado, 1973, p. 15 |
| 1957 | Denver Tramway Building at 1100 14th Street is converted for use as the University of Colorado's Denver Campus | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 62 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|--|---|
| 1957 | Volk Gymnasium opens on the Colorado School of Mines campus as designed by Fuller, Fuller and Fuller | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 154 |
| 1957 | Davies Chuck Wagon Diner opens at 9495 W. Colfax Avenue by Brent Davies in a 46-ton stainless steel diner delivered by rail; a life sized palomino horse on top of the building and a large neon sign mark the landmark facility | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 159 |
| 1957 | The Colorado State College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts becomes Colorado State University | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 224 |
| 1957 | The original City Hall constructed in 1881 in Fort Collins becomes a fire station at 232-234 Walnut Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 226 |
| 1957 | Mt. Werner Ski Area established 3 miles south of Steamboat Springs at Mt. Werner Road and Village Drive | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 525 |
| 1957 | Delta County Courthouse is erected by Eugene D. Sternberg at 501 Palmer Street in Delta | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 531 |
| 1957 | The Denver Bears win the Junior World Series | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 152 |
| 1957 | Tenth Mountain Division veteran Peter Seibert and his partners buy a 520-acre ranch on the west side of Vail Pass with the vision of establishing a ski area | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 159 |
| 1957 | Petroleum Building completed, in Denver, with 15 stories and a height of 172 feet | Western History Subject Index, Denver.Buildings.Heights |
| 1957-1958 | More women's dormitories are added to the Colorado State College campus; designed by Robert F. Lindstedt | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 246 |
| January 8, 1957 | Steve McNichols takes the oath as the 35th governor of Colorado | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| January 31, 1957 | Blue Mountain post office discontinued in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 21 |
| March 1, 1957 | Platner post office discontinued in Washington County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 115 |
| May 12, 1957 | Ground broken for Central Bank and Trust 15th and Arapahoe in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| May 18, 1957 | Fountain Valley School post office established in El Paso County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 57 |
| May 18, 1957 | Gilsonite post office established in Mesa County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 61 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|---|--|
| June 15, 1957 | Cuchara post office established in Huerfano County, name changed from Cuchara Camps, converted July 1, 1959 to a rural station at La Veta | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 41 |
| June 15, 1957 | Cuchara Camps post office discontinued in Huerfano County, name changed to Cuchara | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 41 |
| June 23, 1957 | Fire destroys the Holy Comforter Chapel at St. Mark's Episcopal Church in Denver | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| June 30, 1957 | Stone City post office discontinued in Pueblo County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 136 |
| July 12, 1957 | Week-End ceases publishing in Colorado Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 62 |
| July 31, 1957 | Pikeview post office discontinued in El Paso County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 113 |
| August 10, 1957 | Slick Rock post office established in San Miguel County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 133 |
| September 6, 1957 | Escalante Forks post office discontinued in Mesa County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 52 |
| September 11, 1957 | A plutonium fire at the Rocky Flats trigger factory in Building 71 contaminates the plant near Arvada and releases plutonium into the air | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| September 30, 1957 | Wagon Wheel Gap post office discontinued in Mineral County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 148 |
| September 30, 1957 | Petroleum Club building is dedicated in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| October 3, 1957 | Georgetown Courier ceases publishing in Georgetown | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 20 |
| October 10, 1957 | Arapahoe Suburban ceases publishing in Sheridan | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 6 |
| October 17, 1957 | Littleton Coloradoan begins publishing in Littleton | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 6 |
| October 18, 1957 | Interstate 70 through Colorado is announced by the Secretary of Commerce covering 547 miles | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| December 1957 | Morning Sun begins publishing in Grand Junction | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 104 |
| December 1957 | Ground is broken for the Hilton Hotel at 16th and Tremont, later the Adams Mark and Sheraton hotels in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|--|
| December 27, 1957 | Western Colorado Reporter ceases publishing in Grand Junction | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 104 |
| 1958 | Wheat Ridge Advocate ceases publishing in Wheat Ridge | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 82 |
| 1958 | Adams Record begins publishing in Thornton | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 2 |
| 1958 | Littleton Coloradoan ceases publishing in Littleton | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 6 |
| 1958 | Topic ceases publishing in Walsh | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 9 |
| 1958 | Denver Dispatch begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 51 |
| 1958 | University Park News begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 51 |
| 1958 | Security Advertiser begins publishing in Fountain | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 62 |
| 1958 | Cloud City Call begins publishing in Leadville | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 87 |
| 1958 | Morning Record ceases publishing in Grand Junction | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 104 |
| 1958 | Morgan County Herald ceases publishing in Fort Morgan | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 109 |
| 1958 | Hilton Hotel opens at 350 Court Place between 15th and 16th Streets as part of the Zeckendorf Plaza complex of William Zeckendorf that included a hyperbolic paraboloid [designed by I.M. Pei] that housed part of the May D&F department store on 16th Street between Court Place and Tremont | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 49 |
| 1958 | Following the death of Charles Boettcher his family donates the mansion to the state of Colorado for use as the governor's residence in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 75 |
| 1958 | Bow Mar is founded by Lloyd King who also founded King Soopers; the community takes its name from its placement between Bowles and Marston Lakes | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 129 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|--|--|
| 1958 | Louise C. Harrison and Margaret Collbran reopen the Peck House in Empire as a hotel, bar and restaurant after renovating the structure | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 212 |
| 1958 | Cadets move into the U.S. Air Force Academy north of Colorado Springs after using a temporary location at Lowry Field in Denver since 1954; the campus is designed by Skidmore, Owings and Merrill | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 305 |
| 1958 | Buckskin Joe opens as a mock frontier town 5 miles West of Cañon City borrowing its name from a settlement in Park County and used as a set for the film Cat Ballou | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 345 |
| 1958 | W.V.N. Jones develops Aspen Highlands Ski Area | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 487 |
| 1958 | Quarry Visitor Center opens at Utah's Dinosaur National Monument; designed by Richard Hein of Ansen and Allen | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 519 |
| 1958 | Ed and Betsy Marston move to Colorado from New York City and take over the High Country News ; it operated out of the old feed store at 119 Grand Avenue in Paonia | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 536 |
| 1958 | The Valley Highway is completed through Denver ending at Yale Avenue, the forerunner to I-25 | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 181 |
| 1958 | First National Bank completed, in Denver, with 28 stories and a height of 365 feet | Western History Subject Index, Denver.Buildings.Heights |
| January 1, 1958 | Fort Collins Times begins publishing in Fort Collins | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 92 |
| January 10, 1958 | Elba post office discontinued in Washington County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 50 |
| March 7, 1958 | Caddoa post office discontinued in Bent County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 27 |
| March 21, 1958 | Ione post office discontinued in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 78 |
| April 30, 1958 | Axial post office discontinued in Garfield County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 16 |
| May 4, 1958 | First National Bank Building 17th and Welton in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| May 12, 1958 | Canada and the U.S. establish the North American Air Defense Command (NORAD) headquartered at Ent Air Base near Colorado Springs | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|--|--|
| May 29, 1958 | World-Independent ceases publishing in Walsenburg, continues as Huerfano World | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 80 |
| May 30, 1958 | Mount Harris post office discontinued in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 102 |
| May 31, 1958 | Beecher Island post office discontinued in Yuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 18 |
| May 31, 1958 | Armel post office discontinued in Yuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 14 |
| June 6, 1958 | Huerfano World begins publishing in Walsenburg | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 80 |
| June 28, 1958 | United States Air Force Academy post office established in El Paso County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 145 |
| August 1958 | Construction begins on I-80S in northeastern Colorado; after 1974 it is called I-76 | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| August 4, 1958 | May D & F building dedicated at 16th and Tremont in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| August 13, 1958 | Sam's People and Politics of the Pikes Peak Region begins publishing in Colorado Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 62 |
| August 29, 1958 | The first class enters the U.S. Air Force Academy after $135,500,000 in construction; previous classes met at Lowry Air Force Base in Denver | Mary Fretch, state editor, Chronology and Documentary Handbook of the State of Colorado, 1973, p. 15 |
| August 31, 1958 | Grand Mesa post office discontinued in Delta County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 65 |
| September 26, 1958 | Niwot Tribune ceases publishing in Niwot | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 15 |
| October 29, 1958 | This Is Your Life , hosted by Colorado native Ralph Edwards, salutes Olga Little, live from Denver Coliseum on NBC-TV w/10,000 in audience; she drove mule pack trains into La Plata mountains in southwestern Colorado; the evening was part of the Rush to the Rockies centennial | Denver TV Chronology by Roger Dudley, kinescope recording provided by family of Olga Little |
| December 10, 1958 | Edward Lawrie Tatum becomes the 1st Colorado native to win the Nobel Prize for his 1937 metabolism work at Stanford University with George Wells Beadle | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| December 12, 1958 | Columbine Herald ceases publishing in Palmer Lake | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 63 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|--|
| 1959 | Westwood Independent ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 51 |
| 1959 | Glenwood Springs Sage begins publishing in Glenwood Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 68 |
| 1959 | Mountain News ceases publishing in Evergreen | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 81 |
| 1959 | Jefferson Record ceases publishing in Lakewood | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 82 |
| 1959 | Cloud City Call ceases publishing in Leadville | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 87 |
| 1959 | Loveland Reporter ceases publishing in Loveland | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 92 |
| 1959 | Farm and Ranch Herald begins publishing in Loveland | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 93 |
| 1959 | Larimer County Times begins publishing in Loveland | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 93 |
| 1959 | High Plains Farmer ceases publishing in Sterling | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 101 |
| 1959 | Denver Botanic Gardens opens as laid out by landscape architect Garrett Eckbo and highlighted by the Boettcher Conservatory designed by Victor Hornbein and Edward D. White Jr. | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 92 |
| 1959 | Northglenn is begun; laid out according to a master plan by the Denver city planning firm of Harman, O'Donnell and Henninger; originally focused on the 1909 Riverdale Grange Hall | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 122 |
| 1959 | Columbine Valley is founded, wrapped around the Columbine Country Club | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 128 |
| 1959 | Colorado Railroad Museum opens at 17155 W. 44th Avenue with rolling stock, a depot, and a half-mile track around the original Allen Lewis 1863 farmhouse | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 151 |
| 1959 | The South Park Museum opens in Fairplay at 4th and Front Streets by Edward L. Bunts | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 213 |
| 1959 | Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Elbert closes and is turned into a garage east of the town | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 276 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|---|---|
| 1959 | C. Bland Jameson trades two Charles Russell paintings for the Ruby Lake Cabins 11 miles south of Antelope Park in Mineral County | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 437 |
| 1959 | Saguache County Museum opens in Saguache's old school with a nutmeg grater and a single display case; now has outgrown the building with exhibits | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 438 |
| 1959 | St. Benedict's Monastery is built for the Trappist monks at 1012 Monastery Road 2 miles south of Snowmass | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 500 |
| 1959 | Eugene Sternberg designs the Hillcrest Apartments in Steamboat Springs at 302 11th Avenue | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 522 |
| 1959 | La Plata County Courthouse built in Durango; designed by C. Francis Pillsbury at 1060 E. 2nd Avenue | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 557 |
| 1959 | Christ of the Mines Shrine opens in Silverton at Scenic Drive and 10th Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 565 |
| 1959 | Durango-Silverton Narrow Gauge Railroad is revived by Florida citrus baron Charles Bradshaw | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 566 |
| 1959 | Campbell House at 800 Oak Street in Steamboat Springs converted to the Tread of Pioneers Museum | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 523 |
| January 22, 1959 | Loveland Round-Up ceases publishing in Loveland, continues as Loveland News | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 93 |
| January 22, 1959 | Adolph Coors Company of Golden introduces the aluminum beer can | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| January 29, 1959 | Loveland News begins publishing in Loveland | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 93 |
| March 12, 1959 | Central Bank and Trust building at 15th and Arapahoe dedicated in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| March 26, 1959 | Basin Star begins publishing in Durango | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 89 |
| April 1959 | Construction begins on the Martin Missile Test Site in Waterton Canyon southwest of Denver | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| April 19, 1959 | Sam's People and Politics of the Pikes Peak Region ceases publishing in Colorado Springs | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 62 |
| June 1, 1959 | Redstone post office re-established in Pitkin County as a rural station of Carbondale | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 120 |
| June 3, 1959 | The first Air Force Academy class graduates | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|--|
| July 1959 | Leadville Leader begins publishing in Leadville | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 87 |
| July 1, 1959 | Cucharapost office converted July 1, 1959 to a rural station at La Veta in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 41 |
| August 30, 1959 | Ground broken for Public Service Company Headquarters Office Building (HOB) at 550 15th Street in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| September 1, 1959 | Construction begins southeast of Denver on Lowry Missile Site Number 1 for a Titan I launch complex | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| September 3, 1959 | A gas leak causes an explosion at a liquor store in downtown Denver killing a clerk Carl Reily and injuring 14 | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| October 16, 1959 | Crescent post office established in Boulder County, re-established as a rural branch of Golden | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 39 |
| October 31, 1959 | Heeney post office discontinued in Summit County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 70 |
| November 30, 1959 | Tennessee Pass post office discontinued in Lake County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 140 |
| December 26, 1859 | A joint meeting of citizens of Denver and Auraria agree to call the consolidated town Denver City | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 8 |
| December 31, 1959 | Fort Collins Times ceases publishing in Fort Collins | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 92 |
| 1960 | Nederland Bugle begins publishing in Nederland | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 15 |
| 1960 | Leadville Leader ceases publishing in Leadville | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 87 |
| 1960 | Western Ideal ceases publishing in Pueblo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 125 |
| 1960 | Colorado's population is 1,753,947 | Mary Fretch, state editor, Chronology and Documentary Handbook of the State of Colorado, 1973, p. 15 |
| 1960 | Temple Emanuel is completed; designed by Percival Goodman at 51 Grape Street in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 96 |
| 1960 | Bears Stadium is expanded when south stands are added and temporary stands erected in order to accomodate the Denver Broncos | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 102 |
| 1960 | Hobart Wagener adds a massive new sanctuary to the First Methodist Church at 1401 Spruce Avenue in Boulder | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 174 |
| 1960 | Colorado & Southern abandons the Lyons train depot | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 189 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|---|---|
| 1960 | Star Hook and Ladder firehouse at 404 6th Street in Georgetown is restored and becomes the Town Hall | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 205 |
| 1960 | Colorado State College in Greeley expands to a new West Campus on what had been the Petriken Farm between 10th and 17th Avenues and 20th and 24th Streets | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 245 |
| 1960 | Fremont County Courthouse completed at 615 Macon Street in Cañon City | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 343 |
| 1960 | The Denver Broncos begin their first season in the American Football League | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xvi |
| 1960 | Corruption in the Denver Police Department begins to surface; eventually over 50 policemen will be indicted | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xvi |
| 1960 | The black population of Denver is 30,251 in the census enumerated this year | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 137 |
| 1960 | The U.S. Census lists 43,147 Spanish-Americans in Denver; by 1980 the number had grown to 91,937 | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 141 |
| 1960 | The Denver Broncos end their inaugural season with 4 wins, 9 losses and one tie | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 149 |
| 1960 | Charles Savery dies and so does his Savery Savory Mushroom Farm at 11000 Federal Boulevard; the water tower is given landmark status and survives at 11000 Federal Boulevard where it is neatly painted | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 176 |
| 1960 | Construction begins on I-70 near Idaho Springs | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| 1960s | Great Sand Dunes National Monument visitors center is built 21 miles east of Mosca on Colorado 150 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 410 |
| 1960s | Pike's Stockade is reconstructed near the original site in Conejos County by the Colorado Historical Society | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 424 |
| 1960s | Western Colorado Center for the Arts opens at 1803 N. 7th Street in Grand Junction; designed by Robert Van Deusen and renovated in 1983 by Edward Chamberlain | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 508 |
| 1960s | Steamboat Springs begins to attract skiers; becomes known as Ski Town USA which it trademarks | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 522 |
| 1960s | Crosby-Pascoe Cabin, reported to be the oldest home in the county, is moved to Strawberry Park in downtown Steamboat Springs | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 525 |
| January 30, 1961 | Enterprise Building at 15th and Champa razed in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|--|---|
| January 31, 1960 | Tobe post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 141 |
| February 9, 1960 | Adolph Coors III is murdered in a kidnap attempt near his Bear Creek Canyon home near Golden | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| March 5, 1960 | Carlton post office discontinued in Prowers County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 30 |
| April 1, 1960 | Colorado's population increases 32.36 percent since the 1950 census with 1,753,947 recorded in this enumeration | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| April 7, 1960 | Hilton Hotel dedicated at 16th and Tremont, later the Adams Mark and Sheraton hotels in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| April 16, 1960 | Black Forest post office established in El Paso County, established as a rural branch of Colorado Springs, now a community post office | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 21 |
| April 28, 1960 | Loveland News ceases publishing in Loveland, merges with Larimer County Times (Loveland) | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 93 |
| April 28, 1960 | Larimer County Times ceases publishing in Loveland | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 93 |
| May 1960 | Public Ledger ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 49 |
| May 5, 1960 | Larimer County Times-News begins publishing in Loveland | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 93 |
| May 15, 1960 | Heeney post office reopened in Summit County as a rural station of Kremmling, summer post office June 16 to October 15 | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 70 |
| May 25, 1860 | Cotopaxi post office established in Fremont County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 39 |
| June 1, 1960 | East Tincup post office established in Jefferson County, at amusement park as a rural station of Golden | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 48 |
| June 3, 1960 | President Eisenhower signs a proclamation creating Bent's Old Fort National Historic Site | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| July 16, 1960 | Magic Mountain post office established in Jefferson County as a rural station of Golden | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 92 |
| July 20, 1960 | Tunneling begins on the NORAD bunker into Cheyenne Mountain outside Colorado Springs | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| July 22, 1960 | Durango Herald-News ceases publishing in Durango, continues as Durango Herald | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 89 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|--|---|
| July 25, 1960 | Durango Herald begins publishing in Durango | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 89 |
| July 29, 1960 | The Littleton Independent estimates that a third of Littleton's homes are headed by someone working for the Martin Company; builders of missiles and rockets located in Waterton Canyon southwest of the town | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 131 |
| August 3, 1960 | Dave Rearick and Bob Kamps become the first climbers to surmount The Diamond on the east face of Longs Peak | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| August 25, 1960 | Westlander begins publishing in Lakewood | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 82 |
| September 1960 | Rainbelt Echo ceases publishing in Elizabeth | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 56 |
| September 1, 1960 | Morning Sun ceases publishing in Grand Junction | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 104 |
| September 8, 1960 | Northglenn News begins publishing in Thornton | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 2 |
| September 15, 1960 | Northglenn Tribune begins publishing in Thornton | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 2 |
| September 30, 1960 | Pine post office discontinued in Jefferson County, moved to Conifer | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 113 |
| September 30, 1960 | Divide Review ceases publishing in Kiowa, continues as Elbert County News | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 56 |
| October 1, 1960 | Pine post office reopened as a rural station of Conifer in Jefferson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 113 |
| October 1, 1960 | Conifer post office established in Jefferson County, moved from Pine | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 37 |
| October 6, 1960 | Elbert County News begins publishing in Kiowa | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 56 |
| November 3, 1960 | The Meredith Willson musical The Unsinkable Molly Brown opens at the Winter Garden Theatre in New York City, based on the story of Margaret Tobin Brown | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| 1961 | Adams Record ceases publishing in Thornton | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 2 |
| 1961 | Northglenn News ceases publishing in Thornton | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 2 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|--|
| 1961 | Northglenn Tribune ceases publishing in Thornton | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 2 |
| 1961 | Colorado Statesman ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 40 |
| 1961 | Athmar Observer ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 51 |
| 1961 | Southwest Denver Herald begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 51 |
| 1961 | Brentwood Herald ceases publishing in Arvada | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 81 |
| 1961 | Westlander ceases publishing in Lakewood | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 82 |
| 1961 | Hall of Justice is completed at 1931 East Bridge Street in Brighton; designed by C. Francis Pillsbury | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 120 |
| 1961 | Boulder Public Library is built at 1000 Canyon Boulevard; designed by James M. Hunter Associates | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 172 |
| 1961 | An addition to the Broadmoor Hotel termed Broadmoor South opens in Colorado Springs | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 300 |
| 1961 | The International Center opens at the Broadmoor Hotel in Colorado Springs | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 302 |
| 1961 | Work begins on constructing the North American Air Defense Command (NORAD) in Cheyenne Mountain outside Colorado Springs; completed in 1966 by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers removing 693,000 tons of rock and creating 14 metal buildings behind blast-proof steel gates and cushioned atop springs in case of an atomic attack; a self contained community with water and power | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 307 |
| 1961 | Original Cheyenne County Jail at 85 W. 2nd Street in Cheyenne Wells is converted to the Eastern Colorado Historical Society Museum by the Cheyenne Wells Business and Professional Women | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 398 |
| 1961 | Breckenridge Ski Area opens | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 458 |
| 1961 | Fitzhugh Scott builds the first house in what becomes headquarters for the Vail Development Partnership headed by Peter Seibert a veteran of the 10th Mountain Division | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 469 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|--|--|
| January 1961 | Adams County Almanac begins publishing in Westminster | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 2 |
| January 30, 1961 | California Building razed at 17th & California in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| February 1961 | Park Hill Reporter begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 51 |
| March 24, 1961 | A three alarms fire destroys a four-story building on Arapahoe Street in downtown Denver | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| June 1, 1961 | Buckskin Joe post office established in Fremont County, established as a rural station of Canon City, located near the Royal Gorge | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 25 |
| June 6, 1961 | Rocky Shimp ceases publishing in Japanese in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 50 |
| June 23, 1961 | Arickaree post office discontinued in Washington County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 13 |
| July 7, 1961 | Dailey post office discontinued in Logan County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 41 |
| July 11, 1961 | United Airline flight 859 crashes and burns at Denver's Stapleton Airfield killing 17 | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| July 14, 1961 | Miners Digest begins publishing in Cripple Creek | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 138 |
| July 16, 1961 | Mancos Creek post office established in Montezuma County, as a rural station of Cortez at Indian trading post | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 95 |
| July 22, 1961 | Pine post office discontinued in Jefferson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 113 |
| July 22, 1961 | Pine post office established in Jefferson County as a independent post office | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 113 |
| August 31, 1961 | Denver Blade begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 51 |
| September 15, 1961 | Valdez post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 146 |
| November 1961 | A police corruption scandal is uncovered in the Denver Police Department prompting a comprehensive plan for reform and modernization | Mary Fretch, state editor, Chronology and Documentary Handbook of the State of Colorado, 1973, p. 15 |
| November 1, 1961 | Ground broken for Capitol Life Building at 16th and Grant in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|--|
| November 24, 1961 | Firstview post office discontinued in Cheyenne County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 54 |
| December 15, 1961 | Buford post office discontinued in Rio Blanco County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 25 |
| 1960s | Mill Creek Circle Houses built for many of Vail's founders | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 472 |
| 1962 | Sunrise Sentinel begins publishing in Longmont | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 14 |
| 1962 | Park Hill Reporter ceases publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 51 |
| 1962 | Denver Herald-Dispatch begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 51 |
| 1962 | Tiempo begins publishing in Spanish in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 51 |
| 1962 | Congress approves the $70 million Frying Pan-Arkansas River Project to bring western water to the southeastern Colorado irrigation area | Mary Fretch, state editor, Chronology and Documentary Handbook of the State of Colorado, 1973, p. 16 |
| 1962 | Denver Public Library Ross Cherry Creek branch opens at 305 Milwaukee Street; designed by Paul R. Reddy | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 93 |
| 1962 | The Jewish Community Center is completed at 4800 East Alameda Avenue in Denver; designed by Nathaniel Sachter and Robert Max Morris | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 118 |
| 1962 | Robert Bradley buys the George Gano home at 4100 S. University; known later as the The Gano-Bradley Mansion | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 134 |
| 1962 | Tutt Library opens on the Colorado College campus; designed by Skidmore, Owings and Merrill | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 294 |
| 1962 | Lathrop State Park is established three miles west of Walsenburg as Colorado's first state park | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 372 |
| 1962 | Silverthorne is established as a construction camp for the Dillon Dam and Roberts Tunnel that diverted water from the Blue River under the continental divide to provide water for the Denver Metropolitan area | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 466 |
| 1962 | Vail is founded as a ski town along the highway built in 1940; just down the hill from the pass named for Colorado Highway Department Chief Engineer Charles D. Vail | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 469 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|---|---|
| 1962 | Lodge-at-Vail opens; designed by Fitzhugh Scott at 174 E. Gore Creek Drive next to chairlift No. 1 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 469 |
| 1962 | The subdivision of Starwood opens with over 80 homes; many valued in the millions | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 497 |
| 1962 | Colorado's first Main Street Mall is constructed in Grand Junction | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 504 |
| 1962 | W.E. Campbell College Center built on the Mesa College Campus in Grand Junction | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 508 |
| 1962 | Julie Harris Theater opens in Strawberry Park near Steamboat Springs | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 526 |
| 1962 | Clarence T. Hurst Science Hall opens on the Western State College campus in Gunnison housing the Hurst Museum with exhibits and artifacts | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 538 |
| 1962 | Fort Lewis College becomes a four-year college in Durango and the second largest industry after tourism | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 559 |
| 1962 | The Denver Technological Center (DTC) opens southeast of Denver | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xvi |
| 1962 | Developer George M. Wallace opens the Denver Technological Center on 40 acres of former farmland some 15 miles southeast of downtown Denver; by 1980 the DTC covers more than 800 acres | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 109 |
| 1962 | Commerce City, in the southern part of Adams County, changes its name from Commerce Town after absorbing Adams City, Derby, Irondale & Rose Hill | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 125 |
| 1962 | Western Federal Savings building completed, in Denver, with 24 stories and a height of 352 feet | Western History Subject Index, Denver.Buildings.Heights |
| January 1962 | Arapahoe Tribune begins publishing in Littleton | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 6 |
| January 1, 1962 | Silverthorne post office established in Summit County, established as a rural station of Dillon in 1886 and then became a classified station | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 132 |
| January 24, 1962 | East Portal post office discontinued in Gilpin County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 48 |
| February 5, 1962 | Adams County Dispatch begins publishing in Westminster | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 2 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|----------------|---|--|
| March 1, 1962 | Public Service Company Headquarters Office Building (HOB) at 550 15th Street in Denver is dedicated | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| April 5, 1962 | Rocky Mountain Journal begins publishing in Japanese and English in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 51 |
| April 24, 1962 | The first of a series of minor earthquakes are recorded in the Denver metropolitan area; these are later tied to the injection of hazardous waste by the Rocky Mountain Arsenal deep into an underground well | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| April 24, 1962 | Byron White is sworn in as U.S. Supreme Court Justice; the former All-American football player from the University of Colorado will spend 31 years on the Court | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| April 28, 1962 | Aurora post office reestablished in Adams County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 15 |
| May 2, 1962 | Ground is broken for the Federal Building at 19th and Stout in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| May 24, 1962 | Boulder astronaut Scott Carpenter becomes the fourth person to orbit the earth | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| May 29, 1962 | Astronaut Scott Carpenter is feted in his hometown of Boulder | Mary Fretch, state editor, Chronology and Documentary Handbook of the State of Colorado, 1973, p. 16 |
| June 1962 | Arvada Herald begins publishing in Arvada | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 81 |
| June 1, 1962 | Magic Mountain post office discontinued in Jefferson County, later site of Heritage Square Station | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 92 |
| June 13, 1962 | Rocky Mountain Journal ceases publishing in Japanese and English in Denver, continues as Rocky Mountain Jiho | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 51 |
| June 14, 1962 | Basin Star ceases publishing in Durango | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 89 |
| June 16, 1962 | Mancos Creek post office discontinued in Montezuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 95 |
| June 20, 1962 | Rocky Mountain Jiho begins publishing in Japanese and English in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 51 |
| July 1, 1962 | Ground is broken for the Security Life Building at 16th and Glenarm with the Top of the Rockies restaurant on its top floor and an outside elevator in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|--|
| August 1, 1962 | Redstone post office discontinued in Pitkin County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 120 |
| September 2, 1962 | Fire badly damages the Albany Hotel in Denver killing a waitress, Stella Bruce, and injured about 50 others during the four-hour inferno | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| November 9, 1962 | Crested Butte Chronicle begins publishing in Crested Butte | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 73 |
| November 15, 1962 | First three of an eventual eight Atlas missiles sites controlled by Warren Air Force Base near Cheyenne are begun in Colorado | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| November 21, 1962 | Mining Exchange Building at 15th & Arapahoe is razed in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| December 1962 | Vail ski area opens with ten miles of trails, the country's first gondola and a restaurant and gas station on the west side of Vail Pass with parking for 650 cars | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 159 |
| December 14, 1962 | Telluride Times begins publishing in Telluride | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 133 |
| December 20, 1862 | Western Mountaineer ceases publishing in Laurette (also called Buckskin Joe) | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 115 |
| 1963 | Sunrise Sentinel ceases publishing in Longmont | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 14 |
| 1963 | Tiempo ceases publishing in Spanish in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 51 |
| 1963 | Denver Technological Center begins as the brainchild of George M. Wallace who wanted a "campus for the creative worker"; the office park is south of Denver on the east side of I-25 between Bellevue and Orchard Avenues | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 131 |
| 1963 | Paul Meyer Physics Hall opens on the Colorado School of Mines campus; designed by Fuller, Fuller and Fuller | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 154 |
| 1963 | The Fort Restaurant is built on Colorado Highway 8 just north of U.S. 285; designed by Santa Fe architect Bill Lumpkins as a replica of Bent's Fort for Sam & Mary Arnold; it features a central courtyard | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 161 |
| 1963 | The Willard House is completed at 125 Bellevue Drive in Boulder; designed by Charles A. Haertling | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 180 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|--|--|
| 1963 | A second bridge is constructed on highway 52 over the South Platte River near Fort Morgan to relieve the traffic volume on the forty year old roadbed | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 253 |
| 1963 | Antlers Hotel demolished at Cascade Avenue between Colorado and Peak Avenues in Colorado Springs | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 290 |
| 1963 | Academy Chapel is completed at the U.S. Air Force Academy; designed by Skidmore, Owings and Merrill with Walter A. Netsch, Jr. as principal architect | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 305 |
| 1963 | Rocky Ford High School opens; designed by Caudill Rowlett Scott | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 394 |
| 1963 | A school is added to the Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Alamosa | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 408 |
| 1963 | Lamb Elementary School opens in Creede; designed by Jerry Crawford | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 433 |
| 1963 | Dillon is flooded to create Denver Water Department's Dillon Reservoir; many town buildings were moved to the Fred Phillips Ranch | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 464 |
| 1963 | Frontier Historical Museum opens at 1001 Colorado Avenue in Glenwood Springs | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 482 |
| 1963 | Visitors' Center constructed at the west entrance to Colorado National Monument | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 509 |
| 1963 | Blue Mesa Reservoir opens in Gunnison County, the largest lake in Colorado | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 539 |
| 1963 | Dana Crawford and others form Larimer Square Associates to preserve structures between 14th & 15th Streets and revitalize Denver's main business street in its early years; rescues it from the skid row it had become | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 165 |
| January 1963 | Chafee Park Star begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 51 |
| January 8, 1963 | John Love takes the oath as Colorado's 36th governor | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| January 31, 1963 | Derby post office discontinued in Adams County, name changed to Commerce City | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 45 |
| February 1, 1963 | Commerce City post office established in Adams County, formerly named Derby | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 36 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|---|--|
| February 16, 1963 | A loose tail pipe on a school bus sickened 38 members of the Bennett High School pep club with carbon monoxide fumes; Denver fire fighters administered oxygen to most of the 55 passengers | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| March 1963 | County Mail begins publishing in Grand Junction | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 104 |
| March 1, 1963 | Denver television station KTVR, channel 2, changes its call letters to KCTO when the ownership of the station changes | Roger Dudley's Denver Television Chronology , p. 36 |
| March 1, 1963 | World's first liver transplant is performed by Dr. Thomas Starzi at University of Colorado Hospital in Denver | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| April 1963 | Thornton Tribune ceases publishing in Thornton | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 2 |
| May 1963 | Silver State Record begins publishing in Denver | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 51 |
| June 5, 1963 | Ground is broken for the Lincoln Tower at 19th & Lincoln in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| June 21, 1963 | Glendevy post office converted to a rural branch of Jelm, Wyoming | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 62 |
| July 25, 1963 | The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service establishes the Alamosa National Wildlife Refuge | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| August 16, 1963 | Iola post office discontinued in Gunnison County, site now in Blue Mesa Reservoir | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 78 |
| August 31, 1963 | Como post office converted to a rural branch of Fairplay, now a community post office in Park County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 36 |
| September 1963 | High Country News begins publishing in Pueblo | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 126 |
| September 1, 1963 | East Tincup post office discontinued in Jefferson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 48 |
| September 1, 1963 | Capitol Life Building dedicated at 16th & Grant in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| September 13, 1963 | Buffalo Creek post office converted to a rural branch of Pine, now a community post office in Jefferson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 25 |
| October 1, 1963 | Vail post office established in Eagle County as a rural station of Minturn | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 145 |
| October 11, 1963 | Adams City post office discontinued in Adams County, converted to a branch of Commerce City | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 9 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|---|
| October 12, 1963 | Curtis Block at 15th and Curtis is razed in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| October 21, 1863 | Colfax post office discontinued in Douglas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 35 |
| December 1963 | Dillon Dam on the Blue River in Summit County is completed; it will cover the former townsite of Dillon | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| December 6, 1963 | Radium post office converted in Grand County to a rural station of Kremling | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 118 |
| December 30, 1963 | Garfield post office discontinued in Chaffee County, converted to a rural branch of Salida, now a community post office | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 59 |
| December 30, 1963 | Proctor post office discontinued in Logan County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 116 |
| 1964 | The Lawrence C. Phipps family donates the Phipps Mansion at 3400 Belcaro Drive and the five acres it sits on to the University of Denver for use as the Lawrence C. Phipps Memorial Conference Center | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 116 |
| 1964 | St. Stephen Lutheran Church completed at 10828 Huron Street in Northglenn; designed by Charles A. Haertling | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 122 |
| 1964 | Sacred Heart Catholic Church is built by Henry De Nicola in Peetz on Colorado 113 replacing a 1914 frame church built there by German Catholics | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 260 |
| 1964 | Cragmore Sanitarium in Colorado Springs on the Austin Bluffs Parkway and Meadow Lane closes and is donated to the University of Colorado at Colorado Springs for an administration building | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 297 |
| 1964 | Junior-Senior High School opens in Holly; designed by Nixon & Jones | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 387 |
| 1964 | Gasthof Gramshammer lodge is built at 231 Gore Creek Drive Vail and operated by Pepi & Sheika Gramshammer | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 469 |
| 1964 | Electra Lake formed with completion of Lemon Dam in La Plata County | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 553 |
| 1964 | Construction of I-225 begins linking I-25 with I-70 through Aurora | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 181 |
| 1964 | Stapleton Airport becomes known as Stapleton International Airport | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 184 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|--|
| 1964 | Stapleton Airport becomes known as Stapleton International Airport | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| 1964 | Security Life Building completed, in Denver, with 30 stories and a height of 403 feet | Western History Subject Index, Denver.Buildings.Heights |
| January 1864 | A man named Van Horn is executed for the murder of Josiah Copeland; the first legal execution in the territory | Frank Hall, History of the State of Colorado , Vol. 2, p. 150 |
| January 5, 1964 | Security Life Building at 16th and Glenarm is dedicated in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| March 15, 1964 | Currihan Hall is dedicated in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| March 24, 1864 | The U.S. Congress passes an act enabling the people of Colorado to form a state government | 1947 Denver Complete Map Atlas of Metropolitan Region, Deluxe edition, Metropolitan Publishing Company, p. 8 |
| April 1, 1964 | Tabor Hotel razed in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| April 19, 1964 | Lincoln Tower at 19th & Lincoln is dedicated in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| May 1964 | Construction of I-225 in Aurora begins in Aurora | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| May 16, 1964 | A house fire near Pueblo kills five children aged 3 to 9; their parents were at a party when the fire began | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| June 11, 1964 | The Unsinkable Molly Brown premieres in Denver starring Debbie Reynolds as Margaret Tobin Brown | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| July 1, 1964 | Coal Creek post office established in Fremont County, spelling changed to Coalcreek | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 35 |
| July 1, 1964 | Coalcreek post office discontinued in Fremont County, spelling changed to Coal Creek | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 35 |
| July 3, 1964 | Garcia post office converted to a rural branch of San Luis, now a community post office in Costilla County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 59 |
| July 3, 1964 | The Lady from Colorado , an opera by Robert Ward, premieres at the Central City Opera House | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| July 11, 1864 | Black Hawk incorporated in Gilpin County, 1,258 acres | 1926 Gazeteer of Cities and Towns of Colorado, 1926 Colorado Yearbook, Colorado State Board of Immigration |
| July 31, 1964 | North Avondale post office converted in Pueblo County to a rura; station of Pueblo | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 106 |
| August 26, 1964 | The Beatles perform at Red Rocks [the only show on their U.S. tour that did not sell out] | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| September 1, 1964 | Colorado City post office established in Pueblo County, established a s a rural branch of Pueblo, now a community post office | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 36 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|--|--|
| December 4, 1964 | Hillside post office converted to a rural branch of Canon City in Fremont County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 73 |
| 1965 | Rodolfo "Corky" Gonzales organizes the Crusade for Justice in Denver; an organization and social movement to aid the Chicano population; housed in a former church at 1567 Downing Street | Rodolfo "Corky" Gonzales Papers, WH1971 finding aid, Denver Public Library, biographical note |
| 1960s | A missile silo is installed five miles northeast of Keota at the junction of Weld County roads 104 and 111; one of dozens around the state; when the cold war ends they are all decommissioned | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 247 |
| 1960s-1970s | Denver Urban Renewal Authority (DURA) clears more than 625 businesses from downtown Denver amounting to over 100 acres of land | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 165 |
| 1965 | Colorado National Bank at 918 17th Street gets an addition of two stories; designed by John B. Rogers and Jerome K. Nagel | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 59 |
| 1965 | Littleton Carnegie Library at 2707 W. Main Street becomes the police building when a new library opens; later it becomes a restaurant | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 126 |
| 1965 | Englewood Savings and Loan opens at 3501 S. Broadway; the 32-foot high white ellipsoid was designed by Charles Deaton; later known as Commercial Federal Bank | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 130 |
| 1965 | St. John's Episcopal Church at 1419 Pine Street in Boulder gets a new chapel; designed by Hobart Wagener | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 174 |
| 1965 | The Silver Plume Depot is moved from the west end of town and restored | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 207 |
| 1965 | Morgan Library is completed on the Colorado State College Campus in Fort Collins at University Avenue and Centre Avenue | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 228 |
| 1965 | Weld County Courthouse in Greeley is renovated | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 243 |
| 1965 | Addition is made to the Overland Trail Museum at Sterling | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 259 |
| 1965 | University of Southern Colorado opens north of Pueblo on an 847-acre campus designed by Cuadill Rowell Scott | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 320 |
| 1965 | McClelland Public Library opens at 100 E. Abriendo Avenue in South Pueblo; designed by James M. Hunter | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 325 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-----------------|---|--|
| 1965 | Creede Depot becomes part of a museum run by the Creede Historical Society | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 432 |
| 1965 | Alpine Visitor Center completed where Fall River Road meets Trail Ridge Road; designed by William C. Muchow and Associates | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 457 |
| 1965 | Fitzhugh Scott builds another Vail ski lodge this one at 356 East Hanson Ranch Road and called Christiana-at-Vail | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 469 |
| 1965 | Aspen Music Tent opens; designed by Herbert Bayer at 4th & Gillespie streets | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 490 |
| 1965 | Aspen School Complex begins at 446 Maroon Creek Road; designed by Samuel L. Caudill | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 497 |
| 1965 | Orchard City established in Delta County absorbing the towns of Eckert, Cory & Austin | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 535 |
| 1965 | Ski Lodge at Mount Crested Butte opens; designed by Bruce Alonza Goff at 33 Whetstone Road | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 542 |
| 1965 | San Jaun County Jail turned into the San Juan County History Museum incorporating many features of the jail including leg irons and steel cells | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 563 |
| 1965 | Far View Visitor Center opens at Mesa Verde 14 miles from the park entrance | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 599 |
| 1965 | Dana Crawford and Associates establish Larimer Square and spark a historic preservation movement | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xvi |
| 1965 | By this year there are more than 50 shopping centers in the Denver Metropolitan area | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 112 |
| 1965 | Englewood sells its City Park to the developers of a new shopping center, Cinderella City near Santa Fe & W. Hampden Avenue | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 126 |
| 1965 | Arapahoe Community College opens in Littleton after some ramshackle buildings are cleared | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 176 |
| 1965 | Mayor Thomas Currihan appoints Rodolfo "Corky" Gonzales as Director of Denver's Neighborhood Youth Corps, part of the War on Poverty | Rodolfo "Corky" Gonzales Papers, WH1971 finding aid, Denver Public Library, biographical note |
| January 5, 1965 | Fire strikes the J.A. Sharoff Company at 1644 Market Street in Denver | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| January 6, 1965 | Fire strikes the Protex Industries building at 1331 West Evans Avenue in Denver | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|--|--|
| February 20, 1965 | Fire causes extensive damage to St. John's Church in Denver | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| March 26, 1965 | The last Titan I missile is taken off alert status | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| March 26, 1965 | Aroya post office discontinued in Cheyenne County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 14 |
| April 24, 1965 | Glendevey post office transferred to a rural branch of Walden in Larimer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 62 |
| June 16, 1965 | South Platte River floods Denver and prompts construction of Chatfield Reservoir | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xvi |
| June 16, 1965 | The South Platte River floods after a downpour near Sedalia that sent a crest of water through Denver; many bridges wiped out and at least 26 people killed; numerous race horses stabled at Centennial Race Track in Littleton also died; damage estimated at $500,000,000 | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 187 |
| June 16, 1965 | A flood on the South Platte River kills 28 people and does $500 million in damage in Castle Rock, Denver and north to the Nebraska state line | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| June 29, 1965 | Fort Collins Fire Chief Clifford Carpenter is killed when the wall of a flaming bookstore gives way | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| July 7, 1965 | May Company building is razed at 16th & Champa in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| July 25, 1965 | The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service establishes the Browns Park Wildlife Refuge | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| July 30, 1965 | Ninaview post office discontinued in Bent County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 105 |
| September 24, 1965 | Red Wing post office converted to a rural Walsenburg station in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 120 |
| October 4, 1965 | Metropolitan State College holds its first classes in rented facilities; later Metropolitan State University | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xvi |
| October 8, 1965 | Kokomo post office discontinue in Summit County, townsite now buried under AMAX tailings pile. | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 83 |
| December 4, 1965 | Homelake post office converted to a rural station of Monte Vista in Rio Grande County, now a community post office | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 74 |
| December 12, 1965 | Construction begins in Denver on I-270 | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|---|
| 1966 | St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church in Castle Rock at 210 3rd Street is converted into a restaurant and bar when the parish moves to a larger church | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 143 |
| 1966 | Coney Island Diner erected at 4190 W. Colfax Avenue in Denver; later moved to 25877 Conifer Road at US 285; this prefabricated hot dog and bun measures 42 feet tip to tip in a 34 foot bun designed by Marcus R. Shannon | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 162 |
| 1966 | Deaton House is built by Charles Deaton on Mt. Genesee overlooking I-70 and known by many as the "Sleeper House" after many scenes of Woody Allen's film Sleeper were filmed there in 1972 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 163 |
| 1966 | Trinity English Lutheran Church at 2200 Broadway in Boulder gets a sanctuary designed by Robert Saas | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 175 |
| 1966 | Engineering Sciences Building in completed on the University of Colorado Boulder campus; designed by William C. Muchow and Associates; sometimes referred to as Mineshaft | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 179 |
| 1966 | Rocky Mountain National Park's Headquarters and Visitors' Center 3 miles west of Estes Park on US 34 opens; designed by Taliesin Architects | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 238 |
| 1966 | First Christian Church is built at 2230 13th Street in Greeley; designed by James Johnson | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 244 |
| 1966 | Sterling Beef Company packing plant opens | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 256 |
| 1966 | Construction of the North American Air Defense Command (NORAD) under Cheyenne Mountain outside Colorado Springs is completed by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers; 693,000 tons of rock was removed to allow creation of 14 metal buildings behind blast-proof steel gates and cushioned atop springs in case of an atomic attack; a self contained community with water and power | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 307 |
| 1966 | Jack Dempsey Home and Museum is created when the "Manassa Mauler's" single-room birthplace home is moved to the town park of Manassa in Conejos County | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 424 |
| 1966 | Museum of Western Colorado opens in Grand Junction at Ute Avenue and S. 4th Street, the former Whitman Elementary School | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 504 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|---|
| 1966 | Mount Crested Butte Ski Area opens on the former Malensk Ranch bringing life back to the community | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 540 |
| 1966 | San Miguel County Historical Society Museum opens in the renovated 1895 hospital at 201 W. Gregory Avenue in Telluride | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 589 |
| 1966 | Jared Morse and George Kelly collaborate to design a place 10 miles west of Cortez now called the Kelly Place Bed and Breakfast | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 595 |
| 1966 | Rodolfo "Corky" Gonzales founds the Crusade for Justice to secure Chicano rights | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xvi |
| 1966 | Conservatory designed by Victor Hornbein and Edward White at the Denver Botanic Gardens opens | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 114 |
| 1966 | Rodolfo "Corky" Gonzales founds the Crusade for Justice and purchases an old church at 16th Avenue and Downing for a headquarters | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 139 |
| 1966 | Brooks Towers completed, in Denver, with 42 stories | Western History Subject Index, Denver.Buildings.Heights |
| January 1, 1966 | Artesia post office discontinued in Moffat County, name changed to Dinosaur | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 14 |
| January 1, 1966 | Dinosaur post office established in Moffat County, formerly named Artesia | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 45 |
| January 1, 1966 | Air Force Systems Command turns the Cheyenne Mountain Combat Operations Center over to the North American Air Defense Command (NORAD) | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| January 20, 1966 | Federal Building at 19th and Stout is dedicated in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| January 29, 1966 | Vail post office established in Eagle County as an independent post office | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 145 |
| February 25, 1966 | Milner post office converted to a rural branch of Steamboat Springs, became a community post office in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 98 |
| March 7, 1966 | Denver television station KCTO, channel 2, changes its call letters to KWGN when the ownership of the station changes | Roger Dudley's Denver Television Chronology , p. 67 |
| March 11, 1966 | Loretto post office discontinued in Denver County, converted to a station of Denver | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 91 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|---|---|
| March 25, 1966 | Granite post office converted to a rural branch of Buena Vista in Chaffee County, now a community post office of Salida | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 65 |
| March 31, 1966 | Buckskin Joe post office discontinued in Fremont County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 25 |
| April 30, 1966 | Association Camp post office converted April 30, 1966 to a rural branch of Fort Collins, now [1989] a community post office of Estes Park | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 14 |
| April 30, 1966 | Royal Gorge post office converted to a rural branch of Canon City in Fremont County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 124 |
| May 6, 1966 | Elk Springs post office changed to a rural branch of Craig in Moffat County, and later to a community post office | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 50 |
| July 1, 1966 | Buckingham post office discontinued in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 25 |
| August 16, 1966 | Mountain Park post office established in Jefferson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 101 |
| August 16, 1966 | Colorado Sierra post office established in Gilpin County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 36 |
| August 31, 1966 | Lawson post office discontinued in Clear Creek County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 88 |
| October 19, 1966 | Blue Mesa Dam on the Gunnison River is completed | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| December 2, 1966 | Rosita post office discontinued in Custer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 124 |
| 1967 | National Center for Atmospheric Research opens on the west end of Table Mountain; designed by I.M. Pei | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 181 |
| 1967 | The former Flagler Hotel is converted from a hospital to the Flagler Municipal Building at 311 Main Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 267 |
| 1967 | American Numismatic Association Money Museum opens in Colorado Springs at 818 N. Cascade Avenue; designed by Carlisle B. Guy and Associates | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 294 |
| 1967 | Thatcher Mansion is donated to the city of Pueblo for use as a house museum; now called Rosemount Mansion | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 319 |
| 1967 | Fritz Benedict opens Snowmass Village 3 miles south of Snowmass | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 500 |
| 1967 | Tomlinson Library opens on the Mesa College Campus in Grand Junction | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 508 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|---|---|
| 1967 | Colorado Mountain College opens in Steamboat Springs in a building designed by Nixon and Jones | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 522 |
| 1967 | Bud Werner Memorial Library opens in Steamboat Springs; designed by Tor Westgaard to commemorate the local ski champion killed in a 1964 Swiss Alps avalanche | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 522 |
| 1967 | Homestake Dam completed west of Leadville to provide water to Colorado Springs and Aurora | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xvi |
| 1967 | Boulder residents vote for a sales tax with which to purchase open space | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 124 |
| 1967 | Denver Mayor Thomas G. Currigan resigns his post because of the paltry $14,000 a year salary and deputy mayor William "Bill" McNichols Jr. becomes the mayor; he holds the post until 1983 | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 141 |
| 1967 | The Denver Broncos add Floyd Little to their roster; he plays until 1975 leading professional football in rushing for six of those years | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 149 |
| 1967 | Denver establishes a Landmark Preservation Commission to identify and preserve worthy structures | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 165 |
| 1967 | The toll gates are removed from the Denver-Boulder Turnpike when the road pays for itself ahead of schedule | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 181 |
| 1967 | Homestake Project begins diverting water from the western slope for use in Aurora and Colorado Springs | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 186 |
| 1967 | Rodolfo "Corky" Gonzales' epic poem, Yo Soy Joaquin (I am Joaquin) is published | Rodolfo "Corky" Gonzales Papers, WH1971 finding aid, Denver Public Library, biographical note |
| circa 1967 | The Van Aire subdivision of 90 homes opens near Brighton with oversized garages for small aircraft in the "fly-in" community | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 120 |
| late 1960s | Denver's Skyline Urban Renewal project clears 113 acres of downtown buildings to make space for behemoth high rise buildings | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 109 |
| January 27, 1967 | Virginia Dale post office discontinued in Larimer County, converted to a rural branch of Laporte | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 147 |
| April 7, 1967 | Chimney Rock post office converted in Archuleta County to a rural branch of Pagosa Springs, later to a community post office | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 33 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|---|--|
| April 25, 1967 | Amid much controversy legislation is passed for what was at the time the most liberal abortion law in the country | Mary Fretch, state editor, Chronology and Documentary Handbook of the State of Colorado, 1973, p. 16 |
| May 19, 1967 | Columbine post office discontinued in Routt County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 36 |
| May 19, 1967 | Eldora post office in Boulder County converted to a rural branch of Nederland from June 1 to September 30 as a summer Post Office | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 50 |
| May 31, 1967 | Chipita Park post office discontinued in El Paso County, converted to a rural branch of Cascade | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 33 |
| June 30, 1967 | Spivak post office discontinued in Jefferson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 134 |
| July 14, 1967 | Bowie post office discontinued in Delta County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 22 |
| July 14, 1967 | Willard post office discontinued in Logan County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 152 |
| August 11, 1967 | Sapinero post office converted to a rural branch of Gunnison post office in Gunnison County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 128 |
| September 5, 1967 | The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service establishes the Arapaho National Wildlife Refuge | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| September 14, 1967 | Tolls on Denver-Boulder turnpike are ended 12 years ahead of schedule | Denver Post September 14 p.2; Rocky Mountain News September 15, p.5 |
| September 17, 1967 | The Denver-Boulder Turnpike becomes the first public toll road in the U.S. to pay for itself and becomes a freeway designated US 36 running from Denver to Estes Park | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| October 1, 1967 | Denver Chamber of Commerce building at 14th and Lawrence is razed | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| December 4, 1967 | Aspen-Gerbaz post office established in Pikin County, established as a rural branch of Aspen, later a community post office | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 14 |
| December 29, 1967 | Masters post office discontinued in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 96 |
| 1968 | The city of Denver buys Bears Stadium and renames it Mile High Stadium | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 102 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|---|
| 1968 | Cinderella City opens on land purchased from the city of Englewood by Gerry Von Frellick, billed as the "world's largest shopping complex under one roof" on a 60-acre site at 701 W. Hampden Avenue | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 130 |
| 1968 | Foothills Art Center moves into the First Presbyterian Church at 809 15th Street in Golden | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 153 |
| 1968 | Fall River Road is converted to a one-way auto nature trail | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 238 |
| 1968 | Big Sandy School is built in Simla at Fox and Pueblo Streets; designed by Bourn & Dulaney with four round pods connected to a central pod forming a cloverleaf | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 277 |
| 1968 | San Luis is incorporated in Costilla County | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 411 |
| 1968 | Steamboat Lake State Recreation Area opens returning life to Hahns Peak | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 527 |
| 1968 | The Denver School Board adopts the Noel Resolution, which envisioned busing students to achieve racial balance; this prompted voters to replace pro-busing members with candidates opposed to busing and in the next session the plan is scuttled | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 138 |
| 1968 | Colorado State Bank building completed, in Denver, with 26 stories and a height of 352 feet | Western History Subject Index, Denver.Buildings.Heights |
| February 10, 1968 | Peggy Fleming wins the gold medal for Women's Figure Skating at the Winter Olympic Games in Grenoble | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| March 15, 1968 | Construction begins on the first bore of the Straight Creek Tunnel which will carry I-70 traffic under the continental divide in what will become known as the Eisenhower-Johnson Tunnel | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| June 1968 | Rodolfo "Corky" Gonzales leads a Chicano contingent to the Poor People's Campaign in Washington DC | Rodolfo "Corky" Gonzales Papers, WH1971 finding aid, Denver Public Library, biographical note |
| November 6, 1968 | Westcreek post office discontinued in Douglas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 150 |
| December 6, 1968 | Tyrone post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 144 |
| 1969 | Plains Conservation Center opens at 21901 E. Hampden Avenue; sod buildings create an agricultural museum on 2,000 acres of virgin prairie in South Aurora | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 140 |
| 1969 | Lakewood incorporates as a city | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 157 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|--|---|
| 1969 | Greeley Municipal Center opens at 919 7th Street; designed by Carpenter, Williams, Johnson to house the general city offices, along with the fire & police offices, library and Greeley Municipal Museum | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 243 |
| 1969 | Flagler Library moves into the Municipal Building at 311 Main Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 267 |
| 1969 | Florissant Beds National Monument declared, but plundering and commercialization had been going on since 1874 when they were first discovered | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 335 |
| 1969 | Bishop's Castle opens in Silver Cliff 6 miles north of Lake San Isabel on Colorado 165 as a midieval-inspired castle using stone and iron | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 369 |
| 1969 | Aspen Interfaith Chapel of the Prince of Peace opens at 70 Meadowood Drive; designed by Henighan and Gale | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 497 |
| 1969 | Walter Walker Fine Arts Center opens on the Mesa College campus in Grand Junction | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 508 |
| 1969 | Hotchkiss National Fish Hatchery opens near Hotchkiss which annually raises about 1.2 million rainbow trout | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 535 |
| 1969 | Joseph T. Zoline announces plans to build the Telluride Ski Area in San Miguel County creating a new economic engine for the former mining community | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 584 |
| 1969 | Resolution by Rachel Noel calls for integration of Denver Public Schools | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xvi |
| 1969 | Fire at Rocky Flats threatens the Denver Metropolitan area with radioactive plutonium dust | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xvi |
| 1969 | Jefferson City incorporates west of Denver; later becomes Lakewood | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xvi |
| 1969 | Lakewood incorporates after nearly 80 years of existence | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 128 |
| 1969 | I-25 is completed from its northern border with Wyoming to its southern border on Raton Pass | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 181 |
| 1969 | Arapahoe Block razed in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| January 2, 1969 | Sopris post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 133 |
| February 5, 1969 | Cooper Building at 17th and Curtis razed in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|--|--|
| February 8, 1969 | Three simultaneous 3-alarm fires are fought by the Denver Fire Department at Carney Lumber Co., Empire Roofing Co., and the Miller Hotel | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| February 28, 1969 | Cameo post office discontinued in Mesa County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 27 |
| April 4, 1969 | Doyleville post office discontinued in Gunnison County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 47 |
| May 11, 1969 | A fire at Rocky Flats in building 776-777 nearly burns through the roof, which would have released deadly plutonium ash into the atmosphere exposing nearby residents and workers to toxic radiation | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 105 |
| May 11, 1969 | A plutonium fire at the Rocky Flats trigger factory in Building 776/777 contaminates the plant near Arvada in the most expensive U.S. industrial accident to date | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| May 12, 1969 | Denver is selected to host the 1976 Winter Olympic Games by the International Olympic Committee | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| June 24, 1969 | City of Lakewood incorporates in east Jefferson County | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| July 1, 1969 | Colorado creates the Regional Transportation District in the Denver metropolitan area | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| August 20, 1969 | President Nixon signs an Act of Congress creating the Florissant Fossil Beds National Monument | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| August 20, 1969 | Wheat Ridge incorporates in east Jefferson County | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| September 10, 1969 | A nuclear device is detonated 8,000 feet below ground to release natural gas trapped in compacted rock formations [Project Rulison] | Mary Fretch, state editor, Chronology and Documentary Handbook of the State of Colorado, 1973, p. 16 |
| September 10, 1969 | The U.S. Atomic Energy Commission detonates an underground nuclear explosion in Western Colorado; Project Rulison detonated a blast equal to 40,000 tons of TNT to determine if a nuclear explosion could be used to release natural gas from shale deposits; the gas became radioactive and was unuseable | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| September 21, 1969 | The final 21-mile segment of I-25 is opened to traffic south of Walsenberg completing the 305.040 mile north-south highway through Colorado | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |
| October 1969 | John Denver's debut album Rhymes & Reasons is released | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-4-2017 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|--|--|
| October 5, 1969 | Tabor Block at 16th and Larimer is razed in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| October 19, 1969 | Arapahoe Block razed in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| October 20, 1969 | Pueblo West post office established in Pueblo County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 116 |
| 1970 | Arvada Enterprise ceases publishing in Arvada | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 81 |
| 1970 | Colorado's population is 2,207,259 | Mary Fretch, state editor, Chronology and Documentary Handbook of the State of Colorado, 1973, p. 16 |
| 1970 | The house now known as the Molly Brown House at 1340 Pennsylvania Street in Denver is targeted for demolition prompting creation of Historic Denver Incorporated by people concerend with the loss of so many historic homes; the home is saved and becomes a popular tourist site with gift shop and reception area in the carriage house | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 80 |
| 1970 | Littleton Historical Museum opens at 6028 S. Gallup Street overlooking Ketring Lake | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 127 |
| 1970 | Greenwood Plaza is begun West of I-25 between Belleview Avenue and Arapahoe as designed by John Madden Company incorporating fine art and architecture | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 132 |
| 1970 | Interstate Dog Track opens outside of Byers near I-70 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 141 |
| 1970 | Green Center opens on the Colorado School of Mines campus; designed by Kenneth R. White | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 154 |
| 1970 | Coney Island Diner purchased by Beverly & Jan Slager and moved to 25877 Conifer Road at US 285 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 162 |
| 1970 | The Kuner-Empson cannery closes in Longmont and is redeveloped into the Cannery Apartments | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 186 |
| 1970 | Old Main burns down on the Colorado State University campus during a Vietnam war protest | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 227 |
| 1970 | United Bank Building is constructed at 1000 10th Street in Greeley; later becomes Greeley City Hall | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 244 |
| 1970 | St. Ann Catholic Church in Kiowa becomes the Elbert County library at 331 E. Comanche | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 274 |
| 1970 | La Jara train depot is converted to a Town Hall | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 423 |
| 1970 | C. Bland Jameson sells the Ruby Lake Cabins in Mineral County to the U.S. Forest Service | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 437 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-----------|---|---|
| 1970 | Keystone experiences a resurrection when Ralston Purina Corporation opens the Keystone Ski Area and Resort in what had become a Summit County ghost town | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 465 |
| 1970 | Keystone Resort opens on US 6 on the west side of Loveland Pass | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 465 |
| 1970 | Goltra House completed at 385 Mill Creek Circle in Vail; designed by Harry Weese | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 472 |
| 1970 | Snowmass Villas open on Brush Creek Road; designed by Ian McKinley and Henrick Bull on Brush Creek Road | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 501 |
| 1970 | Craig power plant opens in Craig a project of the Colorado-Ute Electric Association with three 600-foot high smokestacks; brings a boon to the coal mines nearby | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 517 |
| 1970 | David Lundlow converts the Pine Grove Ranch Barn into the Pine Grove Restaurant at 1465 Pine Grove Road in Steamboat Springs | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 525 |
| 1970 | Echo Manor Inn opens at 3360 Archuleta County Road 84 south of Archuleta; called "The Castle" by many | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 553 |
| 1970 | Colorado wins the right to host the 1976 Winter Olympics; voters reject the tax increase in 1972 to fund necessary infrastructure for the games | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xvi |
| 1970 | The Denver Nuggets become a team in the American Basketball Association | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 154 |
| 1970 | Historic Denver, Inc. is formed to buy the former home of Margaret Tobin "Molly" Brown at 1340 Pennsylvania | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 165 |
| 1970 | David H. Moffat's mansion at 8th and Logan falls victim to the wrecking ball | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 166 |
| 1970 | Aurora History Commission is founded and in 1979 opens the Aurora History Museum | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 171 |
| 1970-2000 | Denver's population begins a 30 year decline that will remove some 45,000 Denverites to the suburbs largely the result of busing to achieve school integration | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 117 |
| 1970s | The Columbine Mill is extensively remodeled at 5798 S. Rapp Street in Littleton and becomes the Columbine Mill Brewery and restaurant; it's the only surviving structure of the many which made the town a milling center | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 126 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|--|
| 1970s | Comanche Crossing Museum opens at 56060 E. Colfax Avenue in Strasburg on land donated by Philip Anschutz | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 141 |
| 1970s | The former Normandeau store at 1617 Miner Street is restored and becomes the Buffalo Bar with a restaurant, billiard hall, and an Eastlake back bar | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 210 |
| 1970s | The Fort Collins Post Office at 201 College Avenue is converted to retail shops when a new post office opens | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 230 |
| 1970s | Hunt House at 1st and Colorado Avenue is remodeled to become the Alamosa Senior Center | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 407 |
| 1970s | Lindisfarne Celtic Monastery opens near Crestone as designed by Sim van der Ryn and Keith Critchlow at the south end of Camino Baca Grande; now called the Crestone Mountain Zen Center | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 442 |
| 1970s | The Briggles House in Breckenridge becomes known as Mars Hotel - a crash pad for hippies at 401 N. Harris Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 462 |
| 1970s | Aspen Mall opens in the 400 block of Hyman Street and the 300 and 400 blocks of Mill Street, the 400 block of Cooper Street and the 400 block of Galena Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 495 |
| 1970s | Denver & Rio Grande Depot in Silverton at the east end of 10th Street is restored by the San Juan Historical Society and since 1982 has served as the ticket office for the Durango-Silverton Narrow Gauge Railroad | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 562 |
| 1970s | Russell Stover Candies moves its main plant from Denver to Montrose | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 578 |
| circa 1970 | A gym and recreation center are built in Creede as part of the school complex designed by Jerry Crawford | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 433 |
| January 13, 1970 | Ground is broken for Prudential Plaza, 16th & Arapahoe in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| February 1970 | Dynamite destroys 23 parked Denver school buses and damages another 15 in a storage facility in an action against busing to integrate Denver's schools | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 138 |
| February 5, 1970 | Explosives damage 42 school buses at the Denver Public Schools bus storage lot as the city moves to busing to desegregate the schools | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| February 13, 1970 | Ground is broken for the Diamond Hill Building near Speer and Valley Highway in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|--|---|
| April 1, 1970 | Colorado's population increases 25.85 percent since the 1970 census with 2,207,259 recorded in this enumeration | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| May 3, 1970 | Ground is broken for the Lincoln Center in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| July 25, 1970 | Hillside post office transferred to a rural branch of Salida in Fremont County, later a community post office | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 73 |
| July 31, 1970 | Parkdale post office discontinued in Fremont County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 111 |
| October 23, 1970 | Timpas post office discontinued in Otero County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 141 |
| October 23, 1970 | The final segment of I-270 is opened, completing the 5.2-mile Interstate Highway | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| 1970s | The former Cullen-Thompson Motor Company at 1000 Broadway is converted to a 3-story Deco Gothic sporting goods store called the "Sports Castle"; it is first owned by Gart Brothers and later Sports Authority in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 77 |
| 1971 | Denver Art Museum opens designed by Gio Ponti with James Sudler Associates at 100 W. 14th Avenue | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 45 |
| 1971 | The family of Henry McAllister donate the Pearce-McAllister House at 1880 Gaylord Street to the Colorado Historical Society and in 1987 it became the home of the Denver Museum of Miniatures, Dolls and Toys | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 90 |
| 1971 | Denver's Four Mile House at 5000 East Exposition is restored by Edward D. White, Jr. as a museum | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 117 |
| 1971 | Boulder Valley Eye Center is built at 2401 Broadway; designed by Charles A. Haertling | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 176 |
| 1971 | The Hamill House is acquired by the Georgetown Society who restore it and furnish it as a museum even retaining the six-seat outhouse | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 202 |
| 1971 | Leadville's Carnegie library begins to be converted into a Heritage Museum | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 361 |
| 1971 | Cumbres and Toltec Scenic Railroad uses the old 1880 64-mile long Denver & Rio Grande line to Chama, New Mexico from Antonito; renovated in 1971 by Colorado and New Mexico to save the line from abandonment | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 421 |
| 1971 | A new depot is constructed at Antonito as part of the new Cumbres and Toltec Scenic Railroad | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 421 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|--|
| 1971 | Denver & Rio Grande donates the old Denver & Salt Lake Depot in Hayden to the town for use as a museum | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 528 |
| 1971 | Former St. Joseph Hospital in Ouray at 420 6th Avenue becomes the Ouray County Historical Museum | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 573 |
| 1971 | Morrow Point Dam built by the Bureau of Land Management one mile northeast of Cimarron this is the first double curvature, thin-arch dam in U.S. with an underground 120 MB powerplant and a spillway three times higher than Niagara Falls | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 583 |
| January 17, 1971 | Five children die in a Denver housefire trapped in an upstairs bedroom | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| January 31, 1971 | Kutch post office discontinued in Elbert County, moved to Sanborn. | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 84 |
| January 31, 1971 | Diamond Hill Building near Speer and Valley Highway is dedicated in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| February 28, 1971 | Colorado Sierra post office discontinued in Gilpin County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 36 |
| March 12, 1971 | Ground is broken for Park Central Complex at 15th and Lawrence in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| April 18, 1971 | White House Conference on Youth held in Estes Park | Mary Fretch, state editor, Chronology and Documentary Handbook of the State of Colorado, 1973, p. 16 |
| May 19, 1971 | The Denver Art Museum opens its Gio Ponti designed North Tower | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| May 19, 1971 | Ground is broken for Sakura Square at 18th & Larimer in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| August 31, 1971 | Fort Logan post office discontinued in Arapahoe County, converted to a branch of Denver | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 56 |
| October 3, 1971 | The U.S. Department of Transportation opens the High Speed Ground Test Center east of Pueblo | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| November 28, 1971 | Blue Cross Blue Shield building groundbreaking in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| 1972 | Fire burns the Lowe Opera House in Julesburg | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| 1970s | Another Ideal Cement Company plant is built near Portland in Fremont County | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 348 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------|---|---|
| 1972 | Sakura Square opens in the 1900 block of Larimer Street; designed by Bertram Bruton in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 64 |
| 1972 | Saved from demolition by the Golden Landmarks Association the Astor House Hotel is converted to a museum at 822 12th Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 153 |
| 1972 | St. Stephen's Episcopal Church at 470 Main Street in Longmont closes | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 186 |
| 1972 | McGraw Park is constructed in downtown Bailey with the Elizabeth L. Entriiken Cabin as its centerpiece after being moved from its location on Main Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 216 |
| 1972 | Art Castings of Colorado Foundry is completed at 511 South 8th Street in Loveland | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 237 |
| 1972 | Sangre de Cristo Arts and Conference Center opens at 210 N. Santa Fe Avenue in Pueblo; designed by Hurtig, Gardner & Froelich | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 315 |
| 1972 | Copper Mountain Ski Resort opens 15 miles southwest of Dillon on I-70 and Colorado 91 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 464 |
| 1972 | Mountain Bell Microwave Tower completed on the north side of I-70; designed by Rogers-Nagel-Langhart | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 474 |
| 1972 | Steamboat Springs Arts Council moves into the former depot of the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 523 |
| 1972 | Colorado taxpayers refuse to fund the infrastructure required to put on the 1976 Winter Olympics | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 141 |
| 1972 | Patricia S. Schroeder is elected to the U.S. House of Representatives representing Colorado's 1st District - mainly Denver; she served 12 terms retiring in 1997 | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 144 |
| circa 1972 | Hemmeter House built in Aspen; remodeled in the 1980s by Hagman Yaw at 730 S. Galena Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 496 |
| early 1970s | Bulldozers level homes and businesses to make way for the Auraria Higher Education Center on land that had seen some of the earliest settlements that evolved into the Mile High City and was home to Hispanic residents; by 2016 the campus had some 43,000 students enrolled in Metropolitan State University of Denver, The University of Colorado-Denver and the Community College of Denver on a 169 acre site across Cherry Creek | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 110 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|--|--|
| February 21, 1972 | Two boys are rescued by Aurora firefighters from an abandoned Titan missile silo in Aurora on the Lowry Air Force bombing range | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| March 26, 1972 | Fire in a brick home kills five family members of the Wilber Routon family near Aurora | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| May 10, 1972 | Lincoln Center in Denver is dedicated | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| May 12, 1972 | Sakura Square is dedicated at 18th & Larimer in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| June 25, 1972 | Prudential Plaza dedicated at 16th & Arapahoe in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| June 26, 1972 | Ground is broken for the Executive Tower Inn at 15th and Arapahoe in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| September 10, 1972 | Boulderite Frank Shorter wins the gold medal in the men's marathon at the Olympics in Munich | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| November 7, 1972 | Colorado voters reject a $5 million bond issue to fund the 1976 Winter Olympics | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| November 11, 1972 | La Garita post office discontinued in Saguache County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 84 |
| November 15, 1972 | Denver withdraws its offer to host the 1976 Winter Olympics, the first city to reject an awarded Olympics | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| 1973 | Park Central is completed at 1515 Arapahoe Street; designed by William C. Muchow & Associates | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 63 |
| 1973 | The original core of the chemistry building on the University of Colorado Boulder campus is replaced with an exposed concrete and sandstone building by Johnson Hopkins Associates; the Ekeley Chemical Laboratories | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 179 |
| 1973 | Geological Society of America offices open at 3300 Penrose Street in Boulder; designed by Everett Ziegel Architecture | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 181 |
| 1973 | Weld County Courthouse in Greeley is again renovated | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 243 |
| 1973 | Barlow & Sanderson Stage Depot in Del Norte is moved from its original site to Centennial Park and converted into a transportation museum | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 425 |
| 1973 | Monte Villa Inn at 925 1st Avenue in Monte Vista receives an addition which adds a new lobby | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 429 |
| 1973 | Kauffman cabin and hotel turned into the Grand Lake Historical Society Museum at 407 Pitkin in Grand Lake | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 455 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|---|
| 1973 | First bore of the Eisenhower-Johnson Tunnel opens creating boon to Summit County | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 464 |
| 1973 | Given Institute for Pathobiology opens in Aspen at 100 E. Francis Street; designed by Harry Weese and Associates | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 493 |
| 1973 | Hahns Peak school restored; becomes the Hahns Peak Area Historical Society Museum | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 527 |
| 1973 | In a case ultimately decided by the U.S. Supreme Court, Keyes vs. School District No. 1 , judges order Denver to integrate its schools | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 138 |
| 1973 | Federico Peña moves to Colorado after graduating with a law degree from the University of Texas | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 143 |
| 1973 | The Denver Broncos post their first winning season with 7 wins, 5 loses and 2 ties | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 149 |
| 1973 | I-70 is completed linking the eastern border of Colorado with the western border upon completion of the Eisenhower Tunnel allowing motorists to go under the continental divide instead of over Loveland Pass | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 181 |
| January 3, 1973 | Pat Schroeder of Denver takes her seat in the U.S. House of Representatives as Colorado's first woman delegate to the U.S. Congress; Schroeder will represent Colorado's 1st congressional district for 24 years | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| January 5, 1973 | Uteyville post office discontinued in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 145 |
| February 22, 1973 | Park Central Complex at 15th and Lawrence dedicated in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| March 8, 1973 | Governor Love dedicates the first bore of the Eisenhower-Johnson Tunnel taking Interstate 70 under the Continental Divide; this is the highest point on the Interstate Highway System | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| March 14, 1973 | Gould post office discontinued in Jackson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 64 |
| March 17, 1973 | Police and members of the Crusade for Justice clash resulting in the death of Luis Martinez, a dozen cops injured, and part of the second floor apartment building near the Crusade for Justice headquarters blown up either by explosives inside or by a police grenade | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 140 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|---|--|
| April 1, 1973 | Val Moritz post office established in Grand County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 145 |
| July 20, 1973 | Thatcher post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 140 |
| May 1, 1973 | El Jebel post office established in Garfield County, established as a rural branch of Carbondale | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 50 |
| May 17, 1973 | The United States Atomic Energy Commission detonates three underground nuclear explosions; Project Rio Blanco used the blasts, each equivalent to 33,000 tons of TNT, to determine if nuclear explosions could be used to extract natural gas from sandstone deposits | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| July 16, 1973 | Lieutenant Governor John Vanderhoof takes the oath as the 37th governor of Colorado after Governor John Love resigns to become the Director of the U.S. Office of Energy Policy in the Nixon administration | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| June 21, 1973 | The U.S. Supreme Court orders the desegregation of the Denver Public Schools in Keyes v. School District No. 1 | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| July 20, 1973 | Boyer post office discontinued in County converted to community post office, Hugo July 20, 1973 | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 23 |
| September 8, 1973 | Rebecca Ann King of Denver is crowned Miss America | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| September 26, 1973 | An explosion traps workers atop the Big Thompson Mill and Elevator in Loveland; a helicopter rescues the workers from the roof structure | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| November 12, 1873 | Benjamin F. Stapleton born on a farm near Paintsville, Kentucky | Municipal Facts , Vol. 6, No. 5, May 1923, p. 2 |
| December 21, 1973 | Keota post office discontinued in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 82 |
| 1974 | Radium post office discontinued in Grande County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 118 |
| 1974 | La Mariposa Health Station is completed; designed by Robert Engelke at 1020 W. 11th Avenue in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 71 |
| 1974 | Richard L. Crowther designs and completes the Crowther House at 401A Madison St. in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 93 |
| 1974 | Arapahoe Community College opens in Littleton at 5900 S. Santa Fe Drive; designed by Eugene Sternberg in "Concrete Brutalism" style | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 126 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|--|
| 1974 | Campbell House is built by Eleanor Campbell at 3962 S. Chase Way on a site on the north edge of the Pinehurst Country Club in Englewood | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 130 |
| 1974 | Casa Bonita opens in the JCRS shopping center at 6715 W. Colfax Avenue; designed by Philip H. Phillips with an 82-foot bell tower, cliff divers and Mexican food | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 158 |
| 1974 | Grocery store at 801 Main Street in Louisville is converted to a hardware store - Steinbaugh Hardware | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 187 |
| 1974 | The Lace House is donated to the town of Black Hawk | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 198 |
| 1974 | First United Presbyterian Church at 812 Taos Street in Georgetown is restored | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 205 |
| 1974 | The original City Hall constructed in 1881 in Fort Collins at 232-234 Walnut Street and used as a fire station since 1957 is abandoned | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 226 |
| 1974 | Hewlett-Packard builds a 575,000-square-foot manufacturing plant at Loveland | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 237 |
| 1974 | The Poundstone Amendment to the Colorado Constitution makes it difficult for Denver to annex land | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xvii |
| 1974 | Poundstone Amendment to the Colorado Constitution passes requiring areas being annexed by Denver to give county commissioner approval | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 114 |
| 1974 | Lobbyist Freda Poundstone crafts an amendment to the Colorado Constitution to restrict Denver's ability to annex land which is approved by voters | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 138 |
| 1974 | The U.S. Army renames Fitzsimons Army Hospital to Fitzsimons Army Medical Center | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| 1974 | Chogyam Trungpa establishes Naropa Institute in Boulder | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| January 1, 1974 | Blue Cross Blue Shield building dedicated in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| January 7, 1974 | Climax post office discontinued in Lake County, converted to branch of Leadville | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 34 |
| February 20, 1974 | Ground is broken for the Metro National Bank at 17th and Glenarm in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| March 1, 1974 | Deora post office discontinued in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 45 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|--|--|
| March 31, 1974 | Cornish post office discontinued in Weld County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 38 |
| April 10, 1974 | Fire kills three in the Lewiston Hotel in downtown Denver; about a dozen others are injured | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| April 10, 1974 | A fire that started in a feed mill destroys 2.5 blocks of Grand Junction south of the main business district | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| April 26, 1974 | Heeney post office discontinued in Summit County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 70 |
| May 24, 1974 | Jansen post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 79 |
| July 4, 1974 | Confluence Park opens where Denver got its start where the Platte River and Cherry Creek join; a project of the Platte River Development Committee formed to spruce up the Platte Valley | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 188 |
| August 1, 1974 | I-80S is redesignated I-76 in northeastern Colorado | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| August 30, 1974 | Goodrich post office discontinued in Morgan County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 64 |
| September 18, 1974 | First of Denver Plaza at 17th and California is dedicated in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| December 6, 1976 | Dravo Building at 14th and Larimer is dedicated in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| December 21, 1974 | The first Telluride Film Festival is held | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| December 23, 1874 | Holland post office discontinued in Park County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 73 |
| 1975 | Minoru Yamasaki design of a 26-story bank tower for the Colorado National Bank at 17th and Curtis is completed | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 59 |
| 1975 | The Sheedy Mansion at 1115 Grant Street is renovated by Dan Havekost in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 77 |
| 1975 | Roxborough State Park is opened near the foothills | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 148 |
| 1975 | Boettcher's Summer Home at 900 Colorow Road in Jefferson County becomes the Jefferson County Nature Center with 110-acres surrounding it | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 156 |
| 1975 | Hiwan Homestead is rescued from demolition by a developer of the Hiwan subdivision and opened as an Evergreen museum | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 165 |
| 1975 | Arvada water tower is abandoned; painted with "Olde Town Arvada" to tout the renaissance of the area | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 168 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|--|--|
| 1975 | A new library is built in Fort Collins; designed by Alan Zeigel which becomes part of Library Park | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 230 |
| 1975 | After completion of a new library the original 1904 Carnegie Library is converted to the Fort Collins Museum | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 230 |
| 1975 | Cottonwood Square Shopping Center is built by developer John Todd on the southwest corner of 23rd Avenue & 16th Street in Greeley | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 245 |
| 1975 | The 14-story, mostly underground structure, Mt. Elbert Pumped-Storage Power Plant opens as part of the Frying Pan Arkansas Water Diversion Project | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 366 |
| 1975 | Vail Transportation Center opens at 352 E. Meadow Drive | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 471 |
| 1975 | Congregational Church in Hayden at Jefferson Avenue and Spruce Street is restored by Robert S. Ralston | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 528 |
| 1975 | McNichols Arena opens for basketball and hockey franchises to use near Mile High Stadium | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 155 |
| January 14, 1975 | Dick Lamm takes the oath as the 38th governor of Colorado | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| January 31, 1975 | Glendevy post office discontinued in Larimer County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 62 |
| March 1, 1975 | Starkville post office discontinued in Las Animas County, converted to a community post office of Trinidad | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 135 |
| March 21, 1975 | Val Moritz post office discontinued in Grand County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 145 |
| April 1, 1975 | Ent Air Force base in Colorado Springs is downgraded to Ent Annex of the Cheyenne Mountain Air Force Station | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| April 25, 1975 | Twin Lakes post office converted to a community post office of Salida in Lake County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 144 |
| May 21, 1975 | Continental Oil Building at 18th and Glenarm, also called People's Bank razed in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| May 23, 1975 | Rio Blanco post office discontinued in Rio Blanco County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 122 |
| May 30, 1975 | Delhi post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 43 |
| August 7, 1975 | Continental Airline flight 426 crashes on takeoff from Stapleton International Airport; none of the 134 passengers was killed | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|---|--|
| August 18, 1975 | Construction begins on the second bore of the Eisenhower-Johnson Tunnel | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| September 12, 1975 | Lycan post office discontinued in Baca County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 92 |
| October 2, 1975 | Fire breaks out at the Protex Industrial Supply in Denver | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| December 5, 1975 | Greystone post office discontinued in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 67 |
| 1946 | Imperial Hotel at 133-137 N. 3rd Street in Cripple Creek is purchased by Wayne & Dorothy Mackin who begin melodramas in the basement Gold Bar Room Theater | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 332 |
| 1976 | Skyline Park is created between 15th and 18th Streets along Arapahoe Street in Denver; designed by Lawrence Halprin and Associates incorporating Daniels & Fisher Tower and landscaping and sandstone blocks | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 62 |
| 1976 | Emmanuel Sherith Israel Chapel is renovated by Gale Abels & Associates and becomes the Student Art Gallery for the Auraria campus at 1201 10th Street in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 70 |
| 1976 | Ira Humphreys donates the home of his father to the Colorado Historical Society; now known as the Grant-Humphreys Mansion available for party rentals | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 75 |
| 1976 | Confluence Park opens at the junction of Cherry Creek and the South Platte River where Denver got its start. | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 100 |
| 1976 | Melvin school building is again moved this time from Quincy Avenue and Parker Road where it was used as the Emerald Isle Tavern to the grounds of Smoky Hill High School where is is restored in South Aurora | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 140 |
| 1976 | Johns Manville World Headquarters opens at 12275 S. Colorado 121 near Deer Creek; designed by The Architects Collaborative and made of glass and aluminum called a skyscraper on its side | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 160 |
| 1976 | Arvada Center for the Arts and Humanities opens at 6901 Wadsworth Boulevard; designed by Seracuse Lawler with Perkins and Will featuring a 2,000 seat amphitheater, a 500-seat theater, gallery, meeting and exhibition space | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 168 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|---|
| 1976 | Citizens National Bank gets an addition at 1426 Pearl in Boulder by Everett Ziegel Architecture | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 173 |
| 1976 | The Lace House in Black Hawk is restored by Edward D. White and others and becomes one of the most photographed examples of Gothic Revival architecture in the Rockies; but after gambling comes to town in the 1990s the house is moved to allow for more casinos | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 198 |
| 1976 | Centennial Village Museum opens on the south side of Island Grove Park in Greeley | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 241 |
| 1976 | The Union Pacific Depot in Julesburg is converted to the Fort Sedgwick Depot Museum after Union Pacific abandoned passenger rail service | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 261 |
| 1976 | The Heginbotham House in Holyoke is converted to a library for the town | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 262 |
| 1976 | A carousel built in 1905 for Elitch Gardens in Denver by the Philadelphia Toboggan Company and sold to Kit Carson County in 1928 begins to be restored with its 46 hand-carved animals; now the centerpiece of the Kit Carson County Fairgrounds | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 266 |
| 1976 | Broadmoor Hotel West opens; designed by Carlisle B. Guy and Associates in Colorado Springs | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 301 |
| 1976 | Bent's Fort is reconstructed by the National Park Service 8 miles northeast of La Junta | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 393 |
| 1976 | A parish hall is added to the Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Alamosa | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 408 |
| 1976 | Miners and Merchants Bank building at 107 N. Main Street in Creede is used as a post office until 1997 when it became the Old Miners Inn | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 434 |
| 1976 | Hot Sulphur Springs schoolhouse becomes the Grand County Museum | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 449 |
| 1976 | Vail Athletic Club and Spa Condominiums open at 352 E. Meadow Drive | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 472 |
| 1976 | Vail Interfaith Chapel completed at 19 Vail Road | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 472 |
| 1976 | Brant House completed in Vail at 338 Rockledge Road; designed by Robert Venturi of Venturi, Rauch and Scott Brown | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 473 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-----------------|--|--|
| 1976 | Main Hall erected on Main Avenue in Durango; designed by Richard D. Walker and Associates | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 556 |
| 1976 | The Auraria Higher Education Center opens as a shared campus of the Community College of Denver, Metropolitan State College of Denver, and the University of Colorado Denver | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xvii |
| 1976 | The Denver Nuggets join the National Basketball Association after 6 years in the ABA | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 154 |
| 1976 | Construction of I-225 linking I-25 with I-70 through Aurora is completed | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 181 |
| January 1, 1976 | Heritage post office established in Arapahoe County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 71 |
| March 1, 1976 | The United States Air Force renames Peterson Field east of Colorado Springs, Peterson Air Force Base | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| April 24, 1976 | Climax post office becomes a community post office in Lake County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 34 |
| May 21, 1976 | The final segment of I-225 is opened completing the 11.959 mile link between I-25 and I-70 | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| May 31, 1976 | North Avondale post office discontinued in Pueblo County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 106 |
| 1976 | Denver Chamber of Commerce building at 1724 Champa is renovated | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| June 1, 1976 | Ground is broken for the Dravo Building at 14th and Larimer in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| June 30, 1976 | Lay post office discontinued in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 88 |
| July 31, 1976 | Rains cause a flash flood in Big Thompson Canyon between Estes Park and Loveland | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| July 31, 1976 | A flash flood in Big Thompson Canyon between Estes Park and Loveland kills 143 people and destroys hundreds of homes in the steep-walled canyon | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| August 1, 1976 | Colorado celebrates its centennial in subdued fashion following the overnight flash flooding of the Big Thompson Canyon that took 143 lives | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| October 1, 1976 | Ent Air Force base closes in Colorado Springs | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-----------------|--|--|
| October 4, 1976 | El Jebel post office changed to a community post office of Glenwood Springs | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 50 |
| 1977 | Colorado History Museum is completed at 1300 Broadway designed by Rogers-Nagel-Langhart | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 44 |
| 1977 | The Auraria Library is completed on the Auraria campus; designed by Helmut Jahn between 10th and 11th Streets and Curtis and Lawrence | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 70 |
| 1977 | Moveable stands are added to Mile High Stadium, formerly Bears Stadium, to bring the capacity to 75,000; the moveable stands are designed by James Tolle | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 102 |
| 1977 | Chatfield Dam and State Park opens at the confluence of Plum Creek, the South Platte River and Deer Creek | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 159 |
| 1977 | Pearl Street in Boulder is converted, between 11th and 15th Streets, to a mall designed by Sasaki, Walker, Dawson and DeMay with Everett Zeigel Architecture | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 173 |
| 1977 | The Lyons depot is remodeled to serve as a library | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 189 |
| 1977 | Loveland's Rialto Theater closes at 228-230 E. 4th Street and is converted into a retail mall | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 237 |
| 1977 | Anne Cusak Johnson, the daughter of Thomas Cusak, gives the 50-acre site of the Marigreen Pines to the Holy Cross Fathers for use as a residence and training retreat | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 307 |
| 1977 | Jack Para and Edward Weiner collaborate to design and build the Peach House in Telluride at 260 N. Davis Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 589 |
| 1977 | A Colorado Capitol stained-glass window is dedicated of "Aunt" Clara Brown, a freed slave who came to Colorado in 1859 and freed dozens of her family and supported many philanthropic causes in Denver and Central City | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 37 |
| 1977 | Golden is chosen as the site of the National Renewable Energy Laboratories (NREL) on South Table Mountain | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 128 |
| 1977 | The Denver Broncos get a new coach, Red Miller, and a new quarterback, Craig Morton, who get them to Super Bowl XXII behind the Orange Crush Defense; they lose to the Dallas Cowboys 27-10 | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 149 |
| January 2, 1977 | Anaconda Building opens in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| April 24, 1977 | Arson fire destroys Constitution Hall at 1501 Blake Street in Denver | Denver Post April 25, 1977, p. 5 and Rocky Mountain News April 25, 1977, p. 1 & 5 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|--|
| April 27, 1977 | Group formed to save Constitution Hall at 1501 Blake St. | Rocky Mountain News April 28, 1977, p. 44 |
| June 1977 | The U.S. Olympic Training Center at the former Ent Air Force Base in Colorado Springs opens to athletes | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| July 5, 1977 | The Solar Energy Research Institute (SERI) is opened in Golden by the Department of Energy | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| July 28, 1977 | Ground is broken for Beaver Creek - a new ski resort and town near Avon | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 475 |
| July 28, 1977 | Governor Dick Lamm requests that the proposed 26.3 mile long I-470 route be withdrawn from the Interstate Highway System; it is officially withdrawn September 30 | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| September 8, 1977 | Colorado Sierra post office established in Gilpin County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 36 |
| September 8, 1977 | Copper Mountain post office established in Summit County, established as a community post office of Frisco | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 37 |
| September 8, 1977 | Eldora post office discontinued in Boulder County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 50 |
| October 2, 1977 | Ground is broken for the Great-West Life Tower in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| 1978 | Boettcher Concert Hall opens in the Denver Center for the Performing Arts; constructed for $13 million; designed by Hardy Holzman Pfeiffer Associates and Hoover Berg Desmond | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 62 |
| 1978 | Aurora Municipal Justice Center is built at 15001 E. Alameda Avenue in Aurora; designed by Rogers-Nagel-Langhart; later the Aurora History Museum | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 135 |
| 1978 | Fire Station No. 1 opens at 9801 E. 16th Avenue; designed by Victor Hornbein | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 137 |
| 1978 | Valentine Diner at 9842 E. Colfax Avenue in Aurora is sold to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Chan who change the name to China Place Restaurant | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 137 |
| 1978 | Marvin Davis and a group of investors purchase the land that will become Highlands Ranch from the heirs of Lawrence Phipps for $13 million and sell it a week later to Mission Viejo for twice that amount; in 1981 development of Highlands Ranch begins with ultimate plans for 90,000 people in 36,000 living units | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 146 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|--|
| 1978 | Buffalo Bill's Grave and Museum on Lookout Mountain in Jefferson County gets an addition to the museum | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 156 |
| 1978 | The Brenton House is completed at 3752 Wonderland Hill Avenue in Boulder; designed by Charles A. Haertling | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 180 |
| 1978 | Last American Diner opens at 1955 28th Street; designed by Henry Beer of Communications Arts a stainless steel facade; demolished in 1996 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 181 |
| 1978 | Clear Creek County Courthouse is built at 405 Argentine Street in Georgetown; designed by Phillips, Brandt and Reddick | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 202 |
| 1978 | A modern day reproduction of an old country store stands at the corner of Main and Daily Streets in Silver Plume, the Sopp and Truscott General Store, built by Pat Pickering | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 208 |
| 1978 | A new water tower is erected in Otis, but they retain their original tank standing 110 feet tall and emblazoned with the name of the town | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 272 |
| 1978 | Pueblo School District Administration Building opens on site of the old Centennial High School building at 315 W. 11th Street; designed by Hurtig, Gardner & Froelich | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 318 |
| 1978 | Minnequa Elementary School opens at 1708 E. Orman Avenue in the Bessemer area of Pueblo; designed by Hurtig, Gardner and Froelich | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 321 |
| 1978 | Colorado's first Alpine Slide, a summer toboggan run a half mile in length, opens at Breckenridge Ski Area | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 458 |
| 1978 | Swan's Nest on the Swan River 4 miles north of Breckenridge on Colorado 9 is restored as a resort and becomes known as the Ben Stanley Revett House | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 459 |
| 1978 | Potato Patch Club and Condominiums open at 950 Red Sandstone Road; designed by Pierce, Briner & Scott | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 474 |
| 1978 | Home Ranch established as a dude ranch at 54880 Routt County Road 129 designed by Robert C. McHugh | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 526 |
| 1978 | Coors Brewing Co. introduces Coors Light beer | Denver Post article October 12, 2016, p. 1 |
| 1978 | Denver Center for the Performing Arts opens as the nations third largest venue for performing arts | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xvii |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|--|--|
| 1978 | Developer Mission Viejo buys a 23-square-mile section of Douglas County land and creates Highlands Ranch on the northern edge of the county | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 119 |
| 1978 | US Highway 36 is extended west along state highway 66 from Estes Park to Deer Ridge Junction in Rocky Mountain National Park | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| January 1, 1978 | The Denver Broncos defeat the Oakland Raiders 20-17 to win the American Football Conference Championship and advance to their first Super Bowl | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| January 1, 1978 | Amoco Building, a.k.a. Columbia Plaza, opens at 17th & Broadway in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| January 15, 1978 | The Denver Broncos lose 27-10 to the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl XII | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| February 26, 1978 | Boettcher Concert Hall opens in the Denver Center for the Performing Arts Complex | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| June 14, 1978 | Ground is broken for One Denver Place at 18th & Champa in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| August 1, 1978 | U.S. Olympic Committee moves into its new headquarters at the Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| September 14, 1978 | A television comedy series set in Boulder, Mork and Mindy , debuts; it runs four seasons | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| September 18, 1978 | Fire destroys a floral business on South Broadway, F.J. LeGrue & Co. | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| September 23, 1978 | Heritage post office discontinued in Arapahoe County, established as a community post office of Englewood, converted to a contract station | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 71 |
| September 23, 1978 | Mountain Park post office discontinued in Jefferson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 101 |
| September 23, 1978 | Energy Center 1 at 17th and Stout is dedicated in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| October 9, 1978 | UNESCO designates Mesa Verde National Park as one of the first 12 World Heritage Sites | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| November 10, 1978 | President Jimmy Carter signs an Act of Congress creating the Continental Divide National Scenic Trail | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| December 21, 1978 | Ground is broken for the Lincoln Court building at 16th and Lincoln also called Spectrum Building in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-----------|--|--|
| 1978-1979 | Denver Center for the Performing Arts opens between 14th and Speer and Arapahoe and Champa with multiple theaters, studios and rehearsal space; second largest theater complex after New York's Lincoln Center | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 60 |
| 1979 | Northeast Colorado News ceases publishing in Sterling | Guide to Colorado Newspapers 1859-1963 by Donald E. Oehlerts p. 101 |
| 1979 | The Helen Bonfils Theater Complex opens in the Denver Center for the Performing Arts Complex with four theaters, the largest of which seats 700 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 62 |
| 1979 | The Denver Police Building is remodeled to house the offices of the Denver Center for the Performing Arts | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 62 |
| 1979 | The Basilica of the Immaculate Conception on the northeast corner of Logan and East Colfax is elevated to a minor basilica in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 79 |
| 1979 | George R. Brown Geology Hall opens on the Colorado School of Mines campus as designed by Lamar Kelsey | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 154 |
| 1979 | A modern five-story solar dormitory opens on Colorado School of Mines campus; designed by John D. Anderson | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 154 |
| 1979 | Lyons Redstone Museum opens in the old Lyons High School at 340 High Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 188 |
| 1979 | A propane fire destroys all but the outer walls of the Crest House at the top of Mount Evans | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 211 |
| 1979 | El Paso County Judicial Complex is completed; designed by Edward L. Buntz & Robert Muir at 20 E. Vermijo Avenue replacing the original courthouse | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 285 |
| 1979 | Renovation begins on the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Depot at 555 E. Pikes Peak Avenue in Colorado Springs | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 299 |
| 1979 | Original Rocky Ford Carnegie library is replaced with a new library and turned into the Rocky Ford Historical Museum which had been housed in the basement of the library since the 1950s | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 394 |
| 1979 | Pitkin Creek Park Condominiums and Shops open at 4000 Big Horn Road in East Vail; designed by Briner & Scott | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 471 |
| 1979 | Dobson Ice Arena opens in Vail at 321 E. Lionshead Circle; designed by Everett Zeigel Architecture | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 473 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|---|
| 1979 | Crow Canyon Archaeological Center opens 4 miles northwest of Cortez | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 595 |
| 1979 | The Johnson Tunnel is completed next to the Eisenhower Tunnel on I-70; with the Eisenhower-Johnson Tunnel completed the four lanes between Denver and Grand Junction boosted the economies of all points in between | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 181 |
| 1979 | The first craft brewery opens in Colorado, The Boulder Brewing Company | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 189 |
| February 11, 1979 | Ground is broken for the Seventeenth Street Plaza (SSP) at 17th and Larimer in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| April 1, 1979 | Redcliff post office discontinued in Eagle County, name changed back to Red Cliff | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 120 |
| April 2, 1979 | Red Cliff post office established in Eagle County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 120 |
| August 1, 1979 | Arco Tower groundbreaking | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| November 1, 1979 | Congressman Ken Kramer leaks the location of the Consolidated Space Operations Center east of Colorado Springs | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| December 21, 1979 | Governor Dick Lamm dedicates the Edwin C. Johnson bore of the Eisenhower-Johnson Memorial Tunnel completing that section of I-70 under the continental divide | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| 1980 | The Grafton Apartments at 1001-1021 E. 17th Avenue in Denver are renovated and converted to condominiums with exterior restoration | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 84 |
| 1980 | RTD (Regional Transportation District) Maintenance Facility is built on East Colfax and I-225 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 139 |
| 1980 | Arvada Flour Mill is restored and reopened at 5580 Wadsworth Boulevard (Colorado 121) as the Arvada Flour Mill Museum | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 168 |
| 1980 | Elbert County has a population of 6,850 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 273 |
| 1980 | When a new El Paso County Courthouse is completed restoration of the original one at 215 S. Tejon begins; it becomes the Colorado Springs Pioneer Museum where an exhibit includes a Gardiner Sanitary Tent | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 284 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------|---|---|
| 1980 | Carlisle B. Guy and Associates design an addition to the Tutt Library on the Colorado College campus in Colorado Springs making it the largest building on campus | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 294 |
| 1980 | San Luis High School is remodeled and expanded into the San Luis Cultural Center at 401 Church Place with the design of Akira Kanawabe who included 2,600 square feet of solar paneling | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 412 |
| 1980 | Parochial school at 512 Church Place in San Luis is converted to El Convento Bed and Breakfast with a craft shop on the 1st floor | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 413 |
| 1980 | Spruce Saddle Warming House opens on the Centennial Express Ski Run; designed by Bull, Field, Volkman and Stockwell | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 476 |
| 1980 | Construction begins on I-70 for the 12.5 mile stretch through Glenwood Canyon after decades of arguing, planning, studying and engineering; the final design was by Joseph Passonneau and Edgardo Contini | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 484 |
| 1980 | Aspen's new post office opens at 235 Puppy Smith Road; designed by Copland, Hagman & Yaw | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 491 |
| 1980 | Wildwood School opens at 17651 Colorado 82 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 498 |
| 1980 | Windstar Foundation established by John Denver at 2317 Snowmass Creek Road retrofitting an existing ranch house as a solar demonstration and conference center | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 500 |
| 1980 | An original ranch house built by William Anderson at 5263 Owl Creek Road is converted to a nonprofit educational foundation center by Harry Teague | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 501 |
| 1980 | Animas School becomes home to the La Plata County Historical Society Museum in Durango at 3065 W. 2nd Avenue | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 559 |
| 1980 | Ghost Building is disassembled at 15th and Glenarm and placed in storage; later reassembled at 18th and Stout and used as the Denver Diner for a time in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| 1980s | The Governor's Mansion at 400 E. 8th Avenue in Denver is renovated by Edward D. White, Jr. | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 75 |
| 1980s | Inverness Business Park is constructed east of I-25 at County Line Road | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 132 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|---|
| 1980s | Alamosa depot converted to house the County Social Services Offices | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 407 |
| 1980s | Haidakhandi Universal Ashram Temple opens on the south end of Camino Baca Grande near Crestone | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 442 |
| 1980s | Hotel Colorado in Glenwood Springs is restored | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 480 |
| 1980s | Fritz Benedict builds a structure at 1280 Ute Avenue known now as the Benedict Building, which houses the 10th Mountain Division Headquarters; Benedict was a member of the ski troops during World War II and returned to Aspen and helped develop the ski industry | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 496 |
| 1980s | Restaurant added to Grand Junction train depot replacing a diner operated by the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 504 |
| 1980s | Alma House at 220 E. 10th Street in Silverton is restored as a bed and breakfast | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 560 |
| 1980s | Byers-Evans House is donated to the Colorado Historical Society to become a museum | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 164 |
| January 20, 1980 | Englewood Speedway closes; to become industrial park | Rocky Mountain News January 20, 1980, p. 80 & 82 |
| February 1, 1980 | Groundbreaking for the 16th Street Mall in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| February 22, 1980 | KBDI becomes the Denver metropolitan area's second public television station operating on channel 12 with studios in Broomfield and transmitter located on Squaw Mountain | Roger Dudley's Denver Television Chronology , p. 239 |
| April 1, 1980 | Colorado's population increases 30.93 percent since the 1970 census with 2,889,964 recorded in this enumeration | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| May 1, 1980 | Colorado Sierra post office discontinued in Gilpin County, established as a non-personnel rural branch of Golden, re-established as a community post office of Golden and closed before it burned down | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 36 |
| June 28, 1980 | Fountain Valley School post office discontinued in El Paso County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 57 |
| July 4, 1980 | Grand Valley post office discontinued in Garfield County, renamed Parachute | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 65 |
| July 4, 1980 | Parachute post office re-established in Garfield County, name changed back from Grand Valley | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 110 |
| October 1, 1980 | Hideaway Park post office discontinued in Grand County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 72 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|--|---|
| December 9, 1980 | EchoSphere is formed in Littleton by Charlie Ergren, Jim DeFranco, and Cantey McAdams | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| 1980s | Lake County High School at 120 W. 9th Street in Leadville is converted into the National Mining Hall of Fame and Museum | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 361 |
| 1981 | Mile High Center, at 1700 Broadway in downtown Denver, is renovated by Johnson/Burgee and becomes known as the Norwest Bank Center | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 54 |
| 1981 | The Daniels & Fisher Tower is restored by Gensler & Associates at 1601 Arapahoe after being saved from the wrecking ball in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 63 |
| 1981 | Writer Square opens in the 1500 block of Larimer; designed by Barker, Rinker, Seacat & Partners as a retail and residential complex | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 64 |
| 1981 | Fox Aurora Theater at 9900 E. Colfax Avenue burns and closes; later becomes the Aurora Fox Arts Center | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 138 |
| 1981 | Fonder School in Parker is restored for community use | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 146 |
| 1981 | Highlands Ranch subdivision is formed where the 22,000 acre Springer ranch had operated since 1898; within a decade it was the most populace town in Douglas County | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 146 |
| 1981 | Chatauqua Park at 9th Street and Baseline Road in Boulder is restored | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 180 |
| 1981 | Fish Block at 606 6th Street in Georgetown is restored and becomes the Ram Bar and Restaurant | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 203 |
| 1981 | Fort Collins passes a Land Development Guidance System which requires landscaping for parking lots, controls signage, and provides for neighborhood input on any proposed developments | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 224 |
| 1981 | City Hall in Fort Collins at 232-234 Walnut Street is renovated by Theodore and Karene Will into a museum with offices and residentail space | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 225 |
| 1981 | First United Presbyterian Church in Akron at Ash and 3rd Streets is restored | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 271 |
| 1981 | Carriage house of the Rosemount Mansion in Pueblo is turned into a restaurant | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 319 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|---|
| 1981 | Victor de la Lama home completed using his design on El Track Road in Beaver Creek | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 476 |
| 1981 | Colorado Mountain College formally established in Glenwood Springs at 1400 Blake Avenue after beginning in 1969 in the Hotel Colorado | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 483 |
| 1981 | Silt Historical Park opens at 8th and Orchard streets | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 487 |
| 1981 | Strawberry Park Elementary School and Steamboat Springs Junior High School built a mile north of Steamboat Springs by Robert S. Ralston with Walter C. Muchow and Associates on Routt Count 36 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 525 |
| 1981 | Denver Bronco owners Gerald and Allan Phipps sell the team to Edgar Kaiser, Jr. for a reported $40 million | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 150 |
| 1981 | Rampart Range Pipeline completed to provide water for Aurora | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 186 |
| 1981 | The first Great American Beer Festival is held in Boulder; it moves to Denver in 1984 | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 190 |
| January 12, 1981 | The television series set in Colorado, Dynasty , debuts; it runs eight seasons | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| May 14, 1981 | Republic Building at 16th & Tremont razed in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| May 27, 1981 | Great-West Life Tower is dedicated in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| July 18, 1981 | One Denver Place at 18th and Champa is dedicated in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| September 1, 1981 | Ground is broken for the Hudson Bay Centre building at 16th and Stout in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| October 1, 1981 | City of Colorado Springs annexation of Broadmoor, Skyway, Ivywild, Cheyenne Canon and Stratton Meadows is upheld by the Colorado Supreme Court after a district court voided the annexation | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-3-2017 |
| 1980s | The Stanley Hotel undergoes a renovations and is open year round | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 235 |
| 1980s | St. Nicholas Hospital at 3rd Street and Eaton Avenue in Cripple Creek is converted to a hotel; The St. Nicholas Hotel still has a Celtic cross atop the cupola | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 332 |
| 1982 | The 16th Street Mall opens in downtown Denver a project of RTD (Regional Transportation District) and designed by I.M. Pei and Partners | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 49 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|---|
| 1982 | Trinity United Methodist Church is restored and expanded by Seracuse, Lawler & Partners | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 55 |
| 1982 | Former Studebaker and Franklin auto showroom at 1160 Broadway becomes the Howard Lorton Showroom | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 77 |
| 1982 | Aurora Public Library opens at 14949 E. Alameda Drive; designed by Brooks Waldman Associates with Warner, Burns, Toan, Lunde | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 135 |
| 1982 | Douglas County Administration Building is built at 301 Wilcox Street in Castle Rock; designed by Hoover Berg Desmond | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 143 |
| 1982 | Boulder Theatre at 2031 14th Street closes; reopens 6 years later as a cabaret with live concerts | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 174 |
| 1982 | Greeley High School and Grade School at 1015 8th Street restored for professional offices | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 242 |
| 1982 | Pikes Peak Center opens in Colorado Springs at 190 S. Cascade Avenue; designed by John James Wallace Associates and Clifford S. Nakata Associates Architects | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 291 |
| 1982 | First National Bank in Pueblo becomes the headquarters of the Colorado National Banks | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 316 |
| 1982 | Union Depot at Victoria and B Streets in Pueblo is restored | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 327 |
| 1982 | Herbert and Dorothy Hostetler convert the former Chaffee County Poor Farm into a bed and breakfast | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 353 |
| 1982 | Climax molybdenum Mine ceases production; 3,000 miners put out of work; Leadville's economy crashes | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 366 |
| 1982 | David L. Ford and his wife work closely with architect Belinda Zink to design their home at 50501 Saguache County road C near Center | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 441 |
| 1982 | Carmelite Monestery opens at the west end of Rendezvous Way 1.5 miles south of Crestone | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 442 |
| 1982 | Village at Winter Park is established near US 40 at the base of the ski area | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 451 |
| 1982 | YMCA of the Rockies Snow Mountain Ranch opens in the renovated Rowley Ranch 4 miles west of Tabernash in Grand County | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 452 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|--|
| 1982 | Turner House completed in Aspen at 51 Heather Lane; designed by John Lautner | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 498 |
| 1982 | Rocky Mountain Institute founded by Amory Lovins and his wife Hunter to foster the efficient and sustainable use of natural resources | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 500 |
| 1982 | William Lipsey builds a home at 2310 Juniper Hills Drive in Snowmass | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 501 |
| 1982 | Routt County Courthouse in Steamboat Springs gets an annex at 522 Lincoln Avenue; designed by Lacey-Eidem and Associates | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 522 |
| 1982 | Western Hotel in Ouray reopens as a 50-room hotel with a restaurant on the first floor | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 571 |
| 1982 | Crow Canyon Lodge opens at the Crow Canyon Archaeological Center 4 miles northwest of Cortez | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 595 |
| 1982 | Mizel Museum of Judaica opens at the BMH Synagogue, which moves to 400 South Kearney Street in 2004 | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 170 |
| January 10, 1982 | Arco Tower dedication held | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| January 26, 1982 | Two Boulder firefighters, William J. Duran and Scott L. Smith, die in a training exercise in a building near 15th Street and Hawthorne | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| February 22, 1982 | Denver City Council awards a cable television franchise to Mile High Cablevision; combined operation of Daniels & Associates, American Television and Communications Corporation (ATC), and Time-Life | Roger Dudley's Denver Television Chronology , p. 262 |
| July 15, 1982 | Lawn Lake Dam fails in Rocky Mountain National Park inundating Estes Park | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 233 |
| August 1982 | Brown Palace Hotel dedicated in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| October 4, 1982 | The 16th Street Mall opens in Denver a project of the Regional Transportation District (RTD) | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-1-2017 |
| December 28, 1982 | Former astronaut Jack Swigert dies in Washington D.C., at age 51, before he can take office as a new Congressman from Colorado | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-1-2017 |
| 1980s | The Smith House at 1801 York Street is restored and turned into office space in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 90 |
| 1983 | Elk Springs post office discontinued in Moffat County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 50 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|---|
| 1983 | The Navarre is reincarnated as the Museum of Western Art with restoration by C.W. Fentress and Associates with John Prosser | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 54 |
| 1983 | The Odd Fellows Hall at 1545 Champa is renovated by C.W. Fentress and Associates | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 60 |
| 1983 | Oxford Hotel, at 1600-1612 17th Street, is restored by William Muchow and Associates in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 66 |
| 1983 | Lakewood Municipal Center opens at 445 South Allison Parkway; designed by William C. Muchow and Associates | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 157 |
| 1983 | Belmar Village Museum opens on what had been part of Mary Bonfils Berryman Stanton's estate; the 1886 Peterson House is among the items moved to the site | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 159 |
| 1983 | Chatauqua Park auditorium is restored by OZ Architecture | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 180 |
| 1983 | The Reed and Dauth Block is reconstructed in Fort Collins at 223 Linden Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 225 |
| 1983 | The Kissock Block at 115-121 E. Mountain Avenue in Fort Collins is restored and fake stone panels removed to show red brick and native sandstone walls along with cast iron storefront columns | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 226 |
| 1983 | Union Pacific Depot in Greeley at 902 7th Avenue is abandoned by the railroad, but is resurrected by the city for Amtrak Service | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 243 |
| 1983 | Riverside Hotel at 509 Grand Avenue in Hot Sulphur Springs is restored by Abraham Estaban Rodriguez who took out everything that was "tin and plastic" | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 450 |
| 1983 | Frisco Historic Park created by moving many buildings to the site at 120 Main Street using a design of Dokken Crowe Architects in Summit County | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 465 |
| 1983 | Vail Public Library opens at 292 W. Meadow Drive; designed by Snowden & Hopkins | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 474 |
| 1983 | Colorado Mountain College opens in Vail at 1310 Westhaven Drive in the Westin Hotel Complex | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 474 |
| 1983 | Centennial Condominiums open in Beaver Creek at 180 Offerson Road; designed by Turnbull and Associates | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 476 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|--|
| 1983 | Former President Gerald Ford's home is completed in Beaver Creek; designed by William Haynes | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 476 |
| 1983 | Garfield County Courthouse in Glenwood Springs gets an addition designed by Henningson, Durham & Richardson | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 481 |
| 1983 | The Hines House is built in Aspen at 540 Shady Lane by Charles Moore and William Turnbull | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 497 |
| 1983 | Federico Peña elected first Hispanic Mayor of Denver | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xvii |
| 1983 | Denverites elect Federico Peña mayor defeating long time mayor William "Bill" McNichols Jr. | |
| 1983 | The Denver Broncos and their new coach, Dan Reeves, acquire quarterback John Elway | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 150 |
| June 1883 | The first commencement is held at the School of Mines with Allen Hale as president | Summit of Destiny: Taming the Pikes Peak Country 1858-1918 , 2008, Francis J. Pierson, p. 243 |
| February 7, 1983 | Mile High Cablevision strings the first cable in Denver | Roger Dudley's Denver Television Chronology , p. 268 |
| February 21, 1983 | City Center 4 dedicated in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| March 4, 1983 | Fire guts the historic Masonic Temple on 16th Street in downtown Denver | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| May 14, 1983 | First Mile High Cablevision subscriber is connected with free 90-day test | Roger Dudley's Denver Television Chronology , p. 271 |
| May 17, 1983 | The U.S. Air Force begins construction of Falcon Air Force Station near Colorado Springs | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-1-2017 |
| July 1, 1983 | Federico Peña is inaugurated as the first Hispanic mayor of Denver | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-1-2017 |
| July 5, 1983 | The Irish band U2 performs at Red Rocks Amphitheater; the performance is recorded as an album and video entitled "U2 Live at Red Rocks: Under a Blood Red Sky" | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-1-2017 |
| August 5, 1983 | Republic Plaza dedicated at 16th & Tremont in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| August 10, 1983 | KDVR becomes the first new commercial Denver TV station since 1953 when it signs on after months of delays; assigned to channel 31 | Roger Dudley's Denver Television Chronology , p. 279 |
| November 23, 1983 | The only 5-alarm fire in Denver history burns for nine hours at the University Hills Shopping Center damaging more than a dozen stores; 35 of the city's 41 pieces of apparatus battled the flames in near zero temperatures | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|--|
| December 12, 1983 | Coalmont post office discontinued in Jackson County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 35 |
| December 27, 1893 | Governor Waite calls for a special session of the General Assembly; lists 32 items to deal with the economic turmoil | Frank Hall, History of the State of Colorado , Vol. 4, p. 402 |
| 1984 | Civic Center RTD (Regional Transportation District) Terminal and Denver Post Tower open on 16th Avenue and Broadway in downtown Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 49 |
| 1984 | Republic Plaza Building opens on the block bounded by 17th and 18th streets and Tremont and Court Places; designed by Skidmore, Owings and Merrill | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 52 |
| 1984 | City Center Tower is completed in downtown Denver; designed by Metz, Train & Youngman at 1801-1863 California Street between California & Stout Streets and 18th and 19th Streets | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 57 |
| 1984 | The Tabor Center opens in the 1600 block of Larimer Street; designed by Kohn Pederson Fox Associates; shops and restaurants cover two blocks along the 16th Street Mall on the site of the old Tabor Block in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 64 |
| 1984 | Bourk-Donaldson-Taylor Building is restored at 1639 18th Street at Wynkoop by John Novak of the Urban Design Group; becomes known as the 18th Street Atrium for the spacious central atrium | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 67 |
| 1984 | The Children's Museum opens at 2121 Children's Museum Drive as designed by Russell Seacat of Barker, Rinker, Seacat and Partners | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 102 |
| 1984 | The Graystone Castle is completed at 83 East 120th at I-25 as a fanciful hotel complex in Northglenn with towers and parapets and a six story castle of concrete | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 122 |
| 1984 | The Arabian Horse Center is built at 12000 Zuni Street in Westminster; designed by Hoffman Reed Partnership | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 123 |
| 1984 | Riverfront Festival Marketplace opens at the corner of Bowles Avenue and S. Sante Fe Drive in Littleton | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 127 |
| 1984 | The Union Pacific Depot in Sterling is moved to 113 N. Front Street and converted to a museum & events center | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 257 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|--|
| 1984 | Rocky Mountain Institute builds a residential-office-research facility at 1739 Snowmass Creek Road; designed by Steven Conger | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 500 |
| 1984 | An addition to the Delta Public library is completed using the design of Dana Larson, Roubal and Associates | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 532 |
| 1984 | Edgar Kaiser, Jr. sells the Denver Broncos to Patrick Bowlen for a reported $70 million | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 150 |
| 1984 | Colorado Preservation, Inc. is formed to provide statewide preservation clout | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 165 |
| 1984 | The Great American Beer Festival moves from Boulder to Denver where it becomes the largest beer festival with 750 breweries by 2015 | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 190 |
| January 1m 1984 | Mountain Bell, also known as Mountain States Telephone & Telegraph, become known as US West, Inc. when the Bell Sytem is ordered by the courts to divest of companies it held around the country | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-1-2017 |
| February 16, 1984 | Scott Hamilton wins a gold medal at the Olymic Games in Sarajevo for figure skating | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-1-2017 |
| April 13, 1984 | Tabor Center at 16th and Larimer is dedicated in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| June 1, 1984 | Hale post office discontinued in Yuma County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 67 |
| June 8, 1984 | Ground is broken Regency Plaza One in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| June 18, 1984 | KOA radio talk show host Alan Berg is murdered as he steps out of his car just off Colfax and Adams in Denver; members of an anti-Semitic sect "The Order" are eventually convicted of the murder | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-1-2017 |
| August 1, 1984 | A transport truck carrying six U.S. Navy torpedoes overturns at the I-25 and I-70 intersection known as "the mousetrap"; both roads are closed for hours until an Army ordnance team could secure the 19-foot long torpedoes | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| August 1, 1984 | A truck carrying six navy torpedoes overturns at the "mousetrap" - the intersection of I-25 and I-70 north of downtown Denver - snarling traffic for most of the day at the busiest intersection in the state | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-1-2017 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|---------------|---|---|
| November 1984 | The Anschutz Corporation acquires Rio Grande Industries for $500 million which include the Denver & Rio Grande Western Railroad | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-1-2017 |
| 1980s | The Tivoli-Union Brewery is converted to a student union for the Auraria campus with designs by Hellmuth, Obata and Kassabaum | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 70 |
| 1980s | Dr. Charles Brantigan restores the Gebhard-Smith house at 2253 Downing for his medical offices later referred to as the Gebhard-Smith-Brantigan house in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 84 |
| 1985 | Mayan Theatre at 110 Broadway is renovated by Midyette-Seieroe | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 73 |
| 1985 | Beau Monde Shopping Mall is completed at 8081 E. Orchard Road; designed by Talman Association | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 133 |
| 1985 | Chatauqua Park Dining Hall restored by OZ Architecture | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 180 |
| 1985 | Kepner Hall is remodeled on the University of Northern Colorado campus to become the home of the College of Business; designed by Manning, Knapp & Watson | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 246 |
| 1985 | Wray Elementary and High School is constructed at 30074 Yuma County Road 35 as designed by Anderson Mason Dale and called "prairie grain storage vernacular" by one of the architects | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 264 |
| 1985 | A new high school opens in Kiowa replacing the original 1921 building | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 274 |
| 1985 | Sandusky Block at 222 F Street in Salida is restored | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 351 |
| 1985 | Eagle County Justice Center opens at 885 Chambers Avenue; designed by William C. Muchow and Associates | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 468 |
| 1985 | Beaver Creek Clubhouse opens at 103 Offerson Road; designed by Morter, Fisher with Eric Erickson | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 475 |
| 1985 | Two Rivers Park and River Walk opens on Grand and River Streets in Glenwood Springs | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 481 |
| 1985 | Hotel Lenado opens in Aspen at 200 S. Aspen Street; designed by Harry Teague | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 494 |
| 1985 | Reed Building becomes the branch home of the Museum of Western Colorado on Main Street Grand Junction | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 505 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|---|--|
| 1985 | Colorado National Bank opens between White and Rood Avenues and 3rd and 5th Streets in Grand Junction; designed by Michael Barber Architecture | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 506 |
| 1985 | Sheridan Opera House at 110 N. Oak Street in Telluride is remodeled by Peter Johnson | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 586 |
| February 1, 1985 | Maybell sets the all-time Colorado record low temperature with -61 degrees Farenheit | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-1-2017 |
| August 30, 1985 | Gary post office discontinued in Mesa County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 60 |
| September 26, 1985 | U.S. Air Force opens the Consolidated Space Operations Center at Falcon Air Station near Colorado Springs | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-1-2017 |
| November 11, 1985 | Villegreen post office discontinued in Las Animas County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 147 |
| December 16, 1985 | A propane explosion at Rocky Mountain Natural Gas in Glenwood Springs kills 12 | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| 1986 | Charles S. Sink builds a home at 1050 S. Franklin; a glassy house raised a story above street level | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 113 |
| 1986 | The City Park Recreation Center in Westminster opens; designed by Barker, Rinker, Seacat and Partners at 10455 Sheridan Boulevard in the 120 acre city park | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 124 |
| 1986 | Denver Mormon Temple is completed at 2001 Phillips Circle near S. University Boulevard and County Line Road in Littleton on a 7.5 acre site | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 128 |
| 1986 | Dickens Opera House in Longmont at 300 Main Street is rehabilitated | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 185 |
| 1986 | The Silver Plume Depot is renovated with shops and garages added | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 207 |
| 1986 | The Grass Valley schoolhouse is moved to 1711 Miner Street and becomes the Idaho Springs City Hall | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 210 |
| 1986 | Colorado Visitors' Center opens at 309 Nevada in Trinidad on the site of the former Sante Fe Depot | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 376 |
| 1986 | Milrace Condominiums opens at 1360 Westhave Drive in West Vail; designed by Robert L. Arnold Associates | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 474 |
| 1986 | Coldstream Condominiums open at 476 Westhaven Drive in West Vail; designed by Morter, Fisher; Robert L. Arnold Associates | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 474 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-----------------|--|--|
| 1986 | Rangely High School opens at 234 Jones Avenue; designed by Caudill, Gustafson and Associates | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 515 |
| 1986 | Joseph Patrick Robbins builds a home at 720 Deerfoot Artspark Drive in Steamboat Springs | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 524 |
| April 22, 1986 | Gilman post office discontinued in Eagle County, operations ceased June 29, 1985 | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 61 |
| August 16, 1986 | Glade Park post office converted to a community post office of Grand Junction in Mesa County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 61 |
| 1987 | The Pearce-McAllister House at 1880 Gaylord Street becomes the home of the Denver Museum of Miniatures, Dolls and Toys | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 90 |
| 1987 | Presbyterian Church at 147 South First Avenue is saved from demolition by the city of Brighton and adopted as the City Events Center | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 119 |
| 1987 | First Presbyterian Church is completed at 510 South 27th Avenue in Brighton; designed by Arthur Everett of Everett Zeigel Architecture | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 120 |
| 1987 | West Park Place office complex in Westminster is completed; designed by Allen and Phillips Architects, Inc. at 8700 Turnpike Drive near Sheridan and US 36 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 124 |
| 1987 | The Davenport House is built at 285 Potato Patch Circle off Upper Bear Creek Road near Evergreen; designed by E. Fay Jones | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 166 |
| 1987 | Macky Auditorium on the University of Colorado Boulder campus is restored by Midyette-Seieroe | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 178 |
| 1987 | James Cox designs an office building for 212 Mulberry in Fort Collins | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 231 |
| 1987 | Estes Park undergoes streetscaping to enhance the beauty of the town | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 234 |
| 1987 | Loveland's Municipal Building opens on the southwest corner of 2nd and Washington; designed by Midyette Seieroe and Associates | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 237 |
| 1987 | The city of Loveland acquires the Rialto Theater; with volunteer labor and contributions by 1993 the theater is restored | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 237 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|---|---|
| 1987 | Acacia Park Hotel at 104 E. Platte Avenue in Colorado Springs is restored to accommodate senior housing | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 289 |
| 1987 | Rio Grande County Museum opens in Del Norte; designed by Jack Rominger | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 426 |
| 1987 | Visitors' Center created from the old Monte Vista Public Library | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 428 |
| 1987 | Amtrak Depot installed at Granby in the center of town a block south of US 40 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 453 |
| 1987 | Ford Park and Amphitheater opens at 601 Vail Valley Drive in Vail | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 472 |
| 1987 | Post office built in Carbondale at 655 Main Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 484 |
| 1987 | Sky View is completed atop Red Mountain 1200 feet above Aspen | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 498 |
| 1987 | Spruce Lodge is completed 9 miles up old Snowmass Road from Colorado 82; designed by Robert A.M. Stern | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 501 |
| 1987 | An addition is made to the Bud Werner Memorial Library in Steamboat Springs by William J. Rangitsch | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 522 |
| 1987 | First National Bank at 301-305 Main Street in Delta is restored as a visitors' center | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 533 |
| 1987 | St. Rose of Lima Catholic Church at 123 Park Street in Lake City is restored | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 550 |
| 1987 | John Naisbitt and Patricia Aburdene, authors of Megatrends (1982) build a home in Telluride at 459 W. Dakota Avenue; designed by Theodore R. Brown | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 589 |
| 1987 | Colorado Welcome Center opens at 928 E. Main Street in Cortez; designed by Dean Brookie | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 594 |
| 1987 | The Denver Broncos lose to the New York Giants, 39-20 in their second Super Bowl appearance | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 150 |
| January 11, 1987 | The Denver Broncos defeat the Cleveland Browns 23-20 to win the American Football Conference and advance to the Super Bowl | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-1-2017 |
| January 13, 1987 | Roy Romer takes the oath as Colorado's 39th governor | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-1-2017 |
| January 25, 1987 | The Denver Broncos are defeated 39-20 in Super Bowl XXI by the New York Giants | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-1-2017 |
| April 5, 1987 | The National Mining Hall of Fame opens in Leadville | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-1-2017 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|--|
| May 8, 1987 | Senator Gary Hart announces the end of his month long presidential campaign | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 4-1-2017 |
| November 15, 1987 | Continental Airlines flight 1713 crashes while taking off in a snowstorm from Stapleton International Airport in Denver; 28 people are killed and 54 are injured | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| 1988 | The Wynkoop Brewing Company opens in the renovated J.S. Brown Mercantile Building, at 18th and Wynkoop, as Denver's first brewpub and restaurant; Joe Simons designed the restoration | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 67 |
| 1988 | Westminster City Hall opens at 4800 West 92nd Avenue; designed by Murata, Outland, Thomas Partnership with a 136-foot clock and bell tower | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 124 |
| 1988 | Boulder Theatre at 2031 14th Street reopens as a cabaret with live concerts | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 174 |
| 1988 | Goss House is completed at 543 Pleasant Street in Boulder; designed by Anthony Pellecchia | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 176 |
| 1988 | Modoc Mill in Ward is rehabilitated as a private residence | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 189 |
| 1988 | Union Colony Civic Center is completed at 701 10th Avenue in Greeley; designed by Robert Shreve, ARIX and housing a concert hall, theater & recreation center | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 242 |
| 1988 | Old Town Burlington is created as a tourist attraction on a 15-acre site north of I-70 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 266 |
| 1988 | Women's Prison in Cañon City is rehabilitated as the Colorado Territorial Prison Museum | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 342 |
| 1988 | Castillo Castle is begun by a returning Vietnam War veteran in Antonito; also called the La Virgen de Guadalupe Shrine at 10th Avenue and State Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 419 |
| 1988 | Tennenbaum House opens at 307 Rockledge Road; designed by Ed Niles | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 473 |
| 1988 | Beaver Creek Interfaith Chapel opens at Vail Drive and Gore Creek; designed by Zehren and Associates | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 475 |
| 1988 | Presbyterian Church in Lake City undergoes restoration and additions | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 550 |
| 1988 | Montrose Regional Airport opens at 2100 Airport Road; designed by Patrik Davis | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 581 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|--|
| 1988 | The Anasazi Heritage Center opens 2 miles west of Dolores at 27501 Colorado 184; built as part of the mitigation of the sites drowned when the McPhee Reservoir Project became Colorado's second largest lake | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 596 |
| 1988 | Lower Downtown Historic District (LoDo) is established | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 110 |
| 1988 | Wolf Pack Woods opens as part of the Denver Zoo | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 113 |
| 1988 | Adams County agrees to allow Denver to annex 54 square miles to provide land for a new airport, Denver International Airport | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 115 |
| 1988 | Westminster's new city hall opens giving the town new visibility with its 136-foot-tall clock tower | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 132 |
| 1988 | The Denver Broncos lose to the Washington Redskins, 42-10 in their third Super Bowl appearance | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 150 |
| 1988 | Denver adopts an ordinance that sets aside 1% of any capital-improvement project over $1 million for public art | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 177 |
| 1988 | The Colorado General Assembly votes to allow breweries to sell their product on the premises ushering in the era of brewpubs; Wynkoop Brewery is the first opening under the ownership of an out of work geologist John W. Hickenlooper, Jr. and three partners | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 189 |
| January 17, 1988 | The Denver Broncos defeat the Cleveland Browns 38-33 to win the American Football Conference Championship and advance to the Super Bowl | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-30-2017 |
| January 31, 1988 | The Denver Broncos lose 42-10 to the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl XXII | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-30-2017 |
| February 26, 1988 | Maier post office discontinued in Montrose County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 93 |
| March 3, 1988 | Denver Chamber of Commerce building at 1600 Sherman is dedicated | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| April 3, 1988 | Fire sweeps a row of businesses at 4th and Lincoln Streets in Loveland where firefighters from Loveland, Fort Collins, Berthoud and the Big Thompson Canyon Fire Department work for three hours to bring the flames under control | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|---|
| June 18, 1988 | The U.S. Air Force renames Falcon Air Force Station Falcon Air Force Base | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-30-2017 |
| July 15, 1988 | Uravan post office discontinued in Montrose County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 145 |
| September 2, 1988 | Farisita post office discontinued in Huerfano County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 53 |
| October 13, 1988 | Denver & Rio Grande Western Railroad becomes part of Southern Pacific Railroad when Rio Grande Industries, Inc. acquires the Southern Pacific Transportation Company | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-30-2017 |
| October 31, 1988 | Milner post office discontinued in Routt County when the store folded | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 98 |
| November 8, 1988 | Voters in Adams, Arapahoe, Boulder, Denver, Douglas & Jefferson Counties approve creation of the Scientific and Cultural District which will fund many organization and facilities in the six county area | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-30-2017 |
| November 24, 1988 | Sapinero post office discontinued in Gunnison County, ceased operations in 1986 when the store in which it was located underwent foreclosure | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 128 |
| 1894 | The John Milhelm House at 1359 Pennsylvania Street is moved to 1515 Race Street at a cost of almost $400,000 after purchasing it on the evening of its scheduled demolition in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 87 |
| 1989 | The Raymond House at 1572 Race Street is converted to a bed and breakfast; known as Castle Marne in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 87 |
| 1989 | Northern Shores is constructed at the Denver Zoo to house polar bears; designed by Alan Peterson | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 91 |
| 1989 | Denver Tramway Company Powerhouse at 1416 Platte Street in Denver is converted into the Forney Transportation Museum; later converted to an REI flagship store [Recreational Equipment, Inc.] | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 101 |
| 1989 | Thornton Town Center is built at 10001 Grant Street; designed by L.J. Hooker Development | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 121 |
| 1989 | Light of the World Catholic Church is completed at 10306 W. Bowles Avenue; designed by Karl A. Berg of Hoover Berg Desmond | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 128 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|---|
| 1989 | The Inverness Hotel and convention center opens at I-25 at County Line Road designed by Danish architect Knud Frus and adjacent to a golf course | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 132 |
| 1989 | Pastor Wallace Hickey's Happy Church purchases the Beau Monde Shopping Mall at 8081 E. Orchard Road to use as the Happy Church | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 133 |
| 1989 | Aurora Municipal Justice Center built at E. Alameda Drive and S. Sable Boulevard; designed by Skidmore, Owings & Merrill with W. Kenneth Wiseman as senior designer of the $21 million facility | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 135 |
| 1989 | Aurora Public Market opens at 14100 E. Exposition Avenue with an open interior space enclosed by industrial brick and concrete walls and a metal roof | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 136 |
| 1989 | Douglas County High School at 620 Wilcox Street in Castle Rock is renovated as a town hall and the school district headquarters | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 144 |
| 1989 | Hotel Boulderado at 2115 13th Street in Boulder gets an addition; designed by James Reich Magee | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 174 |
| 1989 | Trinity English Lutheran Church at 2200 Broadway in Boulder gets more additions designed by Robert Saas | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 175 |
| 1989 | Environmental Hogan Complex is completed; designed by Dennis Holloway on the University of Colorado Boulder campus at the south end of 30th Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 179 |
| 1989 | A multid denominational service agency The Mission opens in Fort Collins at 400 Linden Center as designed by John Dengler and Associates | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 226 |
| 1989 | Smillie House at 515 Cheyenne Avenue in Eaton is restored; now the Victorian Veranda Bed and Breakfast | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 248 |
| 1989 | Otteson Feed Mill at 815 E. 7th Street in Fort Lupton is converted to a Mexican restaurant - La Familia | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 249 |
| 1989 | Great Western Sugar closes its plant in Sterling and converts it for beet storage for the Fort Morgan plant | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 258 |
| 1989 | Another addition is made to the Overland Trail Museum at Sterling | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 259 |
| 1989 | Sacred Heart Cathedral in Pueblo undergoes a major remodeling & renovation | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 318 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|---|
| 1989 | The Walter House at 300 W. Abriendo Avenue reopens as a bed and breakfast in South Pueblo | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 325 |
| 1989 | Salida Steam Plant at 200 W. Sackett Avenue is converted into a theater for the Powerhouse Players; called the Salida Performing Arts Center | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 351 |
| 1989 | Renovation begins on the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Depot in Rocky Ford; redesigned by Tom Morris Architects as an information center and Chamber of Commerce office at 105 N. Main Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 394 |
| 1989 | Stations of the Cross Shrine opens at 159 Main Street in San Luis | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 413 |
| 1989 | Keystone Conference Center opens; designed by Michael Barber Architecture in Summit County as part of the Keystone Resort | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 465 |
| 1989 | Silverthorne Town Hall, Library and Police Complex erected along the Blue River at 601 Center Circle; designed by Dokken Crowe Architects | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 466 |
| 1989 | Beaver Creek Hyatt Regency Hotel and Conference Center at 136 E. Thomas Place; designed by Hornberger, Wastell & Associates | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 475 |
| 1989 | Little Nell, a luxury Aspen hotel, is built by Hagman Yaw at 675 E. Durant Street at the base of Aspen Mountain | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 496 |
| 1989 | Delta County History Museum erected at 3rd and Meeker in Delta; designed by Edward Chamberlain Associates | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 531 |
| 1989 | Ruby M. Sisson Memorial Library opens in Pagosa Springs on the southwest corner of Pagosa and 7th streets; designed by George King | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 553 |
| 1989 | La Plata County Courthouse receives an addition; designed by Caudill Gustafson Ross and Associates | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 557 |
| 1989 | Miner's Union Theater opens in the upstairs of the former Western Federation of Miners Union Hall in Silverton at 1069 Greene Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 564 |
| 1989 | Buckskin Trading opens in Ouray at 636 Main Street; designed by David Westfall | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 571 |
| 1989 | Ouray City Hall is restored with funds raised by citizens | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 572 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|---|
| 1989 | Actor Dennis Weaver builds an energy efficient home of recycled materials & using solar energy west of Ridgeway; Sunridge is designed by Michael Reynolds | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 577 |
| 1989 | Research and educational center opens at the Crow Canyon Archaeological Center | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 595 |
| 1989 | The Central Bank Building in Denver is razed at 15th & Arapahoe Streets | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 166 |
| 1989 | Aurora Reservoir completed to provide water and recreation for Aurora | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 186 |
| June 6, 1989 | Rocky Flats Nuclear Weapons Plant, raided by FBI and EPA agents | Westword , March 9, 2006 |
| June 6, 1989 | Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and Environmental Protection Agency raid the Department of Energy Rocky Flats Plant near Arvada | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-30-2017 |
| July 28, 1989 | Towner post office discontinued in Kiowa County | Colorado Post Offices 1858-1959 , William H. Bauer, James L. Ozment, John H. Willard, p. 142 |
| August 1, 1989 | Judge Sherman Finesilver impanels the state's first-ever special grand jury (89-2); charged with evaluating the evidence seized when the FBI raided the Rocky Flats Nuclear Weapons Plant | Westword , August 8, 1996 |
| November 22, 1989 | Ground is broken by the City and County of Denver for a new airport to replace Stapleton International Airport; Denver International Airport opens in 1995 | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-30-2017 |
| 1909 | Bowen Community Church opens 10 miles south of Monte Vista on Colorado 370 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 430 |
| 1990 | Ghost Building reconstructed at 18th and Stout after being disassembled brick by brick in 1980 from its location at 15th and Glenarm Place | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 58 |
| 1990 | Denver Gas & Electric Company's building is restored and becomes known as the Insurance Exchange Building at 910 15th Street | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 60 |
| 1990 | Kettle's Arcade at 1426 Larimer Street is remodeled to provide a passageway in the Larimer Square renovation project designed by Semple Brown Roberts | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 65 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|---|---|
| 1990 | Cactus Club is built at 1621 Blake Street; designed by Peter H. Dominick Jr.; the building is squeezed in between two larger structures in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 66 |
| 1990 | Dana Crawford leads the project to convert the Spratlen-Anderson Warehouse at 1450 Wynkoop Street and 1626-1638 15th Street into the Edbrooke Lofts, so named in honor of the designer of the structure in 1906 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 68 |
| 1990 | The North Classroom on the Auraria campus is completed; designed by Hoover Berg Desmond between Speer and 11th Street and Lawrence and Larimer | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 71 |
| 1990 | The Crawford Hill Mansion at 969 Sherman St. in Denver is renovated by Peter H. Dominick, Jr. for law offices | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 76 |
| 1990 | Taylor House is built at 1000 E. Quincy Avenue; designed by James S. Bershoff of OZ Architecture | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 134 |
| 1990 | Jefferson County Human Service Center opens at 900 Jefferson County Parkway; designed by C.W. Fentress, J.H. Bradburn and Associates | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 155 |
| 1990 | Population of Fort Collins is 87,758 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 224 |
| 1990 | A two story addition is made to Spruce Hall on the Colorado State Agricultural College campus in Fort Collins | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 228 |
| 1990 | Woodmen-Roberts Elementary School opens at 8365 Orchard Path Road | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 299 |
| 1990 | Shepard's-McGraw-Hill, Inc. is completed at 555 Middle Creek Parkway west of Colorado 3 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 306 |
| 1990 | Custer County Library and Community Building opens at 209 Main Street in Westcliffe; designed by John Hurtig | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 368 |
| 1990 | Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Depot at Main and Beech Streets in Lamar rehabilitated as a Colorado Welcome Center | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 384 |
| 1990 | Grand County Historical Society spends $300,000 to restore the Cozens Ranch House Museum near Fraser | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 452 |
| 1990 | Bunchman-Taylor Building opens in Breckenridge at 125-135 S. Main Street; designed by Jon Gunson Architects | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 460 |
| 1990 | Frisco Funtastic Fungrounds opens at 8th and Pitkin in Frisco; designed by Robert Leathers | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 465 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|---|
| 1990 | Rio Grande Transportation Center opens in Aspen at Mill and Bleeker Streets; designed by Rogers-Nagel-Langhart with Gibson & Reno | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 491 |
| 1990 | Tourist Information Center opens at Dinosaur; designed by Michael Brendle Architects on US 40 and Colorado 64 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 519 |
| 1990 | Pioneer Town created at Cedaredge on Colorado 65 and 2nd Street using two dozen historic structures consolidated by the Surface Creek Valley Historical Society on the old Bar I Ranch site with its 3 surviving silos; Donald & Inez Peterson funded the effort | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 534 |
| 1990 | Colorado Yule Marble Quarry reopens four miles south of Marble on Yule Creek Road in Gunnison County with a 70 year lease from the Vermont Marble Company | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 543 |
| 1990 | The Denver Broncos lose their fourth Super Bowl game 55-10 this one to the San Francisco 49ers | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 150 |
| 1990 | Colorado voters legalize casino gambling in three old mining communities, Cripple Creek, Central City and Black Hawk with part of the taxes going to historic preservation | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 166 |
| 1990 | There are 375,015 cars registered in the City and County of Denver | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 181 |
| 1990s | The Chester S. Morey Warehouse at 1628 16th Street is remodeled to house a second Tattered Cover bookstore | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 68 |
| 1999 | Elbert County has a population of 9,646 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 273 |
| January 14, 1990 | The Denver Broncos defeat the Cleveland Browns 37-21 to win the American Football Conference Championship | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |
| January 28, 1990 | The Denver Broncos suffer a defeat in Super Bowl XXIV losing to the San Francisco 49ers 55-10 | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |
| April 1, 1990 | U.S. Census enumerates 3,294,394 people in Colorado an increase of 13.99% since the last census | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |
| June 23, 1990 | Colorado Convention Center opens in Denver | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |
| July 9, 1990 | Central Bank and Trust building 15th and Arapahoe razed in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| July 16, 1990 | Colorado Convention Center dedicated in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| November 24, 1990 | The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency vetoes the Two Forks Dam Project that was proposed by Denver Board of Water Commissioners on the South Platte River | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|--|
| November 25, 1990 | Fire engulfs the jet fuel depot at Stapleton International Airport consuming a quarter of the 13 million gallons stored there; an oil well firefighting company, Boots & Coots is brought in and extinguish the blaze after 53 hours | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| 1990s | First Presbyterian Church at 211 Church Street in Black Hawk and later used as a gymnasium becomes Black Hawk's City Hall annex with its hillside perch | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 199 |
| 1991 | Denver Municipal Auditorium is restored by Semple Brown Roberts; reopens as part of the Temple Hoyne Buell Theater in the Denver Center for the Performing Arts (DCPA) complex | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 61 |
| 1991 | Temple Hoyne Buell Theater opens in the Denver Center for the Performing Arts; designed by Beyer, Blinder & Belle's master plan with Van Dyke and Johnson designing the interiors for the multiple areas between 14th and Speer and Arapahoe and Champa | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 61 |
| 1991 | Regis Jesuit High School opens at 163000 E. Weaver Place in South Aurora; designed by David Owen Tryba | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 140 |
| 1991 | Loveland Block - Territorial Capitol at 1122 Washington Avenue is renovated by Andrews and Anderson | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 152 |
| 1991 | Sandstone Park and Visitors Center is built at the southeast corner of Broadway and 4th Avenue in Lyons using local sandstone for many features | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 188 |
| 1991 | J.H. Philip Rohling block, which once housed his dry goods store at 160 Gregory Street in Black Hawk becomes the Rohling Inn Casino | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 199 |
| 1991 | Estes Valley Public Library is built at 333 East Elkhorn Avenue in Estes Park | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 234 |
| 1991 | Black School is moved to 4th and Detroit Streets in Yuma and becomes the Black School Museum | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 265 |
| 1991 | Much of downtown Limon is destroyed by an early evening tornado | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 269 |
| 1991 | Limon Town Hall is built after a 1991 tornado destroys much of the downtown business district | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 269 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|---|
| 1991 | The original 1921 Kiowa High School becomes the Elbert County Museum | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 274 |
| 1991 | Palmer Center is erected on Cascade Avenue between Colorado and Peak Avenues in Colorado Springs; designed by Klipp Colussy Jenks DuBois with a master plan by Kohn Pederson Fox | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 290 |
| 1991 | The Visual Arts Center is completed at the Fountain Valley School in El Paso County 10 miles southeast of Colorado Springs; designed by Michael Collins | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 308 |
| 1991 | Manitou Town Clock is restored at Cañon & Manitou Avenues in Manitou Springs; installed 1890 | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 310 |
| 1991 | Becker and Nolan Block is restored at 301 E. Bennett Avenue in Cripple Creek by David Langley | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 332 |
| 1991 | Imperial Hotel at 133-137 N. 3rd Street in Cripple Creek becomes the Imperial Hotel and Casino | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 332 |
| 1991 | Jason Crum paints a colorful mural on the exterior of 418 Main Street in Walsenburg featuring notable Huerfano County characters | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 370 |
| 1991 | An addition is made to the Eagle County Courthouse by G. Cabell Childress | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 468 |
| 1991 | Grizzly Creek Rest Area opens on I-70 6 miles east of Glenwood Springs; designed by Philip E. Flores Associates, Inc. | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 484 |
| 1991 | Pitkin County Library opens at Mill & Main Streets in Aspen; designed by Caudill, Gustafson, Ross and Associates | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 491 |
| 1991 | Museum of Northwestern Colorado opens in the old State Armory at 590 Yampa Avenue in Craig | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 518 |
| 1991 | Confluence Park at US 50 and Gunnison River Road in Delta is established | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 532 |
| 1991 | Thunder Mountain Amphitheater opens in Delta's Confluence Park | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 532 |
| 1991 | Fort Robidoux facsimile and living history museum opens in Delta's Confluence Park | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 532 |
| 1991 | Horse Country Arena opens in Delta's Confluence Park | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 532 |
| 1991 | Middle school constructed in Crested Butte | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 541 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|--|--|
| 1991 | First Baptist Church on Bluff Street in Lake City gets restored and a new metal roof for its centennial | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 548 |
| 1991 | Addition is made to United Methodist Church of Montrose by Patrik Davis Associates | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 580 |
| 1991 | Montrose Pavilion completed at 1800 Pavilion Drive in Montrose; designed by Patrik Davis Associates | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 581 |
| 1991 | San Juan Brew Pub opens in the rebuilt depot of the Rio Grande Southern Railroad in Telluride | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 585 |
| 1991 | Coors beer becomes available in all 50 states | Denver Post article October 12, 2016, p. 1 |
| 1991 | Wellington Webb elected first African American mayor of Denver | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xvii |
| 1991 | Casino gambling begins in Central City, Black Hawk and Cripple Creek | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xvii |
| 1991 | Wellington Webb is elected Mayor of Denver, the first African American to hold the post when Federico Peña was ineligible to run after serving two terms | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 143 |
| 1991 | The Colorado Department of Highways becomes the Colorado Department of Transportation (CDOT) | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 182 |
| January 1, 1991 | The Colorado Buffaloes defeat Nortre Dame 10-9 in the Orange Bowl and are named National Champions by the Associated Press | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |
| March 4, 1991 | Fire in a retirement home in Colorado Springs kills nine | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| June 1991 | The first segment of the E-470 toll road opens | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |
| July 1, 1991 | Wellington Webb is sworn in as Mayor of Denver; the first African American mayor of Denver | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |
| September 16, 1991 | President George H.W. Bush promotes the Solar Energy Research into the National Renewable Energy Laboratory outside of Golden | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |
| October 1, 1991 | Low stakes gambling becomes legal in Central City, Black Hawk and Cripple Creek | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 190 |
| 1992 | Byers Branch Library is restored at 675 Santa Fe Drive by Stanley Pouw Associates in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 72 |
| 1992 | The Woodbury Branch Library at 3625 Federal Boulevard is restored by David Owen Tryba in Denver | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 106 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|---|
| 1992 | Bryant-Webster Elementary School at 3635 Quivas Street is renovated by JH/P Architecture | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 109 |
| 1992 | Koelbel Public Library is opened at 5955 S. Holly Street; designed by Barker, Rinker, Seacat and Partners and named for developer Walter Koelbel | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 133 |
| 1992 | Anne Evans Cabin on the Evans Ranch in Clear Creek County is converted into the mountain home of Jan and Frederick Mayer as designed by Kathy Hoeft and Gary Long of Long Hoeft Architects | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 167 |
| 1992 | Arvada Center for the Arts and Humanities expands at 6901 Wadsworth Boulevard with a design by Clarice Dreyer including a sculptured bird sanctuary | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 168 |
| 1992 | Boulder Public Library, at 1000 Canyon Boulevard, gets an addition designed by Midyette-Seieroe-Hartvonft and Associates | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 172 |
| 1992 | East Boulder Recreation Center opens at 5660 Sioux Drive; designed by Barker, Rinker, Seacat and Partners | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 181 |
| 1992 | Meyer Building in Central City at 129 Main St. is enveloped by construction of the $13 million Glory Hole Saloon; at the time the largest casino in Colorado | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 196 |
| 1992 | The Knights of Pythias Hall at 101 Gregory Street in Black Hawk is engulfed by the Bullwhackers Casino in Black Hawk with only the façade of the old hall preserved | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 199 |
| 1992 | Fort Collins Municipal Power Plant at 430 North College Avenue is adapted to serve as an alternative fuel test facility by the Colorado State University Mechanical Engineering Department | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 226 |
| 1992 | Teller County Hospital is restored and converted to a hotel and mobile home park headquarters and now called Hospitality House | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 334 |
| 1992 | Bank Block in Cripple Creek is restored and turned into a 30-room hotel with a lobby bank vault - now called the New Victor Hotel | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 336 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|---|---|
| 1992 | Vendome Hotel at 701 Harrison Avenue, formerly the Tabor Grand Hotel, in Leadville, undergoes a $3.3 million restoration and emerges with first floor retail space and 38 upper story low-income housing units | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 362 |
| 1992 | Robert Ralston designs a shed to shelter the Pullman Car Marcia at the entrance to Craig's city park | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 517 |
| 1992 | The Storm Peak Express ski lift is added to the Werner Ski Area; a high-speed quad lift | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 525 |
| 1992 | Delta is named an All-American City | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 531 |
| 1992 | Heddles Recreation Center opens in Delta's Confluence Park | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 532 |
| 1992 | Basalt architect Peter Dobrovolny renovates the offices of High Country News in Paonia at 119 Grand Avenue | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 536 |
| 1992 | J.L. Murphy's saloon at 470 Main Street in Ouray reopens as a bed and breakfast; Silver Nugget Café on first floor | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 570 |
| 1992 | Doral Telluride Resort and Spa opens 8 miles southwest of Telluride atop Country Club Drive; designed by Anthony Pellecchia Associates; now the Peaks Penthouse and Condominiums | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 590 |
| 1992 | Rocky Flats ceases operation as a plutonium trigger plant; cleanup continues for more than a decade | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 105 |
| May 26, 1992 | President George H.W. Bush signs an act of Congress creating the Two Ponds National Wildlife Refuge | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |
| July 17, 1992 | Empire Savings building is razed in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| October 9, 1992 | President George H.W. Bush signs an act of Congress creating the Rocky Mountain Arsenal National Wildlife Refuge just outside of Denver | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |
| October 14, 1992 | Governor Roy Romer dedicates the I-70 segment through Glenwood Canyon completing the 449 mile east-west segment of Interstate Highway through Colorado | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |
| October 16, 1992 | Ground is broken for Coors Field at 20th & Blake Streets in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|---|---|
| November 1992 | Conservative voters from rural Colorado pass Amendment 2 to the Colorado Constitution forbidding the according of any protected status to homosexuals, lesbians or bisexuals by any town or entity; before the measure takes effect suits are filed that result in it being declared unconstitutional by the U.S. Supreme Court in 1996 | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 145 |
| November 3, 1992 | Colorado voters approve Amendment 2 to Colorado's Constitution prohibiting 'special rights' based upon sexual orientation; ruled unconstitutional in 1996 by the U.S. Supreme Court | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |
| November 3, 1992 | Colorado voters approve Amendment 1, the Taxpayer Bill of Rights (TABOR) | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |
| 1993 | Denver Wastewater Management Building opens at 2000 W. 3rd Avenue just west of the Valley Highway; a Neo-Art-Deco structure designed by Paul Todd of Michael Barber Architecture | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 73 |
| 1993 | The Basilica of the Immaculate Conception at Logan and East Colfax is restored for the visit of Pope John Paul II | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 78 |
| 1993 | Tropical Discovery opens at the Denver Zoo to create a habitat suitable for all kinds of exotic animals with a design by Anderson, Mason & Dale | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 91 |
| 1993 | Denver Public Library Ross Cherry Creek branch is remodeled at 305 Milwaukee Street by Michael Brendle | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 93 |
| 1993 | Sarah Platt Decker Branch Library at 1501 S. Logan Street is renovated by David Owen Tryba | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 113 |
| 1993 | National Renewable Energy Research Facility and Visitors' Center opens at 1617 Cole Boulevard; designed by Anderson and DeBartelo south of Table Mountain near Golden where the NREL lab was founded in the 1970s | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 151 |
| 1993 | The Table Mountain Inn at 1310 Washington Avenue in Golden is restored | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 152 |
| 1993 | Jefferson County Courthouse opens at 100 Jefferson County Parkway; designed by J.H. Bradburn and Associates referred to sarcastically as the "Taj Mahal" | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 155 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------|--|---|
| 1993 | Jefferson County Public Library is built at 5000 Colorado 74; designed by G. Cabell Childress in Evergreen | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 164 |
| 1993 | Evergreen Lake Skating and Boat House is installed on the east end of Upper Bear Creek Road and Colorado 74 at the west end of Evergreen Lake; the structure was prefabricated in Montana and then shipped | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 164 |
| 1993 | Nyland Collaborative Community founded with 42 houses on 43 acres at 3225 Nyland Way South; designed by Barker, Rinker Seacat and Partners west of Louisville | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 188 |
| 1993 | Taco Bell remodels the Mawson House at 1530 S. College in Fort Collins to retain the flavor of the original home while selling fast food to students & townspeople | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 228 |
| 1993 | Lincoln County Services Complex is built to replace the 1923 courthouse at 1st Street and 3rd Avenue | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 268 |
| 1993 | Federal prison opens at Florence in Fremont County | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 338 |
| 1993 | Federal Correctional Complex opens in Florence; designed by L.K.A. Partners with Lescher and Mahoney DLR Group | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 347 |
| 1993 | Crowley School at 300 Main Street in Crowley is renovated to house the Crowley County Heritage Center | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 396 |
| 1993 | San Luis Valley Southern Railroad Depot in San Acacio is converted to a bed and breakfast in Costilla County | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 416 |
| 1993 | Creede Repertory Theater is renovated from a collection of buildings at 124 N. Main Street combining several smaller structures through the efforts of Long Hoeft Architects | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 434 |
| 1993 | I-70 through Glenwood Canyon is completed after 12 years at a cost of $500 million for the 12.5 mile segment | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 484 |
| 1993 | Joan & Irving Harris Concert Hall opens in Aspen; designed by Harry Teague at 4th & Gillespie streets | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 491 |
| 1993 | Rock Schoolhouse in Crested Butte at Maroon Avenue and 5th Street restored by Michael Holland, Bill Rosenberry & Nan Lamb | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 540 |
| 1993 | Post Office opens in Pagosa Springs on Hot Springs Road across from the Great Pagosa Hot Spring | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 552 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|---|--|
| 1993 | Pediatric Associates offices open at 947 S. 5th Street in Montrose; designed by Patrik Davis Associates | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 581 |
| 1993 | Rio Grande Southern Depot Museum built as a reincarnation of the original depot that burned in Dolores | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 596 |
| 1993 | Jefferson County Government Center opens near W. 6th Avenue and Johnson Road in Golden | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 128 |
| 1993 | The Colorado Rockies set a major league attendance record with nearly 4.5 million fans in their first season | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 153 |
| 1993 | The Colorado Mountain Club joins with the American Alpine Club to purchase and renovate Golden High School to be used as headquarters for both organizations and their collections of materials and equipment | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 160 |
| 1993 | Avery Brewing Company opens in Boulder and becomes the first Colorado brewery to bottle an India pale ale | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 190 |
| 1993 | Colorado Rockies play their first games as part of Major League Baseball's expansion | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xvii |
| April 1993 | Construction begins to connect I-270 and I-76 with the intersection of I-25 and U.S. 36 | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |
| April 9, 1993 | The Colorado Rockies bring major league baseball to the Mile High City playing, and winning, their first home game at Mile High Stadium with Eric Young hitting a lead-off home run en route to their first win | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 153 |
| August 1993 | Pope John Paul II celebrates World Youth Day at Cherry Creek State Park; the week long event brought some 186,000 people to Colorado from around the world | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 189 |
| August 11-16, 1993 | World Youth Day brings 186,000 pilgrims from throughout the world to Denver to hear Pope John Paul II deliver a sermon at Cherry Creek State Park | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xvii |
| September 15, 1993 | With the opening of the interchange of I-76 and I-25 the Interstate Highway System in Colorado is completed | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |
| December 15, 1993 | Colorado district judge Jeffrey Bayless rules Amendment 2 to Colorado's Constitution prohibiting 'special rights' based on sexual orientation violates the U.S. Constitution | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|--|
| 1994 | Denver City Cable Railway Company building at 1635 17th Street and 1734-36 Wynkoop Street is remodeled by the Urban Design Group with retail development on the ground floor and 43 lofts above | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 67 |
| 1994 | Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Depot moved to the corner of W. Dartmouth Avenue & S. Galapago Street; restored as home to Englewood Historical Society | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 130 |
| 1994 | The McFarlane Foundry at 200 Eureka Street in Central City is remodeled into the McFarlane Foundry Rehearsal Center for the Central City Opera House Association | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 193 |
| 1994 | The Louisiana Pacific Lumber Company closes its processing plant at Walden in Jackson County | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 220 |
| 1994 | Gumaer House at 225 E. Main Street in Florence is converted to a funeral home | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 346 |
| 1994 | Regional Transportation District (RTD) opens its first light-rail line serving Denver | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xvii |
| 1994 | A Mexican Rodeo Extravaganza is launched as part of the National Western Stock Show | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 157 |
| 1994 | Denver's first light rail line opens running 5.3 miles from downtown to South Denver | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 182 |
| July 6, 1994 | A blowup on Storm King Mountain of the South Canyon fire kills 14 firefighters near Glenwood Springs | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |
| July 6, 1994 | Wildfire on Storm King Mountain near Glenwood Springs kills 14 forest service firefighters when winds shift suddenly two days after the fire began in South Canyon | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| October 7, 1994 | Light rail service begins in Denver; a project of the Regional Transportation District | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |
| December 10, 1994 | Rashaan Salaam of the University of Colorado football team wins the Heisman trophy | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |
| 1995 | The enlarged Denver Public Library reopens; designed by Michael Graves with Klipp Colussy Jenks DuBois | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 44 |
| 1995 | Coors Field opens at 20th and Blake in Denver; designed by HOK (Helmuth, Obata and Kassabaum) | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 66 |
| 1995 | Temple Center, formerly Temple Emanuel at 1595 Pearl Street in Denver, is owned by the City of Denver and used as an events center | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 80 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|----------------|---|--|
| 1995 | Denver International Airport opens northeast of Denver with a Teflon-coated fiberglass roof | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 99 |
| 1995 | Elitch Amusement Park closes its doors after more than 100 years at 38th and Tennyson leaving only the Elitch Theater and the cover of the carousel | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 103 |
| 1995 | Golden High School is restored by Barker, Rinker, Seacat & Partners and becomes the home of the American Mountaineering Center at 710 10th Street also the home of the American Alpine Club | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 151 |
| 1995 | Rainbow Arch Bridge on highway 52 over the South Platte River near Fort Morgan is converted to a pedestrian crossing with original cast iron lamps recast | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 253 |
| 1995 | A visitors center designed by Gaede and Larson opens in the Garden of the Gods to replace the original Hidden Inn | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 297 |
| 1995 | Denver International Airport (DIA) opens after costly delays related to baggage handling | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xvii |
| 1995 | Coors Field opens in LoDo bringing new life to the area when the Colorado Rockies move from Mile High Stadium | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 110 |
| 1995 | Denver Public Library reopens in a mostly new building designed by Michael Graves | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 113 |
| 1995 | The Quebec Nordiques move to Colorado and become the Colorado Avalanche | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 155 |
| 1995 | Major League Soccer comes to Denver when the Colorado Rapids become one of the league's ten original franchises; owned by Stan Kroenke | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 156 |
| 1995 | Denver International Airport opens on a 53-square-mile site northeast of Denver after delays and an expensive baggage system that was abandoned; it has a distinctive teflon coated roof resembling snow-capped peaks | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 184 |
| March 25, 1995 | Denver Public Library's central building reopens in a Michael Graves designed building that retained much of the original 1955 Burnam Hoyt structure | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |
| April 1, 1995 | Coors Field opens in Denver, but a player's strike delays the first official game until April 26 | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| June 11, 1995 | Denver International Airport (DIA) opens replacing Stapleton International Airport | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|--|
| December 28, 1995 | EchoStar Communications Corporation of Englewood launches its first satellite, Echostar I | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |
| 1996 | The hyperbolic paraboloid that housed part of the May D&F department store on 16th Street between Court Place and Tremont is razed and the department store gutted to make room for expanding the Adams Mark Hotel | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 49 |
| 1996 | Central City Register-Call ceases its weekly publication | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 191 |
| 1996 | Ute Indian Museum at 17253 Chipeta Drive south of Montrose gets an addition by Edward Chamberlin | Buildings of Colorado , Thomas J. Noel, 1997, p. 582 |
| 1996 | Colorado Avalanche wins the National Hockey League's Stanley Cup in their inaugural season | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xvii |
| 1996 | I.M. Pei's hyperbolic paraboloid, which was a fixture on 16th Street from the late 1950s as part of the May D&F department store, is demolished to make way for a new entrance to the Sheraton hotel | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 109 |
| 1996 | In their first season the Colorado Avalanche win the Stanley cup | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 155 |
| 1996 | Vail Associates, headquartered in Broomfield, is renamed Vail Resorts to manage its collection of ski areas including Vail, Beaver Creek, Arrowhead, Arapahoe Basin, Keystone & Breckenridge | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 159 |
| August 1, 1996 | Grand jurors' (89-2) lawyer filed a petition at the federal courthouse asking that the grand jurors be permitted to tell the story of what had happened behind closed doors of the Rocky Flats proceedings. | Westword , August 8, 1996 |
| May 20, 1996 | The U.S. Supreme Courts rules in Romer v. Evans that Colorado Amendment 2 approved by Colorado voters in 1992 violates the U.S. Constitution | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |
| June 7, 1996 | Arapahoe County officials dedicate Cheyenne/Arapaho Park at 9300 E. Iowa Avenue | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 15 |
| June 11, 1996 | The Colorado Avalanche defeat the Florida Panthers in four games to win the Stanley Cup in their first year in Denver after the franchise moved from Quebec | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |
| July 22, 1996 | Amy Van Dyken of Englewood wins her first of 6 Olympic Gold Medals in swimming at the Atlanta Olympics | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|--|--|
| September 11, 1996 | The Southern Pacific Transportation Company merges with UP Holding Company, Inc. to form the Union Pacific Corporation; the Southern Pacific Railroad becomes part of the Union Pacific Railroad | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |
| December 26, 1996 | The body of JonBenet Ramsey is found in the basement of her Boulder home; the murder of the 6-year-old remains unsolved in 2017 | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |
| 1997 | Colorado Rockies outfielder Larry Walker earns the National League's Most Valuable Player Award | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 153 |
| January 3, 1997 | Diana DeGette is sworn in to the U.S House of Representatives succeeding Patricia Schroeder | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |
| January 27, 1997 | An arson fire kills five at a residential motel, La Hacienda, in Thornton | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| June 19-22, 1997 | Summit of the Eight brings world leaders to Denver where they meet in the Denver Public Library | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xvii |
| June 20, 1997 | The Summit of the 8 opens in Denver with representatives of 8 nations meeting in the Denver Public Library | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |
| July 12, 1997 | A B-52 bomber on display at the former Lowry Air Force Base is damaged in an arson fire | Denver Fire Journal - retrieved July 22, 2015 at http://www.denverfirejournal.com/major-co-wy-fires.php |
| August 1, 1997 | New Century Energies, Inc. is formed by the merger of Public Service Company of Colorado and Southwestern Public Service, headquartered in Amarillo, Texas; the new company is headquartered in Denver | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |
| August 13, 1997 | An animated television series, South Park, debuts - set in an imaginary place in Colorado | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |
| 1998 | Denver Broncos win Super Bowl XXXII | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xvii |
| 1998 | The Denver Broncos defeat the Green Bay Packers 31-24 to capture their first Super Bowl trophy; crowds line the streets for a victory parade - the largest ever in Denver | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 150 |
| January 11, 1998 | Wildcard team Denver Broncos defeat the Pittsburgh Steelers 24-21 to win the American Football Conference Championship and advance to Super Bowl XXXII | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |
| January 25, 1998 | The Denver Broncos defeat the favored Green Bay Packers 31-24 in Super Bowl XXXII; running back Terrell Davis is named Most Valuable Player | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|---|--|
| June 5, 1998 | The United States Air Force renames Falcon Air Force Base Schriever Air Force Base | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |
| 1999 | Denver Broncos win back-to-back Super Bowls taking number XXXIII after which John Elways retires | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xvii |
| 1999 | Colorado General Assembly authorizes an additional plaque on the monument to Civil War dead erected in 1909 on the west side of the Colorado State Capitol correcting the term on the original plaque calling the 1864 Sand Creek Massacre a "battle" | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 16 |
| 1999 | Fitzsimons Hospital is closed by the army; the main building remained and the University of Colorado's Anschutz Medical Campus grew around it | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 101 |
| 1999 | The Denver Broncos rack up back to back Super Bowl wins by defeating the Atlanta Falcons 34-19 | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 150 |
| 1999 | Denver Bronco quarterback John Elway retires from football after 15 seasons | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 151 |
| 1999 | Metro-area voters extend the .01 percent sales tax that had been used to fund Coors Field in order to build a new stadium for the Broncos to play in | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 152 |
| January 12, 1999 | Bill Owens takes the oath as the 40th governor of Colorado | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |
| January 17, 1999 | The Denver Broncos defeat the New York Jets 23-10 to win the American Football Conference Championship | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |
| January 31, 1999 | The Denver Broncos defeat the Atlanta Falcons 34-19 in Super Bowl XXXIII giving them back to back Super Bowl wins in John Elways last game; he is chosen the Most Valuable Player | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |
| April 20, 1999 | Two students at Columbine High School in Jefferson County murder 12 classmates and a teacher before taking their own lives | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xvii |
| April 20, 1999 | Columbine High School is the scene of a mass shooting that kills 12 students and a teacher who are murdered by two students that take their own lives | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 191 |
| April 20, 1999 | Two students kill 12 classmates and a teacher before committing suicide at Columbine High School in Jefferson County; 24 other students are wounded | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|--|--|
| October 21, 1999 | President Clinton signs an act of Congress changing the Black Canyon of the Gunnison to a National Park and also creating the Gunnison Gorge National Conservation Area | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-29-2017 |
| 2000 | A coalition of individuals and groups buys the 21,000 acre Greenland Ranch just south of Larkspur to provide greenspace and prevent continuous development between Denver and Colorado Springs | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 119 |
| 2000 | Colorado legalizes medical marijuana by vote becoming the ninth state to do so | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 190 |
| April 1, 2000 | The federal census enumerates 4,301,262 people in Colorado; an increase of 30.56% since the 1990 census | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-28-2017 |
| April 7, 2000 | Transportation officials approve extending I-270's designation from I-76 northwest to the intersection of I-25 and US 36 | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-28-2017 |
| May 9, 2000 | The Denver Museum of Natural History changes its name to the Denver Museum of Nature and Science | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-28-2017 |
| June 9, 2000 | President Clinton signs a proclamation creating the Canyons of the Ancients National Monument | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-28-2017 |
| June 30, 2000 | U.S. West merges with Qwest Communications International, Inc. both headquartered in Denver | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-28-2017 |
| August 21, 2000 | Xcel Energy Inc. is formed by the merger of New Century Energies, Inc. and the Northern States Power Company with headquarters in Minneapolis | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-28-2017 |
| October 1, 2000 | The State of Colorado transfers Buckley Air National Guard Base back to the United States Air Force as Buckley Air Force Base | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-28-2017 |
| October 24, 2000 | President Bill Clinton signs an act creating the Colorado Canyons National Conservation Area and the Black Ridge Canyons Wilderness | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-28-2017 |
| 2001 | Colorado's 64th county, The City and County of Broomfield begins operating | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xvii |
| 2001 | Mile High Stadium, originally Bears Stadium, is razed when the new Invesco Field at Mile High opens | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 152 |
| 2001 | The Colorado Avalanche win their second Stanley Cup after only five years in Colorado | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 155 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|--|
| 2001 | The Colorado Department of Transportation (CDOT) begins a massive project to remake and enlarge I-25 from Santa Fe to Douglas County called a Transportation Expansion Project (T-REX) that added highway lanes and modified exchanges while adding light rail lines | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 182 |
| June 2001 | The southeast Denver metropolitan transportation project nicknamed T-Rex, which will widen I-25 and construct a light rail line along the highway, begins construction | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-28-2017 |
| June 9, 2001 | The Colorado Avalanche defeat the New Jersey Devils to win the Stanley Cup | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-28-2017 |
| November 15, 2001 | Broomfield County created from parts of Adams, Boulder, Jefferson and Weld Counties | Handybook for Genealogists , 11th edition, Everton Publishers, p. 88 |
| November 15, 2001 | The City and County of Broomfield is created from parts of Adams, Boulder, Weld, and Jefferson Counties forming a 33.6 square mile municipality | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 118 |
| November 15, 2001 | The Colorado General Assembly creates the City and County of Broomfield from portions of Boulder, Adams, Jefferson, & Weld counties | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-28-2017 |
| 2002 | Wildfires around Colorado, including the Hayman fire southwest of Denver, destroy hundreds of thousands of acres and kill nine people during this dry year | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xvii |
| 2002 | Bears Stadium/Mile High Stadium razed in Denver | Denver building timeline by Roger Dudley, December 31, 2014 |
| June 8, 2002 | A Forest Service technician starts a fire that erupts into the Hayman Fire in the mountains of central Colorado that will burn 216 square miles of forest, the most in Colorado history to this date | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-28-2017 |
| June 9, 2002 | The Missionary Ridge Fire starts burning in the mountains north of Durango and will burn 100 square miles of forest and destroy 56 homes | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-28-2017 |
| December 25, 2002 | Coors Brewing Co. agrees to buy Carling operations from Bass Brewers in England, making it one of the 10 largest breweries in the world | Denver Post article October 12, 2016, p. 1 |
| 2003 | John W. Hickenlooper Jr. is elected mayor of Denver; his first elective office after founding Colorado's first brewpub the Wynkoop Brewery after he lost his job as a geologist | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xvii |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|---|
| 2003 | John W. Hickenlooper Jr. is elected mayor of Denver; his first elective office after founding Colorado's first brewpub the Wynkoop Brewery; he resigns when he is elected Governor of Colorado in 2011 | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 143 |
| 2003 | Patrick Roy retires as the goalie for the Colorado Avalanche after leading them to two Stanley Cups | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 156 |
| 2003 | Dancers Jonathan Borofsky's skinny white fiberglass dancing figures standing some 60 feet high are placed on the lawn along Speer Boulevard near the Denver Center for the Performing Arts | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 177 |
| 2003 | A 44-foot tall blue bear is placed on the sidewalk looking into the window of the Colorado Convention Center at 14th and California; name of the sculpture is I See What You Mean by Lawrence Argent | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 177 |
| 2003 | A twenty-foot tall clump of bright green grass by sculptor Lawrence Argent welcomes motorists driving south on Broadway as they enter Englewood | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 177 |
| 2003 | A sixth runway is added to the Denver International Airport to accommodate the latest jumbo jets | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 184 |
| January 3, 2003 | The last segment of the E-470 toll road opens | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-28-2017 |
| 2003 | City Center Park is established in Aurora to try to create a sense of a town center with police headquarters, Central Library, a history museum and a large dome | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 122 |
| April 8, 2003 | Baca National Wildlife Refuge is established by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-28-2017 |
| July 18, 2003 | John Hickenlooper takes the oath as Mayor of Denver | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-28-2017 |
| November 24, 2003 | The Northwest Parkway toll road opens from Broomfield to the intersection of I-25 and E-470 | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-28-2017 |
| 2004 | The University of Colorado Health Science Center begins to move from its 8th Avenue and Colorado Boulevard location to the Anschutz Medical Campus on the grounds of the former Fitzsimons Army Hospital in Aurora | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xviii |
| 2004 | Predator Ridge opens at the Denver Zoo creating an expansive habitat for many species | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 113 |
| 2004 | Pirates Cove, a water park, opens on Belleview near Dry Creek in Englewood | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 126 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|---|---|
| 2004 | The city of Englewood creates a civic hub on the site of the former Villa Italia Mall at Wadsworth and Alameda | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 129 |
| 2004 | Stan Kroenke establishes Altitude Sports Network to televise Colorado Avalanche, Denver Nuggets and Colorado Rapids games | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 157 |
| September 13, 2004 | Secretary of the Interior Gale Norton signs an order elevating the Great Sand Dunes National Monument to the Great Sand Dunes National Park and Preserve | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-28-2017 |
| November 2, 2004 | Colorado native John Kerry is defeated for President by the incumbent George W. Bush | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-28-2017 |
| 2005 | Coors Brewing Company merges with Molson Brewing | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 51 |
| January 1, 2005 | An act of Congress changes the name of the Colorado Canyons National Conservation Area to the McInnis Canyons National Conservation Area | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-28-2017 |
| February 9, 2005 | Coors Brewing Co. completes merger with Molson making it the 5th largest brewing company in the world | Denver Post article October 12, 2016, p. 1 |
| April 12, 2005 | Rodolfo "Corky" Gonzales dies in Denver at age 76 of congestive heart failure | Rodolfo "Corky" Gonzales Papers, WH1971 finding aid, Denver Public Library, biographical note |
| June 13, 2005 | The Cussler Museum opens in Arvada | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-28-2017 |
| 2006 | A new wing of the Denver Art Museum, the Hamilton Wing, opens on W. 13th Avenue and Bannock designed by Daniel Libeskind | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 113 |
| 2006 | Luis Jiminez is killed when a statue he is crafting for the entrance to Denver International Airport falls on him in his studio; the controversial Blue Mustang stands 32-feet tall and has glaring red eyes | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 177 |
| July 28, 2006 | The North American Air Defense Command (NORAD) moves its Cheyenne Mountain operations to the Peterson Air Force Base outside of Colorado Springs | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-28-2017 |
| October 7, 2006 | The Frederic C. Hamilton wing of the Denver Art Museum opens; designed by Daniel Libeskind | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-28-2017 |
| November 7, 2006 | Colorado voters approve an amendment [2] to the state constitution banning same-sex marriage | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-28-2017 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|---|
| November 17, 2006 | The southeast Denver metropolitan transportation project nicknamed T-Rex which widened I-25 and constructed light rail lines along the highway is completed 22 months ahead of schedule | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-28-2017 |
| 2007 | Sand Creek Massacre site is dedicated as a National Historic Site thanks in part to the efforts of U.S. Senator Ben Nighthorse Campbell, a Northern Cheyenne | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 15 |
| 2007 | Dicks Sporting Goods Park opens as home to the Colorado Rapids Major League Soccer team | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 125 |
| 2007 | The Colorado Rockies win the National League pennant but lose to the Boston Red Sox in the World Series | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 153 |
| 2007 | The Colorado Rapids begin playing soccer in the new Dick's Sporting Good Park in Commerce City after playing their first 11 seasons at Mile High Stadium | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 156 |
| 2007 | A major league rugby team, the Glendale Raptors, begins playing at Infinity Park | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 157 |
| 2007 | Ghost Trolley , a sculpture by Lawrence Argent is placed on the median strip of East Colfax in old town Aurora | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 177 |
| January 9, 2007 | Bill Ritter takes the oath as Colorado's 41st governor | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-28-2017 |
| April 27, 2007 | The Sand Creek Massacre National Historic Site is established by the National Park Service | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-28-2017 |
| July 12, 2007 | Rocky Flats National Wildlife Refuge is established on the site of the former atomic trigger factory by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-28-2017 |
| August 2007 | The Anschutz Medical Campus of the University of Colorado Denver opens near the former Fitzsimons Army Hospital in Aurora | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-28-2017 |
| October 15, 2007 | The Colorado Rockies defeat the Arizona Diamondbacks in four games to win the National League Pennant; they face the Boston Red Sox in their first World Series | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-28-2017 |
| November 6, 2007 | Castle Pines North, now Castle Pines, incorporates | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-28-2017 |
| January 2, 2008 | EchoStar Communications of Englewood splits from EchoStar Corporation and Dish Network Corporation | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-25-2017 |
| February 16, 2008 | The Brad Washburn American Mountaineering Museum opens in Golden | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-25-2017 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|---|---|
| June 28, 2008 | Rusty the Rabbit, runs his last race at the Mile High Kennel Club; the mechanical wonder led greyhounds around the track since 1949 | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 172 |
| July 1, 2008 | SAB Miller and Molson Coors launch MillerCoors to manage U.S. operations | Denver Post article October 12, 2016, p. 1 |
| 2008 | Denver hosts the 2008 Democratic National Convention that nominates Barack Obama for president | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 189 |
| August 2008 | Denver hosts the Democratic National Convention, which nominates Barack Obama for president; he gives his acceptance speech at Denver's Mile High Stadium | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xviii |
| August 4, 2008 | Interstate 270 from I-70 to I-25 and U.S. 36 opens to traffic | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-25-2017 |
| August 13, 2008 | Jack Weil, founder and CEO of Rockmount Ranch Wear dies at his Denver home at the age of 107 | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-25-2017 |
| August 28, 2008 | Barack Obama accepts the nomination for president by the Democratic Party in a speech at Mile High Stadium | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-25-2017 |
| 2009 | After 149 years and ten months Denver's first newspaper, The Rocky Mountain News, ceases publication | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xviii |
| 2009 | History Colorado opens at 1200 Broadway; designed by David Tryba, a block from the site of the former Colorado History Museum, which was razed to make room for the Ralph Carr Judicial Center | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 113 |
| 2009 | Denver launches a large scale bike-sharing program - B-Cycle - to allow members to pickup a bike and ride to another location and place the bike in a locking rack ready for the next person to use | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 160 |
| January 3, 2009 | Mark Udall of Eldorado Springs assumes office as the junior U.S. Senator representing Colorado | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-25-2017 |
| January 21, 2009 | Michael Bennett assumes office as the junior U.S. Senator representing Colorado | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-25-2017 |
| February 27, 2009 | Rocky Mountain News (daily) ceases publishing in Denver | Rocky Mountain News , February 27, 2009 p. 1 |
| February 27, 2009 | The Rocky Mountain News publishes its last issue; the first newspaper in Colorado was just a few weeks short of its 150th anniversary in operation | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 191 |
| February 27, 2009 | The Rocky Mountain News ceases publishing just 55 days before its 150th anniversary | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-25-2017 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|--|--|
| October 15, 2009 | A hoax by a family near Fort Collins convinces media that their son is floating in a balloon over northeastern Colorado; it results in live coverage of the balloon on local and national television networks | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-25-2017 |
| 2010 | Mayor John W. Hickenlooper Jr. is elected Governor of Colorado; walking from his office in Denver's City and County Building across Civic Center Park to take the oath of office on the steps of the Colorado Capitol building | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xvii |
| 2010 | Adams County has a population of 441,603 when the 2010 census is enumerated | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 118 |
| 2010 | Arapahoe County has a population of 572,003 when the 2010 census is enumerated | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 118 |
| 2010 | Boulder County has a population of 294,567 when the 2010 census is enumerated | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 118 |
| 2010 | City and County of Broomfield has a population of 55,889 when the 2010 census is enumerated | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 118 |
| 2010 | The City and County of Denver has a population of 600,158 when the 2010 census is enumerated | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 118 |
| 2010 | Douglas County has a population of 285,465 when the 2010 census is enumerated | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 118 |
| 2010 | Jefferson County has a population of 534,543 when the 2010 census is enumerated | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 118 |
| 2010 | Boulder is ranked as Colorado's 11th largest city when the census is enumerated with 97,385 people | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 123 |
| 2010 | The new town of Centennial is ranked the 10th largest city in Colorado with just over 100,000 people | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 125 |
| 2010 | Lakewood is Colorado's 5th largest city with 142,980 people enumerated in the census | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 128 |
| 2010 | Littleton's population reaches 41,737 when the census is enumerated | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 131 |
| 2010 | Thornton is Colorado's 6th largest city with over 120,000 people enumerated in the census | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 131 |
| 2010 | When this census was taken Denver had a Hispanic or Latino population of 190,965 or 32 percent | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 147 |
| 2010 | Prairie Waters Project captures, moves, purifies and reuses water for Aurora | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 186 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|--|---|
| April 1, 2010 | The U.S. Census is enumerated and determines the population of Colorado to be 5,029,196, an increase of 16.92% since the 2000 census | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-25-2017 |
| September 6, 2010 | The Fourmile Canyon Fire begins west of Boulder; it will destroy 169 homes before it is contained | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-25-2017 |
| October 14, 2010 | Workers in Snowmass Village uncover a trove of Pleistocene fossils while excavating for a reservoir | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-25-2017 |
| 2011 | Coors Light surpasses Budweiser as the nations second-largest beer by volume | Denver Post article October 12, 2016, p. 1 |
| 2011 | Clyfford Still Museum opens at 1250 Bannock to house a large collection of his works; designed by Brad Cloepfil | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 113 |
| 2011 | Cuban born Bill Vidal becomes Mayor when John W. Hickenlooper resigns to become Colorado's governor | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 143 |
| 2011 | Pro Cycling Challenger Race is begun in Colorado which draws nearly a million fans around the state | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 160 |
| January 12, 2011 | Deputy Mayor Bill Vidal takes office as Mayor of Denver when John Hickenlooper resigns to become Governor of Colorado; Hickenlooper walks from the City and County Building through Civic Center Park to the State Capitol where he takes the oath of office | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-25-2017 |
| January 12, 2011 | Mayor of Denver John Hickenlooper resigns to become Governor of Colorado; he walks from the City and County Building through Civic Center Park to the State Capitol where he takes the oath of office as governor | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-25-2017 |
| April 1, 2011 | Century Link completes acquisition of Qwest Communications for $24 billion | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-25-2017 |
| July 18, 2011 | Michael Hancock assumes office as Mayor of Denver | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-25-2017 |
| September 23, 2011 | Occupy Denver begins a protest of the growing disparity of wealth and power in the U.S. | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-25-2017 |
| November 18, 2011 | The Clyfford Still Museum opens in Denver | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-25-2017 |
| 2012 | Toyota Elephant Passage opens at the Denver Zoo | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 113 |
| 2012 | Patrick Roy, former goalie for the Colorado Avalanche, is hired as their head coach | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 156 |
| 2012 | Colorado legalizes the recreational use of marijuana becoming the first state to do so | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 190 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|---|---|
| April 28, 2012 | The History Colorado Center opens in Denver | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-25-2017 |
| June 9, 2012 | A lightning strike west of Fort Collins starts the High Park Fire that will destroy 257 homes | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-25-2017 |
| June 23, 2012 | The Waldo Canyon fire begins west of Colorado Springs which burns 347 homes, some in Colorado Springs | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-25-2017 |
| June 25, 2012 | A fire ignites near Last Chance that will burn 5 homes and 69 square miles of grassland in a few hours | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-25-2017 |
| July 20, 2012 | Aurora Theatre massacre leaves 12 dead and seventy injured when a single deranged gunman opens fire during the premiere of a Batman movie | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xviii |
| July 20, 2012 | Twelve people are killed and 70 injured when a gunman opens fire at the Century 16 midnight premier showing of "Batman: The Dark Knight Rises"; the murder receives 12 life sentences when his insanity plea is not supported | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 123 |
| July 20, 2012 | A deranged shooter kills 12 people and wounds 60 others at a midnight showing at the Aurora 12 Theater | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 191 |
| July 20, 2012 | A gunman opens fire at the midnight premier of The Dark Knight Rises at an Aurora theater killing 12 and wounding 70, the largest mass shooting to date in the U.S. | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-25-2017 |
| July 30, 2012 | Missy Franklin of Centennial wins the first of four gold medals she will garner at the Olympic games in London | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-25-2017 |
| September 21, 2012 | President Barack Obama creates Chimney Rock National Monument in the San Juan National Forest | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-25-2017 |
| November 6, 2012 | Voters approve Amendment 64 to the Colorado Constitution allowing possession of small amounts of cannabis for recreational use | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-25-2017 |
| November 21, 2010 | The Colorado Rapids defeat FC Dallas to win the Major League Soccer Cup Championship | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-25-2017 |
| March 19, 2013 | Tom Clements, Executive Director of the Colorado Department of Corrections, is assassinated at his home in Monument | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-22-2017 |
| March 20, 2013 | Governor John Hickenlooper signs three bills aimed at curbing firearm violence | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-22-2017 |
| May 1, 2013 | Civil unions become legal in Colorado by act of the General Assembly | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-22-2017 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|--------------------|--|---|
| June 5, 2013 | Lightning ignites a fire near Wolf Creek Pass, the West Fork Complex Fire burns 171 square miles of forest | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-22-2017 |
| June 11, 2013 | Lightning ignites the Big Meadows Fire in Rocky Mountain National Park | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-22-2017 |
| June 13, 2013 | A fire ignites in the Black Forest and becomes the most destructive fire in state history with 486 homes destroyed by June 20 | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-22-2017 |
| July 18, 2013 | Buildings and the aerial tramway at Royal Gorge Park are destroyed by a fire that began June 11 | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-22-2017 |
| 2013 | Floods destroy many homes in the mountains and in Boulder and cutting off Estes Park via highways 34 and 7 | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xviii |
| September 2013 | Some 17 inches of rains drench Boulder, Estes Park and other communities causing devastating floods of Lyons, Longmont and other places downstream; US 36 and US 34 are closed for a time isolating Estes Park | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 188 |
| September 10, 2013 | State Senate President John Morse and State Senator Angela Giron are removed from office in a recall election because of their votes in favor of smaller magazines for firearms and stricter background checks | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-22-2017 |
| September 12, 2013 | Floods along Colorado's front range kill 9 people and cause $2.9 billion in damage with 30,000 homes damaged and 1,800 destroyed | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-22-2017 |
| 2014 | Private recreational use of marijuana for those over 21 begins in Colorado following the 2012 amendment to the Colorado Constitution | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xviii |
| 2014 | The Denver Broncos return to the Super Bowl with Peyton Manning at quarterback, but suffer a lopsided loss to the Seattle Seahawks | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 151 |
| 2014 | Volunteers rescue Rusty the Rabbit from the trash heap and preserve him at the Commerce City Historical Society at 6505 E. 60th Avenue along with artifacts from Adams City High School | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 172 |
| 2014 | The average price for recreational cannabis in Colorado is $60 for an eighth of an ounce | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 191 |

| Date | Event | Source |
|-------------------|--|---|
| January 1, 2014 | Colorado becomes the first state to offer recreational marijuana when an amendment to the state constitution goes into effect | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-22-2017 |
| February 21, 2014 | Mikaela Shiffrin of Vail wins the women's giant slalom Olympic gold medal in Sochi, Russia | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-22-2017 |
| May 25, 2014 | Three men are killed near Collbran when 40 million cubic feet of earth break loose on Grand Mesa | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-22-2017 |
| July 26, 2014 | Denver's Union Station reopens after a $56 million redevelopment as a transportation hub | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-22-2017 |
| October 6, 2014 | Colorado Attorney General John Suthers declares same-sex marriages will be legal when legal stays can be lifted | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-22-2017 |
| 2015 | Union Station is remade as a shopping mall and hotel and to serve as a transportation hub for light rail, airport train service, and Amtrak routes going east and west | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 110 |
| 2015 | The Denver Broncos return to Super Bowl 50 to face the undefeated Carolina Panthers with aging quarterback Peyton Manning playing his last game; the Bronco defense keeps the Panther offense throttled and score the first touchdown of the game that the Broncos win 24-10 | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 151 |
| 2015 | After 25 years some 4,000 projects had received $47 million from the State Historical Fund created with gambling money | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 166 |
| 2015 | Denver had more than 330 individually designated landmarks by this year | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 167 |
| 2015 | Denver's Union Station is renovated and the upper floors become the Crawford Hotel; numerous restaurants and stores fill the new transportation hub | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 168 |
| 2015 | A hotel is added south of the terminal of Denver International Airport | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 184 |
| 2015 | The average price for recreational cannabis in Colorado is $38 for an eighth of an ounce | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 191 |
| January 2, 2015 | Cory Gardner becomes Colorado's junior senator | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-22-2017 |
| February 19, 2015 | President Barack Obama creates Browns Canyon National Monument in Chaffee County | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-22-2017 |
| 2016 | Denver Broncos win Super Bowl 50; quarterback Peyton Manning announces his retirement in March | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xviii |

| Date | Event | Source |
|------------------|--|---|
| 2016 | Rail lines open serving Denver International Airport from Denver's Union Station; problems with electricity and crossing gates at intersections prompts delays in opening service to Arvada, Westminster and Wheat Ridge | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. xviii |
| 2016 | By this year the Regional Transportation District (RTD) encompassed more than 75 miles of rail reaching from Lincoln Avenue in the South in Douglas County and Mineral Avenue on the Santa Fe Drive; Golden was served as well as Denver International Airport | A Short History of Denver , Stephen Leonard & Thomas J. Noel, 2016, p. 183 |
| January 24, 2016 | Denver Broncos defeat the New England Patriots 20-18 for the American Conference title and advance to their 8th Super Bowl | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-22-2017 |
| February 7, 2016 | Denver Broncos defeat the Carolina Panthers 24-10 in Super Bowl 50; quarterback Peyton Manning's last game | Timeline of Colorado History, Wikipedia, retrieved 3-22-2017 |
| October 11, 2016 | MolsonCoors purchases the 58 percent interest of SAB Miller in MillerCoors returning local control to the brewing operations of the Golden Company | Denver Post article October 12, 2016, p. 1 |