Aldermanic Bill No.4

Introduced by Alderman Emery

As amended by the Board of Aldermen.

A bill for an ordinance naming certain streets and avenues, and adopting a system of numbering for houses west of the Platte River in the City of Denver.

Be it enacted by the City Council of the City of Denver:

Section 1. WHEREAS, the annexation of the City of Highlands and the Town of Barnum to the City of Denver has made it necessary to change the names of certain streets and avenues, and to adopt a new system of numbering upon all the streets and avenues west of the Platte River in the City of Denver, except in the Congressional Grant; therefore

All streets west of Gallup Avenue, extending both north and south of West Ellsworth Avenue, shall be known south of West Ellsworth Avenue by the same named assigned north of said avenue, with the word "South " prefixed; thus, Gallup Avenue south of West Ellsworth Avenue will be known as South Gallup Avenue; Clay Street, south of West Ellsworth Avenue as South Clay Street, etc.

Section 4. The decimal system of numbering streets and avenues in all the territory of the city lying north of and west of the Platte River and west of Gallup Avenue is hereby adopted, beginning with West Ellsworth Avenue on the south with zero and assigning one hundred numbers between each numbered avenue northward, the numbers to be used between any avenues running east and west are to commence with the number of the avenue on the south, multiplied by one hundred, making West Colfax Avenue the commencement of fifteen hundreds; Agate Avenue, now West 23rd Avenue, 2,300; Highland Avenue, now West 26th Avenue, 2,600; West Prospect Avenue, now West 38th Avenue, 3,800; etc. Also beginning at the center line of Broadway, produced north, the same being in the center of Burlington Street, in Burlington Addition, and Garrison Street in Higby's Addition, which last mentioned streets shall hereafter be known as Broadway, the number to begin at said last mentioned street with zero and assigning 100 numbers to each block westward, making Quincy Street 400, Edmund Street, 1,000, Justina Street 1,300, Clear Creek 1,700, Gallup Avenue 2,400, Clay St., formerly 4th St., 2,700; Boulevard 3,000; Homer Boulevard, formerly Homer Avenue, 3,600; Tennyson St., formerly 21st St., 4,400; Sheridan Avenue, 5,200; on streets running north and south the odd numbers shall be upon the west side; on avenues running east and west, the odd numbers shall be upon the north side.

Section 5. Blocks approximately double the ordinary frontage shall contain two hundred numbers and in all undivided tracts of land intervening between land laid out in blocks, the lines of streets shall be considered as crossing in regular combination of streets in adjoining additions.

Section 6. In all cases of mistake or conflicts in name or numbers, or where some special arrangement is necessary in consequence of irregularity of streets or avenues, or want of uniformity in the size of blocks, the City Engineer shall direct and make the proper adjustment in accordance with the spirit and intention of this ordinance.

Section 7. The blue print exhibited to the City Council with this ordinance and identified by the signature of the City Engineer, under date of February 4th A. D. 1897, is hereby adopted as the basis of the numbering of said streets and avenues, and the same shall be filed and kept in the office of the City Engineer aforesaid.

Section 8. The City Engineer shall assign to each house in the territory above described, its proper number, and upon application, shall deliver free of charge, to the owner or occupant thereof, a certificate designating the number.

Section 9. The Board of Public Works of the City of Denver is hereby authorized and directed to cause the names of all the above mentioned streets and avenues to be conspicuously posted at the intersections of said streets and avenues, the cost therefore to be paid out of such fund as may hereafter be provided and designated by the City Council and Mayor.

Section 10. All Ordinances or parts of Ordinances in conflict with this Ordinance are hereby repealed.
